MR. COLT'S FIELD DAY.

SCORES IN FOUR RACES. Good Sized Crowd Enjoys Sport at United Hunts Meeting.

J. W. Colt started four of his jumpers yesterday and won as many races on the second day of the United Hunts Racing Association meeting near Belmont Park. This record surpasses the one he made on Saturday, when he won three races and finished third in another. His horses were so much better than their opponents that in several races there was hardly a semblance of a contest.

It was an ideal day for cross country racing and the course could not have been in better condition. A fair sized crowd of society folk were on hand to see the races and make small wagers to give an added zest to the sport.

As on Saturday, J. W. Colt started the day with a winner, his four-year-old jumper Kara leading from start to finish in the first race, the Hollis and the Hollis being the only other competitors.

For some unknown reason Malcolm Stevenson's horse, which was the favorite, did not appear in the race. The race was won by Mr. Alpers riding in the Orange County Hunters' Steeplechase at two miles and a half.

The riding hours among the gentlemen jockeys went right to the limit, however, and the jockeys were tired and the horses were fatigued.

ON THE GOLF LINKS.

A. L. Everett Wins University Club Handicap at St. Andrews.

Members of the University Club competed in their annual golf handicap tournament at the links of the St. Andrews Golf Club yesterday. A. L. Everett, a graduate of Trinity College, Cambridge, led the field in the thirty-six-hole competition with a card of 178-22-156. D. P. Kingsley, representing the University of Vermont, came in second, with 171-182, while William C. Hill, of Princeton, won third prize with 187-22-184.

A rate of wind whistled over the course all day, and this, combined with the soft going, made scoring extremely difficult. It was because of this combination that a majority of the thirty odd starters refrained from returning cards.

Some nine years ago Willie Anderson, the professional, drove the green with a hand ball. Extensive improvements are contemplated for another season at the Ardsale Golf Club. It is now practically settled that a new clubhouse will be built, and there will be an issue of stock for that purpose.

Large turnout of members is expected at the Ardsale Club on November 5 (Election Day). The golf committee announces that the chief attraction will be the Harry Holbrook Cup Handicap, for which no entrance fee will be charged.

M'NAMARA AND LOW WIN AT GOLF.

Defeat Strong Field in Professional Four-Ball Foursomes at Brookline.

Brookline, Mass., Oct. 30.—Tom McNamara, of Fall River, and George Low, of Baltusrol, won the four-ball foursomes at the Country Club yesterday, the second event in the annual meeting of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association. McNamara and Low had a stroke to spare over John Hutchinson, who finished second, and Campbell, of the Country Club, who won second prize, and Deane, of Oakley, and Jack Campbell, of Philadelphia, took third place. The first prize was $50, the second $30 and the third $20.

The players were handicapped by a strong north-westerly wind and unusually cold weather, yet this did not seem to affect the play. The best balls in all the matches, both morning and afternoon, were under six, with one exception. The scores were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Tom McNamara and George Low: 143. John Hutchinson and Jack Campbell: 144. Deane and Campbell: 147. General Mackie and George Mackie: 149. General Mackie and George Mackie: 149. General Mackie and George Mackie: 149.

LONG RUN TO HOUNDS.

Miss Gladys Mills in at the Finish of Live Fox Hunt.

Meadow Brook, Long Island, Oct. 30 (Special).—Paul Hainey's pack of Mississippi foxhounds led the long run to-day, leading the Meadow Brook Hunt over the hills and through the woods. Miss Gladys Mills, Harold Phillips, and Rainey, Arthur Hayden and W. Robbins were in at the press of their quarry. The hunt was a long one. Mr. Rainey was much pleased at the good work of the hounds over the strange country. The hunt was a long one. Mr. Rainey was much pleased at the good work of the hounds over the strange country.
