A Close Race Between Fort and Katzenbach for Governor.

BURTON DEFEATED IN CLEVELAND.

Massachusetts Re-elects Governor Guild by 100,000 Plurality—Republican Governor of Kentucky—Results in Other States.

Returns from New Jersey indicate that the election for Governor is very close. The Republican leaders have not abandoned the hope that ex-Justice Fort will win.

The Republicans in Cleveland concede the defeat of Congressman Theodore E. Burton for Mayor by Tom L. Johnson, Democrat, elected for a fourth term.

The Republicans won a sweeping victory in Massachusetts, Governor Guild being re-elected by a plurality of 100,000.

In Nebraska the Republicans have probably elected all but one candidate.

In San Francisco, the "Good Government" party elected Mayor Taylor, District Attorney Langdon and others.

The returns in Kentucky indicated that Willson, Republican, would be elected Governor by a substantial plurality.

In Mississippi, the election of Noel, Democratic candidate for Governor, is assured.

Returns from Rhode Island indicate the re-election of Governor James H. Higgins, Democrat.

Pennsylvania returns indicate 175,000 plurality for John D. Sheats, Republican, for State Treasurer.

In Maryland ex-Governor John Walter Smith won in the Senatorial primaries over Governor Warfield.

NEW JERSEY CLOSE. TOM L. JOHNSON WINS

Complete Returns May Show Fort's Defeats Burton in Cleveland and Carries Council with Him.

The result of the election in New Jersey was still in doubt at 2 o'clock this morning. Both sides say they have elected their candidates.

The early reports indicated a plurality for Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., Democratic candidate for Governor, but later returns show John Franklin Fort, Republican candidate, making gains.

At 3 o'clock this morning ex-Justice Fort, speaking with The Tribune over the telephone, said he had carried the state by 8,000 and Essex County by 1,400.

The Republican State Committee at 10 o'clock claimed that the Republicans had carried the state by from 8,000 to 10,000. The Democratic State Committee claimed that Katzenbach had carried Trenton by 1,500.

The earliest reports from counties was that Bergen had gone Republican by 1,500, and that while Senator Wakelee ran behind his ticket the other Republican candidates ran in form.

Burlington reported that the Republican candidate will be elected by over 2,000 majority. Returns seem to indicate that the proposition to abolish the Board of Freeholders for a county commission failed.

Union County, the home of United States Senator John Kean, has been carried by the Republicans by 800. This county gave Stokes, Republican, in 1904, a plurality of 4,273.

At 9:15 o'clock an Associated Press bulletin said that Warren County showed gains over its usual Democratic returns, and that returns from Monmouth were favorable to the Democrats.

Indications in Jersey City at 9:35 o'clock were that Mayor Fagan had been beaten for re-election by H. Otto Wittmann, by a little more than 4,000.

The 23rd Ward gave Wittmann 1,110 plurality. Fagan lost it two years ago by 377. Fagan carried his own district, the 4th of the 5th Ward, two years ago by 95.

His plurality yesterday was only 5, a loss of 90. The entire Democratic city ticket had been elected there. The state committee claimed Hudson County by 10,000 for Katzenbach.

Hudson gave Black a plurality of 7,554 in 1904. The Republican State Committee conceded Hudson County to the Democrats with the exception of Bayonne, which city went Republican by more than 100.

Arlington, Harrison and Kearney and East Newark were carried by Katzenbach by a plurality of 87.

Essex County was early claimed by the Democrats by 4,000. In 1904 Essex went Republican for Stokes by 18,338.

Last year it went Democratic for Assemblymen by 6,170.

Ex-Justice Fort's home town, East Orange, was carried by the Republicans by 2,400, the normal Republican plurality there being 3,000.

Montclair, which is usually Republican by 1,200, went for Fort by 600.

Camden County leaders claim that Mr. Fort has carried the county by 5,000. Camden gave Stokes in 1904 7,506.

Atlantic County reported early a clean sweep of the state ticket for Fort by about less than 1,000.

The normal majority is about 3,000. Atlantic gave Stokes in 1904 a plurality of 4,272.

Middlesex fell behind in its usual Democratic vote and gave Katzenbach only a small majority. Metuchen is Democratic.

