

THE INTEREST OF WOMEN

WHEN MOTHER'S AWAY

One Little Girl Made Drunk by Careless Neighbors.

Among the sixty day nurseries of greater New York, there are stories of actual happenings afoot which cast floods of light on the conditions which make day nurseries necessary.

Three whose last relative has died. The responses to date are: Mrs. R. M. 1106, 225; Mrs. Felix M. Warburg, 250.

God has all instruments for His own. It is man that is narrow and can accept no harvest, unless his patent has been used in cultivating the soil.

SPECIAL CHEER. Mrs. G. L. S., of New Jersey, who is always ready to respond to any need of sunshine, has sent her check for $5 toward the funeral expenses of the crippled boy.

THE "SHUT-IN" BRANCH. Mrs. S. Bernstein, of Philadelphia, president, has an extensive membership exclusively among "shut-ins."

SUNSHINE RESULTS. George Ormsbee, living on a ranch in Wyoming, writes that the appeal for reading matter in the T. S. S. Column "has produced charming results."

WHAT ELSE OVERCAME. Miss Marjory Hall, now in charge of the headquarters of the New York Association of Day Nurseries, is the daughter of the Virginia Nursery, in 5th street, for fourteen years.

RESPONSES. Mrs. Bailey, of Coxsack, N. Y., has sent a package of bread and thread to Miss Phoebe Boughman, an invalid member of Cuba, Ill., to complete the Battenberg work, upon the sale of which she depends for her support.

WANTS SHOES. Miss Olmstead, president of No. 11 branch, says: "I have some children who are badly in need of shoes, sizes 6, 9, 10 and 11. Two of these little ones come to the nursery with overalls on."

NEW MEMBERS. Because of some helpful act, the new members enrolled from May to August in the general roll book of 1906, and not connected with any of the branches, are: Mrs. T. R. Harris, Eugene Whitney, Mrs. John Clarence Shaw, Mrs. E. C. Mrs. C. H. Lyon, Miss Emily J. Bryson, Mrs. E. J. Haight, Mrs. H. L. Smith, Mrs. E. E. Reed, Mrs. J. J. Hart, Mrs. Hayward Beach, Mrs. E. A. Fish, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mrs. J. D. Brooker, Mrs. E. F. Root, G. H. Hall, Jr., Mrs. M. C. Hall, Miss Jeanette C. Mitchell, Mrs. G. F. Merchant, Miss L. E. Leighton, Mrs. J. H. Howard, J. D. Brooker, Miss Josephine A. Breen, Miss Cora M. Babcock, Mrs. E. J. Foster, Mrs. J. D. Beale, W. Dan Watkinson, Mrs. J. H. Howard, J. D. Brooker, Miss A. Ada Brennan, H. H. and C. A. Miller, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Knowles, Mrs. Sarah W. Adams, the Rev. G. H. Sims, Mrs. G. C. Clark, Mrs. H. S. Sill, Mrs. C. E. Clark, Miss Constance Lord, Mrs. William G. Elmer, Mrs. J. Olmstead, Mrs. Todd, Josephine Bates, Miss Edith Bennett and Miss Jones.

FLOWERS. A box of brilliant autumn flowers was received yesterday from Mrs. Daniel P. Morse, of Northport Harbor, Long Island. There were dahlias, cosmos, nasturtiums, nigella, etc.

APPEALS FOR CHARITY. The Charity Organization Society appeals for $50 to assist the return to Austria, where a brother will care for them, of a widow and one child. At fifty, she finds herself unable through ill health to earn her living. The sale of the household goods did not bring sufficient to pay expenses to Vienna.

REPROCESSING. "Reprocessing" is one of the many gentle arts practiced by the people who supply the American nation with food. When canned stuffs spoil they are subjected to treatment that destroys the outward appearance of decay, but makes the food more fit for consumption than it was before.

LETTER IN BASKET OF PEACHES. Dear Miss Corcoran: I regret to inform you that the basket of peaches you had sent me has been found to contain a letter from a woman who had written to me in regard to the sale of her house.

Organ playing is recommended by a woman organist as a panacea for many ills. Of all physical ailments, she says, none is at once so enjoyable and helpful as organ playing.

Dear Sir: Having been informed that Miss. Clairon has had the insolence and has been making an attempt to solicit one of the King's decorations, to which I write you this letter in the name of entities her. I write to look her up in your good prison of Le Fort and make her understand that she is not to be able for her to teach a lesson. By so doing, however, one of your men will have to conduct her to the Comedie Française, in order that the public shall not be deprived of the pleasure of applauding the talent of this indiscreet woman.

SHORT OFFICE. HARD ON HOUSEHOLDERS.

City Suffers in Spite of Shipments from Maine.

