

CHAMPION BOWLERS

WARNER A "GOOD THING." BOWLERS SCORE WELL. TOMPS HOME IN CHASE. HIGH MARKS UNBEATEN.

Jack McKeon, Heavily Played, Beats Euripides at Benning.

Washington, April 4.—When Warner won the handicap steepchase at Benning to-day there was noisy joy among those who had backed him from 6 to 1 to 5 to 2. The horse had been carefully pointed for a "killing," and those who knew that he had been schooling particularly well fairly mobbed the layers when 6 to 1 was posted against his chances.

Jack McKeon, heavily played, was posted against his chances. The price was quickly cut to 4 to 1, and then to 3 to 1, but the "tip" became general and the play continued, so that 5 to 2 was hard to find as the field went to the post. Dr. Keith did not lack followers, but the prices against Pioneer and Souvigny went back in a way to occasion some surprise.

Pioneer, the logical favorite, fell early in the race, while Souvigny, after keeping well up for a mile dropped back, hopelessly beaten. Warner fenced well, and had speed enough to go right to the front, where he stayed to the end, winning easily by three or four lengths from Dr. Keith.

Jack McKeon was another "good thing" which did not fail his many backers. He was played from 5 to 2 to 8 to 5 in spite of a strong following for Euripides, the even money favorite. The latter raced Idle Dream and Umbrella into submission by the time the stretch was reached, but could not withstand Jack McKeon's challenge in the last furlong. The son of G. W. Johnson closed strong and won cleverly by a safe margin.

The form players did not fancy Slickaway in the opening handicap with W. McIntyre up, and his price went back to 5 to 1. The weights were so well adjusted that Tickle closed a slight favorite over Cousin Kate at 4 to 1. Those who backed Right and True at 20 to 1 had a sensation, as he ran Cousin Kate down in the stretch and appeared to be winning until Slickaway came with a belated rush and won driving by half a length. Revenue showed speed, but stopped badly and finished a distant last. Tickle was well up most of the way and had no excuse. Lady Powell was looked on as the "one best bet" of the day in the second race, and she was heavily played on odds-on. She raced in close company with Morrismac for half the journey and then capitulated. Morrismac also hung when it came to a drive, and Ottwell came on and won ridden out at the lucrative price of 25 to 1. Awiss closed resolutely and might have won with better luck at the start.

Old Colony was graduated from the maiden class in the fifth race, and incidentally won another purse for John E. Madden. She caught Fred Neely and driving in the last sixteenth and won in hard drive.

After two failures Ormonde's Right earned brackets in the closing handicap. He was a strong favorite at 6 to 5, but was doing his best at the end to be a light weight.

Mountain, the jockey, may sign a contract to ride for August Belmont this year. It is said that he has also offered the boy and has offered him a retainer of $8,000.

McDaniel was back in the saddle to-day after a short suspension and scored with Ormonde's Right.

BENNING SUMMARIES. FIRST RACE.—Handicap for three-year-olds and upward; $500 added; won by three furlongs, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

SECOND RACE.—Selling for two-year-olds and upward; $500 added; won by three furlongs, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

THIRD RACE.—Selling for three-year-olds and upward; $500 added; won by three furlongs, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

FOURTH RACE.—Handicap steepchase for four-year-olds and upward; $500 added; won by two miles, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

FIFTH RACE.—For maidens three years old and upward; $500 added; won by three furlongs, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

SIXTH RACE.—Selling for three-year-olds and upward; $500 added; won by three furlongs, Columbia Course, Start good. Winner, S. J. Rhoades, 11.9. Time, 1:10.2. Jockey, S. J. Rhoades. Owner, S. J. Rhoades.

THOROUGHbred NEWS AND NOTES. The programme books of the Queens County Jockey Club for the spring meeting at Aqueduct from April 15 to 25, inclusive, were distributed yesterday among the horsemen. Fourteen stakes will be decided, including the Carter Handicap of $10,000, which will be the feature of the opening day.

