

Right fell behind and Mr. Rogers followed up the conversation. "How's John D.?" "Have they got him yet?" he asked.

When informed that Mr. Rockefeller was on his way to Chicago, Mr. Rogers smiled, and asked what Mr. Rockefeller would get there. Some one suggested: "Ten days on the island." This amused Mr. Rogers, and he remarked: "Well, that lets me out."

GEORGIA MARCH CRITICISED

Party of Officers Encounters Some Feeling in Covering Sherman's Route. Chattanooga, Tenn., July 5.—The party of army officers, under Major D. H. Baughman, who left Chattanooga on Thursday for a trip over the route of Sherman's march through Georgia, have encountered considerable feeling among the Southern officers in Northern Georgia.

PARSONS SAID TO WANT W. C. WILSON

Former Deputy State Controller Mentioned as Candidate for Postmaster. It was said last night by politicians in the city that William C. Wilson, formerly Deputy State Controller when Otto Kelsey, now Superintendent of Insurance, was Controller, is Herbert Parsons' candidate for Postmaster.

GOVERNOR WON'T TALK OF PLANS

Says He Had Pleasant Time at Jamestown Exposition and Wants to Go Back. Governor Hughes returned from his trip to the Jamestown exposition yesterday afternoon and registered at the Hotel Astor. "I had a very pleasant trip," the Governor said, "and I intend returning before the close of the session to the arrangements to do so." The Governor will return to Albany at an early hour to-day. He declined to discuss the extra session of the Legislature.

SAY HE HAD $165 IN HIS SOCK

Police Arrest Roof Garden Usher for Stealing Pocketbook. An usher of the Jardin de Paris, the roof garden on top of the New York Theatre, who gave his name as Edward Louis Rockefeller, twenty-one years old, of No. 319 West 13th street, was arrested last night, charged with grand larceny.

PREACHERS WOULD OUST DICKINSON

Trenton, July 5.—The Trenton Ministerial Union, at a special meeting this afternoon, adopted resolutions approving the action of Governor Stokes in demanding the resignation of Colonel Samuel D. Dickinson as Secretary of State. The resignation was asked because of charges preferred by Mayor Fagan of Jersey City, involving the personal character of Colonel Dickinson.

CATCH SHARK WITH HOOK AND LINE

A shark fifteen feet long, which had followed the Hamburg-American liner Alleghany along the Haytian coast, was brought to port on her yesterday. A large hook baited with beef was thrown overboard and the monster, grabbing at it greedily, was dragged to the surface. Three shots from a rifle failed to kill it, and after nearly two hours of appearing over the ship's side the shark was hauled aboard. The Alleghany's captain kept the jaws as a relic.

BELGIAN SUFFRAGE BILL REJECTED

Brussels, July 5.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day rejected the bill providing general suffrage, introduced by Socialists and Liberal Deputies.

TAMMANY LOADING DICE

AN APPORTIONMENT COUP

Plans Alliance with Mr. Wadsworth to Control Next Senate.

The Democratic party will make desperate efforts to utilize the apportionment deadlock between the Senate and the Assembly for its own welfare. At the special session of the Legislature that Governor Hughes has called for Monday night the minority will try to form an alliance with Speaker Wadsworth to pass a so-called "purely mathematical" apportionment. This apportionment plan, which the Democratic party intends submitting, while going under the cloak of "an apportionment without regard to party lines" is in reality a plan designed and prepared with the sole purpose of giving the minority party a majority in the next Senate.

WHALEN REPORTS TO GOVERNOR

Nearly 10,000 Auto Licenses Issued in Last Six Months—Corporations Increase. Albany, July 5.—John S. Whalen, Secretary of State, in his semi-annual report to Governor Hughes, which was made public to-day, says that the number of automobile licenses issued from his department for the six months ended June 30 shows an increase over the corresponding months of last year of 171 for owners and 1,061 for chauffeurs. There were 628 licenses issued for owners of automobiles and 2,351 for chauffeurs. For these licenses $25,312 was received in fees.

TWO VIEWS ON BINGHAM'S SALARY

Only Half Big Enough, Says Metz—Just Right, Says Acting Mayor McGowan. Bingham is making good as Police Commissioner and should get $15,000 a year salary, instead of half the amount, said Controller Metz yesterday. "I shall vote to give him that amount," he said. Metz also said that the salary of $10,000 to the city, and Bingham is a good Commissioner.

COLER'S SCREAMER SCREAMS AGAIN

The Bulletin Mingles Romance with Knocks on Some Present Day Evils. "Coler's Bulletin" makes its appearance on the streets of Brooklyn for the third time to-day. It is getting a full crop of "ads" as a recent magazine, and its leading article is an illuminating romance about "Finance and Fideliesticks," which completes the deception of the paper's outward appearance. The article has several subheads, and through Secretary Charles Frederick Adams is going to have a column next week devoted to the guesses of readers as to their meaning.

