

GOMEZ NOW PRESIDENT

MAGOON LEAVES HAVANA.

New Executive Says Cuba Will Keep Faith with America.

Havana, Jan. 28.—Major General José Miguel Gomez was inaugurated President of the restored Cuban Republic to-day at noon, and within an hour after he had taken the solemn oath of office, administered by the chief justice of the Supreme Court, the American officials who had been in control of affairs since the autumn of 1906 had departed from the island.

The American Provisional Governor, Charles E. Magoon, who escorted General Gomez to the palace and there turned over to him the reins of government, sailed on the battleship Maize, although it had been expected that the scout cruiser Birmingham would call for the retiring executive.

The departure of Governor Magoon and the military officers, who served as advisers during the period of intervention, leaves about 2,000 American troops still on the island, under command of Major General Thomas L. Barry. These will be returned to the United States as transport facilities become available. The last of the troops leaving on April 1.

Cuba begins her new period of independence under conditions which seem propitious. It is believed that the people will realize their opportunity and endeavor to make their second attempt at self-government a lasting success. The country is prosperous and the revenues are increasing steadily.

Inauguration day was brilliant with sunshine and intensely warm. Crowds began gathering in front of the palace in the early forenoon. All the ships in the harbor, including the American battleships, the United States fleet and the Spanish fleet, were in signal bunting. This day marks the anniversary of the birth of Jose Martí, called "the apostle of Cuban liberty," and the ceremonies began at 9 o'clock in the morning with the placing of a wreath on the memorial tablet on the house where he was born.

At 11 o'clock Alfredo Zayas was inducted into office as Vice-President of the Republic. The ceremony in the chamber, this ceremony being brief and simple. The ceremony in connection with the inauguration of the President at the palace was also exceedingly brief.

GOMEZ TAKES OATH OF OFFICE.

It was just after noon when General Gomez stepped out on the balcony of the new palace, accompanied by Governor Magoon and the Supreme Court Justices. The crowd cheered heartily, and then there was silence as the Chief Justice read the oath of office, and General Gomez in a voice hardly audible to the throng below pledged himself faithfully to hold and defend the laws and the constitution.

The new President made a speech of a few words from the balcony, and then, as the crowd cheered again, returned into the palace, where Governor Magoon read his final official address and the commission from Washington authorizing him to turn over the island affairs to President Gomez and the new Congress. General Gomez read his reply in Spanish.

Governor Magoon's speech was in the form of a letter addressed to the President and Congress of the Republic of Cuba. After stating that by direction of the President of the United States he relinquished to President Gomez the power and authority which had been held and exercised by him, Governor Magoon declared the provisional administration at an end. Continuing, he said in part:

It is the understanding of the United States and its people that the laws, decrees, regulations and rulings of the provisional government now in force are to continue in force until such time as the United States shall be legally revoked by Cuba. All money obligations of the provisional government down to the date of the present declaration shall be maintained and protected.

I also directed by the President to declare that the United States considers that the second article of the appendix of the constitution of Cuba, which provides for the payment of the Cuban debt in excess of, or in addition to, the debt already contracted or authorized by now existing laws and contracts, is in violation of the principles of international law, and that the United States will not recognize or concede to be a valid obligation of Cuba any debt or contract of that character which is in violation of this understanding. I am further directed by the President to declare that the United States, in its conclusive determination and decision of the provisional government that all claims of the provisional government against the United States are to be paid and discharged by the execution of existing laws, and Cuba remains under no further obligations in respect thereof; and that the declaration heretofore contained in respect of the increase of the Cuban debt specifically and especially in respect of the discharge of such alleged or pretended obligations.

In closing Governor Magoon, on behalf of President Roosevelt, the government and the people of the United States and himself, as retiring provisional Governor, expressed his respect and admiration and good wishes for the success of the new administration.

SAYS CUBA WILL KEEP FAITH.

President Gomez, in accepting the letter from Governor Magoon, said:

We receive from you the government of Cuba which you turn over to us in compliance with the principles of international law. We have heard your statement and take note of the document which you deliver to us. We are glad to see that you are in agreement with the principles of international law, the principles of our constitution and the provisions of the appendix of the constitution. The constitution shall be upheld in all its integrity, because our chief concern will be to preserve it inviolate. We shall continue to maintain and protect the principles of international law, and we shall endeavor to maintain good government and vigilant administration, to obviate that at any time it shall be found necessary to apply any of its clauses. The United States will always find in us a friendly and loyal neighbor.

