

ENTIRE TOWN BURNED OTHERS THREATENED.

Forest Fires Cause Loss of Millions in Minnesota.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 5.—Forest fires after burning for three days enveloped several towns near Duluth to-day, rendered thousands of persons homeless and destroyed millions of dollars' worth of property.

The entire northern portion of Douglas County, Wisconsin, is on fire. Renshaw, a village twenty-five miles west of Duluth, is surrounded by flames and there is no hope for it.

The citizens of Chisholm went forth to fight the fire. The fire department was not able to cover a large area, and though intermittent blazes started by the falling firebrands were quickly extinguished the fire rolled toward the town, and the citizens soon realized that its destruction was inevitable.

Convoys were at a premium. A foreigner with a small wagon and one horse offered to take a woman and three small children to Hibbing for $25.

The Great Northern, the only road running into Chisholm, took fifteen box cars crowded with homeless people to Hibbing to-night, where the citizens are throwing open their homes and tents are being supplied to care for the refugees.

The loss on buildings at Chisholm is estimated at $2,000,000. Chisholm is in the center of the greatest iron producing area in the world.

Refugees poured into Hibbing to-night until the population of 10,000 was almost doubled. To relieve the congestion a special train was started from Hibbing for Duluth, crowded to the guards with homeless persons.

A dense pall of smoke, filled with burning flakes, hovered over Duluth to-night.

Nashauk, twenty miles southeast of Hibbing, is surrounded by fire, and if a present high wind keeps up the town is doomed.

A Great Northern train from Nashauk ran through a burning district fifteen miles long.

The Pillsbury and Martley mines of the United States Steel Corporation, six miles west of Hibbing, were destroyed. The loss was about $75,000 in each instance.

The Duluth Fire Department to-night sent twenty-five thousand feet of hose to the mining locations near Hibbing and the burning town of Chisholm.

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 5.—Forest fires have sprung up in Houghton County and to-day Houghton and the entire Poragee lake district are enveloped in a dense pall of smoke.

Forest fires in the upper peninsula this year are the heaviest on record.

CHICKEN THIEF KILLED.

Shot by Watchman on New York Diamond Broker's Estate.

Garden City, Long Island, Sept. 5.—Andrew Heinz, a laborer on the Salisbury golf links, was shot and killed early this morning, while stealing chickens from the country place of W. S. Ginnel, a diamond broker of Manhattan, who has a home in Cathedral avenue here.

Mr. Ginnel is a fancier of high grade poultry, and has a large assortment on his place here. For the last year he has suffered from petty thieves. He had just started on an automobile trip, and left a caretaker named Peter Klossen, and catching up his gun he ran outside as a man came from the chicken yard.

The intruder refused to halt, and Klossen fired. The man fell. He was hurried to the Nassau Hospital, where he died in two hours. Klossen has not been arrested.

MCARREN MEN MOB HIM.

"Long Pat's" Recreant Leader Helped Out of Hall by Police.

A crowd of about one hundred and fifty enthusiastic supporters of Senator Patrick H. McCarren tried to mob Martin C. Lynch, who has been fighting William A. Doyle in behalf of McCarren for the leadership of the 9th Assembly District in Brooklyn, when Lynch turned against McCarren in a speech delivered at Fremont's Hall, Bayside and Third-avenues, last night.

Lynch had not gone far with his remarks when 150 McCarrenites rushed at him and delivered several telling blows. A hurry call for the police was sent to the Fort Hamilton station, and three policemen who responded succeeded in getting Lynch safely to his carriage.

Lynch deserted to the anti-McCarrenites on August 28, but was brought back three days later, only to desert again last night.

NINE DIE IN HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Passenger and Freight Crash in Montana—Delayed Order Blamed.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 5.—As a result of a head-on collision to-day between Northern Pacific passenger and freight trains, near Paradise, seventy miles west of here, both engineers and both firemen and five tramps were killed and a brakeman and a trapper seriously injured.

