

BRYAN'S POINT OF VIEW TALKS ABOUT POLICIES. Compares Mr. Roosevelt's with His at Washington Dinner.

Washington, Nov. 26.—William J. Bryan was the guest of honor at a dinner and reception given to-night by the "United Democracy of the District of Columbia." Five hundred Democrats partook of the three-dollar dinner, and more than double that number participated in the reception and feast of oratory which followed.

ELEPHANT VERSUS DONKEY. Before taking up the serious presentation of his subject, Mr. Bryan referred to some of the remarks made by preceding speakers.

The donkey is really a better emblem than the elephant for a party. This was impressed upon my mind when I visited other countries. I found that the donkey is a resident of every country and that he is the servant of the people, and that, too, the common people.

WORRY KILLS G. C. LYON. President of Caswell-Massey Company Dies from Heart Trouble.

Providence, Nov. 26.—George C. Lyon, of this city, president of the Caswell-Massey Company, druggists, of New York City, which went into the hands of a receiver this month, died at his home here to-night from heart trouble following an attack of nervous prostration.

WESTON'S WALK ENDS. Due to Arrive in Centre of Chicago Before Noon To-day.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Edward Payson Weston started on the last stage of his record breaking journey from Portland, Me., at 11 o'clock this forenoon. At that hour he set out from Chesterton, Ind., where he had passed the morning hours in resting, and, according to his plans, which differed somewhat from those based on his accomplishment of yesterday when he crossed practically the whole State of Indiana in a little over twenty-four hours, he expected to arrive at the Chicago Beach Hotel, seven miles south from the centre of the city, at midnight, completing the walk to the Chicago Post-office, where the trip is to end, before noon to-morrow.

DANIEL REBUKES BRYAN. Senator Accuses Nebraskan of Trying to Dictate to Party.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Two Democratic Presidential candidates, William Jennings Bryan and Senator Daniel, of Virginia, got into an animated colloquy in the lobby of the New Willard this afternoon. The controversy drew quite a crowd and threatened to precipitate an old-time hotel lobby political discussion.

CARAVAN FOR SINCLAIR. TENT DWELLERS' COLONY. Plans Willy-Nilly Ramble a la Gypsy with Band of Faithful.

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 26.—Upton Sinclair, who is at a sanatorium here with his family, has revived his co-operative colony scheme, with many new and even more unconventional features than those which characterized Helicon Hall, at Englewood, N. J. Under the new plan Sinclair will head a caravan, composed of his followers, some of them former dwellers at Helicon Hall, in a wagon tour that will last, it is declared, for several years.

FISHING SLOOP ASHORE. Forty in Danger on Stranded Boat at Rockaway Inlet.

The police were called on last night to go to the aid of the auxiliary fishing sloop Eliza Rhodes, which went aground in a gale in Rockaway Inlet, about three miles from Barren Island, with more than forty men aboard early last evening. A launch and a police boat were at once dispatched to the place, where two sloops chartered by the Canarsie station were already at work. Two men were reported to have been washed overboard and to have been rescued with difficulty.

SLUMP IN MEAT PRICES. General Decrease Noted in Quotations at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Nov. 26.—Wholesale prices of meats in Kansas City are lower this week than they have been at any time this season. The retail butchers have not reduced prices yet, however. The prices of fresh and cured pork to-day, as compared with those of November 1, show a reduction of from two to six cents a pound. The reduction is noted not so much in the prices of cuts of beef as in whole carcasses, while poultry of all kinds is selling much lower than formerly.

COURT TO PASS ON JONAH STORY. Clergyman Refuses to Pay Note to College He Calls Orthodox.

Boston, Nov. 26.—Whether the much argued and long disputed Bible story of Jonah and the whale is true is a point which the Massachusetts courts will soon be asked to decide in the suit of the Christian Bible College against the Rev. Gustavus A. Hoffman, of Maplewood, Mass. The suit is to enforce payment of an indebted note to the college, and Mr. Hoffman is protesting on the ground that the institution is a "method of infidelity."

HARRIMAN-HILL PACT. MORGAN PEACEMAKER. Agreement Reached Between Two Great Railway Rivals.

The Harriman and Hill railroad interests, it was learned yesterday from sources which should be informed on the subject, have arrived at an agreement which will insure harmony between them for the future. Announcement of this agreement, which is said to be the result of the work of J. Pierpont Morgan, is expected to be made within the next week or two. The report of the committee of Union Pacific directors having in charge the task of framing a plan for the segregation of that company's assets represented by its stock holdings in other roads is expected to be presented at about the same time, and it is regarded as not unlikely that the two announcements may be related.

DEPOSITOR A SUICIDE. Knickerbocker Had All Importer's Money—Shoots Himself.

Worried over the belief that he had lost $200,000, his balance in the Knickerbocker Trust Company, Valentine Hyerdahl, an importer of Mount Vernon, committed suicide at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by shooting himself through the head at his home, No. 53 Rich avenue, Chester Hill, Mount Vernon.

AIRSHIP A SUCCESS. G. H. Curtiss Stays Up Four Hours—Government Interested.

Hammondsport, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Glenn H. Curtiss made a successful ascent with a dirigible airship and remained aloft for four hours in the air. Mr. Curtiss made the ascent to demonstrate certain features of a special motor to a number of representatives of the United States War Department.

WOMAN WALKS TO DEATH FROM WINDOW IN SLEEP AFTER ARREST FOR ROBBERY.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26.—Mrs. Mattie Gilmore, of Finleyville, died at the South Side Hospital this afternoon of a fractured skull, and the police and hospital authorities are trying to figure out whether Mrs. Gilmore was a female highwayman or a somnambulist.