WARRANT FOR SUGAR SALES AGENT

Alleged That Proceeds of Consignments Worth $17,000 Were Not Deposited. Buffalo, July 5.—A warrant was issued to-day for the arrest of Winthrop E. Broad, general sales agent for the Federal Sugar Refining Company, of New York. The warrant was issued on the application of a representative of the sugar company, and charges Broad with grand larceny in the first degree. Broad left here a week ago, and was last heard of in Detroit. He did a commission business, selling sugar, canned goods and pickles on a commission basis. It is alleged that the proceeds of sales amounting to $17,000 have not been deposited to the credit of the Federal Sugar Refining Company. A bonding company is going over Broad's books.

NOT PREARRANGED, SAYS FRINK

Marshal Was "Simply Taking a Chance" in Second Call at Prentice Place. North Adams, Mass., July 5.—Deputy United States Marshal Charles L. Frink, of this city, who served a subpoena on John D. Rockefeller, denied to-day the statement made yesterday by John D. Rockefeller that the acceptance of service by Mr. Rockefeller was prearranged. Mr. Frink said: "I had absolutely no tip from any source that Mr. Rockefeller was at that address. I was simply taking a chance that I would meet Mr. Rockefeller on the Prentice place. If I had not met him in the afternoon I would have gone back again at night. After I had served the papers on Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Prentice took occasion to apologize for his attitude in the morning. I do not know what transpired between the morning visit and my call in the afternoon, but I do know that the telephone was very busy while I was at the house."

TURNED OVER TO THEIR COMPANY COMMANDERS

For Further Discipline, However. Norfolk, Va., July 5.—C. G. Hastings and Joseph Brasher, privates of the 1st Kentucky Regiment, charged with inciting to riot on the Jamestown exposition War path on Wednesday night, were today found guilty of disorderly conduct, fined $1 and costs each, and after payment turned over to their commanding officer to be further disciplined, according to military regulations.

WON'T POSTPONE THIRD BRIGADE CAMP

Troy, N. Y., July 5.—Brigadier General J. H. Lloyd announced to-day that the Third Brigade camp would be held during the first week in September as originally planned. This decision was reached after a conference with New York City and Albany officials, who had requested a postponement of the camp on account of heavy Labor Day traffic. It was pointed out that the railroad had had ample notice of the camp, and it was too late to change the date. Camp will be held at Felt's Mills, St. Lawrence County.

PITTSBURGH MEN LOST?

Said to Have Dropped $200,000 in New York Banco Game.

Pittsburgh, July 5.—Five Pittsburghers are reported to have lost $200,000 in trying to beat the game at the gambling house in New York where D. C. Davis, of Marietta, Ohio, lost $80,000. Superintendent McQuade of the Pittsburgh police force said to-day: "We have been aware that Pittsburghers were being fleeced in the New York gambling house, but the local men are so prominent they refuse to prosecute the gamblers, preferring to pocket their losses. If we can get them to appear as witnesses I will make the informations."

SHUT OUT FROM HIS MAIL

Veteran Stirs Up Postoffice Department Against William Rockefeller. Washington, July 5.—An investigation has been ordered by Postmaster General Meyer with a view to determining whether a postoffice discontinued at the town of Brandon, N. Y., shall be re-established there. The inquiry involves a peculiar state of facts. According to the papers on file in the Postoffice Department, it appears that several years ago William Rockefeller, who owns a large estate near Terrytown, conceived the idea of acquiring the site of the town of Brandon to fill out his estate. Brandon was a flourishing place, with a postoffice, two or three stores and a small number of residents.

BIG TROLLEYS IN CRASH

One Dead and Many Hurt at North Tonawanda, N. Y.

Tonawanda, N. Y., July 5.—Two of the big trolley cars of the International Railway Company's Lockport line met head on to-night in North Tonawanda. The cars were making about fifteen miles an hour when the collision occurred. The vestibules were smashed, but the cars held together. Daniel Galligan, a Buffalo groceryman, who was hurt internally. His wife and two children were also hurt. The collision occurred on a curve near Robinson street, in North Tonawanda. The car bound for Buffalo was slightly behind time, and the outward bound car was ten minutes late. Butler, motorman of the outward bound car, is alleged, ran past the proper meeting point.

RETIRED CHINESE MINISTER ASSERTS IT IS GREAT ADVANTAGE TO CHINA

Chicago, July 5.—Six Chenung Liang-Cheng, the new Chinese Minister for Foreign Affairs and retired Minister from the Celestial Kingdom to the United States, spent one hour here yesterday on his way home to assume the new office and has here to have come to Chicago. At the station Sir Liang was met by a delegation of Chinese merchants, who were most graciously received. He wishes to make all speed possible on his return to China, and he is expected to leave here on Sunday.