We are indebted to your nation for its generous aid in the maintenance of our institutions, and the friendly relations existing will never be broken through any act of ours. Once again we are masters of our fate, and there is not a Cuban heart that does not yearn to maintain for all time the newly acquired integrity of the nation, and who does not at the same time feel the profoundest gratitude toward those who, after governing them, have faithfully performed their agreement and now leave us in the full enjoyment of our sovereignty.

We are glad to see that you are in agreement with the principles of international law, the principles of our constitution and the provisions of the appendix of the constitution. The constitution shall be upheld in all its integrity, because our chief concern will be to preserve it inviolate. We shall continue to maintain and protect the principles of international law, and we shall endeavor to maintain good government and vigilant administration, to obviate that at any time it shall be found necessary to apply any of its clauses. The United States will always find in us a friendly and loyal neighbor.

Telegrams of congratulation from President Roosevelt, President-elect Taft and Secretary Wright were read in Spanish to the throng, and while congratulations were being extended to President Gomez, Governor Magoon hurried away. He was escorted to Caballera wharf by Vice-President Zayas, the justices of the Supreme Court and General Barry.

GOOD WISHES FOR CUBA.

The President's Message—Magoon Sends a Financial Statement.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The following message was sent by President Roosevelt to the President and the Congress of the Republic of Cuba.

Governor Magoon will, by my direction, turn over to you the government of Cuba, and I am glad to see that you are in agreement with the principles of international law, the principles of our constitution and the provisions of the appendix of the constitution. The constitution shall be upheld in all its integrity, because our chief concern will be to preserve it inviolate. We shall continue to maintain and protect the principles of international law, and we shall endeavor to maintain good government and vigilant administration, to obviate that at any time it shall be found necessary to apply any of its clauses. The United States will always find in us a friendly and loyal neighbor.

most earnest hopes for the stability and success of your government. Our fondest hope is that you may enjoy the blessing of peace, prosperity, liberty and orderly liberty, and that the friendship which has existed between the Republic of Cuba and the United States and the Republic of Cuba may continue for all time to come.

Governor Magoon has sent by cable a statement of the condition of Cuba, which shows that all contracts and other obligations of the provisional government have been paid, as far as practicable. A treasury statement, issued January 27, is as follows:

Cash in treasury vaults, $774,042; cash in bank subject to check of treasurer, $123,333; cash in bank subject to daily call, $795,833; cash in transit, $124,250; cash in hands of disbursing officers in excess of their outstanding checks, $1,061,183; total cash immediately available for purposes of the government, $2,984,641. In addition there are in the treasury $1,000,000 in Cuban bonds, purchased by the Palma government, and which were carried on the books and appeared in the treasury statement as cash.

WOULD RAISE THE MAINE.

Bill for That Purpose Introduced by Mr. Calder.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Taking his inspiration from the President's message yesterday, Representative Calder, of Brooklyn, to-day introduced a bill providing for the raising of the battleship Maine. The bill provides that the Secretary of the Navy be authorized to request estimates for raising the vessel from Havana Harbor, and for the expenses defrayed by the Treasury Department out of the appropriation heretofore appropriated. The measure also makes provision for suitable burial of any bodies which may be found in the hull.

WATERS TREATY WAITING

Newfoundland Expected to Approve Fishery Convention.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The British boundary waters convention will probably be permitted to rest in abeyance for several days. Senator Smith, of Michigan, is still determined to have the convention postponed until after the session of the Senate, which will convene on March 4. The convention will probably result in postponing action until the special session. The leaders believe that when the Senate meets after March 4 the convention will be taken up, and that Mr. Root, who will then be a member of the Senate, can in a comparatively few weeks meet every objection and insure the approval of the convention in its present form. The news received from Newfoundland is not so discouraging as the press dispatches seem to indicate, and the expectation is still entertained at the State Department, which is in constant communication with the British Embassy, that the treaty which was signed yesterday by Ambassador Bryce and Secretary Root will receive the sanction of the Newfoundland government and be sent to the Senate in its present form.

St. John's, N. F., Jan. 28.—The colonial government has not given its assent to the fishery agreement between Great Britain and the United States, and the opinion is expressed in some quarters here that it will fall. Premier Bond and his Cabinet decline to discuss the question of the fishery agreement. The Opposition press holds the view that Premier Bond is unwilling to allow claims of American vessel owners for damages caused by the detention of schooners to be submitted to The Hague for arbitration.

CONGRESS LEADERS' PLAN.

No General Legislation in Remainder of the Session.