Gloucester was reported to have given Katzenbach a majority of about 200. This county in 1904 gave a Republican plurality of 1,465.

Newark probably went Democratic by 6,000 or 7,000.

Monmouth went Democratic by 800 to 1,100 for Katzenbach.

The entire Democratic ticket won. In 1904 Monmouth gave Stokes 1,202 plurality.

The city of Long Branch went Democratic by 800.

Cape May gives Fort about 700 majority in the county.

The city of Cape May elected a Democratic Mayor.

Mercer County was carried by Fort by between 1,200 and 1,500.

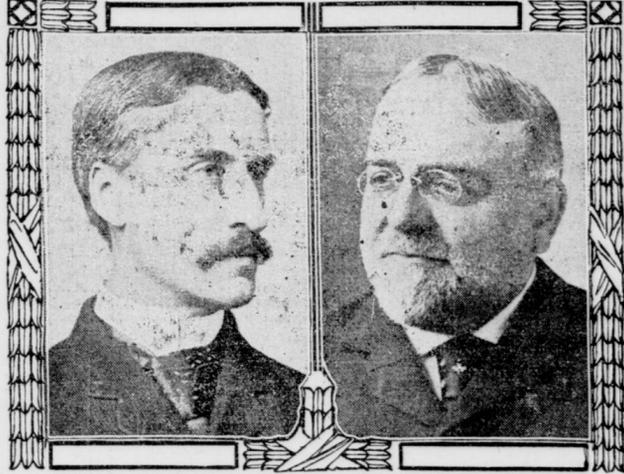

This is Katzenbach's home county.

Salem County has given Fort about 300 plurality. Stokes had 713 plurality.

Warren County gives Katzenbach 1,000. Black

SAFE IN WESTCHESTER.

Republicans May Lose Only County Judge and One Assemblyman.

Heavy Republican losses marked the election in Westchester County as a whole, although most of the county ticket was saved, and three out of four Republican Assemblymen were elected.

H. S. Duell was beaten in the 2d District by M. B. Wright, the Democratic candidate. In the county Judge Platt, it was indicated, was re-elected by a greatly reduced plurality, defeating District Attorney Young, the Republican candidate, but the official count will be necessary to determine the result.

Francis A. Winslow was elected District Attorney over Edward Wells, Jr., the Democratic candidate.

J. M. Wainwright and H. W. Haines return to the Assembly and I. H. Smith joins them. Of the three cities Yonkers and Mount Vernon elected Republican mayors and city tickets, while New Rochelle furnished a surprise by recording a Democratic sweep.

Dr. N. A. Warren defeated Mayor Coyne in Yonkers by about two hundred votes, and the only Democrat elected was Judge Beall, who returns to the city bench.

WESTCHESTER RESULTS.

Republicans Win at Yonkers—Vote Cut Down Elsewhere.

Heavy Republican losses in Westchester County marked yesterday's election. Judge Platt was re-elected county judge over his Republican opponent, District Attorney Young, by a greatly reduced plurality.

The other Republican candidates were elected, but the Board of Supervisors will be Democratic by a small majority. H. S. Duell was defeated for re-election to the Assembly by a large margin in the 2d District, Marmaduke Wright winning as the result of a Democratic sweep in New Rochelle.

The towns of Bedford, New Castle and White Plains voted for local option. No Republican plurality was more than a thousand, as far as can be learned, and H. S. Duell, the Republican candidate for the Assembly in the 2d district, was beaten by nearly five hundred votes by M. B. Wright.

This was due to a Democratic landslide in New Rochelle, where the Democratic city ticket was elected by 450 votes.

The Bartletts obtained a plurality of from eight to ten thousand votes in the county, relatively few votes being cast for the Independence League candidates.

The Independence League was weak everywhere, few of its candidates even making a good showing.

The greatly reduced Republican pluralities in Westchester County, as a whole, came as a great surprise to William L. Ward and the Republican leaders last night.

The election of Judge Platt was not unexpected, and it is considered that Mr. Young made a fine fight. No Republican had a plurality of more than 1,000, according to the last figures obtainable, and this was the more surprising in view of the Republican victory in Yonkers, which has at times been regarded as a Democratic stronghold.

