STATEHOOD REPORT MISSING

Taking It to Indianapolis Dis-turbs Friends of Bill—Hey-burn Talks Three Hours.

Washington, April 5.—The Senate proceedings today presented a somewhat anomalous situation. At Indianapolis this afternoon Senator Beveridge was criticised as the chief opponent of his pet hobby—a permanent tariff commission—and landing to the skies the Republican insurgents who voted against the Payne law.

At about a week ago Mr. Beveridge, as chairman of the Committee on Territories, filed a favorable report on the bill to confer statehood on Arizona and New Mexico.

Several friends of the bill were disturbed because the report did not come from the Government Printing Office, and yesterday Senator Borah wanted to know what had become of the report.

Senator Clark of Wyoming, Governor Overman and Borah thought that this was a most unusual proceeding.

THE TRIBUNE

124 Nassau St. Uptown, 1364 Broadway.

THE DAY IN WASHINGTON

Washington, April 5.—THE SOUTH AMERICAN TREATY.—The diplomatic officials of the United States, who have been looking forward to the Pan-American Conference at Buenos Ayres as an opportunity to accomplish much in settling the South American and increasing the confidence of the republics of that continent in the friendship and sincerity of the United States, are seriously concerned over the menacing conditions which prevail there.

A PERSONAL INVESTIGATION.—That the investigation obtained by Representative Steierson into the methods pursued by the Merchant Marine League to promote postal legislation is largely a personal matter, as has been contended all along in the Tribune, is demonstrated now that it is learned that Mr. Steierson has obtained the indictment and arrest of John A. Penton, of Cleveland, secretary of the league.

HAVE DONE OUR PART.—The United States has done everything possible to show its interest in the Pan-American conference, having chosen Henry White, former Ambassador to France, to head the delegation from this country, and having invited ex-Vice-President Fairbanks to become a member.