The passenger train was running about forty miles an hour when the accident happened. The collision is said to have been caused by the inability of the operator at Fernia to deliver an order to the passenger train, he having received the order after the train had passed the station.

It is announced from the local offices of the railroad company that the wreck would be the subject of an immediate investigation.

TWEED'S OLD GARDENER DEAD.

Stamford, Conn., Sept. 5.—Henry Fitzroy, who was gardener for "Boss" Tweed in the Tammany leader's palmy days, died here to-day, aged eighty-one years.

CATCH TAGGED RAT AND GET $50.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—To stimulate those who are engaged in ridding the city of rats to prevent the possible recurrence of bubonic plague twelve rats, each bearing a tag inscribed with a private mark, were turned loose to-day, one in each sanitary district. For the return of each of these rats a reward of $50 will be paid.

NEW WORLD'S HIGH JUMP.

H. F. Porter Clears the Bar at 6 Feet 6 3/8 Inches at Bridgeport.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 5.—Matt J. McGrath, world's champion hammer thrower, with a record of 172 feet 9 inches, threw the hammer 177 feet 4 inches at the games of the Connecticut Clan-na-Gael, held here to-day under the Amateur Athletic Union auspices. The throw was declared a foul.

Harry F. Porter, of the American Olympic team, after winning the running high jump with 6 feet 4 inches, tried for a new record, and, after two unsuccessful attempts, cleared the bar at 6 feet 6 3/8 inches. If this jump is allowed it is a world's record, for the former mark was 6 feet 6 1/2 inches, made by M. F. Sweeney, on September 21, 1890.

PRINCE ARTHUR HOOTED.

Angry Glasgow Mob Attempts to Attack His Carriage.

Glasgow, Sept. 5.—Glasgow has been threatened for the last two days with a recurrence of the bread riots, following an attempt made on Thursday by a large number of the unemployed to force a hearing before the Municipal Council. The trouble culminated to-day, when a large number of socialists and unemployed men, who had assumed a threatening attitude in the last twenty-four hours, took part in a hostile demonstration against Prince Arthur of Connaught on the occasion of a review of ten thousand members of the Boys' Brigade.

Glasgow has recently been deprived of the cavalry which was stationed here, and the only troops present to-day were a guard of honor composed of infantry. The authorities, however, fearing trouble, greatly strengthened the police, who succeeded in overawing the crowd of five thousand malcontents. These had gathered along the line of march, and bands of them in the early part of the ceremonies made ugly rushes in the direction of the prince's carriage, but were successfully checked by the police. They were compelled to content themselves with hooting and singing the "Marseillaise" and other revolutionary songs, which they kept up, despite the rain, during the three hours of the review and the luncheon in the City Hall, at which the Prince was entertained.

SAND SMOTHERS BABE.

Other Children Playing in Cut Barely Escape When Tons Cave In.

Buried beneath half a ton of sand, Lizzie Ryan, three years old, of No. 2635 Bronx Boulevard, smothered to death yesterday. While the search for her daughter was going on, the mother, Mrs. Daniel Ryan, dug frantically in the sand heap, hoping to reach the child.

The pile of sand which caved in on the child was at 214th street and the Bronx Boulevard. Carmine Ciallo, a contractor, had drawn from it until there was a cut twenty-five feet deep in which several children were playing. "Dan" Ryan was the first to notice that the sand was slipping. He shouted a warning to the other children, and his sister, Barbara, tried to get them out of its way, but failed. She had only time to escape.

Mrs. Mary Barry, of No. 3620 Bronx Boulevard, who saw the accident from her yard, found May Ryan, five years old, by the tips of her fingers protruding from the sand and dug her out uninjured. Lizzie, the youngest child, had disappeared. The boy summoned his mother, who, calling her baby's name, fell on her hands and knees, plunging her arms into the sand again and again, but could not find the little body. Patrolman McCarthy called out Engine Company No. 2, and the firemen worked for half an hour before the body was reached.