New Rochelle contributed to the Democratic gain materially, the sweep there being entirely unexpected.

It was the New Rochelle vote that caused the defeat of Duell for the Assembly in the 2d District, and the Republicans were congratulating themselves last night that no more of the Assembly candidates went down in the storm of Democratic gains.

The defeat of Haines in Yonkers would not have been so surprising, as he was barely elected last time and was decidedly worried about the result this year.

Mount Vernon affected the general result very little, as the plurality there for the Republican candidates was less than 100. This was also surprising, as a considerable Republican gain had been looked for.

Mayor Brush and his strenuous electioneering in the past have changed the political complexion of the middle city, and Mount Vernon will henceforth be regarded as doubtful.

YONKERS REPUBLICAN.

Dr. Warren Defeats Coyne for Mayor by About Five Hundred.

Dr. N. A. Warren was elected Mayor of Yonkers over Mayor John H. Coyne, the Democrat incumbent, by a plurality of about five hundred. He carried the whole Republican city ticket with him by varying pluralities, with the exception of Judge Beall, who was re-elected city judge by a small plurality.

The Board of Aldermen will be Democratic. The vote in the city was heavier than usual, and the splitting of tickets made the work of counting the ballots slow and difficult.

Positive figures as to the vote polled by William Shrive, the Independence League candidate, were almost impossible to obtain, but it was believed that his vote was small.

The city Republican candidates ran behind the ticket in Yonkers, and Daniel J. Cashin

BARTLETTS ELECTED.

Many Republican Victories in Cities Up the State.

Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett, having the united support of the Republicans and Democrats, were elected judges of the Court of Appeals by a plurality of more than nine hundred thousand.

The total vote for the Independence League candidates evidently did not greatly exceed 110,000. Republicans swept all their candidates with one exception into office in Buffalo, the result being regarded as a repudiation of Mayor Adam's administration.

In Rochester Mr. Aldridge's candidate was elected, but the Democrats carried the Common Council, Alan C. Fobes was elected Mayor of Syracuse for the third time, but by a reduced majority.

Elmira returned to the Democratic column as far as the mayoralty was concerned, Daniel Sheehan defeating Z. R. Brockway, the fusion Mayor. Republicans elected their city and county tickets in Albany.

For the first time in fourteen years the Republicans elected a Mayor of Utica and for the first time in seventeen years the Democrats carried Newburg.

The Republicans swept Ulster County and elected their candidate for Mayor in Kingston. Despite the protests of a united clergy the Democrats of Auburn elected a brewer for Mayor.

UPSTATE ELECTIONS.

Buffalo Repudiates the Administration of Mayor Adam.

Buffalo, Nov. 5.—The administration of Mayor Adam was repudiated here to-day, when the Republicans swept all their leading candidates into office, with the single exception of Police Justice Murphy, who was defeated by Simon A. Nash (Dem.) by 425.

The Republicans elected five out of the six Councilmen and fourteen out of the twenty-five Aldermen. They also elected seventeen out of the twenty-five supervisors in the city. The principal office filled by the Republicans was Commissioner of Public Works, which carries with it the bureaus of building, streets, engineering and water.

Colonel Francis G. Ward won this office by a plurality of 643. Mayor Adam's name was injected into the campaign by the Democrats, and the Democratic papers asserted that if his candidate, Henry Zipp, was not elected it would be a repudiation of the Adam administration.

When Adam was elected two years ago he got 10,000 plurality, and the Democrats figured that Adam's name would carry Zipp to victory. When Ward was last elected his plurality was only 3,500.

Ward's largely increased plurality was a surprise even to his enthusiastic supporters, because of the factional differences in the Republican party in Erie County. Colonel Ward belonged to that wing of the party headed by William C. Warren.

He was nominated after a hard fight, and until well along toward the end of the campaign it was generally believed that the Greiner men would knife him. Even the newspapers which take the Greiner side either attacked him or failed to notice his candidacy.

Two days before election "The Buffalo Express" printed a half-page picture of the front of a voting machine, showing in detail how to cut Ward for Zipp, the Democratic candidate.

