

PARADE OF THE WOMEN WHO WANT TO VOTE.

DR. D. J. SEARS, MISS ALICE SAUNDERS AND MISS ALICE DAWSON, WHO HAVE VOTED FOR A PRESIDENT.

WOMEN MARCH FOR VOTES

Big Mass Meeting Then Hears Legislature Denounced.

AUTOS GALORE IN PARADE

Programme in Union Square Mid Banners Quickly Resumed When Rain Stops.

"Votes for women" has been a battle cry all winter, but it was never cried louder or more enthusiastically than yesterday, when hundreds of women marched down Fifth avenue to Union Square, where speakers for the cause voiced their protests against the treatment which suffragettes received in Albany. "New York State Denies the Vote to Idiots, Lunatics, Criminals and Women," were the words on one of the lavender and blue banners, and this was the theme of several of the speeches.

There were almost one hundred automobiles in the parade, which started from 5th street, and at 17th street another large body of women joined the procession. Many of these were in cap and gown, representing the college women who ask for suffrage. Among them were lawyers, doctors, dentists and school teachers. Bands played as the procession moved and flags waved while banners swung triumphantly above the marchers. The number of the district represented was painted on the muslin streamers on the motor cars, and the names of the several clubs and leagues on the banners and flags.

In the first car in the parade were Mrs. James L. Laddlaw, chairman of the Manhattan branch of the suffragists; Mrs. Martha Wentworth Suffer, secretary of the committee; Mrs. Jacob H. Eboh, chairman of the Borough of Queens, and Miss Ida Craft, chairman of the Borough of Brooklyn. Other members of the committee were in the second car with Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. Priscilla Hackstaff, Mrs. Mary W. Dennett and William H. Wood, one of the speakers.

Among the organizations represented were the Woman Voters' League for President, the Woman's Suffrage Association, the Co-operative Suffrage Service League, the Joan of Arc Suffrage League, the Woman's Suffrage Study Club, the Flatbush Political Equality League, the Mount Vernon Political Equality League and the various Assembly districts.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw and Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch arrived in front of the Suffragist League of Self-Supporting Women, who marched from their house, in East 22d street. Miss Jessie Ashley, president, led the Collegiate Equal Suffrage League and delegation, and the New Jersey Suffrage League also was represented.

The banners, with "Taxation Without Representation is Tyranny," "Women Vote on Equal Terms in Colorado," "Six Hundred Thousand Women Need the Ballot" and other suffragette mottoes, had hardly been unfurled when the gentle rain from heaven came down and interfered with the speaking. But it was not long before the programme was resumed, and Miss Jessie Finch scored the judiciary committee of the Legislature for its refusal to submit a favorable report on the suffrage bill.

Mrs. Suffer immediately submitted resolutions declaring that the action of the committee was tyrannical, and the audience adopted them vociferously. Robert Elder, an Assistant District Attorney of Brooklyn, followed Miss Finch, saying: "I fear the fact that there is no reason against woman suffrage is why the Legislature would not record its vote in turning down the bill," and when it began to rain he added: "Even nature is weeping over the outrage that has been done by the Legislature."

There were plenty of speakers at the three booths in the square. Platforms were erected on either side of the park house, and they were hung with a wealth of lavender, yellow, white, orange, purple and blue streamers, rosettes and other decorations. It was estimated that four thousand people were in the audience. Dr. Julia Sears, of Colorado; Miss Florence King, William Wood, Mrs. Mary W. Dennett, Dr. Anna Shaw, Mrs. Blatch, Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake and Mrs. Elizabeth E. Cook spoke. Mrs. Blatch and Mrs. Shaw were kept busy answering questions asked by the crowd. Dr. Shaw spoke of the possibilities of women policemen in the Territories, an argument which the suffragists frequently have made.

OFF FOR BANKING CONFERENCE

C. A. Conant Sails to Take Part in Bills of Exchange Congress.

Charles A. Conant, who was a passenger on the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria yesterday, is going abroad under appointment from the Secretary of State as the delegate of the United States government to the international conference on bills of exchange, which will begin its sessions at The Hague on June 21. All of the European powers and most of the Latin-American governments will be represented at the conference. Concerning the conference Mr. Conant said:

"The subject is a highly technical one, but is of great importance not only to bankers but to shippers of cotton, wheat and other products, as well as to importers. Nearly all the American states have adopted the negotiable instruments law in substantially the same form in which it has been adopted in Great Britain and her dependencies. The conference is for the purpose of securing a nearer approach to uniformity than now exists in respect to certain matters where there is now conflict or uncertainty, as in the form and time of protest. The subject is a broad one, and I hardly expect to see a complete adoption of bills and discounts, which adds to the security of bills and diminishes the opportunity for fraud or misunderstanding will be of benefit to international commerce."

