DUTCHESS VOTE LOWER.

Hearst Carries Poughkeepsie—Chanler Stirs Up Democrats.

[By Telegram to The Tribune.] Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The city of Poughkeepsie complete gives Hughes 2,538 and Hearst 3,082, making Hearst's majority 244. Returns from Dutchess County came in slowly. They indicated great Democratic gains, due to Republican disaffection and a vigorous campaign by Democrats under the leadership of Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler and Robert Winthrop Chanler, who live in this county and have been fighting the Republican organization for four years.

The whole Democratic county ticket, headed by R. W. Chanler for Sheriff, is elected. Major John K. Sague, Democrat, is elected Mayor of Poughkeepsie by 1,885 plurality, defeating George M. Hine, who was running for his fourth term. Democratic gains on the local ticket will probably keep the Hughes plurality below 1,500. Congress, State Senate and Assembly candidates are in doubt. Frederick Northrup, Democrat, is probably elected to the Assembly from the 2d District of Dutchess.

NORTH COUNTRY STRONG.

Republicans Elect Senate, Assembly and Congress Candidates.

[By Telegram to The Tribune.] Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Jefferson County will give Hughes 4,850 plurality. Charles L. Knapp is re-elected Congressman in the Jefferson-Lewis-Oswego district by 8,000 plurality. George H. Cobb is re-elected Senator in the Jefferson-Lewis district by 6,000 plurality. Fred Boshart is elected to the Assembly in Lewis County. George R. Malby, of Ogdensburg, is elected Congressman in the St. Lawrence-Franklin district by over 1,000 plurality. William T. O'Neill is elected State Senator to succeed Malby in the St. Lawrence-Franklin district. F. J. Gray and E. A. Merritt are elected Assemblymen in St. Lawrence County. All of the foregoing candidates are Republicans. St. Lawrence County will give Hughes 7,500 plurality. Lewis County will give Hughes 1,100 plurality.

HEARST CARRIES TROY.

Labor Cuts Republican Vote in Rensselaer and Washington.

[By Telegram to The Tribune.] Troy, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Complete returns in the city give Hearst 8,937 and Hughes 8,790. For Assembly F. C. Pilley (Rep.) gets 7,334 and Nolan (Dem.) 6,370. The city give Higgins a plurality two years ago of 4,000. The defection is due to the labor vote.

Eugene R. Norton, of Granville, is elected to the Assembly from Washington County. The normal Republican plurality of 3,500 in Washington County was reduced to 2,800 because of the vote in labor centres. Fort Edwards, in which Governor Higgins got 250, went for Hearst by 59. In Greenwich, Cambridge, Granville and Whitehall Hearst made gains. In Rensselaer County Hughes will have a plurality of from 1,800 to 2,000.

GOOD WORK OF POLICE.

Bingham Will Give Every Patrolman Extra Day Off.

Commissioner Bingham of the Police Department said late last night that he was very well satisfied with the way the police had done their duty in greater New York. General Bingham said: "The police did good work and deserve the greatest praise for it. We have not had a single complaint all day, and we have had no report of any riot. I am particularly pleased with what Inspector Cortright tells me. He says that in his forty years' experience he cannot remember so peaceful an election. The men worked like the devil. We have had five hundred men in reserve here all day, but there has not been a single cause to use them."

UTAH.

Republicans Elect State Ticket by Usual Plurality.

Salt Lake, Nov. 6.—The Republicans in Utah have elected their state ticket by the usual plurality, returning Joseph Howell to Congress and electing Joseph E. Frick Justice of the Supreme Court.

PROF. PUPIN DEFEATED BY WORKMAN.

Winsted, Conn., Nov. 6 (Special).—Professor M. S. Pupin, of Columbia, inventor of the ocean telegraph, was defeated in Norfolk for the Legislature to-day by his rival man, Matthew O'Brien, a stonemason, by 16 majority. The vote standing: O'Brien, 372; Pupin, 156. The Democratic candidate for Representative, Warren Corbally, a coachman, was also successful. The labor vote went against Professor Pupin because it was said he brought workmen from San Francisco to toil on his estate.

MAYOR McCLELLAN HAPPY.

Elated at the Election of Mr. Hughes.