Ward's heavy plurality must go far toward re-establishing Mr. Warren's prestige in Erie County, and thus, indirectly, will have a bearing on the Presidential election next year, as Mr. Warren is expected to be a delegate to the state convention, to choose delegates to the Republican National Convention.

EDGERTON WINS IN ROCHESTER.

Rochester, Nov. 5.—Although Hiram H. Edgerton, the Republican candidate for Mayor, was elected by 1,118 over William Ward (Dem.), the Common Council went Democratic to-day by four—a result almost unprecedented in this city.

It was the hottest campaign in many years. Heavy odds were offered against Edgerton, the betting in the street to-day being 10 to 5 in favor of Ward.

Edgerton's defeat comes as a severe blow to State Committeeman Thomas Finucane, the Democratic ticket contained the names of several dissatisfied Republicans, all of whom were defeated.

A feature of the election was the use of money by the Democrats. Charges have been made for a week past in the newspaper owned by William Barnes, Jr., Republican state committeeman, that ex-Governor Odell was using his influence in every

REPUBLICANS SWEEP ALBANY.

Albany, Nov. 5.—The entire Republican county and city tickets were elected to-day, the former by about 3,500 and the latter by about 6,500. Mayor Charles H. Gaus was re-elected for the fourth consecutive time.

The Democrats, Independence League and a Citizens' Union movement united on one candidate, Edward A. Durant, who was at one time a Republican nominee for Mayor. The so-called fusion ticket contained the names of several dissatisfied Republicans, all of whom were defeated.

A feature of the election was the use of money by the Democrats. Charges have been made for a week past in the newspaper owned by William Barnes, Jr., Republican state committeeman, that ex-Governor Odell was using his influence in every

FUSION FORCES DEFEATED.

Whitman, Bruce and Ihmsen Are Beaten by the Democrats.

JUDGES DIKE AND FAWCETT WINNERS

Prendergast Elected Register in Kings County—Clarke Is Probably the Winner Over Hirsh.

The fusion ticket in New York County, according to returns at midnight, was defeated by from 15,500 to 25,000 votes.

Judge Charles S. Whitman, fusion candidate to succeed himself as judge of the Court of General Sessions, was defeated by about 15,000 votes.

Thomas F. Foley, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, defeated Maximilian F. Ihmsen, fusion, by about 27,000.

Justice M. Linn Bruce was not returned to the Supreme Court bench, being beaten by James W. Gerard, Democrat, by about 25,000.

Late returns indicated that Judges Dike and Fawcett, Republican, had been re-elected judges of the County Court, and that William A. Prendergast, Republican, had been elected Register in Kings, but that the Democrats had re-elected Clarke.

Warren defeated Coyne for Mayor of Yonkers, and Judge Platt was re-elected County Judge in Westchester.

Republicans lost a few members of Assembly in this state, but the party control of the lower house will not be shaken. Henry Seacord, seventy-nine years old, who helped organize the Republican party in Orange County, was elected to the Assembly in the 1st District of that county.

VOTE FOR SHERIFF, NEW YORK COUNTY.

Table with columns for Ihmsen (Fus.), Foley (Dem.), and A. D. (Fus.) with corresponding vote counts for various districts and a total.

A TAMMANY TRIUMPH. DIKE AND FAWCETT.

Murphy Not Entirely Satisfied, but Celebration Proceeds.

Tammany made a sweep of it on the county ticket, and celebrated accordingly. The victory was not as satisfying as Charles F. Murphy hoped for, he having predicted about 75,000 plurality for Foley, but all the big and little Tammany men will make believe to-day that it was the grandest triumph in the history of the organization.

"Big Tom" Foley, the successful candidate for Sheriff, was on hand last night at the Wigwam to receive the congratulations of his friends, and so were James W. Gerard, Joseph F. Mulqueen and other candidates.

Early in the evening it became apparent that Tammany had won. As soon as returns from the first fifty election districts made it seem certain that fusion had been beaten "Jimmie" O'Leary, the white haired old Assemblyman from the Sullivan district, took the early returns and went upstairs, where a large audience was on hand to hear the news.

