

HEARTH & BOUDOIR

Violent Outbreak of Checks.

The New Indian Cashmeres Make Charming Costumes—Large Variety of Jackets.

Paris, September 14. It seemed last season that all the world would wear of stripes and checks, visible and invisible, but with the autumn they are here again.

about the edges with bands of finely tucked silk, bordered with an inch wide braid of the same color.

The influence of the taste of the Japanese is obvious in the new cash, a broad soft ribbon beginning at the natural line of the waist.

A new and extremely pretty little fancy for wear with a severe tailored costume to finish the starched linen collar is a cravat of colored batista, with a rabat Valenciennes lace.

THE BLACK VELVET NOTE. For the first cool days of autumn a simple yet elegant costume is of pale toned cashmere; the skirt is laid from the hips to the knees in shallow box pleats, stitched their whole length.

A long skirt of maroon cashmere hangs in clusters of small side pleats, and is quite untrimmed. It is adjusted a trifle shorter waited, and finished with a narrow, soft grade of the material.

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN. The blouse suit is so essentially becoming to small boys and so entirely satisfactory that every fresh variation is welcomed.

WHEN IN GERMANY. BE SURE TO SEE GRÜNFELD'S LINEN STORE, 20, 21, Leipziger Street, Berlin, W. OWN MILLS: LANDESHUT, SILKES.

LITTLE MEN AND LITTLE WOMEN

The Haunted House. A PRIZE STORY.

On one of the islands in Pendrecht Bay, on the Maine coast, is situated a large house which has been called for many years "The Haunted House."

One summer a party of us were staying at a house almost opposite the island, and naturally our first thought was to visit this haunted house.

Two members of the party were fast becoming nervous, when the captain, who had all this time been examining the door, happened to touch a spring, and the door swung open.

Dear Editor: I wish to thank you for putting my name on the Tribune Postcard Exchange. I have received about one hundred and twenty-two cards during the last month.

Dear Editor: Will you please enter my name on the Postcard Exchange? I would rather not exchange comic cards. Yours truly, GTS' BROWN.

Dear Editor: Will you kindly enter my name and address on the Post Card Exchange? I enjoy the page for the children very much.

THIS WEEK'S PRIZE WINNERS.

Geographical Puzzle.—Salt Lake, Spokane, Boise City, Miles City, Flagstaff and Mount Hood are the correct answers to this puzzle.

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

Vacation Letter Box.

Dear Editor: My vacation is over now and I am working hard, but I will not forget the many good times I had. My friend Lulu came to stay with me for a short time this summer, and she, my sister and I were always looking for some new way to enjoy ourselves.

Dear Editor: I spent my vacation at Muskogee, Okla. First, I must tell you how it came to have such a strange name.

Dear Editor: My vacation was such a delightful treat and one to be remembered by me that I feel sure it will interest some of the Little Men and Little Women.

Dear Editor: I want to tell you about my vacation. I had such a nice time!

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

Dear Editor: I am very much interested in reading The New York Tribune, and more so in the Postcard Exchange, as I write and ask you if you would kindly put my name on the Postcard Exchange.

CROSS DIAMOND. The central each way spell word applied to the periodical movements of all animals, but especially to those of birds and fishes.

Things to Think About. 1. If you like, we will give you a gold and persuade the other stars of the zodiac, but I would rather stay here and listen to the... a secret drawer in a great fortune which she had never expected to...

PRIZE DRAWINGS OF A "LITTLE GIRL FLYING A KITE." Tuckahoe, N. Y.; 50 Randolph Mason, Bound Brook, N. J.; Eugene Milbank, No. 34 Halsey street, New York City; 110 West 114th Street, New York City; 120 Lincoln Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.; 42 Lillian M. Stitt, No. 48 Lenox avenue, Bridgeport, Conn.; 42 West 114th Street, New York City; 48 Lillian Pifer, Stuyvesant, N. Y.; 21 Clara Turner, No. 181 West 126th Street, New York City; 47 Bay View, No. 27 St. John's Place, Brooklyn; 48 Elsie Wergen, No. 125 Putnam Avenue, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; 48 Ellen Wood, No. 111 Urban Street, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; 48 Arthur A. Cookley, No. 48 Jefferson Avenue, Elizabeth, N. J.