Washington, Jan. 28.—A conference took place to-night between Senators Aldrich and Hale and Representative Watson, Republican whip of the House, looking to the arrangement of a programme of legislation for the remainder of the session. The Senate leaders are of the opinion that they did not purpose to enact any laws of a general character, as the appropriation bills will occupy practically all the remaining time.

Mr. Watson said the House would pass the statehood bills for Arizona and New Mexico, and possibly the Knox bill, regulating shipments of intoxicating liquors into "dry" communities. "It was suggested by the Senate leaders that if the latter bill should come over from the House the Senate might amend it by adopting a more radical measure. This is not desired by the House leaders, and it is probable that the question of passing the Knox bill will be considered fully before a decision is reached.

HOUSE ACTS ON CENSUS BILL.

Authorizes Printing to Be Done Outside Government Office.

Washington, Jan. 28.—A lively debate on Government Printing Office affairs occurred in the House this afternoon when the conference report on the census bill came up. The House and Senate conferees were at odds over a proposition to authorize the printing of material for the next census by private contract, when considered necessary by the Director of the Census. The House had required the printing to be done by the Government Printing Office, but the Senate amended the bill so as to authorize letting the work to outside firms in case the government office could not do it as expeditiously as by private contract. The amendment moved in the House was carried by a vote of 127 to 118.

The debate brought out several interesting sidelights on the big printing office. Mr. Hepburn charged that it was dominated by the union labor element, although supposed to be an open shop, while Representative Tawney declared that in many cases it was more economical for the government to have contracts made elsewhere.

The army appropriation bill was called up and briefly discussed.

SIX MEN FALL INTO RIVER.

Two Wagons Also Drop from Ferryboat When It Crashes into Slip.

Just as the ferryboat Red Rank of the Central Railroad crossed Jersey street, was about to make her turn at Liberty street the wind and a strong tide threw her against the pilings and six men and a double truck, owned by Seman Brothers, wholesale grocers at No. 121 Hudson street, and a United States Express wagon went into the river. The three horses were drowned.

William Brass, a workman, jumped into the river to rescue Samuel Remain, of No. 42 Broadway, Bayonne, and with the assistance of several persons on the pier, pulled out Robert Blayne, of No. 323 Henderson street, Jersey City; Charles Vandenberg, George Vreeland, of No. 40 Charles avenue, Elizabeth, N. J.; Frank Galloway, of No. 249 Suydam avenue, Jersey City, and George Becker, of No. 49 Bramwell avenue, Jersey City. In the smash several passengers were thrown to the floor, but no one was badly injured.

MAJOR JOHN P. HAINS TRANSFERRED.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Major John Powell Hains, Paymaster United States Army, brother of the man charged with the murder of William E. Annis, it was learned to-day, has been ordered transferred to San Francisco. The order, which was awaiting Major Hains upon his return from the trial of his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, is said to be pursuant to army routine.

BALTIMORE ALIENIST FOR HAINS.

Baltimore, Jan. 28.—Dr. Charles G. Hill, of this city, a noted alienist, will testify on behalf of the man charged with the murder of William E. Annis and his son Thornton, the latter recently acquitted of complicity in the case, were here to-day and retained Dr. Hill.

NEW EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILL.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Beveridge introduced to-day a bill to amend the employers' liability act to meet the objection raised by labor organizations. It is understood that the measure in large part has the approval of President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft.

NEW WEST SHORE TERMINAL AT 42D STREET AND NORTH RIVER.

LABOR COUNCIL FEB. 10

Mr. Straus Invites Leaders, Including Gompers—Purposes of Meeting.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The council of labor, to be convened at the Department of Commerce and Labor, will hold its first meeting on February 10. Invitations were sent out to-day by order of Secretary Straus to twenty-two labor leaders in all parts of the organized labor movement, inviting them to attend and by their aid and advice make the convention of permanent benefit to the wage earners. Accompanying the invitation was a letter of advice setting forth the objects of the meeting. President Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor and members of the Knights of Labor are among the invited, as well as a number of men outside the ranks of the organizations.

"This council of labor meeting will aim to aid the non-union man as much as the member of the union," said an official of the department to-day. "For the Secretary believes the government without a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions of immigration, boiler inspection, government employment exchanges and child labor. If the labor men will only accept this opportunity to come together and join hands with the government, the future of the country will be made clearer to the union cause, and the non-union man with a sight distorted by his dislike of the organizations—the council will be a much interested in the man who belongs to one of the organized bodies. The labor men invited will be requested to set forth their views very fully on the important questions