

DE LACY LOSES HOPE. TELLS ALL TO JEROME.

He and "Dutch Henry" Say Pool-room Game Is Really Dead.

On the authority of experts of no less renown than "Pete" De Lacy and "Dutch Henry" Schultze the poolroom business in Manhattan is "down and out" for the first time in many years.

The results obtained from the John Doe proceedings before Magistrate Barlow on Wednesday and yesterday were most satisfactory.

It may be said on good authority that both the District Attorney and Deputy Police Commissioner believe that the end sought—the stamping out of the poolroom business in this city—can be accomplished better by forcing the men to admit their guilt under the Dowling law and placing them on record than by attempting to indict them on the testimony of others and going through long trials.

"Well, if that is the case," the District Attorney said, with a smile, "come right in and we will talk it over now."

They talked for an hour. Then "Dutch Henry" Schultze went in and told what he knew.

There were no proprietors among the thirty witnesses examined in John Doe proceedings yesterday. They will come later, and will be confronted with the evidence given by their employees.

Neither "Gene" Comisky, whose place in Wall street was raided on Wednesday, nor any of his employees answered questions when they were taken from their messages that passed into the poolrooms.

Abraham Weinberg, of No. 228 West 84th street, who was arrested as he returned from the racetrack on Wednesday afternoon on a charge of grand larceny, was arraigned in the Tombs court yesterday morning and later paroled by Magistrate Moss.

FAKE POOLROOM RAIDED BY POLICE. Telephone and Telegraph Wires All Ended Just Out of Sight of Window. Deputy Police Commissioner Hanson learned a few days ago of the existence of a probable fake poolroom in the second floor of a house in East 21st street, and he had the place watched to see if there was any attempt to lure victims to it. Detectives Ayers, England and Merrill were assigned to the case, but they were compelled to report that they could find no evidence. Yesterday afternoon it was decided to raid the rooms, and eighteen telephones and two Morse instruments, all with wires leading out of a window in the rear, were found. The wires were not connected and ran only far enough to deceive the eyes. The instruments were taken away.
