

Racing Professional Baseball Lawn Tennis Yachting Trotting Other Sports

It Looks Easy

RAIN MARS THE RACING POOR CARD AT THE SPA.

Dorante Wins the Handicap, Showing Good Form in the Mud.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Heavy rain, which came down without intermission, served to dampen...

The racing was, even considering the condition of the track, ordinary. Quantity rather than quality...

Twelve were carded, with four more recorded as also eligible, but just five answered the post call.

The fifth race the field dwindled down to measure proportions, only three of the fourteen on the programme competing.

Tom Welsh sent to the post the winner of the closing race in Leoc, a two-year-old son of Heno and Bradwick...

Several stakes that will be run here next year and in 1911 closed to-day, and the lists are flattering.

The announcement made yesterday of a fund of $100,000 to guarantee the re-establishment of all the old-time fixtures here has aroused genuine enthusiasm among all classes of turfmen...

Barleythorpe is likely to change owners in a day or two. Last week, when the offer of W. S. Fanshawe was declared, Charles Hughes, the colt's trainer, said Mr. Ziegler, in whose name he runs, would retain him and make a bid for the Futurity.

Sobel, who was hurt in a steeplechase last week, was permitted to leave the hospital on Saturday. The doctors agreeing that he had recovered, but he reported that if he likes the colt after seeing him the price will not be considered.

William Manly, president of the Maryland Jockey Club and a member of the Jockey Club, was at the track to-day.

Several stakes that will be run here next year and in 1911 closed to-day, and the lists are flattering.

The announcement made yesterday of a fund of $100,000 to guarantee the re-establishment of all the old-time fixtures here has aroused genuine enthusiasm among all classes of turfmen...

Barleythorpe is likely to change owners in a day or two. Last week, when the offer of W. S. Fanshawe was declared, Charles Hughes, the colt's trainer, said Mr. Ziegler, in whose name he runs, would retain him and make a bid for the Futurity.

Sobel, who was hurt in a steeplechase last week, was permitted to leave the hospital on Saturday. The doctors agreeing that he had recovered, but he reported that if he likes the colt after seeing him the price will not be considered.

William Manly, president of the Maryland Jockey Club and a member of the Jockey Club, was at the track to-day.

Several stakes that will be run here next year and in 1911 closed to-day, and the lists are flattering.

The announcement made yesterday of a fund of $100,000 to guarantee the re-establishment of all the old-time fixtures here has aroused genuine enthusiasm among all classes of turfmen...

Barleythorpe is likely to change owners in a day or two. Last week, when the offer of W. S. Fanshawe was declared, Charles Hughes, the colt's trainer, said Mr. Ziegler, in whose name he runs, would retain him and make a bid for the Futurity.

Sobel, who was hurt in a steeplechase last week, was permitted to leave the hospital on Saturday. The doctors agreeing that he had recovered, but he reported that if he likes the colt after seeing him the price will not be considered.

William Manly, president of the Maryland Jockey Club and a member of the Jockey Club, was at the track to-day.

Several stakes that will be run here next year and in 1911 closed to-day, and the lists are flattering.

The announcement made yesterday of a fund of $100,000 to guarantee the re-establishment of all the old-time fixtures here has aroused genuine enthusiasm among all classes of turfmen...

Barleythorpe is likely to change owners in a day or two. Last week, when the offer of W. S. Fanshawe was declared, Charles Hughes, the colt's trainer, said Mr. Ziegler, in whose name he runs, would retain him and make a bid for the Futurity.

Sobel, who was hurt in a steeplechase last week, was permitted to leave the hospital on Saturday. The doctors agreeing that he had recovered, but he reported that if he likes the colt after seeing him the price will not be considered.

RACE FOR GEORGE GANO.

Swift Pacer Shows Well on First Day of Fort Erie Meeting.

Buffalo, Aug. 16.—Light attendance marked the opening of the four-day Grand Circuit meeting at Fort Erie racetrack this afternoon.

The feature of the card was the 2:05 pace, which brought together George Gano, Darkey Hal, Major Brino and Major Mallow.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

The betting favored Marie N. in the second heat, but Geers could do no better than second. Penisa Maid repeated in the next two heats.