The father, Daniel Ryan, is employed by his brother, a Long Island contractor. Ciallo was arrested at his home, No. 106 East 230th street, and will be arraigned this morning on a charge of criminal carelessness.

DROUTH RENDERS 5,000 MEN IDLE.

Situation Critical in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia.

Pittsburg, Sept. 5.—Cloudy conditions prevailed to-day throughout Western Pennsylvania, and hopes are entertained that rain will fall soon, putting an end to the most serious water famine experienced in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia in twenty years. The situation to-day is critical. Especially is this so in Western Pennsylvania. The drouth extends from as far east as Johnstown, Penn., west to Steubenville, Ohio, and south to the West Virginia State line. From this district, alarming reports are being received, indicating that unless a general rainfall of several inches comes soon the keenest suffering will result in districts where water is scarce and enormous property damage ensue. It is estimated that over five thousand men are idle because of many industries having to suspend operations on account of no water, while the damage to crops and livestock is heavy.

BRONX CONTRACTOR MISSING.

Had Just Drawn $2,500 from Bank—Foul Play Feared.

A general alarm has been sent out from Police Headquarters for Frank Del Balso, of No. 1487 Hoe avenue, The Bronx. The contractor left his home early yesterday morning and drove to The Bronx Borough Bank, at Tremont and Park avenues, according to the police, where he drew $2,500, with which to pay the men employed by him. At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon his rig was found abandoned in the street by the police at the Sedgewick avenue station. Michael Del Balso, a brother of the missing contractor, identified the rig. The brother fears foul play.

Frank Schwaltzer, of No. 1340 Brook avenue, says he saw Del Balso as he was leaving the bank. Schwaltzer remembered that a short, muscular black haired man was lounging near the steps of the bank and seemed interested in the contractor's movements.

The missing man is 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighs about 160 pounds. He has several gold teeth. He wore a gray and black suit and a white soft hat. His hair is brown and his mustache is of the same color. There is a scar upon his upper lip.

TWO BANKS CLOSED

PITTSBURG INSTITUTIONS.

Cosmopolitan National Followed by Smaller Trust Company.

Pittsburg, Sept. 5.—Two financial institutions, the Cosmopolitan National Bank and the Mount Washington Savings and Trust Company, were closed here to-day by orders from the federal and state banking authorities. While the Cosmopolitan National Bank was a fair sized institution, the trust company was a small concern, and there was little or no excitement when the failures became known.

The national bank was closed a few minutes after 9 o'clock this morning and the trust company at 11:30 a. m., but the latter suspension could not be confirmed until late this afternoon.

The order closing the Cosmopolitan Bank was brought forth by the refusal, it is said, of Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham to approve some of the paper and other securities of the bank for loans aggregating, it is alleged, over $1,000,000. However, the officials of the bank deny that worthless or insufficient securities have been accepted for loans. They say all the paper and other collateral held by the Cosmopolitan is collectible and that the bank is solvent and able to pay all its liabilities.

Further than to state that the bank is insolvent neither Examiner Cunningham nor Judge Oldham, of the legal department of the Controller of the Currency, who arrived here from Washington early to-day, would commit himself.

According to the bank's last statement its liabilities were $1,861,830.96. The bank's officials seemed to be very indignant that the government should close the institution, and the cashier, D. J. Richardson, stated that none of them had any intimation that the bank was in trouble until Examiner Cunningham closed the doors. He declared that the available cash on hand was nearly 50 per cent of the total deposits. Included in the deposits are federal and state deposits of $100,000, each secured by bond. Robert Lyons, who is the receiver for the Allegheny National Bank, which recently failed here, was appointed receiver of the Cosmopolitan. John McClurg is the bank's president.

The reason for closing the Mount Washington Savings and Trust Company has not yet developed. It is believed, however, that the trouble of the Cosmopolitan Bank was the cause. The vice-president of the trust company is also a director of the national bank. The capital stock of the trust company is $125,000. Its deposits were $90,000, with loans and discounts of $141,000 and assets said to aggregate $200,000.