Two thousand tons of ice from Kennebec, Me., were brought into port yesterday on the barge Caspene, and that was the only relief in the ice situation. "It was at least seen as through tomorrow," said President Wesley M. Over of the American Ice Company, when informed of it by the Tribune. "In fact," he continued, "I think I may say that we are all right for the next week, for there is little doubt that other barges will get in, now that the wind has changed and swept away the fog that has delayed them."

Mr. Over's optimistic attitude was not that of the average New Yorker, for very real was the distress caused on Saturday and yesterday by the shortage. Quite early in the summer the various wholesale ice dealers gave notice that the practice of selling a double quantity to the retailers on Saturdays would be abandoned. The "wagon men," as the retailers are known in the trade, had been accustomed to lay in an extra supply for their customers to carry them over Sunday, and when this practice was abandoned much annoyance was caused.

Yesterday was the first Sunday this summer that it has been impossible to obtain a glass of beer at a saloon in the city. The saloons were closed at 10 o'clock, and no one in ten was able to supply cold beer yesterday.

At the office of the manager of supply stations of the American Ice Company it was said that a boat with 125 tons of ice was expected to arrive from the morning west at 4 o'clock, but it probably would not arrive until 10 o'clock.

Asked if his company was asking more for their commodity than in the past, Mr. Over said: "I have time and again said, this shortage was foreseen quite early in the year. Then we adopted a schedule of prices for the summer, and the result, no matter what happened, the last rate we made was in July, when the price was made 40 cents a hundred pounds, delivered to large users, and 25 cents to those who took the ice away in their own wagons. Since that time we have not had a raise, and will not."

As was pointed out in The Tribune some months ago, the shortage in the ice crop are the artificial character of the market. The ice crop in the State of Maine is greater than in any other State, and the plants in greater New York is somewhere between five thousand and six thousand tons a day, which is a very large quantity.

LITTLE ICE IN MAINE. Practically None To Be Secured After Diligent Search.

Portland, Me., Sept. 23.—Colonel Herman M. Castner, of the Governor's staff, an ice harvester of this city, who has been purchasing ice wherever he could find any in Maine, and shipping it to various points, returned to-night from a tour through the State.

Purchaser's Son Thinks Writer Must Be Another Kind of "Peach." Police Captain Edward Walling, of the Oak street station, was the subject on Saturday last of at least a slight suspicion on the part of his wife, but last night the captain said that the matter had been settled in a manner perfectly satisfactory to Mrs. Walling.

The Wanamaker Store Store Closes at 5:30 P. M.

An Important Affair In FINE FURNITURE

Very shortly our Furniture Store will remove to the new Wanamaker Building. The approach of this event is the cause of the following announcement.

For ten years our Furniture Store has been on the Fourth floor of the Stewart Building. This floor now commands by right most serious attention.

To fulfill the policy heretofore announced, that the new Furniture Store will begin business with a complete, perfect and new stock, we have assembled

First—Odd Pieces that Remain from Broken Suites Second—Various Suites and Separate Pieces that Are Made from Closed Designs Third—Samples and Pieces Made from Experimental Designs Fourth—Shopworn or Slightly Damaged Pieces

This offering of superior Furniture appeals to collectors of quaint and beautiful pieces, to homemakers, to household economists. Bedrooms, Parlors, Libraries, Dens, Dining-rooms, Halls, are all represented so extensively that a house may be furnished entire with selection that will be complementary altho not en suite.

Prices Are Reduced One-Half This is simple, actual, real. Any exceptions will be less than half. Prices supply the dynamo for the desired double-quick movement. The case is perfectly reasonable. We give the plain reason why we are anxious to lose money.

Each piece of Furniture in this collection bears a large card which gives original price, reduced price and the following:

The article to which this card is attached is offered at half price to save cost of removal to the new Wanamaker Building. Because of the low price, it is sold "AS-IS," and no claim will be allowed upon any condition of the furniture existing at the time of sale; neither will Exchange or Refund of the purchase price be permitted. Therefore EXAMINE CAREFULLY.

Delivery will be made as promptly as our large but over-taxed delivery service will permit. Nothing can be held for future delivery.

Some of the articles are in duplicate. Hundreds are single pieces. If, however, the particular piece you desire is sold before you come, you may yet have choice from a large collection of the same class of furniture.

The Last Week of the China Sale

We propose that this last week of the September Sale of China and Cut Glass shall be the liveliest of the month. New lines have been brought forward of many of the strongest offerings which the Sale has presented.

In Dinner Sets we make new prices today on a number of splendid varieties not previously reduced. In Cut Glass we take a magnificent collection that comes from one of the factories whose output we control, and cut the prices a full third from the figures they bore formerly, when they were already a quarter under-price. This means that this superb collection is offered today at just half the real values.