THE FOURTH AT RIO DE JANEIRO

Reception by American Ambassador on Board the Cruiser St. Louis. Washington, July 5.—Independence Day was appropriately celebrated by the officers and crew of the cruiser St. Louis, at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where the ship stopped for a brief time on her way down the South American coast. A dispatch from "Commander" says there were boat races, baseball, and a reception on board the vessel, at which the American Ambassador received the President of Brazil, Cabinet officers, and the Mayor of Rio de Janeiro. The ship was accompanied by the Brazilian cruiser "Muniz Barreto," and the Brazilian gunboat "Muniz Barreto."

TO INVESTIGATE KIDNAPPING

Arizona Case Taken Up by United States Department of Justice. Washington, July 5.—The Department of Justice, at the request of the State Department, directed the United States District Attorney for Arizona to make an investigation into the alleged kidnapping of Manuel Saravia, into Mexico of Manuel Saravia, an alleged Mexican agitator, reported to have been conspired with a Mexican newspaper published in St. Louis in the interest of the revolutionary party. The inquiry is undertaken at the instance of friends of Saravia, but so far nothing has been heard from the territorial authorities.

NEW JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION LOAN

To Raise $325,000 on Second Mortgage—Mr. Barr Director General, with Full Power. Norfolk, Va., July 5.—The stockholders of the Jamestown Exposition Company authorized the board of directors to-night to place a second mortgage on the company's property, to cover a second loan, understood to be for $325,000. The original loan was for $1,000,000 on which a first mortgage will be given as security. It was declared that the two loans, aggregating $725,000, will cover all of the outstanding obligations of the company and put it on its feet. The directors adopted the report of the conference committee, formally electing James M. Barr as director general of the exposition. Mr. Barr receives absolute power and those employed in the department heads as he may deem necessary. It was decided to retain the board of governors merely in an advisory capacity to Mr. Barr.

WASHINGTON POLICE CLERK MISSING

Shortages Alleged in Several Funds in His Custody. Washington, July 5.—Metropolitan Police Department, chief clerk, announced to-day that J. Arthur Kemp, chief clerk and also property clerk of the Police Department, has disappeared, and that from a brief examination of his books it appears that he is short in his accounts $2,000 or more. Major Sylvester stated that he had ordered a further investigation to be made of Mr. Kemp's books, to see what had happened to the money. Mr. Kemp, it was announced, seems now to be short in his accounts as property clerk, as chief clerk and as a custodian of the Police Department's funds. It was stated that the other clerks who are paid to widows and orphans of policemen, the shortage so far unaccounted for is declared to be about $2,000. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

AMUSEMENT COMPANY BANKRUPT

Trenton, N. J., July 5.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court to-day against the Will J. Block Amusement Company, a New Jersey corporation. The largest creditor is Norris S. Large, of Philadelphia, who says he has loaned the company $239,381. Other claimants are D. Frank Lodge, of New York, a sign painter, and George W. Ornston of New York, a masonry builder.

ADVISES PRISON FOR SPEEDERS

Eastport, Long Island, July 5.—Automobilists throughout this section are much disturbed over the notice which District Attorney Francis J. O'Connell issued to the justices of the peace urging that imprisonment be imposed where the ordinary penalty seems inadequate to check reckless speeding. The result of the notice will probably be a marked increase in the speeding of cars, as none of the owners would invite imprisonment.

Retiring Chinese Minister Asserts It Is Great Advantage to China. "The 'open door' policy be maintained in China," the minister was asked. "Most assuredly," he replied. "That is of as much or more advantage to China than to any nation with whom she trades."

MISS ROY HUNT FOR ORGAN GRINDER

Two Italians Locked Up, Suspected of Kidnapping Solomon Silverman. A general alarm has been sent out by the police for Solomon Silverman, three years and a half old, who disappeared on Sunday from his home, at No. 25 Rutgers street. Yesterday a letter was pushed under the door of the apartments of the boy's parents, on which was scrawled in coarse writing: "If you want to see your boy, go to No. 281 Mott street and see the organ grinder."

GENERAL BLACK MAKES INSPECTION

Pleased with the Customs Service—Suggests Change in Rules. General John C. Black, chairman of the United States Civil Service Commission, who for the last five days has been making an inspection of the customs service of this port, went to Ellis Island yesterday, accompanied by James M. Clark, Surveyor of Customs, and Deputy Surveyor Charles J. Black. General Black said he was pleased with the work of the entire customs service, but he thought the examinations should be of a more practical nature. He said that practical experience in the customs service should have more weight when men are taking examinations for better positions. This, he said, should apply in all departments of the government, and the men and those employed in the Appraisers' Stores should be required to remain by giving more weight to their experience in the examinations when they aspire to higher places.