That Mayor McClellan was greatly pleased with the election of Mr. Hughes was demonstrated last night when, in a statement, he said that the news of the election of Mr. Hughes was "good news to all good Democrats." In the course of his interview he said: "The defeat of Mr. Hearst is eminently satisfactory to me."

"It looks all right now. The Mayor would not discuss the situation further, saying that he could be seen at his house. At his home, at No. 19 Washington Square North, the Mayor had a special wire, and with several of his friends he received the news from the state. At 10:30 o'clock the Mayor entered the reception room, where several newspaper representatives were, and said:

"The general result of the election of Mr. Hughes is good news to all good Democrats, and personally the defeat of Mr. Hearst is eminently satisfactory to me. There seems to be no longer any doubt but that Mr. Hughes has come down to The Bronx with a plurality sufficiently large enough to overcome Mr. Hearst's majority in New York City."

"What would you have done if Mr. Hearst had been elected?" the Mayor was asked. "Oh, that question is purely hypothetical," the Mayor replied, laughingly. "Did you vote for Mr. Hughes?" he was then asked.

"I voted for all good Democrats on the ticket?" was the reply. "Do you consider Mr. Hughes a Democrat?" was the next question he was asked. "Well, as far as that goes, I consider that neither Mr. Hughes nor Mr. Hearst is a Democrat," the Mayor replied.

In speaking of the vote cast in New York City, the Mayor said: "I am not a bit surprised at the large vote which Mr. Hearst received in this city, for if he had any strength, it was here."

"If Mr. Hearst has carried Brooklyn, I am greatly surprised. Mr. McCarran, I cannot believe, has failed to carry that borough, and I also understand that Bernal has been swamped in Queens, and this surprises me greatly. As to Richmond, if Hearst has carried it, I also will be greatly surprised."

Mr. McClellan was in high spirits during the interview and said that he might have a further statement to give out this morning.

HOW RETURNS CAME IN.

Early Gloom at Republican Headquarters Soon Dissipated.

Seated at the head of a long table, with pencil and pad, Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican State Committee, received the returns at state headquarters, No. 30 East 30th street, last night. They came in over two telegraph wires and a number of telephones and were handed at once to Chairman Woodruff. By his side were Lieutenant Governor Bruce and George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the committee, and at the end of the table was William Barnes, Jr., who was chairman of the executive committee last year. The rooms were filled with politicians of little prominence.

There was little said for the first hour, as the figures came in from some of the up-state cities showing a Republican loss. The returns were somewhat contradictory for some time, and it was hard to figure out what they seemed to indicate. When 631 election districts were received, about one-fifth of the total had been received. At 7:20, it was estimated by Mr. Barnes that there had been a Republican loss of 50,000.

Then Mr. Woodruff called for figures from Manhattan and Kings. It had been estimated earlier in the evening that Kings would give a plurality for Hughes of 10,000, but this was being out down all the time. Finally, it was decided that Kings, Suffolk and Nassau would more than offset any Democratic plurality in Queens, and that the problem resolved itself into a fight between Manhattan and The Bronx on the one side and the up-state counties on the other hand.

At 7:35 o'clock Mr. Barnes said it looked as if Mr. Hughes's plurality would be about 30,000. Ten minutes later he talked to one of his lieutenants in Albany County, who told him that Cohoes had been lost, but that Albany County, it was estimated, would give Hughes a plurality of 6,000.

Most of the news from the cities was that the Republicans had lost ground. Onondaga County, in which Syracuse is situated, had reported a plurality of 8,000 for Hughes, a loss of 1,500 from the figures it gave to Higgins two years ago.

GOOD NEWS FROM ERIE.

Word was received that Buffalo had gone for Hearst by 53 votes, and the report that "Fingey" Conners, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, had remarked, "Well, I'll be d—," when he heard the news caused much amusement. The bad showing from Buffalo was somewhat mitigated when a telegram was received from the chairman of Erie County saying that the county had gone for Hughes by 4,000 to 5,000.

Soon the returns from the rural districts began to come in and swell the Hughes vote, and Chairman Woodruff said he was not sure but that his estimate of 150,000 for Hughes upstate would be fulfilled.

