

MORE REVELATIONS

Former Austrian Ambassador Raises the Curtain

(Copyright, 1939, by the Horace Company.) Sir Horace Rumbold, who was for many years British Ambassador in Vienna, makes in his book, just published, entitled "The Austrian Court in the Nineteenth Century," a revelation which should go far to set at rest the foolish stories that have been published from time to time with regard to the alleged murder of Queen Victoria's husband by Meyerling.

There are many interesting glimpses in the book of the late Emperor of Austria, and those who are under the impression that it was only on the death of the Crown Prince that she showed herself as the coming age of a new world.

After the imperial couple, writes Sir Horace, "had tenderly embraced, the Emperor, moved by a sudden impulse, stooped down and kissed her husband's hand, a touching act of homage and devotion at this bitter hour of trial which deeply affected all those who witnessed it."

The book of Sir Horace is entirely devoid of scandal or sensationalism, but is a plain, straightforward, impartial narrative of the reign of Francis Joseph, whom Sir Horace went to Vienna to know, and to whom he was an attaché of the British Embassy, and whose warm friend he became when, nearly forty years later, he returned to the Austrian capital as ambassador.

Sir Horace was an attaché at Washington in 1865, during the Presidency of Andrew Johnson, and he was the first American girl, a Miss Harrington, daughter of George Harrington, who at the time of the marriage was United States Minister at Bern.

It was not, as has been alleged, this union, to which no exception was ever taken, that caused Sir Horace's promotion to the rank of ambassador to be delayed for many years. It was the diplomatic reminiscences entitled "Recollections of a Diplomatist," which furnishes the real explanation of the fact that while he was minister at The Hague no less than five of his juniors had been appointed over his head to embassies.

Sir Horace's "Recollections," which are the distillation of this story and the transformation of the docket collector into one of the chamberlains at court was a piece of petty spite and vengeance on the part of Queen Wilhelmina's English governess, Miss Winger, for having a second time been kept out of a position at the English church at The Hague at the memorial service for the Duke of Clarence organized by the English legation at the time of his death.

MUSIC

A GROUP OF SUNDAY CONCERTS.

Spanish Music and the Spirit of Paganism. It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close.

It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close. Yesterday was a day of rest and religious observance, but it brought with it four concerts of magnitude—one by the Philharmonic Society, one by the Symphony Society, and two by the orchestral and other forces of the Metropolitan and Manhattan opera houses, respectively.

DOM MIGUEL NOT A BRAZILIAN. Dom Miguel of Braganza's proclamation in the cabed interview published in this column last week, that he was a Brazilian and a legal resident of Brazil, was a less cause a considerable amount of amazement to his friends and acquaintances, for so far as is known, neither he nor his father, the present Duke of Braganza, ever set foot in Brazil.

THE PHILHARMONIC AND SYMPHONY SOCIETIES met in direct competition for the first time yesterday, and the contest was the first of its projected Sunday concerts in Carnegie Hall and the latter the third of its Sunday series in The New Theatre.

IN THE BERKSHIRES. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Lenox, Nov. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse, Jr., and Miss Sylvia Brocklebank, of London, who have been in New York for a fortnight, have returned to Lenox on Tuesday.

SOCIAL NOTES FROM NEWPORT. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Newport, Nov. 21.—Mrs. French-Vanderbilt has disposed of her 30-foot Cape Cod boat which she purchased by Ralph N. Ellis, who with Mrs. Ellis will be back in Newport next summer.

JOHN S. KENNEDY MEMORIAL. A meeting in memory of John Stewart Kennedy will be held this evening at 8:35 o'clock in the assembly hall of the United Charities Building, No. 95 East 23d street.

WHAT IS GOING ON TODAY. Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History. Annual meeting of the National Civic Federation, No. 1 Madison square, all day.

THE METROPOLITAN WAS the most interesting. Mr. Max Bendix conducted the orchestra at the latter house. Mr. Charles, M. Nicola, M. de la Fuente and M. Anselmi, a former, were an outside attraction.

of the operatic concerts last night that at the Manhattan Opera House was heard by the largest number of people, that at the Metropolitan was the most interesting.

MUSIC

A GROUP OF SUNDAY CONCERTS.

Spanish Music and the Spirit of Paganism. It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close.

It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close. Yesterday was a day of rest and religious observance, but it brought with it four concerts of magnitude—one by the Philharmonic Society, one by the Symphony Society, and two by the orchestral and other forces of the Metropolitan and Manhattan opera houses, respectively.

DOM MIGUEL NOT A BRAZILIAN. Dom Miguel of Braganza's proclamation in the cabed interview published in this column last week, that he was a Brazilian and a legal resident of Brazil, was a less cause a considerable amount of amazement to his friends and acquaintances, for so far as is known, neither he nor his father, the present Duke of Braganza, ever set foot in Brazil.

THE PHILHARMONIC AND SYMPHONY SOCIETIES met in direct competition for the first time yesterday, and the contest was the first of its projected Sunday concerts in Carnegie Hall and the latter the third of its Sunday series in The New Theatre.

IN THE BERKSHIRES. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Lenox, Nov. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse, Jr., and Miss Sylvia Brocklebank, of London, who have been in New York for a fortnight, have returned to Lenox on Tuesday.

SOCIAL NOTES FROM NEWPORT. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Newport, Nov. 21.—Mrs. French-Vanderbilt has disposed of her 30-foot Cape Cod boat which she purchased by Ralph N. Ellis, who with Mrs. Ellis will be back in Newport next summer.