Twenty-two horses have been declared from the Carter Handicap, as follows: Waterbury, Vandyke, Inquirer, Pulsus, Ironides, Suffrage, Handzarr, Red Star, Cressida, Jacquin, Israel, Vendor, McZed, Superman, Hermitage, J. C. Cora, Zaunbach, Zed, Election, Tom Dolan, Belle of Iniquity and Halifax.

Los Angeles, April 4.—In accordance with the understanding reached some time ago, the City Attorney yesterday requested the City Council to enact an anti-pool selling law, which it is understood will read and pass at Ascot Park.

N. Y. U. SOPHOMORES WIN. The interschool gymnastic contest between the sophomores and freshmen at New York University resulted in a victory for the sophomores by a score of 25 to 23.

HILDRED WINS AGAIN. GETS BLUE STEIN TANDEM.

Miss Bedford Also Scores in the Combination Class.

Miss Emily H. Bedford was the most successful exhibitor at Durland's horse show last night by winning two blue ribbons. Her well known gelding Hildred and Plymouth Champion, who was responsible for one of the victories, outdistancing all competitors in the class for tandems over fifteen hands. Miss Bedford's other victory came in the class for combination saddle and driving horses, where the animals were first shown to an appropriate vehicle and then changed to gaddie and ridden. Miss Bedford's bay mare Patsy Palmer got the blue ribbon, while red rosette went to Mrs. John Gerken's bay gelding Surprise.

Hildred showed in excellent form when exhibited with Plymouth Champion. The beautiful chestnut mare led the tandem, which gained the applause of the spectators again and again as it trotted about the ring. The pair was driven by C. K. Drake, who cleverly brought the horses up and with a quick turn, wheeled them deftly into position when it came time to line up before the judges. Mrs. John Gerken, who has been a constant exhibitor, was no more successful last night than on previous evenings. The best she could do was two seconds, one with Surprise in the combination saddle and driving class, and the other with the same pair gelding in the class of women's saddle horses over 15 1/2 hands high.

The winners in the other classes were the Elizabeth Farm's roan mare. All There, in a class for ponies in harness; Miss C. Adelaide Doremus's bay mare Lady Macdonald, in the class for saddle horses over 15 1/2 hands; and the Westchester Farm's Drake's bay gelding Flying Taconite, Mrs. John A. Burns' horses to runabouts, and the Fils, Doerr & Carroll Company's bay gelding Taconite, which had the class for jumpers to hand.

The class for jumpers to hand by women furnished the nearest approach to excitement that the high-cut of defence. The hurdles were only four feet high, and the riders were only four feet high. The class was full of hard hitting, the local players battling Pastorius out of the box in the fifth inning. He was succeeded by McIntyre, who was also hit hard. McIntyre was hit by a ball from the pitcher, and he was where they will play Friday and Saturday. The score by innings follows:

Atlanta, April 4.—After winning thirteen straight exhibition games, the Brooklyn National League baseball team was defeated here to-day by the Atlanta Braves of the Southern League in the last game of the season. The American down to the game of the Braves, the local players batting Pastorius out of the box in the fifth inning. He was succeeded by McIntyre, who was also hit hard. McIntyre was hit by a ball from the pitcher, and he was where they will play Friday and Saturday. The score by innings follows:

QUAKERS BEAT ATHLETICS AGAIN. Philadelphia, April 4.—The Philadelphia Nationals again defeated the local Americans to-day in the second game of the annual spring series. Corridon pitched fine ball, holding the Americans down to two hits. Opportune hitting, coupled with loose fielding by the Americans, gave the Nationals their victory. The score follows:

RAIN KEEPS THE GIANTS IDLE. Columbus, Ohio, April 3.—The baseball game between the New York National League team and the Columbus nine which was scheduled to be played here to-day had to be postponed on account of rain.

GAME FOR ST. LOUIS AMERICANS. St. Louis, April 4.—After thirteen innings of fast play the local Americans defeated the National League team by a score of 10 to 0 to-day in the fourth game of a series of seven to decide the city championship. Powell had ten strikeouts-out.

TO CONTINUE AT CHESS. Lasker and Marshall Will Play Fifteenth Game To-morrow.