State Bank Examiner James M. Cover said the institution was closed by Banking Commissioner Berkey because of apparent irregularities. While he knew little of the condition of the bank, he believed it would be possible to adjust the irregularities so that the doors could be opened for business next Tuesday morning as usual.

"I understand," said he, "that there is nothing materially wrong and that the funds of the bank are intact."

Harrisburg, Penn., Sept. 5.—The State of Pennsylvania had $300,000 of sinking fund money on deposit in the Cosmopolitan National Bank of Pittsburg. The state is protected by bonds aggregating $75,000. State treasurer Sheatz is in touch with the banking people at Pittsburg, and will take the usual course to recover the money.

SAVED BY CONFESSION.

Priest Calls Police When Caller Talks of Suicide.

A mysterious attempt at suicide occurred at the rectory of the Church of Holy Innocents, at No. 139 West 36th street, last night, the young man who tried to destroy himself being one of the army of unemployed.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Lieutenant Day, who was on the desk of the Tenderloin police station, received a telephone call from the rectory saying that a man had attempted suicide there and asking that a policeman be sent to help restrain him. Patrolman Boyle was sent to the house, but was met at the door by a priest, who showed considerable embarrassment and said that the trouble was over and the services of the policeman were not needed.

Father O'Keefe, one of the occupants of the rectory, said: "He is simply one of the many unfortunates who are down and out here in New York, and to-night when he called upon us he told Father McNamara and myself that he was tired of life and intended to end the struggle. We were afraid he would carry out his purpose, and called in a private detective, Madden, from the Hotel Marlborough and also notified the police. Before they arrived, however, we had dissuaded him from his purpose."

SCHOONER LOST, CREW MISSING.

Baltimore Tug Reports Finding Waterlogged Hulk, Which Afterward Sunk.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Baltimore, Sept. 5.—Captain Howard Lambdin, of the seagoing tug Princess, reported to-day finding the waterlogged and abandoned Baltimore schooner Patrick McCabe, twenty-five miles northwest of Hog Island. She carried a crew of four men and a boy, who are missing. The schooner was taken in tow and carried into the Capes. When near the Whistling Buoy she was caught in a heavy under-tow, and, taking a dive, sank in six and one-half fathoms of water.

KIDNAPPERS STOP HARRIMAN TRAIN.

But They Were Shriners and After a Celebration They Return Him Safely.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Portland, Ore., Sept. 5.—E. H. Harriman, returning from his vacation in Southern Oregon, was kidnapped at Halsey to-day by a trainload of Mysk-Shriners bound for a convention at Eugene. The Shriners had been sidetracked to allow the Harriman special to pass, when a band of them, waving the banner of their Chinese band, stood in the middle of the track and brought Mr. Harriman's train to a stop. The crowd invaded the car, and Mr. Harriman, on the platform, stuck a foot on the ground, and then several members of the party took him on their shoulders and carried him around the town. Mr. Harriman was later returned to his car, where he made a speech.

Mr. Harriman is expected to arrive in San Francisco on Monday, where a reception will be tendered him at the Fairmont Hotel on Tuesday afternoon by the Manufacturers and Producers Association.

E. H. HARRIMAN PLANS NEW LINES.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 5.—E. H. Harriman, in an address at Albany to-day, said: "I intend to do more extensive railroad building this year than for a long time, and Oregon will receive her share. I will build across the mountains, but have formed no definite plans yet."

VOTERS MAY HEAR TAFT

DECIDES TO TAKE STUMP.

