CUBS SHUT OUT GIANTS

Pfiester and Witte Both Effective, but Visitors Win.

NEW YORK IN THIRD PLACE

Chicago Captures Light Hitting Game by Brilliant and Clever Playing.

Jack Pfiester, familiarly known as "the Giant Killer," performed in his favorite part at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon and shut out New York by a score of 3 to 0 in the second game of the series with the Chicago Cubs.

Pfiester held the Giants to seven scattered hits and gave two passes, while his opponent in the box, George Witte, was just as effective, allowing the Cubs only six hits and giving three passes, even though a drizzling rain part of the time made the ball slippery.

There always seems to be one or two players in the Chicago line-up who stand in the way of a New York victory. It was Sheppard more than any one else on Tuesday, and Tinker and Johnny Evers were the ones to do the trick yesterday.

Ever knocked down everything which came his way, accepting eight chances without an error. Tinker took six.

FAIL TO HOLD THE LEAD

Naps Defeat Yankees by an Eighth-Inning Rally.

QUINN'S WILD PITCH HELPS

Cree Continues Good Stick Work, While Austin's Fielding Is Brilliant.

Cleveland, Aug. 3.—Cleveland stopped the Yankees to-day, winning the third game of the present series by a score of 4 to 2. The visitors went along well and held a lead of two runs until the eighth inning, when Cleveland quickly drove four runs across the plate for a victory.

Falkenberg pitched a good steady game for his team, but the Naps tied the lead by a 2-0 lead in the eighth. He allowed seven hits to six of Quinn. But the latter contributed materially to his own defeat when he made two costly wild pitches in the eighth frame.

Cree kept up his good stick work by driving out a single and a double out of four times at bat. In the field he pulled down a terrific line smash, hit by Joe Judge, which seemed like a sure home run. It was one of the best catches ever seen here. Jimmy Austin also made a hair-raising catch in the same inning.

The visitors scored in the second inning. Gardner started with a pretty drive for one base. Austin promptly sacrificed him to second on a slow toss to the pitcher. Cree struck out, but Quinn proved to be the timely hitter and slashed out a single, scoring the runner. Nothing further exciting happened until the seventh. Gardner drew a base in the Yankees' half of this inning, and in the second inning went to second on Austin's sacrifice. Cree died at first, the runner taking third. He scored on Quinn's second hit. Stupp holding kept Cleveland from scoring in her half of the inning.

The eighth proved the Yankees' Waterloo. Niles was out, Knight to Chase. Birmingham drove a single over Quinn's head. Easterly batted for Roth and singled to left. A wild pitch advanced both runners, and when Quinn repeated his performance, Birmingham scored. Falkenberg drew a pass and Turner lashed out a double down the left field line, scoring Ball. Stovall singled to center and Falkenberg and Turner tangled. Graney forced Stovall and was out stealing a moment later.

Saratoga Breathing With Life

Little Town Ready for Meeting Which May Be the Last in This State.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Saratoga is wide awake to-day, the eye of four weeks of rest and gaiety. The usually staid and always picturesque little, or rather middle-aged town, itself two or three times a year for a race meeting or a political convention to a point of activity that bespeaks a real city.

The hotels and boarding-houses have been filling up for several days, and there was a rush for rooms to-night, on the arrival of the Cavanan special in two sections from New York, which brought up many of those who stayed to see the wind-up of the meeting at Saratoga.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., president of the Saratoga Racing Association, has expressed the opinion that the meeting this year will be more successful than any that has been held in several seasons, and everything points that way. The horses of August Belmont, James R. Keene, R. T. Wilson, Jr., John Sanford, H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller, S. C. Hildreth and John E. Madden, among others, are quartered at the track, and the stars of the thoroughbred world will do battle for the many rich stakes.

The card to-morrow is rich in promise of high-class sport. The Saratoga Handicap, a mile and a quarter, will feature a standing feature, such good horses being named as Fitz Herbert, Ballot, Olambala, Maskette and Dalmatian. The race, which will settle the supremacy of Fitz Herbert, is awaited with keen expectancy. This is the last in this State.

OLD TROTTER GOES WELL

Thornton, a Brooklyn Horse, Wins in Straight Heats.

Another old Brooklyn trotting horse demonstrated his ability to "come back" at the third meeting of the "Pleasure Drivers' Association yesterday, when Thornton, owned and driven by Henry Smith, defeated a youngster, Ulmer, Jr., in a driving shower. Thornton has been a familiar stepper across the bridge for more than eighteen years. Although his owner has had him out all the season it was not until yesterday that the horse showed his old-time form.

MAGEE WALLOPS THE BALL

But the Pirates Defeat Phillies Twice Notwithstanding.

Philadelphia, Aug. 3.—Pittsburg won both games of a double-header with Philadelphia here to-day. The score of the first game was 1 to 1 and of the second 5 to 4. In the first game Philadelphia's errors proved costly, while in the second game Pittsburg bunched hits to better effect than the home team. Magee's batting was the feature. In eight trips to the plate in two contests he made a home run, a three-bagger, two two-baggers and two singles, and was hit by a pitched ball.