Dr. Emanuel Lasker and Frank J. Marshall will play the fifteenth game of their match for the world's chess championship in this city to-morrow afternoon and evening. The game will be played at the Everett House, 17th street and Union Square, where the other games in this city were held. Marshall will play the white pieces. The standing of the players to date is: Lasker, 7; Marshall, 3; drawn, 7. Marshall has appealed from the decision of the referee, who gave Lasker the protested game in Nashville. Lasker must win one more game to secure the match.

ON THE GOLF LINKS. Programme for the Invitation Tournament at Garden City.

The Garden City Golf Club has announced the programme for its annual invitation tournament to be held on April 18, 19 and 20. The tournament will begin with the usual preliminary round at eight o'clock on the morning of the 18th. The best score of the tournament will be limited to eighteen strokes.

HUNTSMEN IN SADDLE. No Serious Accidents in Long Run of Meadow Brook Hounds.

Hempstead, Long Island, April 4 (Special).—No serious accidents marked the run of the Meadow Brook hounds this afternoon over the north country of Long Island. The meet was at Westbury, at the country place of J. Serrale Barclay, and the line lay to the country place of Thomas Hitchcock, Jr. Just before reaching the Hitchcock place the larger part of the field was held up for a time by a stiff double jump. The horses refused repeatedly, but finally broke through the fence safely.

From there the line lay over the steepest kind of country to the estate of E. D. Morgan, where the field was made. After "breaching" the hounds, and giving the stragglers an opportunity to recover themselves, the hounds were released and led the field west, over the old Rushmore farm, and then circling north, to the Harry Payne Whitney place and the finish, going into the Winthrop estate. Hildred, the second whip, came a bad cropper. He was badly shaken up, but was able to finish with the field.

Those who rode were Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, Miss Eugenie May Ladenburg, Mrs. James Burden, Frank Grey Griswold, R. F. Potter, W. Scott Cameron, William C. Hayes, J. P. Gracie and Samuel Willems, M. B. H.

PASADENA WINS AT NEW ORLEANS. New Orleans, April 4.—Pasadena won the handicap at City Park to-day, after a long, hard drive with Lancasterian. Winning favorites were few and far between. The summaries follow:

First race (five furlongs)—Enna, 102 (T. 1.01.9), 9 to 2; Mollie Bell, 102 (F. 1.01.9), 12 to 1; second, Zed, 102 (G. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; third, Electric Masker, 102 (H. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fourth, Golden Wave, 102 (I. 1.01.9), 25 to 1; fifth, Blackie, 102 (J. 1.01.9), 30 to 1.

Second race (steepchase, short course)—Lionel, 124 (K. 1.01.9), 12 to 1; second, Profitable, 124 (L. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; third, Time, 124 (M. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fourth, Yavonoff, 124 (N. 1.01.9), 25 to 1; fifth, Slick, 124 (O. 1.01.9), 30 to 1.

Third race (four furlongs)—Bonnie Hayes, 102 (P. 1.01.9), 12 to 1; second, Branney Lad, 115 (Walker), 12 to 1; third, Time, 102 (Q. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; fourth, Colonel Brady, 102 (R. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fifth, Dimpetich, 102 (S. 1.01.9), 25 to 1.

Fourth race (steepchase, long course)—Lancasterian, 115 (J. 1.01.9), 12 to 1; second, Warner, 115 (K. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; third, Time, 115 (L. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fourth, Slick, 115 (M. 1.01.9), 25 to 1; fifth, Slick, 115 (N. 1.01.9), 30 to 1.

Fifth race (six furlongs)—Robin Hood, 107 (1.01.9), 6 to 5; second, Prontene, 107 (2. 1.01.9), 12 to 1; third, Bella Strozzi, 107 (3. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; fourth, Bella Strozzi, 107 (4. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fifth, Bella Strozzi, 107 (5. 1.01.9), 25 to 1.

Sixth race (seven furlongs)—Pantastic, 102 (1.01.9), 12 to 1; second, Polly Popp, 102 (2. 1.01.9), 15 to 1; third, Sully Preston, 102 (3. 1.01.9), 20 to 1; fourth, Sully Preston, 102 (4. 1.01.9), 25 to 1; fifth, Sully Preston, 102 (5. 1.01.9), 30 to 1.

