

MAINE RESORTS NEVER WITHOUT SOME FORM OF EXCITEMENT.

Cottage on Fire and Theft of Launch Stir Up Bar Harbor.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 20 (Special).—The week has been full of excitement, mixed with a little tragedy. The excitement was caused by the theft of David B. Ogden's 25-foot launch Ripple, leased for the summer to Mrs. Edward Coles, of New York, which was stolen boldly from the moorings early on Thursday morning. The launch had a speed of seven knots, and was provided with sufficient gasoline to make ninety miles before being returned. The launch has all taken up and returned to the boat, but it has not been found as yet. The police are somewhat worried, for this is the second case of the kind this season, and they feel that there is an organized gang of thieves.

Mrs. Arthur Wellman, of New York, was among the entertainers of Monday evening, giving a dinner at the Hotel Weymouth. The guests included Mrs. W. H. Street, Mrs. Buchanan Whitford, Mrs. D. Henry Knowlton, Mrs. Dugan, Mrs. A. M. Coates and Mrs. Hugh D. Babcock.

Bar Harbor is to get no warships this summer, as a dispatch from the Secretary of the Navy received here this week states that no warships will be sent to the New England coast, in view of the present manoeuvres. Bar Harbor regrets this exceedingly, for the presence of the fleet contributed much to the success of the season.

Mrs. Barton, who has been absent nearly a year, is expected shortly from Europe, and will open her Bar Harbor cottage, Sea Terrace, August 1. She spent last winter at Cannes, with her little grandchildren. Following the London season, she has gone to Scotland to pay several visits.

The members of the Summer Residents' Association, organized a few years ago for the purpose of bettering municipal conditions, have incorporated the purpose of adding to the membership of the present permanent land owning residents' Association have been the same in a body in the new organization, which is known as the Bar Harbor Property Owners' Association. The board of directors is composed of Dr. W. W. Kenney, Dr. Robert Amory, Dr. E. E. Opreky, John S. Kennedy, J. L. Ketterlinus, Dr. Hasket Derby, Clement B. Newbold, Len McDevine, Eugene George B. Dorr and General Thomas Hamilton.

Countess Louise Villars, of New York, came this week, and is the guest of her father, Johnston Livingston, at the Livingston cottage, in Kebo street.

An engagement is the subject of the engagement of Miss Annie P. Sampson, of New York, who is spending the summer here with her parents, to Curtenius Gillette, son of Dr. Walter Gillette. The wedding will take place on Miss Sampson's return to New York in the fall.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Dr. Robert Abbe, of New York, was among the arrivals of Friday, and is at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. He has had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, of New York, came this week, and has opened Greenlaw, the William Lawrence cottage, in West street, which she has taken for the summer months.

New York, came this week, and is at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Lawrence Green cottage, in West street, which she has taken for the summer months.

New York, came this week, and is at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

Mrs. A. R. Lawrence and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of New York, were among the arrivals of Thursday, and are at the Jersey cottage, in Harbor street. They have had for a number of seasons. They will be joined by Judge Lawrence shortly.

AT CASTINE.

Castine, Me., July 20.—This has been a busy week here, and visitors have been arriving by dozens. Among the summer guests are the following: Mrs. W. H. Street, Mrs. Buchanan Whitford, Mrs. D. Henry Knowlton, Mrs. Dugan, Mrs. A. M. Coates and Mrs. Hugh D. Babcock.

NEWPORT LAWN FETE.

Given on the Estate of Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt.

Newport, July 20 (Special).—A lawn fete given for some charitable object or purpose seems to be the right spot, for whenever one of these affairs is given, it is always found to bring out a large gathering of society folk to swell the fund which is being raised, and the cottagers are always willing to give their services to help make a lawn fete a success by themselves turning tables and waitresses for the time being.

The first lawn fete for a charitable object to be given in Newport this season took place this week, when through the kindness of Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Oakland Farm, her Portsmouth estate, was thrown open to the public for the benefit of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, a little country party adjoining the Vanderbilt farm, and fully two thousand persons in the afternoon filled the lawns of the estate, visiting the various booths that had been erected about the grounds, all of which were presided over by one or more members of the cottage colony, assisted by the women members of St. Mary's parish.

Mrs. Vanderbilt played a prominent part in the affair, not only giving her grounds, but also acting as general manager, practically in full charge of all departments. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosalind Schenck Collins and several members of the social colony, whose summer homes are in Portsmouth and Middletown, were her able assistants, and through their efforts St. Mary's parish will be materially benefited.

There is also to be another fete at Harbor View, the home of Mrs. John Nicholas Brown, on August 6, for the benefit of the choir fund of Emmanuel Church, of Newport.