BAN ON SALE OF FIREWORKS.

According to an order issued yesterday by Fire Commissioner Waldo, no permits will be issued for the sale this year of fireworks in any building which is in a dwelling or tenement house, or in any store or building which is not equipped with an approved system of automatic sprinklers.

Up to the present time, no permits have been issued, and the Commissioner believes that under the restrictions devised by the Municipal Explosives Commission none will be given.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ELECT

President and Mrs. Taft, Mr. Roosevelt and King George Members.

RAISED $65,000 IN FEES

World's Association Meeting Re-assembled Political Convention in Enthusiasm.

Washington, May 21.—President Taft, Mrs. Taft, ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, King George of England, President Diaz of Mexico and William Jennings Bryan were made life members of the World's Sunday School Association in the convention here to-day amid scenes of great enthusiasm. For each of those so honored $1,000 had to be subscribed, and in the case of Mr. Roosevelt, the chairman of the convention by popular demand limited subscriptions to $1.

A delegate from Canada started the enthusiasm. "I nominate William Howard Taft for a life membership, and Canada pledges $100 toward it," he shouted. A roar of approval went up. The remaining $900 was subscribed in a flash. Mrs. Taft's name was then proposed, and her $1,000 "initiation fee" promptly was made up.

A delegate from South Carolina proposed King George, and there was a race to subscribe, and Toronto managed to get in only tenth place with its $100, so quick were the responses.

Live Political Convention. Then a man in a centre aisle shouted: "I nominate Theodore Roosevelt!" The effect was almost magical. Men hopped on chairs shouting, women rose and frantically waved handkerchiefs. It looked like the Republican National Convention scene when Mr. Roosevelt was nominated for President.

The chairman withheld the nomination at that moment with difficulty. He confessed that he intended to hold the name of Roosevelt until the last to keep up enthusiasm in subscriptions. In the meanwhile the name of President Diaz was proposed, and the necessary $1,000 was quickly subscribed.

The chair then held the subscription for Mr. Roosevelt to be in order. Men with hats and baskets went down the aisles and returned with a stack of handkerchiefs before the hall had been half covered.

A youthful orator with raven hair got the attention of the chair. "I want to put in nomination a matchless man of the people," he cried, "one who has done much for their uplift and is continuing to do so. I want to nominate William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska."

The applause had not died down before a voice shouted: "Nebraska subscribes the first $100." The remaining $900 was pledged in a few moments. The nomination of persons of less public renown continued until $5,000 had been pledged for mission work.

Just after the convention adjourned until Monday the choir of six hundred, accompanied by probably two thousand or more delegates, marched to the Capitol grounds. The choir ranged along the steps, and the plaza was nearly filled, while a praise service was held in the open air. Many employees of the building stopped their work to go out and join in the singing of hymns, and there was a hail game on and there were few Senators or Representatives there.

World's Sunday School Day. It will be World's Sunday School Day tomorrow. In every Sunday school in the world in the Sunday School Union it will be observed. The little children in the mission in China will be reciting the same order of service as the Sunday school children in Washington.

The executive committee of the world's convention has announced that as a means of focusing the attention of the Church upon the Sunday school as its most important agency in the evangelization of the world, it attaches more importance to the observance of World's Sunday School Day than to the direct results of the world's convention and considers it worth to the cause many times the labor and expense involved.

At the session to-day William N. Hartshorn reported for the field in North America and the Rev. S. D. Zwemer told of the work in the Moslem world. Robert E. Spear spoke of "The Needs of the Mission Work Among Our Nearest Neighbors." Mr. Spear is secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

Mr. Spear made a plea for mission work in South America. As he proceeded he was frequently interrupted with great applause, and some of the delegates declared his eloquence had never been equaled in their conventions.