TO PLAY LACROSSE IN ENGLAND. Townsend Harris Hall High School Team Will Meet Oxford and Cambridge.

Fifteen teams from Townsend Harris Hall High School will go to England this year, where it will play games with Oxford and Cambridge among others. The season here will open on April 13 with the Columbia '70 team. The schedule follows:

April 13, Columbia freshmen at South Field; April 20, "Poly Prep" at Brookline; April 23, Stevens at Hoboken; April 27, Boys' High School at Bay Ridge; May 14, Columbia '66 at Ontario Field; July 2, "The College" at Cambridge, England; July 10, "The College" at Cambridge, England; July 10, "The College" at Cambridge, England; July 10, "The College" at Cambridge, England.

DEFENCE OPENS CASE. LOU DILLON NOT "DOPED."

Had "Thumps." One Veterinary Testifies in Gold Cup Trial.

After the prosecution had rested its case yesterday, the defence opened in the continuation of the trial of the reindeer suit, in which the Memphis Trotting Association, through Murray Howe, its secretary, seeks to recover the gold cup awarded to Lou Dillon, a Kentucky horse, when his gelding, Major Dolmar, beat the mare Lou Dillon, owned by C. K. G. Billings, at the present trial, before Justice Rosenbaum and a jury in Part XIV of the Supreme Court, is the outgrowth of charges that Lou Dillon was "doped" at the time of the race.

Dr. Springler, a veterinary surgeon, was recalled to the witness stand at the opening of the session and asked, by the defence, to testify that the gelding, Major Dolmar, was not "doped" at the time of the race. He testified that he had examined the gelding at the mouth, he replied that it would if not actually diluted, and added that he had experimented on horses with acetic in two or three instances.

The hypothetical question regarding the possibility of the mare was "doped" was put also to Robert M. Smith, another veterinary, who, though he had never seen Lou Dillon in action, and but once or twice in the stable, said that he thought the mare had stopped on the day of the race from other than natural causes, possibly as the result of acetic drugging. Cold sweats, palpitation and general weakness, he said, would follow the administration of acetic, his description of the effects tallying with that of Dr. Springler.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

On cross-examination the witness said that the effects of acetic administration would be hastened by the exertion of a race, and that champagne or other alcoholic stimulant would act as an antidote. He testified that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, presumably from the effects of acetic drugging, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover, but that he had seen Lou Dillon in a state of collapse after a race, and that he had thought, twenty minutes after the race, that the horse might recover.

WHERE TO DINE. CAFE MARTIN. THE LEADING RESTAURANT OF NEW YORK. DINNER $1.50.

LUCHOW'S. 105 to 114 EAST 14TH ST. (7th St. & Broadway). FAMOUS GERMAN RESTAURANT.

Cafe Lafayette. 20th St. and 6th Ave. DINNER $1.50.

Cafe Boulevard. Second Ave. and 27th St. HUNGARIAN MUSIC & SPECIALTIES.

CAVANAUGH'S. 238-250 W. 34th St. RESTAURANT GRILL, BANQUET ROOMS.

HARLEM CASINO. 124th St. & 7th Ave. MUSIC. ALWAYS A LA CARTE.

POMMERY. THE STANDARD FOR CHAMPAGNE QUALITY.

Everett House. 100 W. 42nd St. (Between 6th & 7th Aves.).

MARTHA WASHINGTON. (Woman's Hotel), 29 E. 29th St. for men and women, A.C. & 7th. Luncheon and dinner.

THE NEW GRAND. Broadway and 57th St.

Herald Square Hotel. 34th St. Just west of 4th Ave.

Harbrough Bathing. 67th & 68th Sts. Music. German specialties.

CAFE DES AMBASSADEURS. 28th St. near Broadway. Music. Dinner, $1.50.

KALIL'S. FINEST DOWNTOWN, 14 to 16 PARK PLACE. Grand Orchestra, near City Hall.

MOTOR CAR RUNS. "Open all winter." "Open first" Road maps (1937).

