

ON COLLEGE DIAMONDS FORDHAM BEATS YALE.

Wintery Weather Ushers in Local Baseball Season.

Winter weather welcomed baseball to this city, and perhaps that is why Fordham easily defeated Yale at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon.

The first game of the season at the Polo Grounds was witnessed by about five hundred persons.

It was nearly 6 o'clock when the umpire called "Play ball" and the first game of the season at the Polo Grounds had started.

McDonald pitched the game for Fordham and Vleet was Yale's selection for the box work.

Fordham scored in the first inning, which tended to show that the New Haven team was not up to form.

The Blue had a fine chance to score in the third inning, but foolish work on the bases killed their opportunity.

Three runs were made by the Bronx collegians in the third inning.

There was no more scoring until the ninth, when a Yale runner pranced across the plate and prevented a shut-out.

Fordham has one of the best college pitchers in the country in McDonald, who had the Yale batsmen at his mercy at all stages.

McDonald pitched a gem, and the Yale batsmen were scattered by his accurate work.

Fordham was victorious by a score of 5 to 1.