A number of the families of the summer colony arrived at their villas this week for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, of Philadelphia, have, as usual, taken on the Pinard cottages for the season. Commodore Edwin D. Morgan, with Mrs. Morgan, arrived at Beacon Rock, while Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Powell, who have been abroad for the last several months, opened their cottage in Old Beach Road, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gerard North arrived on Thursday, as did Richard Stevens, who this season is occupying the Duryea cottage, on Beacon Hill. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Patton, newcomers to the summer colony this year, are at the Swift cottage, in Bellevue avenue. Mrs. Robert Gough, who has just returned from abroad, came Thursday evening and took possession of her villa, after an absence of several years.

Another European traveller to return to Newport last week was Mrs. John Thompson Spencer, who has recently returned from the other side of the water, who joined Mr. Spencer and her son, William G. Spencer, at Althorpe, the Spencer villa, in Russells avenue. After an absence of two years Mr. and Mrs. W. Starbuck Miller are back in Newport again at their villa, in Ocean avenue. Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutton, close neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, are also back in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter, of New York, are also in Newport this summer, for it was announced last week that they had leased Mrs. Van D. Row's cottage in Bellevue avenue, just opposite Marble House, for the rest of the season. Their arrival is looked for at any time.

Hotels and boarding places have been numerous this week, though all of the social affairs that have been given have been comparatively small ones. Those entertaining were Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mrs. William G. Roeder, Mrs. Edward J. Borden, Mrs. Rosalind Vanderbilt, Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Eliza Davis, Jr., Mrs. James R. Hagan, Mrs. William West, Mrs. Louis L. Lorrain, Mrs. E. G. Slater, Mrs. A. Lanier North, Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll, Mrs. William S. Patton, Mrs. George H. Foster, Mrs. William H. Hunter, Mrs. Elizabeth T. Gerry, the latter entertaining aboard his steam yacht Electra, while all of the other social affairs which were given were held at the homes of the hostesses.

Before the ending of another week Newport will see the opening of the tennis season, for the first matches in the women's tennis tournaments are to be played in the latter part of next week. Golf should also be popular the coming week, for Rodrick Terry has offered four cups as prizes in a sweepstake tournament, and the play for these will begin in the week. Sports are most popular this season, and already at least one informal practice game of polo is being played at the Westchester Polo Club grounds each week.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Chase, of Riverside, Cal., are at the Watch Hill House for a few weeks. Mrs. Chase is one of the largest orange growers of the Golden State. Mrs. Chase is an enthusiastic golfer, and they went to the club on their first morning.

Mrs. William R. Thompson, of Sparkhill, N. Y., who occupied the Page cottage last August, is spending this season abroad with her daughter.

Professor and Mrs. E. B. Reid, of New Haven, have rented for the summer Dr. Champlin's cottage, which John Knapp, of "The St. Louis Republican," occupied last summer.

The big steam yacht Columbia, which was in Stonington Harbor last week, brought Mr. and Mrs. Stephen O. Metcalfe here for a brief visit to Mr. Metcalfe's brother, Manton B. Metcalfe. The Columbia is chartered by Walter G. Ladd, N. Y. C., and has come from here to Newport.

To Windward, Mrs. Helen D. MacLanahan's cottage on the Ridge Road, is occupied this season by Dr. William Roby and family, of Boston. Dr. Roby is an enthusiastic horseman, and spends much of his time in the saddle.

Mrs. H. C. Halle, of Springfield, and her sister, Miss Sophie Pennington, of Baltimore, are spending the season at the Watch Hill House. Mrs. Halle is a daughter-in-law of Mrs. W. H. Halle, of Springfield, who has a summer home here on Newport Avenue.

Mrs. G. B. Duren and Miss M. E. Weisgerber, of Newark, who were at Watch Hill last season, have returned to the Ocean House and will stay until September.

WATCH HILL BUSY WEEK.

This Seaside Resort Now Known as "Little Pittsburg."

Watch Hill, R. I., July 20 (Special).—The summer colonists at Watch Hill have had a busy week. There have been many entertainments at the hotels and cottages and many interesting happenings.

The arrival of Mayor and Mrs. George W. Cutler, of Pittsburg, gives all the official sanction necessary to confirm Watch Hill's nickname of "Little Pittsburg." Mr. Cutler and his wife are popular, and their many friends here make much of them. They will spend the season at the Ocean House.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Chase, of Riverside, Cal., are at the Watch Hill House for a few weeks. Mrs. Chase is one of the largest orange growers of the Golden State. Mrs. Chase is an enthusiastic golfer, and they went to the club on their first morning.

