

Babies and Weeds

are children of Nature—the more you let them alone, the faster they grow. You may think your baby is a hothouse plant, but he isn't—he's plain weed. Get a copy of the February Woman's Home Companion, and read Dr. Woods Hutchinson's stirring article, "The Irrepressible Tendency of Babies to Grow Up." The doctor tells how to give the baby a square deal. His words will do you good, and entertain you, too—and so will Margaret Cameron's amusing little play, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps' powerful story, and the $1000.00 prize cover by Louise Cox. Ten Cents buys the February and the grocer who owns the cat are in alternative business, but the unsanitary grocery store indicated by the one and conducted by the other is a public nuisance. Do you know your grocer? Are his cracker barrels open to the dirt and dust? Have you ever been behind his counter or into his back room? Do you know how to buy really clean food? Do you want to?

In a series of editorial articles—the result of wide investigation—Woman's Home Companion will tell you, and help you in this most vital, three-times-a-day problem. The first article is in the November number—a notable magazine, containing seven short stories, ten special articles of interest to women, fifty pages of practical departments—and much more, all in the November received more votes than any other advertisement in the November issue of Everybody's Magazine as the most effective advertisement in that number—because of its beauty?—No! Because the advertisement, itself, told of a real evil that affects you and your family three times a day—the dirty grocery store. How about your grocer? Are his bins clean? Wouldn't you like to know how to buy really clean food and save money at the same time? If you do care about saving the family health and stretching the family purse, you will read the most important article to be found on this subject.—"Why is the Clean Grocer Clean?" in the February