Will Visit Several States, Beginning Trip About October 1.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Middle Bass Island, Ohio, Sept. 5.—William H. Taft will take the stump and address the voters in several states before the election. While no definite date has been set, it is probable that his speaking tour will begin about October 1. This decision was reached to-day at the conference between the candidate and Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who spent two hours going over the political situation and discussing this question with Mr. Taft. The demand for an opportunity to hear the candidate for President and the success of the trip across Ohio a week ago to-day have resulted in this change of programme. As was said in these dispatches at the time, Mr. Taft's ability to command the support and arouse the enthusiasm of his auditors was shown to be too valuable an asset to be lost by a purely "front porch" campaign.

The success of Virginia Day at Hot Springs convinced Mr. Taft of the advisability of meeting and appealing to the voters, while the enthusiasm shown throughout his trip across Ohio convinced his campaign managers. In the selection of places to be visited and the dates for the various speeches, Mr. Taft will be guided entirely by the national committee, but he intimated to-day that, although the greatest demand came from the West, it did not necessarily indicate that he would confine his speaking trips to that section.

"Mr. Hitchcock and I discussed the campaign generally, and he gave me the gist of the information he had received from various quarters—information which is generally of a satisfactory character, particularly that from the West," said Mr. Taft, after the conference. "We also discussed the demand that I make speeches in various sections. Mr. Hitchcock has changed his mind regarding the advisability of making a short speech making tour, just as we changed our minds some time ago. The demand that I do so comes largely from the West, where they seem to attach little importance to the idea that the candidate should conduct a campaign of dignified silence, and where they insist on their right to see and hear the candidate in so far as circumstances will permit. Although the chief demand comes from the West, that does not necessarily indicate that I will speak only in that section. I cannot say when I will leave Cincinnati, although it will probably be about October 1."

"I had a very pleasant and extremely profitable conference with the candidate," said Chairman Hitchcock. "Judge Taft and I talked over the entire political situation and the reports which have reached me from various quarters, but the most important point under discussion was the proposition that Judge Taft should make a number of political speeches in various sections, in response to the insistent demands of the voters and local leaders in all parts of the country, but particularly in the West. The demand is so strong and overwhelming that I doubt if it will be possible to refuse it. The party leaders thought at first that it would be wise for the candidate to remain in Cincinnati and only receive those who came there, but the situation has changed somewhat—at least, they have changed their minds. Judge Taft's trip through Ohio has convinced them that he is a good campaigner, and they now deem it wise to yield to the demands of the local leaders, who declare that great good will result from a visit from the candidate. Personally, I favor Judge Taft's speaking in the various states, because the people want to see and hear him, and because it is a great appeal."

In reply to a question Mr. Hitchcock said: "Judge Taft would naturally visit the doubtful states. What those are it is too early to say, nor do I know just when he will start, although I should think it would be about October 1."

Asked what he thought of the results in Vermont Mr. Hitchcock replied: "The results there are significant, but not conclusive."

Chairman Hitchcock came to Middle Bass on the Halcyon, the steam yacht of Colonel Frank J. Hecker, of Detroit. Mr. Hitchcock missed the regular boat, and Colonel Hecker brought the regular boat, and Colonel Hecker brought the regular boat, and Colonel Hecker brought the regular boat.

Mr. Hitchcock expressed the belief that Judge Taft would carry Michigan by a majority of 125,000 to 150,000.

Commodore Richardson, accompanied by Mrs. Richardson and their daughter, Miss Ruby, arrived to-day on their yacht, the Jessamine, on which they will take Mr. Taft and his party to Sandusky on Monday. E. E. Marsh, who will be the host of Mr. and Mrs. Taft on Monday night at Sandusky, also came to the Middle Bass Club to-day.

BATTLES WITH NEGRO.

Detective Surprises Burglar and Has to Fight for Life.

A series of attempts to rob the apartment occupied by Mrs. Henrietta Simon, in the Onedia, at No. 121 St. Nicholas avenue, culminated last night in the capture of Lewis Nichols, a negro, twenty-two years old. Detective Campbell was concealed in the apartment last night and when Nichols entered through the window leading to the fire escape the policeman grappled with him. Nichols attempted to throw the detective out of the window, and was subdued only by a rap on the head.

