New-York Daily Tribune

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1908. This newspaper is owned and published by The Tribune Association, a New York corporation.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

FOREIGN.—Sven Hedin, the Swedish explorer, told of exploring parts of Tibet hitherto not traversed by a white man.

DOMESTIC.—Orville Wright's aeroplane, containing Mr. Wright and Lieutenant Thomas E. Selfridge, was dashed to earth from a height of seventy-five feet at Fort Myer, Virginia.

CITY.—Stocks were weak. Ex-Senator Call of Florida, Democratic, declared for Taft.

OLD AND NEW TELEGRAPHY.

If Mr. Marconi has made no startling announcement or bold forecast during his latest visit to America, he certainly betrays no discouragement about the future.

If the expectation has not yet been fully realized, distinct progress has been made toward effective work. Eleven months ago transatlantic service, which had been conducted for a short time in 1903, was resumed.

After all the advances made since the world first heard of Mr. Marconi, nine or ten years ago, are scarcely less than astonishing.

key with which Morse formed his letters. Even yet the utilization of those instruments and the other apparatus employed with them has not been carried to perfection.

THE ATTACK ON REGULATION.

The Democratic platform makes it plain that, however excellent Mr. Chanler's intentions are and however amiable his respect for Governor Hughes, the forces behind his candidacy, the masters of the Democratic party, are engaged in an attempt to undo the work of the Governor.

That pledge in the platform means the legislating out of existence of the Public Service commissions, as not contemplated by the constitution, and the abandonment of the whole policy of state regulation of the public service corporations, except by legislative action.

of the Kuldja territory, though the analogy between them is by no means perfect, and the course pursued in one is not necessarily applicable to the other.

MR. OLNEY'S LETTER.

The Hon. Richard Olney, Attorney General and Secretary of State under President Cleveland, has written a letter to "The New York World" which seems to have cheered our valiant neighbor considerably.

There is fear on my part of being misunderstood in an attempt to say but surely the fair minded man must realize when he considers my attitude toward my own party, all now a matter of immutable record.

construction. Inasmuch as cholera, like typhoid fever, is disseminated either by food or drink, a wholesome water supply ought to go far toward averting infection.

THE CLEVELAND STANDARD.

Since the last Democratic State Convention one of our great leaders has passed away, but he leaves behind him a record which speaks both by example and precept.

There is fear on my part of being misunderstood in an attempt to say but surely the fair minded man must realize when he considers my attitude toward my own party, all now a matter of immutable record.
