

NO LIGHT ON MILLIONS.

Continued from first page.
pany for drawing its lease, and a fee of $20,000 for services in the Doyle and Amory cases.

DISBURSEMENTS BY CRAVATH.

Several of the disbursements made by the Cravath firm were of considerable interest, and the buzz of comment sounded through the room as Mr. Ivins read them from the list.

ONE OF THE TRIAL ASCENSIONS AT ST. LOUIS.

JUST BEFORE THE PSYCHE SAILED AWAY.

tax cases. This Mr. Cravath, who was called to the stand, explained meant Mr. Guthrie's fee and consultation with various counsel.

J. C. MCCOY.

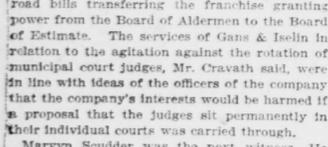

Who took part with Captain De Forest Chandler in the ascension.

(Photograph by Pictorial News Co.)

THE BALLOON SAILING AWAY.

Toward Jacksonville, Ill., where it landed several hours later.

Who took part with Captain De Forest Chandler in the ascension.

APPROVAL FOR WHITMAN.

Letter from J. W. Osborne—Parsons Criticises Mayor.

Judge Charles S. Whitman, of the Court of General Sessions, continues to receive letters from independent Democrats and Republicans who pledge their support.

WOMEN ACCUSE SLEUTH.

Jerome to Take Case Before the Grand Jury.

The charge of assault made against Lieutenant Dennis Grady, of the Central Office, by Mrs. Della Minke, formerly of West 15th street, who, with another woman, was taken to the West 36th street station because of an alleged theft of $100 from the lieutenant, will be considered by the grand jury to-day.

HEARST IN THE FRAY.

Opens Verbal War on the "Bosses" for His League in Brooklyn.

William Randolph Hearst opened the campaign for the Independence League with three speeches in Brooklyn last night. About five hundred persons were waiting for him when he came to Arion Hall, No. 2 Arion Place, in the evening.

THE JUDGES BARTLETT INFORMED.

Accept Republican Nominations at Albany—Senator Sage Spokesman.

Albany, Oct. 17.—Judges Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett were formally informed here to-day of their nominations as associate judges of the Court of Appeals by the Republican party.

PROPOSES A MONEYLESS CAMPAIGN.

John J. Hopper, the Independence League leader of the 21st District, sent a proposition for a moneyless political campaign yesterday to the four Tammany and four Republican leaders of the 19th, 21st, 23rd and 25th districts, in the following letter:

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

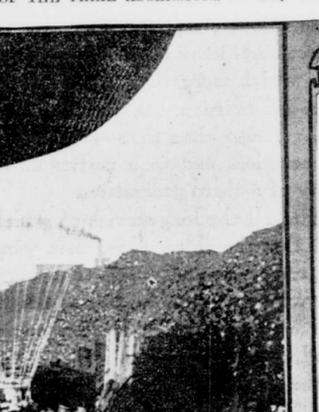

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

to pay for fourth avenue property, $24 and 86th street, $12,500.
December 19, National City Bank, the latter P. commission 2 1/2 per cent on loan $10,000.
December 19, Brooklyn Trust Company, the latter P. commission 2 1/2 per cent on note B. T. Co., $300,000, and interest revenue, $170.79.
December 19, Union Trust Company P. commission 2 1/2 per cent on United States note $12,294.
December 19, Moore & Schley, nothing else on the stub, $294,747.24.
December 19, Strong, Sturges & Co., nothing else on the stub, $122,000.
December 19, Bank of New Amsterdam, nothing else on the stub, $200,000.
December 19, C. W. Morse, $200,000, nothing else on the stub.
December 21, cash, account of internal revenue stamps, National Bank of Commerce, $100.
December 22, Cash, Exchange Bank, nothing else on the stub, $3,750, drawn on the Pacific Bank.
December 22, Citizens Savings and Loan Society, nothing else on the stub on the Pacific Bank, $2,500.
December 22, to cash, nothing else on the stub, on the Plaza Bank, $2,500.
December 19, to the order of cash, nothing else on the stub, on the Plaza Bank, $1,250.
December 22, cash, nothing else on the stub, on the Plaza Bank, $2,500.
December 28, to the order of the State Trust Company, on the State Trust Company, $100,000.
January 10, 1907, to the order of Moore & Schley, nothing else on the stub, on the State Trust Company, $20,000.
January 13, 1907, to the order of Moore & Schley, nothing else on the stub, on the State Trust Company, $20,000.
January 15, 1907, to the order of Moore & Schley, nothing else on the stub, on the State Trust Company, $20,000.
January 17, 1907, to the order of Moore & Schley, nothing else on the stub, on the State Trust Company, $20,000.
In another schedule Mr. Scudder grouped some items which appeared to him to have been

ONE OF THE TRIAL ASCENSIONS AT ST. LOUIS.

JUST BEFORE THE PSYCHE SAILED AWAY.

JUST BEFORE THE PSYCHE SAILED AWAY.

J. C. MCCOY.

Who took part with Captain De Forest Chandler in the ascension.

(Photograph by Pictorial News Co.)

THE BALLOON SAILING AWAY.

Toward Jacksonville, Ill., where it landed several hours later.

APPROVAL FOR WHITMAN.

Letter from J. W. Osborne—Parsons Criticises Mayor.

Judge Charles S. Whitman, of the Court of General Sessions, continues to receive letters from independent Democrats and Republicans who pledge their support.

WOMEN ACCUSE SLEUTH.

Jerome to Take Case Before the Grand Jury.

The charge of assault made against Lieutenant Dennis Grady, of the Central Office, by Mrs. Della Minke, formerly of West 15th street, who, with another woman, was taken to the West 36th street station because of an alleged theft of $100 from the lieutenant, will be considered by the grand jury to-day.

HEARST IN THE FRAY.

Opens Verbal War on the "Bosses" for His League in Brooklyn.

William Randolph Hearst opened the campaign for the Independence League with three speeches in Brooklyn last night. About five hundred persons were waiting for him when he came to Arion Hall, No. 2 Arion Place, in the evening.

THE JUDGES BARTLETT INFORMED.

Accept Republican Nominations at Albany—Senator Sage Spokesman.

Albany, Oct. 17.—Judges Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett were formally informed here to-day of their nominations as associate judges of the Court of Appeals by the Republican party.

PROPOSES A MONEYLESS CAMPAIGN.

John J. Hopper, the Independence League leader of the 21st District, sent a proposition for a moneyless political campaign yesterday to the four Tammany and four Republican leaders of the 19th, 21st, 23rd and 25th districts, in the following letter:

