

STILL CHAOTIC AT ROCHESTER

SENATOR MCCARREN WINS HIS FIGHT.

Governorship Contest Unsettled—Chanler and Herrick Lead—Dugro and Sulzer in Race.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Rochester, Sept. 15.—By the use of the strong-arm methods put into effect after midnight last night and the intervening of National Chairman Mack, Patrick H. McCarren and the home rulers up state who were about to be thrown out of the Democratic State Committee won a victory to-night. All contests against the McCarren delegates were withdrawn in the interest of "harmony" and the upstate situation was adjusted to the complete satisfaction of the home rule people.

Conference after conference to-day and to-night, unflagging work on the part of Chanler's supporters and the efforts of big Wall Street interests to swing the nomination to a candidate who in the appointment of Public Service Commissioners and other affairs would favor them, have failed to crystallize the situation.

MURPHY FAR FROM AMIABLE. The one big thing in the day's developments was the getting together of Conners and Murphy in the decision that McCarren and the home rulers might be allowed to have their delegates seated. That is credited generally to Conners and National Chairman Mack's pressure on him.

Senator McCarren declined to-night to discuss the bearing of his victory on future convention affairs. It has been a matter of record that he and some of the upstate home rulers expected to present a resolution for the reorganization of the state committee; that is, for the election of a new committee. Shrewd conjectures are being made to-night that in view of the seating of their delegates this course will be abandoned.

"GIL ON TROUBLED WATERS." "It means oil on the troubled waters, that's all," explained "Dan" Cohalan, "and the more time we have the more oil we can spread."

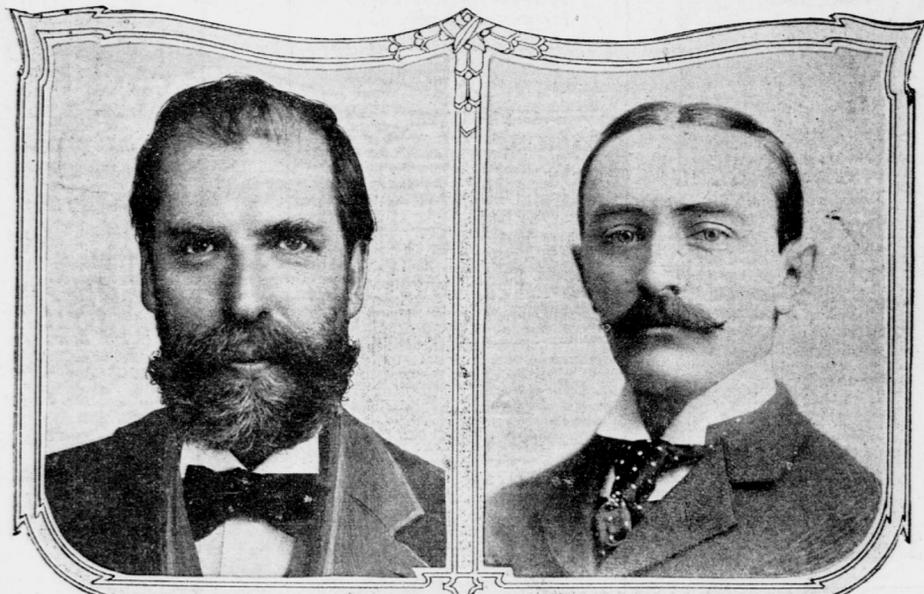

"Explosion kills seven." Conductor, to scare negroes, threw lighted match in powder.

Evelyn Thaw seeks stage. Boston, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw came to Boston yesterday in her automobile from Portland, Me., and to-day spent most of her time at the Globe Theatre with Joe Welch, of the "Morning Noon and Night" company, and his manager, E. C. Vion. Mrs. Thaw's brother, Howard Nesbit, is playing with the company, and to-night he said Mrs. Thaw had come here to obtain a theatrical engagement, and that it was likely she would go with the company when it leaves Boston, in two weeks.

EIGHT VESSELS OVERDUE.

Anxiety Regarding Fruit Steamers Felt at Kingston.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 15.—Owing to tempestuous weather following the recent hurricane in these latitudes, a number of fruit steamers from Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston are from two to three days overdue. Anxiety is felt for the United Fruit Company's steamers Admiral Schley, Admiral Dewey and Brookline, respectively from Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore, which are two days behind schedule, and the Bradford from New York, which is three days behind.

A PLOT TO KILL KAISER.

Reported Reason for His Refusal to Cross the Frontier.

Paris, Sept. 15.—A dispatch from Mülhausen, Alsace, says that the real reason for the German Emperor's sudden abandonment of his excursion into French territory a few days ago was, according to the police, the presence of French anarchists in the district which the Emperor proposed to visit. At the last moment the police learned that two French anarchists had gone to the frontier with bombs. This information came too late to permit the police to follow and intercept the men, the description of whom was vague. Accordingly, the Emperor himself was urged not to cross the frontier, and he reluctantly consented, not through fear, but in view of the unpleasant consequences that were certain to follow the occurrence of any untoward incident while he was in French territory.