At 10:35 o'clock Chairman Woodruff gave out the following statement: "Mr. Hughes's plurality outside of the greater city will be not less than 130,000 and Mr. Hearst will get less than 80,000 in the greater city. I am confident that Mr. Hughes's plurality in the state will be at least 50,000, and that the rest of the Republican state ticket will be elected by a handsome majority."

Shortly after 1 o'clock this morning Herbert Parsons, president of the Republican County Committee, said:

"On the figures received up to the present time it is sure that Mr. Hughes will carry the state by 40,000. Mr. Hearst having carried the greater city in some doubt, but think that it will carry the state by about 15,000. I also think that Judge Rosalsky is elected. I am very glad he won out. My own majority for Congress, with thirteen election districts not heard from, is 6,000. I am disappointed in some respects at the outcome of the state, as I hoped the full ticket would carry a heavier vote than it seems to have got. But the full state ticket will be elected by a small majority. Of course, it was natural to expect that Hearst would carry New York City, because of the heavy Democratic vote here. We expected him to carry the greater number of the boroughs."

BRENNER IS HAPPY.

McCarren Says "Disgrace to State Has Been Averted."

Chairman Jacob Brenner of the Kings County Republican Committee said last night that he was well pleased with the results of the campaign. His words were: "I think that this election will put an end to Hearst's political career. The Democrats have repudiated him, and he will never be nominated again. I am very sure the Republicans will never nominate him for any office, and it is quite evident that the vote of the Independence League is not great enough to put him in office without the aid of other parties. I expect that the Independence League will soon go to pieces, as Mr. Hughes will remedy all the evils of which its members complain. As for Kings County it has done well. Roosevelt carried the county by only 2,300 and McKinley by 2,000. Hearst's small plurality here, as in Manhattan and The Bronx, which are also normally so largely Democratic, shows that the Democrats have largely repudiated him. Many of the Democrats who did vote for him did so because they did not wish to knife the head of the ticket. If it had not been for the stand taken by Senator McCarren and other leading Democrats, Hearst would have received a much larger plurality in New York City. I consider that Hughes has done extremely well. Yesterday was signalized in Brooklyn by the extremely large vote cast early in the day. In nearly every election district in the borough the vast majority of the voters were at the polls by 9 o'clock in the forenoon. The votes were cast rapidly, and there appeared to be little splitting in any part of the county. There were only fifty-two arrests, of which forty-five were for illegal voting of party by the people arrested were placed in custody because of technicalities that did not keep them long from their liberty. There was little disorder. Watchers of all the parties were on hand all day, and none were interfered with. There appeared to be no friction between the representatives of the various political opponents and Independence League headquarters, which last year were early thrown into a state of panic by the news that most of their watchers had either deserted their posts or had been thrown out, was allowed no opportunity for its regulation howl of "Fraud!" Most of the trouble that arose was the result of the reapportionment which has split up election districts and the old Assembly districts, in a way puzzling to many of the old voters. Justice Burr and Justice Dickey, sitting in the Special Term of the Supreme Court, decided the matter should not be deprived of their votes because they had accidentally registered in the wrong places. Another source of trouble was the necessity of passing the name of Rowland A. Miles over that of William Hughes, the Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court who died a few days ago. What might have been a serious mishap occurred early on this morning, when the ballots of the 19th and 21st Assembly districts were confused by the police, but the confusion was discovered in time and no votes were lost. Senator McCarren, when asked his opinion on the result, said: "The most disgraceful thing that could have happened to the people of the Empire State has been happily averted. Controller Metz said: "The result of the election shows that Kings County is still a factor in state politics, and will have to be reckoned with. Asked for whom he voted, the Controller said his ballot "looked like a cemetery—it had so many crosses on it."

KENTUCKY.

Senator McCreary Indorsed for Re-election by Over 7,000.

[By Telegram to The Tribune.] Louisville, Nov. 6.—By a plurality estimated at from 7,000 to 10,000 Senator McCreary was indorsed for re-election in the Democratic state primary to-day over Governor J. C. W. Beckham. In the race at the primaries for nomination for Governor, Beckham's ally, S. W. Hager, and N. B. Hays both claim victory. Neither makes a large estimate of plurality, the result being uncertain. Of four close Congressional fights the Democrats have carried one, re-electing Swager Sherman in the Louisville district. Dr. A. D. James, ex-United States Marshal, Republican nominee in the 8d District, has won. This is a Republican gain. In the 9th District J. B. Bennett, Republican, present Congressman, seems winner. The principal issue in the fight for the Senate was the temperance question, both McCreary and Beckham being in opposition to the liquor interests of the party but the "lid" of the country voters and other cities. The liberal element was for McCreary. The Congressional races were on national issues, the liquor question cutting little figure in them.