Mrs. William R. Thompson, of Sparkhill, N. Y., who occupied the Page cottage last August, is spending this season abroad with her daughter.

Professor and Mrs. E. B. Reid, of New Haven, have rented for the summer Dr. Champlin's cottage, which John Knapp, of "The St. Louis Republican," occupied last summer.

The big steam yacht Columbia, which was in Stonington Harbor last week, brought Mr. and Mrs. Stephen O. Metcalfe here for a brief visit to Mr. Metcalfe's brother, Manton B. Metcalfe. The Columbia is chartered by Walter G. Ladd, N. Y. C., and has come from here to Newport.

To Windward, Mrs. Helen D. MacLanahan's cottage on the Ridge Road, is occupied this season by Dr. William Roby and family, of Boston. Dr. Roby is an enthusiastic horseman, and spends much of his time in the saddle.

Mrs. H. C. Halle, of Springfield, and her sister, Miss Sophie Pennington, of Baltimore, are spending the season at the Watch Hill House. Mrs. Halle is a daughter-in-law of Mrs. W. H. Halle, of Springfield, who has a summer home here on Newport Avenue.

Mrs. G. B. Duren and Miss M. E. Weisgerber, of Newark, who were at Watch Hill last season, have returned to the Ocean House and will stay until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engert, of Brooklyn, arrived this week at the Ocean House for the rest of July.

Mrs. H. H. Perlin, of Cincinnati, who had a cottage at Watch Hill for several years, arrived last week with her daughter, Miss Frances H. Perlin, and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Hulbert, to spend the season at the Ocean House.

Mrs. C. Byron Cottrell gave a bridge whist on Thursday at the Archer in honor of Mrs. Thompson. This was one of the first social affairs of importance of this season and many Hill people were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Nesmith and Miss Nesmith, of Brooklyn, and Miss Jeanette Appleby, of Houston, Tex., are recent arrivals at the Ocean House and will spend the rest of the season here.

Morning musicals have become one of the pleasant features of life at the Watch Hill House, where much talent, vocal and instrumental, flourishes. Charles F. Hammond, barytone, and Fred Kelsey, violin, have been regaling their friends with songs. Mr. Kelsey is a Yale '97 man, who played while in college in the New Haven Symphony Orchestra, of which Professor Parker is leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Newton, former rector of All Souls' Church, Manhattan, and family arrived at the Ocean House last week for a short stay. The Newtons are touring, and from here go to the Pier.

Among those who are spending the season at the Watch Hill House are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Colt and family, Mrs. George P. Lea and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth J. Lea, of Philadelphia, who have many friends among the cottage colony, and Mrs. and Miss Farnsworth, of Albany. Mrs. R. C. Colt is one of the Auchincloss family who used to come to Watch Hill every summer, but have not been here for several years. Another family of New York are at this hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lyon, and son, Mr. Robert Lyon.

Block Island, R. I., July 20 (Special).—There are many more people on the island than there were a week ago, and every boat now is bringing down large numbers. The weather continues delightfully clear and cool, and everybody is happy.

OUT ON BLOCK ISLAND.

Block Island, R. I., July 20 (Special).—There are many more people on the island than there were a week ago, and every boat now is bringing down large numbers. The weather continues delightfully clear and cool, and everybody is happy.

The first large whist party of the season was given on Thursday evening at the National. Among the successful contestants were Mrs. J. D. Miller, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. W. B. Thompson, of Morristown, N. J.

The first baseball game of the season was played this week between the National and Manistee teams, which resulted in a victory of 2 to 4 in favor of the former.

Colonel and Mrs. Edmund L. Cole, of Westfield, N. J., are back for the season at the Ocean View. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cahoon, of Reading, Penn., are spending a few weeks at the island.

Mrs. George Fobes and Miss Marjorie Fobes, of Olean, N. Y., are at the National.

William Angus and T. L. Angus, of New York, are two popular young men at the Manistee. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slade and family, of New York, are back at the Slade mansion for the season. Mr. Slade has recently purchased the farm adjoining his estate at the Bayside.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Hopkins and Harold Hopkins, of Summit, N. J., are guests at the Woonsocket House.

Otto L. Obermair, of New York, spent the week end at the Bayside.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Heineberg, of New York, are at the Manistee.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Casper and family, of New York, are spending the month at the Manistee.

A horse at Red Hill the other day jumped into a motor car. Evidently it had got tired of walking and wanted to ride. It remains us of the horse in the story which threw on his harness and went out and called a cab.—London Globe.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Hopkins and Harold Hopkins, of Summit, N. J., are guests at the Woonsocket House.

