

head on. During this time they were all wet through. On Thursday the weather moderated, and they got into the westward track about 2 o'clock on Friday morning. At this time they were feeling in a very exhausted condition. They sighted the Devonian about 8 o'clock on Friday morning. Great excitement was caused among the passengers, who have taken up collections for the shipwrecked men.

The steamer West Point was commanded by Captain Pinkham, and sailed from Glasgow for Charleston, S. C., on August 18. She registered 8,812 tons gross and 3,074 tons net. She was 274 feet long, had 50 feet beam and 27.6 feet depth of hold. She was built at Newcastle in 1899, and hailed from Liverpool, her owners being the Norfolk and North American Shipping Company, Limited.

Word of the rescue of the first lot of the crew was published here Saturday in dispatches from Boston, in which it was said that the Devonian had picked up sixteen survivors, and that the boat then missing had left the West Point with twenty men. The Mauritania reports rescuing only sixteen men, but there seems to be little doubt that all the shipwrecked men have been saved. The commandant adds in his report, after mentioning whom she rescued, that the "remainder" of the crew were saved by the "German."

GENERAL STRIKE IN SPAIN

Called in Sympathy with Bilbao Striking Coal Miners. Barcelona, Sept. 4.—The committee of the Workmen's Federation to-day posted a placard declaring a general strike to-morrow in sympathy with the striking coal miners and the dock workers and teamsters of Bilbao, who joined the strike movement last week. The workmen here are surprised at the action of the committee, which was entirely unexpected to them.

SPAIN TO ANSWER VATICAN

Government's Relations with the Holy See Will Be Outlined. Madrid, Sept. 4.—The cabinet to-day considered the note of the Vatican in reply to one outlining Spain's position in the dispute with the Holy See, and after hearing Premier Canalejas affirmed his confidence in the Prime Minister. Garcia Prieto, the Foreign Minister, will draw up an answer to the Vatican which will outline Spain's future relations with the Holy See.

"THE MONARCHY IS DOOMED"

Portuguese Republican Deputy Advises Abdication of King. Paris, Sept. 4.—The "Matin's" Lisbon correspondent quotes Alfonso Costa, a leading Republican Deputy, as saying that despite the worst exhibition of electoral corruption he had ever witnessed the Portuguese Republicans in the recent elections, doubled their representation in the Chamber of Deputies, and now have an organization throughout the country which insures an early change in the regime of the kingdom. "The monarchy is doomed," the "Matin" quotes Senhor Costa as saying. "The position of the young King is untenable. His abdication, he would prevent bloodshed and revolution and earn the gratitude of his people."

DE TOVAR GOES TO VATICAN

Portugal's Appointment of Ambassador to Rome May End Differences. Lisbon, Sept. 4.—Count de Tovar, former secretary of the Portuguese Embassy at Rome, has been appointed ambassador to the Vatican to succeed the late Senhor Martins d'Antas.

KAISER RECEIVES ENVOY

Suggests That the British Embassy Get Up Earlier. Berlin, Sept. 4.—Emperor William to-day gave a grand reception to Lord Roberts, the British government's special envoy to announce the accession to the throne of George V. The envoy was given a state dinner to-night.

During the dinner Emperor William toasted King George, and afterward declared Lord Roberts a grand honor in an animated conversation. Lord Roberts wore the Order of the Black Eagle, which Emperor William conferred on him at the close of the South African war.

DEMAND CHEAPER MEATS

German Cities Protest Against High Duties on Animals. Cologne, Sept. 4.—A strong movement in protest against the high prices of meat has begun in many German cities, especially in the western part of the country. A number of meetings held yesterday and to-day brought out a sharp arraignment of the government's policy in restricting the importation of livestock and the maintenance of high meat and animal duties in the interest of farmers.

PRIZE FOR AMERICAN SAILORS

Berlin, Sept. 4.—The "Lokal Anzeiger" to-day prints a long letter from its correspondent at Tsing-Tao, in the German territory of Kiao-Chau, China, dealing with the recent visit there of the United States Asiatic Squadron, and the admirable impression made by Rear Admiral Hubbard, the commander in chief, his officers and the crew of the ships. The correspondent says that the American sailors were ashore at a time when the correspondent was there, and that the correspondent says there was not a single instance of any of the sailors mistreating a Chinese. The correspondent says that the American sailors were ashore at a time when the correspondent was there, and that the correspondent says there was not a single instance of any of the sailors mistreating a Chinese.

