OBITUARY.

PROFESSOR CHARLES E. GARMAN.

Amherst, Mass., Feb. 9.—Professor Charles E. Garman, one of the leading members of the faculty of Amherst College, died at his home here today, after an illness of about three weeks, from bronchitis, which developed into a malignant throat disease. He was professor of moral philosophy and metaphysics, and had been connected with the college since 1880. He was fifty-seven years old, and leaves a wife.

Professor Garman married in 1882 Miss Eliza N. Miner, of Ware, Mass., where he was principal of the high school from 1872 to 1878. At the last commencement at Amherst thirteen of his former pupils who are now college presidents and professors presented to him a book on philosophy which they had prepared. Professor Garman was a trustee of Mount Holyoke College.

MAJOR JOHN HARMAN.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Feb. 9.—Major John Harman, a member of the American Colony and vice-president and manager of the Guayaquil-Quito Railway, died yesterday as the result of an attack of apoplexy.

MISS MARY ROBERTSON CROES.

Miss Mary Robertson Croes, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Robert B. Croes, at one time rector of St. Paul's Church, Yonkers, died at the family home in North Broadway, Yonkers, yesterday morning. Miss Croes was a sister of the late J. James R. Croes, a famous engineer, ex-president of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and designer of the Carnegie Lake at Princeton University.

ROBERT W. FORBES.

Robert W. Forbes, head of the importing firm of R. W. Forbes & Son, with offices in the Produce Exchange Building, died on Friday at the Hotel Margaret, Brooklyn. He was a native of New Haven. He was born eighty-four years ago. Mr. Forbes was graduated from Yale with the class of '62. He was graduated from the Yale Medical School, and completed his medical studies in Paris. After practicing medicine in New York for several years he devoted himself to commercial pursuits. A son and two daughters survive him.

COUNTESS CADOGAN.

London, Feb. 9.—The death is announced of Countess Cadogan, who was Lady Beatrix Jane Craven, fourth daughter of the second Earl of Craven.

OBITUARY NOTES.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.] Baltimore, Feb. 9.—Samuel Heck, founder of the Heck Stores in New York, Baltimore and Washington, died this afternoon at his home in this city from a complication of diseases. He was born in Hesse Darmstadt, seventy-six years ago. He came to New York when a young man. In a few years began the establishment of department stores. Although he retired from active business several years ago and other occupations, he leaves a wife and five sons, they never made any important move without consulting him.

John Partridge Jepson, well known in Wall street, died from Bright's disease at his home, No. 57 McDonough street, Brooklyn, yesterday. Mr. Jepson was born in Pomfret, Conn., sixty-five years ago and at the age of fifteen came to Brooklyn. He was engaged in the commission brokerage business for years at No. 12 Liberty street, Manhattan. He was a member of the Long Island Automobile Club, the Mendocino Club, the Canoe Club and other organizations. He leaves a wife and one daughter, who is the wife of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Swinford, rector of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

LISPENARD S. WITHERBEE DEAD.

Lispensard Stewart Witherbee died at his home, No. 4 Fifth avenue, on Friday evening, after a brief illness. He was twenty years old, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer Witherbee, of that address. He was in the sophomore class at Yale. Mr. Witherbee has an extensive paternal estate of William Rhinelander Stewart and Lispensard Stewart. His father, mother and a sister, Miss Evelyn Spencer Witherbee, survive him. The funeral will be held at Grace Church, Broadway and 14th street, on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 9.—Limited passenger train No. 203 on the St. Louis & San Francisco Road, due here at 2:20 o'clock this morning from Kansas City and Memphis, struck a broken rail eight miles west of Birmingham, and, with the exception of the fire, the entire train was wrecked. Two trainmen were killed and six were seriously injured. Several passengers were slightly hurt by broken glass and flying splinters.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 9.—The new cruiser St. Louis, which went to sea several days ago on a preliminary trial run, returned to Hampton Roads today. The naval board of inspection is expected to reach here from Washington on Monday, and the cruiser is scheduled to go to sea then for her final acceptance trial.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—The jury for the second trial of Cornelius P. Shea, president of the Teamsters' Union, and other labor leaders, on charges of conspiracy founded upon the teamsters' strike of 1905, was completed today. The taking of evidence will commence on Monday.

Cleveland, Tenn., Feb. 9.—The music room and a section of the dormitory of the Centenary Female College here were destroyed by fire today. All the students escaped. Twenty-five pianos were burned. The loss is about $75,000.

Kansas City, Feb. 9.—A jury in the Criminal Court here this morning returned a verdict against Albert B. McCrone guilty of murder in the second degree for having killed Bertha Bowler, his former sweetheart, at the prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, in 1905. He is nineteen years old. One of his counsel was Jesse James, jr.

Detroit, Feb. 9.—The freight steamer J. H. Barrow, being built at the Wards Cove yards of the American Shipbuilding Company for E. D. Carter, of Erie, Penn., was successfully launched today. The Barrow is 24 feet long, 44 feet beam and 30 feet deep, and will carry 10,000 tons of ore.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—The incorporation of several telephone companies which will furnish long distance connection with the Independent telephone lines was announced yesterday. The companies which will enter the merger are the Chicago, Milwaukee and Northern Bell Telephone Company, the Chicago, Indiana and Eastern Telephone Company and the Chicago, Louisiana and Eastern Long Distance Telephone Company. The general offices will be located in Chicago.