DOUGLASS MANOR INN. 21st. North Street. Little New York.

BAY VIEW HOTEL. 12 E. 42d St. City Island. 12 room dinners. A.C.

Blossom Heath Inn. Boston Rd. N. Y. Larchmont. 18 m. fr. 42d St.

Boston Post Road Inn. Mamaroneck, N. Y. 50 miles Steam. heat. Sun. Parlor. Tel. 233-267.

Hotels and Restaurants. WHERE TO DINE. CAFE MARTIN. THE LEADING RESTAURANT OF NEW YORK. DINNER $1.50.

LUCHOW'S. 105 to 114 EAST 14TH ST. (7th St. & Broadway). FAMOUS GERMAN RESTAURANT.

Cafe Lafayette. 20th St. and 6th Ave. DINNER $1.50.

Cafe Boulevard. Second Ave. and 27th St. HUNGARIAN MUSIC & SPECIALTIES.

CAVANAUGH'S. 238-250 W. 34th St. RESTAURANT GRILL, BANQUET ROOMS.

HARLEM CASINO. 124th St. & 7th Ave. MUSIC. ALWAYS A LA CARTE.

POMMERY. THE STANDARD FOR CHAMPAGNE QUALITY.

Everett House. 100 W. 42nd St. (Between 6th & 7th Aves.).

MARTHA WASHINGTON. (Woman's Hotel), 29 E. 29th St. for men and women, A.C. & 7th. Luncheon and dinner.

THE NEW GRAND. Broadway and 57th St.

Herald Square Hotel. 34th St. Just west of 4th Ave.

Harbrough Bathing. 67th & 68th Sts. Music. German specialties.

CAFE DES AMBASSADEURS. 28th St. near Broadway. Music. Dinner, $1.50.

KALIL'S. FINEST DOWNTOWN, 14 to 16 PARK PLACE. Grand Orchestra, near City Hall.

MOTOR CAR RUNS. "Open all winter." "Open first" Road maps (1937).

DOUGLASS MANOR INN. 21st. North Street. Little New York.

BAY VIEW HOTEL. 12 E. 42d St. City Island. 12 room dinners. A.C.

Blossom Heath Inn. Boston Rd. N. Y. Larchmont. 18 m. fr. 42d St.

Hotels and Restaurants. WHERE TO DINE. CAFE MARTIN. THE LEADING RESTAURANT OF NEW YORK. DINNER $1.50.

LUCHOW'S. 105 to 114 EAST 14TH ST. (7th St. & Broadway). FAMOUS GERMAN RESTAURANT.

Cafe Lafayette. 20th St. and 6th Ave. DINNER $1.50.

Cafe Boulevard. Second Ave. and 27th St. HUNGARIAN MUSIC & SPECIALTIES.

CAVANAUGH'S. 238-250 W. 34th St. RESTAURANT GRILL, BANQUET ROOMS.

HARLEM CASINO. 124th St. & 7th Ave. MUSIC. ALWAYS A LA CARTE.

POMMERY. THE STANDARD FOR CHAMPAGNE QUALITY.

Everett House. 100 W. 42nd St. (Between 6th & 7th Aves.).

MARTHA WASHINGTON. (Woman's Hotel), 29 E. 29th St. for men and women, A.C. & 7th. Luncheon and dinner.

THE NEW GRAND. Broadway and 57th St.

Herald Square Hotel. 34th St. Just west of 4th Ave.

Harbrough Bathing. 67th & 68th Sts. Music. German specialties.

CAFE DES AMBASSADEURS. 28th St. near Broadway. Music. Dinner, $1.50.

KALIL'S. FINEST DOWNTOWN, 14 to 16 PARK PLACE. Grand Orchestra, near City Hall.

MOTOR CAR RUNS. "Open all winter." "Open first" Road maps (1937).

DOUGLASS MANOR INN. 21st. North Street. Little New York.

BAY VIEW HOTEL. 12 E. 42d St. City Island. 12 room dinners. A.C.

Blossom Heath Inn. Boston Rd. N. Y. Larchmont. 18 m. fr. 42d St.