HIS "HUNCH" COST $500.

One Bean Bet That Hughes Would Not Be Named—Been Sorry Since.

Bets ranging from $5 to $1,000 were made at the racetrack early in the afternoon yesterday that Governor Hughes would not be renominated. The largest one recorded was that of Michael Bean, who bet L. O. Appleby $500 to $1,000 that Governor Hughes would not be renominated.

EXPLOSION KILLS SEVEN.

Conductor, to scare negroes, threw lighted match in powder.

Windor, Mo., Sept. 15.—Seven persons are dead and thirty injured, four of whom are not expected to live, as the result of an explosion of a car of black powder at the Missouri, Kansas & Texas station to-day. A number of negroes assembled to see it.

PLOT TO SEIZE PATENTS.

Syndicate of British Firms Reported Being Formed.

London, Sept. 15.—It is announced that a syndicate of British firms is being formed with a large capital to seize the rights in foreign patents which may lapse under the new patent act through foreign firms neglecting to operate their patents in Great Britain.

EVELYN THAW SEEKS STAGE.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Boston, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw came to Boston yesterday in her automobile from Portland, Me., and to-day spent most of her time at the Globe Theatre with Joe Welch, of the "Morning Noon and Night" company, and his manager, E. C. Vion. Mrs. Thaw's brother, Howard Nesbit, is playing with the company, and to-night he said Mrs. Thaw had come here to obtain a theatrical engagement, and that it was likely she would go with the company when it leaves Boston, in two weeks.

STRENGTHENS NATIONAL TICKET, SAYS MR. TAFT.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—"The best news I have to-day is that Charles E. Hughes has been renominated for Governor of New York," said Mr. Taft this afternoon. He sent the following telegram to Governor Hughes: "I sincerely congratulate you on your well deserved renomination. It not only makes the State of New York safe in November, but it greatly strengthens the national ticket in every state in the Union. I hope that you will be able to give some of your time in the campaign to the West."

MR. SHERMAN CONGRATULATES THE GOVERNOR.

James S. Sherman, the Republican candidate for Vice-President, sent the following telegram from this city to Governor Hughes last night: "Cordial congratulations upon your renomination. May I, through you, congratulate the people of the state as well? I predict an enthusiastic campaign and a successful outcome. J. S. SHERMAN."

MR. HARRIMAN TALKS MR. HUGHES GRATIFIED

Thinks Conditions Are Improving—Expresses Appreciation of Party's Confidence in Him.

Rochester, Sept. 15.—"I am deeply gratified of the honor conferred upon me. I wish to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the Republican party." Governor Hughes this made his first public statement after receiving the news of his renomination this evening. Beyond that the Governor would say nothing, either as to his running mates on the Republican ticket or his policies for a second term, should he be elected.

Disinclined to talk Erie. As to the Erie, Mr. Harriman was disinclined to talk, and in reply to a suggestion that he might enter the board of directors of the Missouri Pacific or the Wabash, he would merely say that he could not do it, in his position, although his identification with their management in that way would doubtless be of benefit to the properties.

Asked if he was going to become a factor in the Rock Island situation, a suggestion based on the recent rumor that the St. Louis & San Francisco might be absorbed by the Harriman system, he answered: "How could I? I haven't resigned from the Union Pacific."

Asked in response to a question about the present status of the "holding company" plan for segregating the investment holdings of the Union Pacific in the stocks of other railways, a project to consider which a special committee of the Union Pacific board was appointed nearly a year ago, Mr. Harriman said: "That's behind us."

One man asked: "Why have Union Pacific and Southern Pacific been so strong in the last few months?" to which Mr. Harriman retorted: "Because they ought not to have been so weak before." Another question concerned a reported remark of Mr. Harriman in an interview early in the day, that the low operating rate of the Union Pacific system would be brought still lower, on which point Mr. Harriman said:

"What I said was that we hoped to decrease the operating cost still further. The operating cost is as low as it is because the roads are in such good condition; that is, we can run four trains when formerly we had to run five."

BELIEVES RATES SHOULD ADVANCE.

His opinion on the question of higher freight rates being asked, Mr. Harriman said: "I believe that freight rates should be advanced. If we charge less rates other roads will charge less rates, and many roads are suffering from lack of sufficient equipment and motive power, and cannot be improved until they have more income. The country is suffering from lack of better facilities at the same charge. All through the territory served by our system the

For Associate Judge Court of Appeals...*ALBERT HAIGHT, of Erie.

*Renominated.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Saratoga, Sept. 15.—Governor Charles E. Hughes was renominated on the first ballot by the Republican State Convention this afternoon, after a spirited fight, by a vote of 827 out of a total of 1,000. Speaker Wadsworth received 151, and ex-Representative Stewart, of Amsterdam, 31. The vote by counties follows:

from apparently nowhere, a dozen large pictures of the Governor were lifted on staffs and incited renewed shouting.