The movement for peace, for advancement and the further civilization of South and Central America, Mr. Spear predicted, would depend entirely on the progress of a Christian civilization. Many South Americans, supposed to be of some denomination, he said, were atheists.

The work of evangelization now, Mr. Spear said, would be only a lull compared to what it would become in later years, with the greatly increasing population. He told of a trip through the country where in twenty churches he had found but one

Bible, and that was a product of the British Bible Society, which had been confiscated in the confession.

"We cannot," he declared, "turn a continent of 60,000,000 souls over to any religious denomination which denies the Bible to the people."

Mr. Spear then, qualifying his remarks with the statement that the Roman Catholic Church in the United States did not appear to be the same as it is in South America, declared that in South America it is not even a Christian organization.

"For more than three hundred years it has consistently opposed any step forward for the millions of that continent, preferring to keep them in ignorance, preventing the people from possessing the Bible, and even tending to keep the masses illiterate and uneducated," said he. "I can quote for you the statement of Professor Montevideo, of Montevideo, Uruguay, who said to me: 'The Catholic religion hates and antagonizes every movement for the progress of the millions of the South American republics.'"

The convention unanimously adopted a set of resolutions addressed to Congress, in recognition of the attendance of President Taft and Mrs. Taft at the opening session and the "unprecedented adjournment of Congress" yesterday at the time of the mammoth Bible class parade down Pennsylvania avenue. To-day's resolutions were drawn as a reply to the national resolution of welcome which Congress extended to the convention on Monday.

Just before the convention adjourned until Monday a dramatic scene on the platform brought the audience of more than six thousand persons to its feet and caused prolonged cheering.

Marion Lawrence, of the North American section of the executive committee, and the Rev. Carey Bonner, representing the British section, met on the platform, clasped hands and pledged to lead in the evangelization of the dark corners of the earth. Some one threw an American flag across the shoulder of Mr. Lawrence and another person seized a Union Jack among the decorations and draped the Rev. Mr. Bonner with it. The enthusiasm which greeted the demonstration lasted several minutes, and many delegates, overcome with emotion, wept.

PAPER STRIKE SETTLED

Men Get More Pay, in Addition to Recognition of the Union.

All the striking employes of the International Paper Company will return to work to-morrow morning under an agreement reached yesterday between the pulp-makers and paper-makers' unions.

The men receive an advance in wages of 6 per cent, to go into effect on August 1, and also have gained recognition of the union, one of the main concessions for which they fought. There will be no Sunday work, though on that point the company and the men differ in their explanations. The company says its running time will remain what it always has been—six days a week. The men in their original complaint demanded that Sunday work cease, and the form of the demand presupposed the existence of such work.

The paper strike began about three months ago and quickly spread with varying success to the different plants of the company in this state and New England. At one time disorders threatened at the mills in Glens Falls, South Glens Falls, Corinth and neighboring towns. Several companies of militia were called out, but there was no serious rioting. The company imported strike-breakers freely, but many of them were unskilled men and it was found possible to operate the mills on part time only.

ADVOCATES EXCLUSIVE CANAL

Lewis Nixon Thinks Other Nations Should Not Share Use Equally.

Chicago, May 21.—Lewis Nixon, of New York, member of the United States Commission to the fourth pan-American conference at Buenos Ayres, does not believe the United States should share the equal use of the Panama Canal with the other nations of the earth. "The Panama Canal has cost the United States $500,000,000," said Mr. Nixon, in a speech at a dinner here last night. "The only equality that should mark its use is equality among American ships. And if this country has entered into any treaties or conventions that would seem to give to other nations the right to use the canal on an equality with this country, we should lose no time in abrogating such agreements."

CURTAINS FORM A LIFE NET

Little Girl Caught in Fall from Third Floor and Saved.

A number of curtains stretched on a frame in the yard of the house at No. 2212 Fifth avenue formed a net which saved the life of ten-year-old Mary Ollan, when she fell from the fire escape in the rear of her parents' apartment, on the third floor of the building last evening.

The little one was watching Mrs. Anna McIntyre stretching the curtains in the yard when she lost her balance, and fell over the railing of the fire escape upon which she was standing. Her fall was broken by clotheslines from which she rebounded into Mrs. McIntyre's curtains.

Dr. McCombs, of Harlem Hospital, said that a contusion of the right arm from striking one of the clotheslines was the only injury the little girl received.