Ed Geers, the silent man, upset calculations in the 2:20 trot, when he brought Marie N. home in front of Penisa Maid, the favorite, in the first heat.

Standings in Baseball Race

Table showing American League Games to-day, National League Games to-day, and Standings for both leagues.

GIANTS TIE PIRATES RAIN UPSETS LEAGUE

RAIN STOPS THE GAME. SCHEDULES ALL AWRY.

Great Catch by Murray Robs Pittsburgh of Victory as Storm Breaks.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 16.—New York and Pittsburgh each scoring two runs, played the game here to-day before the biggest crowd that ever turned out on a Monday in this town.

The storm yesterday made mince-meat of the schedules of the various leagues in this part of the country, and spreading to the West, knocked out games in Detroit and Cleveland.

The Giants and the Pirates got in eight innings, but without result, and in the American League the only game played was between Philadelphia and Washington.

The Athletics won, and thus secured a tenuous hold of first place again, because Detroit had no chance to play Chicago.

The Eastern teams of the National League are on their way home from a fairly successful invasion of the West. That is, the Giants were completely victorious, or almost so, and the others were a few games here and there.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Giants will play in Philadelphia to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Athletics will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

The Yankees will try to play four games with Boston to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, and will return here on Friday.

READY FOR TITLE PLAY

EYES TURN TO NEWPORT.

Lawn Tennis Experts Prepare for Championships at the Casino.

Newport, Aug. 16.—Eastern lawn tennis experts, assembled here for the twenty-ninth all-comers' national championship, are nervously themselves as for a foreign invasion.

These young Lochinvars of the courts are Pacific Coast. These young Lochinvars of the courts are Pacific Coast.

George James and Maurice F. McLaughlin, doubles challengers, tried out the Casino turf to-day against Thomas C. Bundy and Simpson M. Sinsabugh.

The second quarter contains Clarence Hobart, the veteran; William B. Craig, Jr., Theodore R. Peit, Dean Mathey, Nathaniel M. Niles and J. D. E. Jones.

But on recent performance Hobart seems to have the easiest way to the semi-finals. In his match, Princeton's wonderful freshman, in his thirteenth year, to accomplish surprising work in the wedding process.

The third quarter includes George P. Gardner, Jr., Harvard's 1907 intercollegiate champion; Clarence C. Pell, Wallace F. Johnson, Wylie C. Grant, Edwin P. Larned, Robert Leroy and Richard H. Palmer.

As the young Pennsylvanian came through against the same men at Southampton last week and was playing better than ever to-day, his place in the semi-finals is looked upon as sure.

McLaughlin, Long, Hugh Tallant, Charles M. Buell, Jr., Alfred Stillman, Frederick C. Inman, Gustave F. Touchard, Frank J. Sulloway and S. H. Vochel hold the last quarter of the draw of 164 aspirants, which is a record for the tournament.

McLaughlin is conceded to be a finalist. Many believe that he will be the challenger of William A. Larned for the newly offered Casino deputation bowl, a massive piece of silver.

A new departure is taken with this trophy, as two victories instead of the usual three will make it the personal property of the successful player.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

Altogether the tournament promises to work out a changing of class from the old to newer wielders of the racket. It is a turning point in American lawn tennis, and the national association officials are preparing to see that no untoward happenings mar the decision of this momentous meeting.

to blend Havana and domestic tobacco. But it took over 40 years to learn how to keep the mellow Havana taste, and still do away with its nerve-wrecking effects. The result is in the mellow flavor of a

Robert Burns Mild 10c Cigar

SONDER CRAFT TRIED

HEAVY SEA FOR TEST.

Joyette, Ellen and Wolf Do Well in Races Off Marblehead.

Marblehead, Mass., Aug. 16.—Nineteen handsome little yachts, representing the American idea of how the German sonder class craft should be designed, took part to-day in a series of races from which the committee of the Eastern Yacht Club obtained valuable data to aid it in selecting three boats to represent this country in the contests here two weeks later, against three German challengers for the Taff and Draper cups.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

The Wolf, owned by the Boston Yacht Club, was separated into three divisions, and was sent twice over a triangular course six miles in length and once over a windward and leeward course of the same distance.