When quiet had been restored somewhat Senator Page continued reading the Governor's telegram: "If elected it will be my ambition to give to the state a sane, efficient and honorable administration, free from taint of bossism or of servitude to any private interest."

OTHER CANDIDATES NOMINATED.

Horace White was unanimously nominated on the first ballot for Lieutenant Governor. No one was put in nomination to oppose the Senator, and he received great applause when his name was placed in nomination. Samuel S. Koenig, leader of the 6th Assembly District of New York City, was nominated for Secretary of State on the first ballot. Mr. Koenig was the organization candidate, and was opposed by Samuel A. Carlson, Mayor of Jamestown, and W. D. Barnes, of Rensselaer County. Mr. Barnes made a strong fight against the organization. The vote was: Koenig, 661; Barnes, 263; Carlson, 85.

Edward R. O'Malley, of Erie County, a popular young lawyer, was nominated for Attorney General without opposition. Ezra Prentice failed to get the support of Herbert Parsons, and consequently did not permit his name to be placed in nomination. G. B. D. Hasbrouck, of Kingston, another prominent candidate for the nomination, finding that he could not get the support of the leaders, also withdrew from the race.

Albert Haight was renominated for Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals without opposition.

The fight for Secretary of State was one of the last to be decided. W. D. Barnes, of Rensselaer, was considered sure of getting the place. Friends of Samuel S. Koenig brought forward forceful arguments for him on the ground that he would strengthen the ticket materially with the Jewish vote, and was also eminently fitted to run for the place. Mr. Parsons and Chairman Woodruff decided to support Mr. Koenig, and upstate leaders thought he would add strength to the ticket, and so Mr. Barnes was shelved. The latter then decided to take advantage of the missionary work he has been industrially doing ever since his arrival here and run against the organization candidate. Koenig was formerly an Odell man, but after his defeat he told him that he was going to support Mr. Parsons, and has kept his word since. He has done valuable work for the party in New York City.

New York City having got two places on the ticket, neither Mr. Parsons nor Mr. Woodruff thought it advisable to put another New York City man in nomination. But for this, in all probability, Ezra Prentice would have received Mr. Parsons's support for the nomination for Attorney General and have been nominated.

Edward R. O'Malley developed such strength in upstate districts and with Hughes men that it was decided without much debate to nominate him instead of ex-Judge Hasbrouck, and Mr. Hasbrouck bowed to the decision of the organization. The Erie County delegation was solid for Mr. O'Malley.

G. W. Aldridge wanted something for Monroe County and successfully boomed the county's Senator, Mr. Dunn, for State Treasurer. Lloyd Collis, of Westchester and New York City, was eliminated yesterday from the race for State Engineer and Surveyor, leaving in the field Frank M. Williams, of Madison County, and Arthur O'Brien, of Utica. Mr. Williams received more upstate support than his opponent and got the indorsement of the organization. Mr. O'Brien then withdrew from the race.

COLLAPSE OF THE OPPOSITION.

Early this morning it became apparent that the opposition to Governor Hughes's nomination was crumbling. As the day wore on this became more and more certain, and that the day was to be a triumphant one for the Gov-

All that The Tribune had foreshadowed with reference to the triumph of the Governor on the first ballot was verified. The early morning combination against the Governor, with Ambassador David Jayne Hill for a candidate, went to pieces before the second day's session of the convention began. The alertness of Secretary Root, with a warning that the cable would be used to frustrate any plan to spring Mr. Hill as a candidate, served to prevent the consummation of the coup.

The vote for the Governor was admitted by the organization leaders to be one of the most surprising exhibitions of the force of public opinion in the history of the Republican party. Now that the Governor is renominated every one seems to be in a jolly and hopeful mood and confident of success on Election Day.

ALL EXPRESS SATISFACTION.

Mr. Barnes named the candidate for Controller, and he seems to be satisfied. Mr. Hendricks obtained for Senator White the second place on the ticket, keeping the Syracuse Senator in line for promotion at a more propitious hour for a straight-out organization candidate, and he is satisfied.

Postmaster Greiner, the Erie leader, is happy over the Attorney Generalship, and says Erie will give 5,000 Republican majority.

President Parsons of the New York County Committee forced the nomination of the Governor and obtained for Samuel S. Koenig, one of his district leaders, the third place on the ticket. He is satisfied.

Chairman Woodruff is satisfied. He retains the support of the national and state organizations, and is confident of the election of the ticket.

Looking down the line, all the organization men seem to be remarkably cheerful for men who a few hours before were predicting the destruction of the Republican party if the Governor should be renominated. A telling point was made by Senator Page in his speech when he placed the Governor in nomination. "Two years ago," said the Senator, "before the applause which greeted the announcement of the Governor's nomination had died away, this telegram was read to the convention: 'I shall accept this nomination without pledge other than to do my duty according to my conscience.'"

Here a perfect storm of applause broke out. From all over the convention hall shouts of "Hughes! Hughes!" rose, and in the galleries hundreds of American flags were frantically waved, while in one corner of the first gallery, Indian Summer on the Hudson.
