NEW-YORK TRIBUNE

SUNDAY, MAY 8, 1910.

This newspaper is owned and published by The Tribune Association, a New York corporation; office and principal place of business, Tribune Building, No. 151 Nassau street, New York; Ogden Mills, president; Ogden M. Reid, secretary; James M. Barrett, treasurer.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

CONGRESS.—The Senate was not in session. House: Early adjournment was taken as a mark of respect for the memory of King Edward.

FOREIGN.—George V. was proclaimed King of Great Britain in the Throne Room at St. James's Palace and took the oath of office.

DOMESTIC.—President Taft received a message from King George V. expressing his gratitude for American sympathy and good wishes.

IT.—Stocks were strong. A Brooklyn lawyer killed a six-year-old girl and injured a boy by running them down with his automobile.

THE TAWNEY AMENDMENT.—The provision made by the House Appropriations Committee for the continuation of the work of the Tariff Board and the specific enlargement of the duties of that board to fit the President's desires and his interpretation of the Tariff Board section of the Payne law are a generous confession of error on the part of the Republican leaders in the House of Representatives.

THE SHOCK IN COSTA RICA.—Though the effects of the earthquake in Costa Rica are not yet fully known, it is now evident that the loss of life has been greater than was at first estimated.

RETIREMENT.—Time was when the editors of dictionaries were exclusive, when a word claiming admission must present unimpeachable credentials, but that time is no more.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.—The fact that one of the waiters at a fashionable New York hotel turned out to be the owner of a hotel in Europe, who wore a waiter's uniform for six months in order to acquaint himself with American hotel methods, should not be looked upon as remarkable.

A PLAIN WARNING.—The author and publishers in placing this important matter before the public and warning the innocent and others of the dangers of being misled by the health and morals of the community at large.

USEFUL EVERY TEN YEARS.—The taking of the census every ten years solves the question of what some people are good for. They come handy to swell the census totals.

AND HARDLY MORE SCANDALOUS.—That New York man who sold his wife and sons for $25 knew a cheaper way than going to Reno.

WOULDN'T DARE SAY IT IN TEXAS.—A Philadelphia doctor comes forth with the old gag that a young man ought not to be married before he has been to Lynch law, but men who offer such idiotic suggestions ought to be hanged, and there seems to be no way to do it according to law.

jection to wooden dwellings would thus be effectually removed. Engineers and architects have suggested other methods of securing protection. Some of these persons have proposed to prevent the transmission of a shock from the foundation to the superstructure of a building by introducing materials between them which would act either as a cushion or a lubricant. These plans have a highly impracticable look. None of them has the recommendation of a trial on a significant scale.

EDWARD VII AND AMERICA.

The attitude of the late King toward America was properly not regarded as of primary importance in estimating his character and career. A man's first duty is to his own land, and the ruler of a state is chiefly to be judged by his conduct of the affairs of that state.

IN SENATOR BOURNE'S STATE.

In Oregon, whose democratic system of government Senator Bourne has just ennobled, the voters are going to have their patience put to an exceptional test in the next election.

THE PLIGHT OF NICARAGUA.

As an American who has served the United States in Latin America, and who is familiarly acquainted with the conditions in those countries, I would now appeal to our broad minded American press to give a moment's thought to the dire conditions against which our sister republic, Nicaragua, is struggling.

of the house, when he saw the score cards, said to me: 'You lucky dog!' a familiarity which I would have resented had I not been told that it was an American form of speech. A few evenings later I was looking on when the same boy won a bridge, and, wishing to be as polite as he could, said to me: 'Then they said all sorts of uncomplimentary things, and I have been doubtful ever since whether I am still welcome in that set. Yours is a queer language.'

EARLY CHAMPIONS.

The Hittites were a likely team in days of long ago. They were won from Babylon and beat out Jericho.