There are also fine new groups of Fancy China at half price. This is the time for housekeepers to secure their own supplies as well as to select holiday and wedding gifts at a third to a half below what they will cost later. The details follow:

- Dinner Sets: At $12, from $25.00—Fine English Porcelain Dinner Sets of 110 pieces, in eight floral decorations, and all pieces gilt. At $15, worth $35—Pine China Dinner Sets of 100 pieces, with gold edge; soup tureen and three large meat platters. At $8.50, worth $15—American Porcelain Dinner Sets of 100 pieces, with full flower decoration; all pieces gilt; soup tureen and three meat dishes. A regular $20 set. At $20, from $35—Charles Field Hartland Dinner Sets of 101 pieces, in fine flower design and all handles rich; soup tureen and three large meat dishes. A regular $35 set. At $20, from $35—Charles Field Hartland Dinner Sets of 101 pieces, in fine flower design and all handles rich; soup tureen and three large meat dishes. A regular $35 set. Japanese Drawn-Work—Linen

These fine Irish linen was first shipped direct from Ireland to Japan. Once in that country the deft fingers of the Japs soon transformed it into its present beautiful state. It was then sent to this country, and we now offer you an opportunity to procure some at prices seldom seen or thought of in connection with work and quality of this character.

- 15 x 18 in., at 75c, worth 85c. 18 x 24 in., at 80c, worth 1.15. 24 x 36 in., at 85c, worth 1.50. 30 x 48 in., at 90c, worth 1.80. 36 x 60 in., at 95c, worth 2.15. These pieces have had a remarkable journey, but the time has come for them to find a home. Thousands of women will welcome the wanderers with joy.

The Coward Arch Prop Shoe. This shoe is the only practical remedy for "Flat Foot" or "Weak Instep," a form of foot trouble that is becoming quite common. It is frequently mistaken for rheumatism on account of the shooting pains it causes in the foot and leg. "Flat Foot" results from a gradual breaking down of the arch and instep and is generally caused by prolonged walking or standing.

CLEANSE YOURS. One of the most fashionable physicians of Manhattan has been exposing the futility of that "cure," and no doubt there are other health resorts to which his words would apply equally well. So the physician has advised that the so-called invalids of Manhattan be given a course of treatment at his place, and he has advised that the so-called invalids of Manhattan be given a course of treatment at his place.

RUGS of the Orient

These strangely artistic rugs, that seem to know no wear-out, grow more and more into popular favor each year. Once counted a luxury, today they are known to be the most economical of all floor-coverings.

Our new Oriental Rug Store, on the Fifth floor of the new Wanamaker Building, now presents a remarkable collection of old and new pieces. Of special interest, at this time, is this group of about five hundred Carpet size Rugs, comprising all good grades from Persia, Turkey, and India.

Large varieties and many unusual sizes—fine Antiques, and rugs of the old weaves. Small and medium sizes of Fereghan, Sirook, Kirmanshah, Sereshah, Mosul and Daghestan.

Then here are some special offerings, at much below usual fair prices:

- 200 Kurdish Mosul Rugs: In old and new qualities, 5 feet to 7 feet 8 inches long by 1 feet to 4 feet wide. At $3, worth $15. At $10, worth $18. At $12, worth $18 to $20.
- Persian Savalan Rugs: 10 ft. 7 in. x 11 ft. 8 in. worth $240, at $148. 14 ft. 4 in. x 7 ft. worth $90, at $48. 12 ft. 4 in. x 8 ft. 7 in. worth $105, at $78. 14 ft. 11 in. x 10 ft. 9 in. worth $240, at $148. 12 ft. 2 in. x 7 ft. 2 in. worth $90, at $58. 13 ft. 8 in. x 8 in. worth $135, at $78. 13 ft. x 9 ft. 8 in. worth $125, at $78.
- 25 Goravan Rugs: From about 9 x 12 feet, at $105, to 11 x 15 feet, at $235. About a third under regular value. Fifth floor, Wanamaker Building.

New Apparel for Women

The incoming steamers from Europe last week were heavily laden with merchandise for Wanamaker's. They brought many superb new coats and suits for women, which we are proud to display this morning. Our experts spent many weeks in selecting and planning these models in addition our stocks have been largely increased by American-made garments, many of which are copied from selected foreign models.

New tailor-built suits of broadcloth, chevots, plaid, checked and striped suitings and mixtures, with Eton, short, semi-fitting military coats and blouse jackets, variously priced at $15 to $85.

Long fitted coat suits, at $25 to $80. Imported broadcloth suits, at $50 to $150. The collection of Women's Coats includes every variety correct for this season's wear, and this means practically every good variety of coat that women wear from tweed coats at $3 to the superb opera wraps at $140.

The same lavish variety in Separate Skirts for women at prices ranging from $5 to $18 each. Second floor, Broadway, Stewart Building.