The honors of the day in the first division fell twice to the Joyette, owned by Commodore William H. Childs, of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, Brooklyn, and once to the Crooner, owned and sailed by C. F. Adams, 2d, of the Eastern Yacht Club.

In the second division, the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis, of Boston, and sailed by his son, Charles P. Curtis, Jr., was first across the finish line in the first and third races, and was second in the second heat. The Eel took the second race, but did not do well in the others.

THE EASTERN LEAGUE.

Games to-day, Baltimore at Jersey City, Newark at Providence, Montreal at Toronto, Buffalo at Rochester.

Results of games yesterday, Baltimore vs. Jersey City (rain), Newark vs. Providence (rain), Buffalo vs. Rochester (rain), Montreal vs. Toronto (rain).

Eastern League Standings, Baltimore 58, W. L. P. C., Toronto 50, W. L. P. C., Rochester 48, W. L. P. C., Montreal 48, W. L. P. C., Buffalo 48, W. L. P. C.

State League Standings, Wilkes-Barre 2, Scranton 0, Utica 7, Syracuse 4, Troy vs. Albany (rain), Elmira vs. Binghamton (rain).

OUTLOOK FOR SOCCER SEASON.

Numerous Excellent Matches Arranged—Famous Pilgrims Coming.

What with the presence of the Pilgrims of England, who will appear at least twice in New York, the trip of an American team to Great Britain and the various contests here for national, state and district honors, devotees of association, or soccer football will be in a position to enjoy a surfeit of good things the forthcoming season, and the game should receive another such impetus as was imparted by the former visit of the Pilgrims and the Cornishians.

In addition to the game scheduled at Livingston, Staten Island, on October 2, which will be played under the auspices of the Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club and the New York State Football Association, a second game will be arranged on the return of the visitors from the West, against a team representing the New York Amateur Association Football League. The date will be about November 20. The Pilgrims will take passage on board the Mauretania, leaving Liverpool on September 25, and are due here on the evening of the 30th.

St. Louis, Newark, Baltimore, Washington, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Niagara and Toronto will all be visited before the return to New York.

Fifteen clubs will figure this year in the competition for the championship of the New York Amateur Association Football League, which, however, will devote the season to Sunday games exclusively, so far as championship play is concerned.

The member clubs have been divided into two sections as follows: First section—Arcadia, Tristram, Brooklyn, Camerons, Critchleys, Clan MacDonnells, Clan MacKenzies, Bronx United, Hollywood Inn, Second section—Astoria Independents, Camerons B, Clan MacDuFF, Donegal Field Club, High Bridge, Brooklyn Hillbrians, Reliance Athletic Club.

MYOPIA POLO TEAM WINS. Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 16.—Myopia defeated Great Neck by a score of 14 to 9, goals in an eleven-period polo match for the Staten Island cups at the Point Judith Country Club to-day. In a second match Dedham won from New Haven, 8 to 7. In the series for the Narragansett cups, both games were hotly contested, the score being tied in the tenth period of each contest.

FRED KNOWLES SOMEWHAT BETTER. Pittsburg, Aug. 16.—Fred Knowles, secretary of the New York Baseball Club, who was overcome by heat during the game at Chicago yesterday, was confined to his bed to-day, but will leave for Philadelphia to-night with the team. Mr. Knowles' condition was considered serious last night and early to-day, but he so far recovered as to be able to take the trip to-night. The secretary was under the care of a physician all day.

CIVILIAN TAKES ALLEGED MURDERER. Man Was Accused of Killing One Passenger and Wounding Another After Streetcar Fight. Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Michael Angelo, a Sicilian, wanted by the local police for killing Thomas A. Lee and wounding Frank H. Powers, was captured by George Barton, a civilian, at 11 o'clock this morning on a farm eleven miles west of Binghamton. Barton held the man until the arrival of the officers.

After getting into a fight with two passengers on a streetcar early Sunday morning, Angelo slipped from the car and fired five shots at random, one killing Lee, who had taken no part in the disturbance, and another wounding Powers. Angelo remained at liberty about thirty-four hours.