Foley reached the hall before 8 o'clock, and as soon as he entered the room where the returns were being received those present sprang to their feet, cheered him and then rushed forward to shake hands.

Charles F. Murphy reported at 8:25, accompanied by James E. Gaffney and Magistrate "Joe" Moss.

Outside of the Wigwam, the noisemakers were busy early. In addition to tin horns the confetti throwers made things lively, and in the midst of the hurrah, a large electric sign, with the words "Foley," was suddenly lighted in front of the Dewey Theatre.

By 9 o'clock the executive office of the building was filled with district leaders and candidates. Among them were Justice Dowling, Congressman Rordan, Daniel F. Cohan and Thomas F. Smith, who had the returns; Joseph F. Mulqueen, John J. Scannell, Lewis Nixon, Justice Erlanger, "Little Tim" Sullivan, ex-Corporation Counsel Delany, John T. Oakley and Congressman Goldfogle.

As usual, the early returns indicated a landslide for Tammany, and joyfulness was abundant.

"Foley will have 75,000," said Thomas F. Smith to Charles F. Murphy. As 75,000 was the estimate that Mr. Murphy made on Monday, he looked for an hour like a prophet. But as the night wore on the Tammany plurality began to dwindle. At 10 o'clock the estimated margin was down to 40,000, and still tapering. At 10:30 Secretary Smith said that the new Sheriff would have about 35,000 and the county ticket about 30,000 plurality.

When Charles F. Murphy was asked what he had to say, he motioned to "Tommy" Smith, and Mr. Smith produced the following typewritten statement prepared in the afternoon:

The result is most gratifying to the organization and myself, and it indicates that the people have enthusiastically endorsed the policies and the candidates of the organization and repudiated Mr. Hearst and everything for which he stands. The vote should have a tendency to convince Mr. Hearst that the people will not tolerate reckless and groundless assaults upon the characters of decent men, made for the purpose of political advantage.

"Big Tom" Foley's statement also was found in Mr. Smith's inside pocket. It is as follows: I want to thank the people of New York from the bottom of my heart. I have always believed that when a man spends his life treating his fellow men squarely and honestly and endeavoring to build up a good moral character, no lying statements can tear down his reputation.

To those who have honored me with their votes and to all the people I promise that I will conduct the Sheriff's office in a manner which will justify the confidence placed in me.

Daniel F. Cohan, chairman of the Tammany law committee, who has done a great deal of hard work in the campaign, said that Tammany owed its victory to a large extent to the mismanagement of the fusion campaign.

"It wasn't tight money market or Odellism so much as it was Herbert Parsons himself," said Mr. Cohan. "Mr. Parsons has a whole lot to learn about local politics. He may learn after a moment before and was probably on his way to the polling place then, but the polls closed without the leader's vote.

Mr. Hearst's secretary said last night that Mr. Hearst was sick and could not see any one. He had had callers all day, the secretary said, and had been unable to get away in time to vote.

Mr. Hearst refused last night to send down any comment on the election news to him in small batches.

The polling place where Mr. Hearst would have voted had he been able to leave his home was in an undertaking establishment.

OHIO.

Republicans Win in Cincinnati—Results in Other Cities.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—The election of Colonel Leopold Markbreit, Republican candidate for Mayor, is conceded by the opposition parties. Reports from twenty-seven of the 237 precincts indicate that his plurality will be not less than 10,000.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Returns from twenty out of 139 precincts in the city give Bond, Republican, for Mayor, 2,763; Duncan, Democrat, 1,635. This is a Republican gain of thirty-five to a precinct compared with the vote for Governor two years ago, when Governor Herlick carried the city by 3,550. If the ratio of Republican gain were maintained Bond would have a majority of more than five thousand, but the early returns are from "liberal" precincts, where a heavy vote for Bond was expected.

Toledo, Nov. 5.—Estimates based on returns from six precincts, in comparison with the last election, indicate the election of Brand Whitlock, Independent, over Bartley, Republican, as Mayor by a majority of 9,500.

At 9:30 o'clock Chairman Fuller of the Republican committee conceded the election of the entire Independent ticket, headed by Mayor Whitlock.