Otto L. Obermair, of New York, spent the week end at the Bayside.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Heineberg, of New York, are at the Manistee.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Casper and family, of New York, are spending the month at the Manistee.

A horse at Red Hill the other day jumped into a motor car. Evidently it had got tired of walking and wanted to ride. It remains us of the horse in the story which threw on his harness and went out and called a cab.—London Globe.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Hopkins and Harold Hopkins, of Summit, N. J., are guests at the Woonsocket House.

Otto L. Obermair, of New York, spent the week end at the Bayside.

ATLANTIC CITY AFFAIRS.

Many Elks Go from Philadelphia to the Shore.

Atlantic City, July 20 (Special).—The tent village in the fashionable district of Chelsea, is open for the summer. There are dozens of large and commodious tents there, with all the conveniences of cottages in them. Like an apartment, everything is on the one floor, and there are no stairs to climb. The tents are comfortably furnished, and afford a maximum amount of enjoyment at a minimum of expense. Every attention has been paid to the proper sanitation of the village, and one can live there in as much comfort as at the best hotels.

Among the visitors at the New England Hotel is Shaban Bey Goshka, an Albanian revolutionary hero in Britain, who was banished from Turkey several years ago, and who only a few months ago became a naturalized citizen of the United States. The Sultan placed a price of $5,000 upon his head. But the Albanian says he will soon go back to his native country. He has no fears of the Sultan since becoming a citizen of the United States. He has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

The annual horse show, which has been held this week and closed to-night, has been one of the best that have ever been held under the auspices of the local association. The weather has been good and the crowds large. Among the most successful exhibitors were George Watson, of New York; Mrs. John J. Gerken, of Gravesend, Long Island, and W. Watson, of Baltimore. Former Congressman Silas Hays, now a judge in the United States District Court, is spending a couple of weeks here, and is staying at the Pennock Hotel. Hays is a well known sportsman with Atlantic City, and comes over to the shore every time he has a few days that he can spare from his official duties. Since his appointment as judge Mr. Hays has been doing work in his travels that will add in educating the young men of his country.

The Elks owned Atlantic City to-day. Many members of the order, who have been spending the week in Philadelphia attending the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, came over to the shore this morning as the guests of the Atlantic City Lodge, No. 25. The local members prepared a clam-bake and many other features of entertainment for their visiting brethren. There were rolling chair rides, sailing parties, trolley excursions, fishing parties, and everything else to please the visitor.

BOAT RACES AMONG THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.

Season on the St. Lawrence New Approaching Its Height.

FRONTENAC, N. Y. (Special).—Another week the season at the resorts along the upper St. Lawrence River will be in full swing. Monday the number of visitors has daily increased, nearly all of the hotels have their rooms taken for the rest of the season, and cottages are rapidly filling up. Motor boat racing, which has been a feature of the season, will soon be in vogue, the regatta committee of the various yacht clubs have completed their season arrangements, which include many interesting speed contests.

The regatta of the season was at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club, Alexandria Bay, to-day, and will be followed by the contests of the Frontenac Yacht Club, consisting of a handicap regatta on August 2, and the race for the silver cup given by Commodore Charles C. Emery, of New York, owner of Valmet Island. Other races are scheduled for later dates in August.

Miss Mather, of New York, has returned to New York, after spending two weeks with Mrs. Acker at Thousand Island Park.

E. Bradley, of New York, is at Alexandria Bay for the summer and has opened his houseboat Ardena and his yachts Klotowah and Oswestah.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Clark, of New York, who have been in the city for two weeks for two weeks at First View, have returned home.

T. B. Kerr and family, of New York, are at their summer home, The Kermis, on Grennell's Island.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wells, of New York, are occupying Bonnie Clastic this season at Alexandria Bay.

George C. Boldt and family are occupying their house on Belle Island, and are in process of completion, and rumor has it that the big German castle is to be used for a summer hotel, as it contains ever twelve suites of rooms and has a fine view over the lake.

Miss Mather, of New York, has returned to New York, after spending two weeks with Mrs. Acker at Thousand Island Park.

E. Bradley, of New York, is at Alexandria Bay for the summer and has opened his houseboat Ardena and his yachts Klotowah and Oswestah.

GRINDSTONE NECK.

Winter Harbor, Me., July 20.—The tennis courts, which have been thoroughly gone over this spring, have been the center of attraction this week. The cottages are practically all open, and the business of the inn is double that of a year ago at this time. Among those who have already opened their cottages are Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Cresswell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barnes, J. M. Bortie, James T. Drummond, J. B. Thompson, J. L. Thompson, J. Livingston Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosal Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. Price

VIEW FROM THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.

VIEW FROM THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.