After the wound had been sewed up by Dr. Schofield, who was summoned from the J. Hood Wright Hospital, the negro was taken to the police station. He said he had been employed for the last four years as an elevator boy at No. 242 West 45th street.

PENSION FOR OLD NEGRO EMPLOYEE.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Officials of the Illinois Central Railroad Company approved pension papers to-day which will provide for the remaining years of Austin Dunbar, an old negro, who worked for years in New Orleans for the company. Dunbar, who was injured four years ago in an accident, knew nothing of the pension plan of the company until recently. The pension was made retroactive.

BLACK FOR SENATE.

Report That He May Try to Succeed Platt.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Troy, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Rensselaer County declared emphatically for Governor Hughes to-day, when the county Republican convention adopted resolutions commending the course of the Governor and instructing the delegates to the state convention at Saratoga to vote for his renomination.

The mention of the Governor's name was the signal for spontaneous and prolonged applause. Ex-Governor Frank S. Black will head the delegation to the state convention. Black, it is said, may try to succeed United States Senator Platt if the Republicans control the next Legislature, and Governor Hughes, if re-elected, will not, it is believed, withhold his support in view of Rensselaer County's unqualified approval. The nomination of State Senator William D. Barnes for Secretary of State was urged. County nominations were deferred until a later date.

COMBINE FOR SANDERS.

Wadsworth and Porter Face New Deal in Race for Congress.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Medina, N. Y., Sept. 5.—It has just become known here that a representative of Canal Superintendent Stevens, together with ex-Senator L'Hommedieu, of Orleans County, met Collector Archie Sanders, of Genesee County, by appointment, in a room in a hotel in Rochester on Wednesday last and offered to deliver the Congress delegates of Orleans and Wyoming counties to Sanders for the nomination to succeed Peter A. Porter, and that Sanders agreed to run.

This plan, which has been expected by the Merrill-Wadsworth faction for some days, eliminates Speaker Wadsworth's county of Livingston and Niagara County, and would result in both the Porter and Wadsworth factions being "buncoed." It looks as if Sanders had abandoned the Wadsworths, while Stevens seems to have passed Porter up also. Each of the five counties, embracing the 34th Congress District, have seven delegates, and the new alliance would control the nomination.

The Orleans County Delegates, who were elected by a vote of 26 to 24 as a result of some sharp practice by L'Hommedieu and Stevens, while understood to be a Porter delegate, and not considered a L'Hommedieu delegate, and a poll of it to-day indicates that possibly it cannot be delivered to Sanders when the time comes.

CAPITALISTS HELD UP.

Canadian Officers Seal Drinkables and Cigars of New Yorkers.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 5.—Sixty prominent capitalists and members of stock exchange houses of New York and Boston were held up by Canadian customs officers to-day when they crossed the Canadian line. The travellers were passengers on a special train on their way to inspect silver mining properties in Cobalt.

After a casual inspection the customs officers at Niagara Falls declared that the amount of wines and cigars on board was excessive, and demanded $1,500 duty. In spite of assurances that everything on board was for the private consumption of this party, they would not allow the special to proceed until the commissary car had been officially sealed and all drinkables and smoking materials locked up. The capitalists have appealed to the government. The party came on to Toronto.

SHOOTS GIRL, THEN SELF.

Caldwell (N. J.) Italian Kills American Child Who Jilted Him.

Caldwell, N. J., Sept. 5 (Special).—Giobanno Longiano, an Italian, of this place, shot and instantly killed Edith Pritchett, fourteen years old, daughter of Mrs. Mary Pritchett, and then fatally wounded himself yesterday afternoon. The man had been taking his meals at Mrs. Pritchett's home, and slept in a room over a blacksmith's shop next door. He owed Mrs. Pritchett $50 for board, and had promised repeatedly to settle.