NO CHARGE AGAINST HOWARD

Baltimore, July 5.—George Bronson Howard was arraigned in the police court to-day charged with assaulting and striking William Engle, a contractor. Mr. Engle declined to prosecute and Howard was discharged. Mr. Engle testified that the author struck Engle on the face with a violent blow over the arm and shoulders with a tennis racket. Engle then planted a right arm blow to Howard's back, knocking him down.

"CRUEL" MAN DIES FROM BROKEN HEART

Lawrence Wallace, the caretaker of the Duer estate, Hawthorn Park, Westchester, who was arrested last month on a bench warrant, charged with having set savage dogs on some children, is dead. His friends say he died from a broken heart. The children, in trying to escape the dogs, plunged over a cliff and were seriously injured. The old man did not know who owned the boys, and was guilty of setting them on the little boys. The latter, Bernard Thorkes and William Zimmerman, of 140th street, New York, were the boys, which was at first thought from their fall.

COAL FOR THE PHILIPPINES

Baltimore, July 5.—The British steamship Ocean Monarch is at Port Covington loading coal for the United States government, and is expected to sail on Monday with between 5,000 and 7,000 tons for Point Bangley, P. I. Six other steamships are under charter to load coal here for the government.

FORMER SENATOR DROPS DEAD

Martinsville, Ind., July 5.—Former United States Senator J. G. McKaken, of Ohio, sixty-one years old, dropped dead this evening at a sanatorium while talking with his wife. He came here a week ago suffering from Bright's disease. He had served in the Senate and the lower house of the Ohio Legislature and an unexpired term as United States Senator. The body was taken to Hamilton, Ohio, to-night for burial.

MISSING TELLER FOUND

when he had recovered himself a little, he exclaimed: "Oh, My God! This will kill my booker! I won't tell her! I can't! I can't!" Ruyman was not formally excused on the basis of the West 125th street station, but was detained by the inspector. Mrs. Carter is held for grand larceny and Mary Dunham as a witness. They will all appear in the Harlem court this morning, say the police. There is, however, some doubt as to that, for the Pinkertons are said to have a warrant issued last Tuesday by Magistrate Kernochan, and if this is found to be the case Ruyman will probably be arraigned in the Criminal Courts Building.

NEW YORK CENTRAL FINED $15,000

Recently Found Guilty of Not Filing Rates on Oil Shipment. Rochester, July 5.—The New York Central Railroad Company was fined $15,000 by Judge Hessel, of New York, who got away with $56,000 last Saturday, was for two years in Pittsburgh as a United States Steel Corporation employe. He worked while here as cashier of the American Steel and Tin Plate Company, whose offices are in the Erie Building. He did not receive a large salary. The paying of small bills concerned in the running of the offices, and of some small salaries which could not well be paid by check from the general headquarters, was about the extent of his responsibility. He is said to have never had to exceed $1,000 in his possession at one time.

BOY HAS EXTRAORDINARY VITALITY

Williamsburg Youth May Recover, Though Bullet Shattered Skull and Pierced Brain. To the surprise of every physician who has seen him, William Nordenschild, the fourteen-year-old Williamsburg boy who was shot by a neighbor last week while trying to get into his parents' house by the back way to avoid a whipping, is still alive and, indeed, on the road to recovery. The bullet which entered the boy's head, pierced the left eye, was deflected into the brain and passed out through the back of the head, after shattering the mastoid bone.

CURB ON SCHMITZ'S PRIVILEGES

Attorney Demands to Know Why Mayor Is Restricted While "Ruef" Rooms at Will. San Francisco, July 5.—Judge Dunne put a stop to-day to the liberty allowed Mayor Schmitz when his attorney, Frank Drew, applied for the customary order permitting the convicted Mayor to leave the county jail to visit his attorneys and go to his home for luncheon. Judge Dunne issued the order, but prescribed that Schmitz might leave the jail to go to the office of his attorneys, that he should not be allowed to go to his home and that his absence from the jail should be limited to three hours. Drew became angry when Judge Dunne made the order in these terms, and demanded to know why "Abe" Ruef is allowed to roam about at will in the companionship of Elmer Biggy and live upon the fat of the land.

SWIM TO RESCUE WITH CLOTHES ON

Stamford, July 5.—A sick containing Ernest Noyes and A. C. Dixon, in rescued from a business man, overturned in the harbor here to-day. Mr. Dixon, who is elderly and cannot swim, sank beneath it. Noyes swam under the boat and pulled him to the surface. He was able to hold his head above the water until half a dozen rescuers swam out from the Corinthian Yacht Club dock. The rescuers did not take time to doff their clothes.