ROOSEVELT'S DAY OF REST SPOILED

In Spite of Determination to Make No Speeches He Almost Breaks Record. ADMITS THAT HE IS TIRED

Ex-President Reaches Fargo After All-Day Ride Through South and North Dakota and Minnesota.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 4.—After an all-day ride through parts of South Dakota, Minnesota and North Dakota, ex-President Roosevelt reached Fargo this evening. The people of Fargo were waiting at the station for him and gave him a warm welcome in spite of the fact that it was Sunday. It was after midnight when Mr. Roosevelt got to bed in a hotel at the close of an arduous day in Sioux Falls.

Mr. Roosevelt Enjoys a Book.

The special train scooted across the eastern edge of South Dakota and into Minnesota, and during the first part of the morning Mr. Roosevelt enjoyed himself sitting in the easy chair reading a book. Then the engineer tooted one long blast with the whistle and slowed down for Marshall, the first stop. Mr. Roosevelt continued to read his book. There was a shout outside. The former President looked through the window. Almost before the train stopped a crowd closed around the rear platform.

THE CROWD DEMANDS A SPEECH.

"Speech! Speech!" the crowd shouted. Mr. Roosevelt felt firmly in mind to resist the crowd's demand for a speech. He had no intention of making a speech on Sunday, and took another step toward the car door. The cries grew louder, and the ex-President capitulated.

DELIVERS SERMON AT WILLMAR.

The crowd at Willmar, Minn., was one of the largest of the day. As it was Sunday, Mr. Roosevelt said he thought a sermon from him would be fitting. He told them that the American people must have their qualities in order to secure a government. First he mentioned honesty, and then courage.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

100 Girls Greet Mr. Roosevelt.

When Mr. Roosevelt reached the hotel where he was to sleep to-night he found one hundred little girls waiting for him. They were sitting on the floor in the hotel parlor, and each little girl had a teddy bear in her arms. Some of the children were so little that they were almost hidden by the teddy bears. As soon as the ex-President appeared they chorused: "Welcome, Teddy Roosevelt!" at the same time lifting the teddy bears in salute.

COMPACT AND INTERESTING HISTORY OF REPUBLICAN PARTY.

TAFT'S LETTER A FEATURE. Ex-President Roosevelt Quoted—Nation's Progress Under Republican Legislation.

MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE TO GET TOGETHER TO-DAY.

Minneapolis, Sept. 4.—Members of the Congressional committee which has been investigating the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy, the Interior Department and the Bureau of Forestry, arrived to-day and will hold a meeting in this city to-morrow.

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

THE POSITION OF HONOR IN THE BOOK IS GIVEN PRESIDENT TAFT'S LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MCKINLEY.

The scope of the book is set out in an introductory note by Mr. Curtis as follows: "A Republican text book differs from a Democratic text book somewhat as history differs from romance. A Republican text book aims simply to state facts and discuss a Democratic text book like a promise to pay without funds in the bank."

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

LOCUSTS FILL PITTSBURGH. Long Drouth Drives Them to Roofs of High Buildings.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—A drouth which has affected Western Pennsylvania for some weeks has apparently driven millions of locusts and grasshoppers into Pittsburg. Tenants of the upper floors of skyscrapers have been greatly embarrassed by the unwelcome visitors, and Forecaster Pennyworth of the United States Weather Bureau, whose offices on the top of the Oliver Building are the highest in Pittsburg, has registered a protest.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

TWO DEAD, FOUR SHOT. CONSERVATION TROUBLE.

Bowery. Street beggars who were supposed to be unable to move at anything faster than a snail's pace sprinted when the man with the gun appeared. They limped back to take a hand in smashing him if they could get a chance.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

ISSUES ELECTION WARNING. Primarys Now Safeguarded, as Are General Elections.

The Association to Prevent Corrupt Practices at Elections, through its special committee for New York City, sent out yesterday to officials and members of political committees, and to all known candidates for nomination in the coming conventions, a copy of the circular letter signed by Seth Low, the president of the association, calling attention to the new provisions of the corrupt practices act.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.

CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT. Throngs at Various Stops on His Journey Surprise Mr. Taft.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—President Taft passed through Chicago to-night on his way to St. Paul. The President travelled to-day through Ohio and Indiana, and at every station where the regular train drawing his car stopped he was greeted by large throngs of people. Mr. Taft, however, made no formal remarks or shook hands with all he could reach.