New-York Tribune.

SUNDAY, JUNE 5, 1910.

This newspaper is owned and published by The Tribune Association, a New York corporation; office and principal place of business, Tribune Building, No. 154 Nassau street, New York; Ogden Mills, president; Ogden M. Reid, secretary; James M. Barrett, treasurer.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

CONGRESS.—The Senate was not in session. House: The sundry civil bill, carrying appropriations of more than $100,000,000, was passed. FOREIGN.—The action regarding American freight rates has checked investments from Paris, and sharp declines are shown on the Bourse. DOMESTIC.—President Taft, in an address at Jackson, Mich., declared socialism to be the great problem which confronts the American people.

THE RULE OF THE REMNANT.

The Hon. Thomas E. Watson, who has just announced that he is ready to be classified once more as a Democrat, suggests a plan for the management of the Democratic party which would soon make it as tight, comfortable and homelike an organization as the Populist household which he has just left.

RESOLVE WORK IN MINES.

Commenting on the recent collision disaster at Whitehaven, England, British engineering and medical papers lay stress on the delay in the arrival of apparatus for rescue work after the explosion.

THE WEATHER.

Indications for today: Cloudy. The temperature yesterday: Highest, 69 degrees; lowest, 50.

control in Democratic national conventions. Mr. Watson has not studied the election returns of 1908, or he would know that although the Southern States and most of the Southern Congress districts are Democratic only a minor fraction of the Democratic party's vote is cast in the South.

The South as a whole doesn't cast as many Democratic votes as are cast in the two Northern States—New York and Ohio. It couldn't control the Democratic party on the popular representation basis unless it got rid of about 75 per cent of the Northern vote.

THE RETURN OF PEACE.

How are the prophets of an "irrepressible conflict" within the Republican party to explain the passage of the Interstate Commerce bill in the Senate by a unanimous Republican vote?

THE KING'S CIVIL LIST.

The demand of the King of Prussia for an increase of his civil list to $5,000,000 a year, which the Diet will doubtless grant, is a reminder that one of the first tasks of the British Parliament at the beginning of a reign is to fix the income of the sovereign.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.

A group of naturalists in Paris recently feasted a dinner which consisted of an ostrich egg omelette, a pyrrhon stew, roast African gazelle and crow pie.

MR. TAFT AND THE TRIBUNE.

Reading It Every Morning—Some Other Newspaper Preferences. The President gets up about 7 o'clock. He crosses breakfast, reads "The Washington Post" and the New-York Tribune and glances at the first page of "The New York Times" and "The Evening News."

THE CHINESE TROUBLES.

The seriousness of the disturbance and disaffection in China has to be recognized. For many weeks there have been frequent reports of popular outbreaks, of military mutinies, and also of organized and weighty protests against certain leading features of the government's policy.

ness of the oxygen helmet in rescuing miners that they have made its adoption compulsory. Next to nothing has thus far been done with the apparatus in this country.

Modern conveniences have robbed us of many an oldtime delight. Who, having experienced it in the days gone by, will ever forget the joyous anticipation, the exquisite gratification, of the summer's first dish of fresh asparagus.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

Washington, June 4.—The Ambassador from Austria, who has just landed in New York, will come to the capital to-morrow afternoon. He will remain here until he returns to New York to meet Baron Hengemuller and Baroness Milla Hengemuller on their way from Europe.

ONE THING YOU CAN'T DO.

You can laugh when trouble hits you. You can smile when clouds appear. You can grin when worry comes your way. You can laugh when rain is falling. You can be cheerful and laughing. You cannot do much in laughing.