Yesterday afternoon, while Mrs. Pritchett was on the sidewalk in front of her house, Longiano walked, she says, a $5 bill at her from his window and told her to send her daughter Edith to his room for the money. The girl started, and had been gone about two minutes when two shots were heard. The mother and several neighbors ran into the Italian's room, where they found the little girl, dead, and on the floor near her the wounded man. He had shot himself in the mouth, and the bullet lodged in his skull. He was taken to the Mountsinclair Hospital in Montclair, where it was said there was only a slight chance for his recovery.

Longiano was forty years old, and had been employed at the stone quarries of T. A. Mathews, in North Caldwell. He came to this country about three years ago. No trace of the $5 bill that the Italian waved at Mrs. Pritchett has been found. The girl had angered the man by openly showing her dislike for him.

DROPPED INTO RAILROAD CUT.

One Man Killed in Automobile Accident at Niagara Falls.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 5.—An automobile owned by Dr. W. H. Hodge bounded from Whirlpool street and dropped into the cut of the Gorge Railroad, at the foot of Cedar avenue early this evening, the fall being forty feet. Forest Ross, of Bayfield, Ont., was instantly killed, and George Herrick, the driver, and William Hale, a passenger, were badly shaken up and bruised, but not seriously hurt. They went to the hospital, but will be out to-morrow. The automobile taking an alarm was sent in, the firemen assisting in releasing the injured and getting the dead man out of the cut.

The driver of the automobile says that his steering gear did not work, and that the dip into the cut was so sudden that none of the trio realized where they were going. The cut of the electric road is to permit the tracks to pass under the steam road below grade, and was wholly unprotected, so that the least turning of the steering gear would have thrown the car into the opening.

RAWHIDE PLANS REHABILITATION.

Rawhide, Nev., Sept. 5.—The situation following yesterday's fire was much improved to-day. There is a plentiful supply of food for all who lost their homes and no suffering has resulted. Already the work of rehabilitation is being planned. It is now believed that the total loss will not exceed $50,000 or $60,000, with little insurance.

GOV. HUGHES SPEAKS

FOR TAFT IN OHIO

THOUSANDS CHEER HIM AT YOUNGSTOWN.

Great Industrial Demonstration at Campaign Opening—Beveridge and Harris Speak.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 5.—In the greatest outpouring of Republicans which has marked the opening of a political campaign in the years of Ohio's history, Governor Hughes of New York, Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, and Governor Harris of this state to-day aroused the utmost enthusiasm. Their speeches—an able exposition of Republican accomplishments by Governor Hughes, a showing of the benefits of Republican policies, particularly of a protective tariff, by Senator Beveridge, and a challenge to his opponents by Governor Harris—were followed by an industrial demonstration which indicated that Democratic efforts to alienate the labor vote from Taft had failed. Thirty thousand visitors, gathered from Ohio and Pennsylvania chiefly, even though railroads made no special rates, saw this demonstration in the parade which preceded the speaking in Wick Park.

The meeting was held in one of Ohio's industrial centers, a city which owes its prosperity, its growth and almost its existence to Republican policies, pre-eminently the protective tariff system. In few cities is the percentage of voters to the total population so high as it is in Youngstown. The parade was more than one of political clubs. For two hours men, some in uniform and some in everyday garb, marched four abreast in close formation through the principal streets. Of more than twelve thousand in line, all of ten thousand, by actual count, were in three brigades composed of employes of the great steel mills of the Mahoning Valley.

At the hour appointed for the meeting, the speakers still were reviewing the parade, but the stands were filled and thousands stood. The first person to appear on the stand was Congressman Burton, who was greeted with loud cheers. When Governor Hughes, Governor Harris, Senator Beveridge and Arthur I. Vorys appeared they were received with a demonstrative welcome. On the stand the Roosevelt Cabinet was represented by Secretary Garfield of the Interior Department, Congress by Representatives Kennedy, Burton, Howland and Thomas, of Ohio, and Barchfeld, of Pennsylvania, and Ohio by all the candidates on the state ticket.