JOHN S. KENNEDY MEMORIAL. A meeting in memory of John Stewart Kennedy will be held this evening at 8:35 o'clock in the assembly hall of the United Charities Building, No. 95 East 23d street.

WHAT IS GOING ON TODAY. Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History. Annual meeting of the National Civic Federation, No. 1 Madison square, all day.

THE METROPOLITAN WAS the most interesting. Mr. Max Bendix conducted the orchestra at the latter house. Mr. Charles, M. Nicola, M. de la Fuente and M. Anselmi, a former, were an outside attraction.

of the operatic concerts last night that at the Manhattan Opera House was heard by the largest number of people, that at the Metropolitan was the most interesting.

MUSIC

A GROUP OF SUNDAY CONCERTS.

Spanish Music and the Spirit of Paganism. It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close.

It would be interesting, could it but be discovered, how much of the spirit of the purveyors of music in the city of New York by the present week comes to a close. Yesterday was a day of rest and religious observance, but it brought with it four concerts of magnitude—one by the Philharmonic Society, one by the Symphony Society, and two by the orchestral and other forces of the Metropolitan and Manhattan opera houses, respectively.

DOM MIGUEL NOT A BRAZILIAN. Dom Miguel of Braganza's proclamation in the cabed interview published in this column last week, that he was a Brazilian and a legal resident of Brazil, was a less cause a considerable amount of amazement to his friends and acquaintances, for so far as is known, neither he nor his father, the present Duke of Braganza, ever set foot in Brazil.

THE PHILHARMONIC AND SYMPHONY SOCIETIES met in direct competition for the first time yesterday, and the contest was the first of its projected Sunday concerts in Carnegie Hall and the latter the third of its Sunday series in The New Theatre.

IN THE BERKSHIRES. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Lenox, Nov. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse, Jr., and Miss Sylvia Brocklebank, of London, who have been in New York for a fortnight, have returned to Lenox on Tuesday.

SOCIAL NOTES FROM NEWPORT. (By Telegram to the Tribune.) Newport, Nov. 21.—Mrs. French-Vanderbilt has disposed of her 30-foot Cape Cod boat which she purchased by Ralph N. Ellis, who with Mrs. Ellis will be back in Newport next summer.

JOHN S. KENNEDY MEMORIAL. A meeting in memory of John Stewart Kennedy will be held this evening at 8:35 o'clock in the assembly hall of the United Charities Building, No. 95 East 23d street.

WHAT IS GOING ON TODAY. Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History. Annual meeting of the National Civic Federation, No. 1 Madison square, all day.

THE METROPOLITAN WAS the most interesting. Mr. Max Bendix conducted the orchestra at the latter house. Mr. Charles, M. Nicola, M. de la Fuente and M. Anselmi, a former, were an outside attraction.

of the operatic concerts last night that at the Manhattan Opera House was heard by the largest number of people, that at the Metropolitan was the most interesting.

RAGAMUFFIN DAY

Dr. Farrar's Thanksgiving Sermon to Children.

The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins." He gave those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given.

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

Those of you who have always lived in New York do not think of this Thanksgiving as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have received, but rather as a day of thanksgiving for the things that we have given. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, ex-president of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America and pastor of the First Reformed Church, 10th Avenue and Carroll street, Brooklyn, preached a children's sermon yesterday morning on "Thanksgiving Ragamuffins."

FORETELLS SUNDAY DRAMA

The Rev. Percy S. Grant Says Plays Could Give Moral Uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

In his sermon last night at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and 16th street, the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector, discussed religion and the drama, saying that the latter should be permitted to give a moral uplift to the people. The Rev. Percy S. Grant says plays could give moral uplift.

MARRIED

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

Notice of marriages and deaths must be noticed with full name and address. MARRIED. VAN WINKLE-TORIN. On November 20, 1939, at the Congregational Church of St. Nicholas, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Torin, officiating, were united in Holy Matrimony Miss Edna M. Van Winkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin, to Edgar E. Van Winkle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Torin.

CLEVELAND FUND

Work for State Capitol Port Almost Done.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

Recent subscriptions to the fund for placing a portrait of Grover Cleveland with those of other governors of the state in the executive chamber of the Capitol at Albany now bring the amount promised above $1,000. Francis Lynde Stetson a few days ago, seeing from the list that the gifts were only $13 short of $1,200, sent a second subscription to bring the fund up to that amount.

MRS. ROBERT C. OGDEN ILL.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

Mrs. Robert C. Ogden is critically ill with pneumonia at her home, No. 123 East 26th street. Last night she was resting comfortably. She has been indisposed for some time, but until Saturday her condition caused no alarm.

GOD AND ETHICS.

Dr. Adler Says He Is Not Afraid To Be Called Atheist.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

Dr. Felix Adler spoke yesterday morning at Carnegie Hall upon "The Belief in God as Viewed from an Ethical Standpoint." At the outset he stated frankly that in his career as a lecturer upon ethical subjects he had seldom attempted to discuss the existence of God.

OBITUARY.

GEORGE B. WOODHOUSE.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

George B. Woodhouse, secretary of the Naval Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association at Philadelphia, died from hemorrhage of the brain yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Marie Tempest in 'The Girl of the Year.'

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.

Marie Tempest, in W. Somerset Maugham's comedy "The Girl of the Year," will begin an engagement at the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, December 13. Miss Tempest will be followed in this theatre by Billie Burke.