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

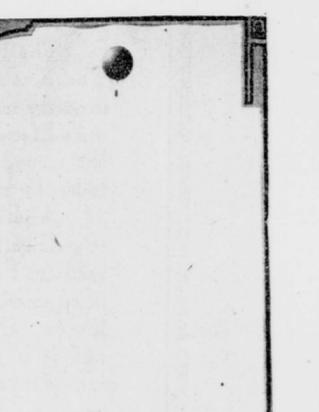

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

May 24, 1907, to the order of cash, account Third Avenue Railroad, on the National Bank of Commerce, $20,000.
December 31, 1906, to the order of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, lease, Third Avenue Railroad Company, written on the stub, "Coupon account," on the Guaranty Trust Company, $125,000.
May 27, 1907, Matthews & Co., on the stub, "Exchange check," on the Morton Trust Company, $9,978.75.
December 22, 1906, to the order of cash, account, general law expenses, on the Morton Trust Company, $5,000.
MR. SAYRE AGAIN ON STAND.
All these figures, presented thus, would be helpful to the receivers, Mr. Ivins said, as well as to the counsel for the respective companies. Then he called Edward W. Sayre, secretary of the Metropolitan Securities Company, to the stand. Taking up a payment of May 15, 1906, of $8,480 to Fahnestock & Co., Mr. Ivins asked the witness to explain it. There was a memorandum in pencil that Fahnestock had purchased at 106 Second Avenue debentures, due 1909. This was initiated "C. E. W." meaning, said Mr. Sayre, Charles E. Warren. Mr. Warren authorized the drawing of the check, as did Mr. Vreeland, he said. The transaction, he went on, was the purchase of a few outstanding Second Avenue bonds. He recalled that their purchase was authorized by the board before it actually took place.
Next Mr. Ivins took up a memorandum for

ONE OF THE TRIAL ASCENSIONS AT ST. LOUIS.

JUST BEFORE THE PSYCHE SAILED AWAY.

JUST BEFORE THE PSYCHE SAILED AWAY.

J. C. MCCOY.

Who took part with Captain De Forest Chandler in the ascension.

(Photograph by Pictorial News Co.)

THE BALLOON SAILING AWAY.

Toward Jacksonville, Ill., where it landed several hours later.

APPROVAL FOR WHITMAN.

Letter from J. W. Osborne—Parsons Criticises Mayor.

Judge Charles S. Whitman, of the Court of General Sessions, continues to receive letters from independent Democrats and Republicans who pledge their support.

WOMEN ACCUSE SLEUTH.

Jerome to Take Case Before the Grand Jury.

The charge of assault made against Lieutenant Dennis Grady, of the Central Office, by Mrs. Della Minke, formerly of West 15th street, who, with another woman, was taken to the West 36th street station because of an alleged theft of $100 from the lieutenant, will be considered by the grand jury to-day.

HEARST IN THE FRAY.

Opens Verbal War on the "Bosses" for His League in Brooklyn.

William Randolph Hearst opened the campaign for the Independence League with three speeches in Brooklyn last night. About five hundred persons were waiting for him when he came to Arion Hall, No. 2 Arion Place, in the evening.

THE JUDGES BARTLETT INFORMED.

Accept Republican Nominations at Albany—Senator Sage Spokesman.

Albany, Oct. 17.—Judges Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett were formally informed here to-day of their nominations as associate judges of the Court of Appeals by the Republican party.

PROPOSES A MONEYLESS CAMPAIGN.

John J. Hopper, the Independence League leader of the 21st District, sent a proposition for a moneyless political campaign yesterday to the four Tammany and four Republican leaders of the 19th, 21st, 23rd and 25th districts, in the following letter:

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

MR. CRAVATH'S IDEA OF "P."

The "P" appearing on these check stubs was taken by Mr. Cravath and Charles L. Ludlam, the present controller of the surface system, as indicating "property."

AMORY JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

After being out seven hours, the jury which has been trying the suit of William N. Amory against H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, for an alleged libel, reported to Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, in trial Term, Part 12, yesterday that it was unable to agree. It is understood that the juryman stood eight for the plaintiff and four for the defendant.

REPUBLICANS INDORSE CANDIDATES.

Robert C. Winters, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; John Mullen, candidate for alderman in the 40th District; Michael Redmond, candidate for alderman in the 35th District; J. H. Bernatowicz and Theodore E. Cooper were the speakers last night at a ratification meeting at the Park Republican Club, No. 44 Tremont avenue, in the 35th Assembly District, of which T. W. Whittle, the secretary of the Republican County Committee, is the leader.

BRYAN WON'T CHARGE FOR TALKING.

Harry W. Walker, in charge of William J. Bryan's campaign in this state, said last night that there was no truth in the report that Colonel Bryan was to receive $500 for speaking in Plymouth Church on Sunday night.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

California The Los Angeles Limited Overland Limited Electric Lighted Chicago, Union Pacific and North Western Line

BALLOONS IN NIGHT TEST.