

WEEK'S BANK CHANGES.

Table showing bank changes for August 28, 1909, including clearing house banks, clearing house banks, and clearing house banks.

The following shows the relation between the total reserve and the total deposits on the respective dates:

Table showing the relation between total reserve and total deposits for August 28, 1909.

The following table compares the Clearing House clearing statement with the statements of corresponding dates in 1908 and 1909.

Table comparing clearing house clearing statements for August 28, 1908 and 1909.

The following shows the relation between the total reserve and the total deposits on the respective dates:

Table showing the relation between total reserve and total deposits for August 28, 1909.

FEAR FREIGHT CAR SHORTAGE.

Experts say shrinking surpluses shows coming difficulties in moving crops. Another substantial decrease in the number of cars in this country and Canada, reflecting the rising volume of trade and industries, is reported in the fortnightly bulletin of the American Railway Association, issued yesterday.

B. & O. ACQUIRES STATEN ISLAND RY.

The Public Service Commission yesterday approved the application of the Staten Island Railway Company for consent to transfer on its books to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company 27 miles of the capital stock of the Staten Island Railway Company.

FIFTY LOCOMOTIVES ORDERED.

Hankin, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad placed an order with the Baldwin Locomotive Works yesterday for fifty locomotives of the consolidation type.

J. O. ARMOUR JOINS BANK DIRECTORATE.

J. Ogden Armour, head of Armour & Co. of Chicago, has been elected a director of the National Bank of this city.

NEW YORK AND OTHER GAS SECURITIES.

Table listing gas securities for New York and other cities, including American Gas, Manhattan, and others.

CHICAGO CLOSING STOCKS.

Table showing closing stock prices for Chicago on August 28, 1909.

BANK STATEMENT IN DETAIL.

Detailed table of bank statements for August 28, 1909, listing various banks and their financial details.

THE MARKETS.

TOTAL DOMESTIC RECEIPTS.

Table showing total domestic receipts for August 28, 1909, categorized by commodity.

EXPORTS.

Table showing exports for August 28, 1909, categorized by commodity.

CASH QUOTATIONS.

Table showing cash quotations for various commodities.

GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

Coffee.—Covering by near month shorts and generally steady tone to the coffee market today, but trading continued quiet and firm in Brazil.

CHICAGO PRICES.

Table showing Chicago prices for various commodities.

MOLASSES AND SYRUPS.

The general market for liquid sugars was slow, with some, however, steady and prices unchanged.

OTHER MARKETS.—BY TELEGRAPH.

London, Aug. 28.—CATTLE.—Receipts, 250 head; steady and quiet; fair to good shippers.

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

Beans and Peas.—New York, August 28, 1909. Sellers showed some anxiety to move the domestic white beans and slightly lower prices were named.

FLOR AND MEAL.

The flour market was about steady, with a small softening trace. No change in the price of the flour market.

GRAIN.—WHEAT.

The influence of further frost reports from the American Northwest, and the fact that time again during the opening in Saturday's wheat market, $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks, including $2 1/2 in red dog, against $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks.

was reported on Saturday. The greatest strength at the opening was in September wheat at Chicago, which advanced 1/8 cent per bush to $1.10. Other months followed with the exception of the October market which was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush. Much of the long market was made up of the regular market, and the front news came out on this market, and the opinion of room traders that outside of the front market there was very little to do.

The Northwest receipts showed an increasing tendency and were expected to be heavy next week. The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

Wheat.—The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

Chicago.—The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

Flour.—The market was about steady, with a small softening trace. No change in the price of the flour market.

Wheat.—The influence of further frost reports from the American Northwest, and the fact that time again during the opening in Saturday's wheat market, $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks, including $2 1/2 in red dog, against $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks.

Beans and Peas.—Sellers showed some anxiety to move the domestic white beans and slightly lower prices were named.

Flour.—The market was about steady, with a small softening trace. No change in the price of the flour market.

Wheat.—The influence of further frost reports from the American Northwest, and the fact that time again during the opening in Saturday's wheat market, $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks, including $2 1/2 in red dog, against $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks.

old hay, as to quality, 50c @ $1.05; straw, per 100 lb, 10c to 15c; 50c @ $1.05; do short and tangled dry, 50c @ $1.05; do not and wheat, 50c @ $1.05.

HOPE.—The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

POTATOES AND VEGETABLES.—Choice potatoes in moderate supply and steady at late prices. Sweet potatoes in moderate supply and steady at late prices.

Wheat.—The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

Chicago.—The market was rather top heavy when it was found that the market was rather top heavy when it was found in the front news. Bear pressure eventually became quite heavy, and especially after the regular close, the market gave a decided reaction in New York, selling at 1 1/2 cents a bush.

Flour.—The market was about steady, with a small softening trace. No change in the price of the flour market.

Wheat.—The influence of further frost reports from the American Northwest, and the fact that time again during the opening in Saturday's wheat market, $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks, including $2 1/2 in red dog, against $2 1/2 in bulk and $2 3/4 in sacks.

Beans and Peas.—Sellers showed some anxiety to move the domestic white beans and slightly lower prices were named.

Flour.—The market was about steady, with a small softening trace. No change in the price of the flour market.

Advertisement for HAMILTON INSTITUTE, a home school for boys and girls in the real country, located at Valhalla, N. Y.

Advertisement for DWIGHT SCHOOL, located at 15 W. 43d St., New York City.

Advertisement for De Lancy School for Girls, located at 301 West 94th St., New York City.

Advertisement for HAMILTON INSTITUTE FOR GIRLS, located at 3 West 81st St., New York City.

Advertisement for THE BARNARD SCHOOL OF HOUSEHOLD ARTS, located at 226 West 94th St., New York City.

Advertisement for BARNARD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, located at 414 West 144th St., New York City.

Advertisement for THE SEMPLE, located at 241 Central Park West, New York City.

Advertisement for DR. KARL'S GIRLS' COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, located at 100 West 144th St., New York City.

Advertisement for ACKARD COMMERCIAL SCHOOL, located at 4th Ave. and 23d Street, New York City.

Advertisement for HAMILTON INSTITUTE, a home school for boys and girls in the real country, located at Valhalla, N. Y.

Advertisement for DWIGHT SCHOOL, located at 15 W. 43d St., New York City.

Advertisement for De Lancy School for Girls, located at 301 West 94th St., New York City.

Advertisement for HAMILTON INSTITUTE FOR GIRLS, located at 3 West 81st St., New York City.

Advertisement for THE BARNARD SCHOOL OF HOUSEHOLD ARTS, located at 226 West 94th St., New York City.

Advertisement for BARNARD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, located at 414 West 144th St., New York City.

Advertisement for THE SEMPLE, located at 241 Central Park West, New York City.

Advertisement for DR. KARL'S GIRLS' COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, located at 100 West 144th St., New York City.

Advertisement for ACKARD COMMERCIAL SCHOOL, located at 4th Ave. and 23d Street, New York City.