CALIFORNIA.

Gillett Elected Governor by at Least 25,000 Plurality.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Reports to "The Chronicle" from all leading counties of California show that Gillett, Republican, is elected Governor by at least 25,000 plurality. These figures may be increased, when full returns come in from Southern California, where the Republican vote was extremely heavy. Throughout Northern and Central California the vote polled by Gillett was nearly as large as that of Pardee four years ago. In San Francisco the vote was close, Langdon (Independent League) polling nearly as large a vote as Bell or Gillett. Still good judges declare that Gillett will have a small plurality in San Francisco. In Alameda the heaviest Republican vote in years was polled and Gillett will have from 5,000 to 7,000 plurality. No definite figures have been received from Los Angeles and other southern counties, but the trend of the early returns showed a great Republican vote, which will bring Gillett north of MICHIGAN. Republican Majorities Large—Townsend May Be Senator. [By Telegram to The Tribune.] Detroit, Nov. 6.—Complete unofficial returns from all of the lower peninsula of Michigan and a part of the upper peninsula assure the re-election of Governor Fred A. Warner, Republican, by about 108,000. This is twice the majority he received two years ago. The rest of the state ticket is elected by majorities ranging close to that of the Governor. An unusually heavy vote was polled for an off year, running close to that of two years ago, the Roosevelt campaign. The Congress delegation from Michigan will remain solidly Republican, the only new member being James C. McLaughlin, in the 9th District. Of the twelve Congressmen in the state, only seven had opposition. The state Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican and will elect a successor to Senator Alger. Of the candidates for the United States Senate, an estimate based on the legislators already elected who are pledged or who have expressed their preferences places Congressman Townsend in the lead by a slender margin. Congressman Denby, of the 1st, or Detroit district, is returned with a safe lead after a lively contest. The contest for Mayor in the city of Detroit has been bitter and problematical, the local street car company having taken an active part in the campaign in favor of the re-election of Mayor George P. Codd, Republican. At this hour the indications point to Codd's defeat by William B. Thompson, Democrat.

RHODE ISLAND. Democratic Gains Indicate the Defeat of Governor Utter. [By Telegram to The Tribune.] Providence, Nov. 6.—Heavy Democratic gains in the vote for Governor all along the line were indicated by the returns from thirty-five election districts out of a total of 156 in the state, these giving Utter (Rep.) 5,540 and Higgins (Dem.) 4,787. Last year the same districts gave Utter 5,702 and Garvin 3,914, showing a net Democratic gain of 1,055. If this ratio of gain is maintained throughout the state Higgins will be elected by a plurality of more than 6,000. The cities reckoned as strongly Democratic are not included in the thirty-five districts. Early returns from the 1st Congress District show a small gain for Dyer (Rep.) over Stines (Rep.) in 1904. Eleven districts out of seventy-seven in the Congress district give Dyer a gain of 168. Eighteen towns, not counting the cities, out of thirty-seven in the state, return thirty-three Republicans and three Democrats for the General Assembly, no Democratic gain being shown. The Assembly vote is exceedingly doubtful, and promises to be very close. It is conceded that the cities of Providence, Pawtucket, Woonsocket and Central Falls have gone Democratic for Mayor and Governor.

Scattering Returns Indicate the Defeat of Gooding. Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Scattering returns indicate that a landslide has overtaken the head of the Republican ticket in the north and central portions of the state. This (Ada) county has gone against Governor Gooding by a few hundred votes. Kootenai and Latah counties in the north are claimed by the Democrats to be for Stockslager against Gooding, while Washington, Elmore, Boise and other central counties appear to have gone the same way. Nothing has been heard from the southeast, the Mormon section of the state, but it now seems quite certain that Gooding will be defeated unless he makes up his losses in the Mormon counties.
