

DEMOCRATS NOT PLEASED

Jamestown Resents Halpin's Tour.

John G. Monaghan, chairman of the Democratic city committee of Jamestown, N. Y., sent a letter yesterday to the Democratic State Committee, in which he described in the harshest of words his perturbation over the methods of men who, he said, were sent out by the Republican State Committee.

From the extracts of Mr. Monaghan's letter furnished by Secretary John A. Mason of the Democratic State Committee yesterday, it appeared that a man who gave the name of Halpin had visited Mr. Monaghan's headquarters and asked for the names of Republicans who had disclosed leanings toward the Democratic ticket.

"Imposter" and "fakir" were the words used by Mr. Monaghan to describe "Halpin" and he was treated with "short shrift," he advised Mr. Mason.

It appeared also that the Jamestown city committee was unable to furnish "Halpin" with the names of any Republicans who had announced any intention of leaving the ticket in favor of the Murphy nominees.

Another document given out by the Democratic State Committee yesterday was devoted exclusively to an attack upon Mr. Roosevelt's stand in 1903 in the case of William A. Miller, assistant foreman of the Government Printing Office, who as a Civil Service employee was reinstated by Mr. Roosevelt under the Civil Service employees' law.

The speakers' bureau of the Democratic State Committee announced that Alton B. Parker would speak in Plattsburgh on November 1, and in Prospect Hall, Brooklyn, on November 4. Between these two dates it was said, the former judge is to make a flying trip to Tennessee to speak for Senator "Bob" Taylor.

Edward M. Shepard is another speaker booked for the Brooklyn meeting on the 4th, and Herbert P. Eissell, of Buffalo, who was permanent chairman of the Rochester convention, will be heard in Mount Vernon and Tonawanda.

On Wednesday Mr. Russell will be one of the speakers at the Carnegie Hall meeting, Corporation Counsel Watson will tour Long Island on November 1, 2, 3 and 4, and Dr. F. M. W. Stryker, of Hamilton College, will appear at the Carnegie Hall meeting on Wednesday night.

GOLDMAN HITS OFFICEHOLDERS

After They Get in They Tell You to "Go to H—," She Declares.

"The vote has never effected anything except putting people in power, who as soon as you put them in power told you to go to h—, where you ought to go for putting them there."

This was one of Emma Goldman's replies to questions put to her last night during the discussion following her lecture on "The Eternal Spirit of Revolution," at the Women's Trade Union Hall, No. 43 East 23d street. Among other things she said:

"The Socialists give the people medicine, the anarchists give them nutrition. Mrs. Belmont, Mrs. Mackay, Miss Morgan and other highly respectable people are the Socialists. They say, 'What's the use of rebellion? Let's vote ourselves into power.' But the Socialists are only a political party, and as such they are the deadly foe of anarchism."

"Extreme ideas of emancipation are the only right ideas. The American suffragettes at their afternoon teas talk a lot of very little. It has been said that the anarchists don't believe in educational methods. They do. They need the power to think and the power to rebel. It requires no intelligence to cast a ballot, but it requires a great deal of intelligence to do it with the spirit of revolution."

SPEAKS FOR ROOSEVELT

J. H. Hickey Tells About the Moral Issues of Campaign.

James H. Hickey, a member of the Republican County Committee, spoke last night at the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Saviour, 11th street and Lexington avenue, on the moral issues of the campaign. Mr. Roosevelt figured largely in the issues, according to the speaker.

"The most moral question in the campaign," said Mr. Hickey, "is whether or not the war begun by Roosevelt and Hughes for civic righteousness shall be allowed to continue. In this work may be included the attempt made by the Governor to curb the growing power of the railroads of this city and of this state. Mr. Stimson, I may say, has been one of the most earnest supporters of the people's cause against the railroad corporations."

"The Democratic party, at least from the standpoint of the Republican, represents the old retrogressive and reactionary theories of the public service corporation and its regulation." Mr. Hickey asserted that it was almost impossible to get an impartial account of Mr. Roosevelt's utterances in the newspapers, most of which, he assured the congregation, were owned by special interests or by men connected with those interests.

GREAT GATES FOR PANAMA

They Will Be as High as a Six Story House and 65 Feet Wide.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—Gates now being made in Pittsburg for the Panama Canal will be the largest in the world. Any one of the ninety-two of them—there are to be forty-six pairs in all—will be about as high forty-six pairs in all—will be about as high as a six story building, 65 feet wide and 7 feet deep.

The structural steel that will go to make them will weigh 60,000 tons, or more than eight times as much as was used to build the Eiffel Tower, in Paris. The cost will be $5,500,000. The thousands of individual pieces, numbered and fitted to go together as easily as children's blocks, will be shipped by steamer, and with them will go from four hundred skilled structural steel builders from Pittsburg to set them up. It will take three years to complete the job.

The location of the forty-six pairs of gates will be: Twenty at the Gatun Dam, on the Pacific side; twelve at Pedro Miguel, and fourteen at Miraflores, near the Atlantic entrance. The gates are designed to hold back water 47.4 feet deep, in a channel 110 feet wide.

Each lock will be ample for a ship 50 per cent larger than any vessel now afloat, and it has been estimated that as many as a hundred ocean-going ships may be handled in a single day.

GANG ASSAULTS PATROLMAN

One Man Made Prisoner After Battle Against Long Odds.

Patrolman Triple, of the Stagg street station, Williamsburg, was assaulted by a band of thugs early yesterday morning at Bushwick avenue and Morrell street.

He was approaching Morrell street from Bushwick avenue yesterday at daybreak when he heard quarrelling in a doorway. As he ordered the men to disperse he was attacked from behind and knocked down. One man choked Triple, while another jumped upon him. A third kicked him in the right side.

The patrolman struck Herman Lewis on the head with his club. Two other patrolmen arrived, but the gang had disappeared, except Lewis, who was arrested and held for a hearing. He denied being implicated in the assault on Triple, and said he tried to prevent it.

DYNAMITE CASE ARRESTS

Names of Men in Acapulco Prison—$10,000 on Schooner.

Mexico City, Oct. 30.—The names of the three men arrested at Acapulco yesterday, suspected of being implicated in the blowing up of "The Los Angeles Times" building, and were aboard the power schooner Kate, are Harry Ham, O. Carlson and Dan Archer, according to telegrams received here to-day. The names given are as they were registered on the boat's papers.

The captain of the vessel, Swain Engdeth, and the engineer, Adolph Adolphson, also said to be the owner, are still on board the vessel under guard of custom officials.

As soon as the schooner entered port to take on a supply of gasoline she was boarded by the American consul and a port official. The sum of $10,000 was found. The captain said that he had been engaged by Adolphson to take the schooner from San Francisco to the Galapagos Islands, off the coast of Peru and Ecuador.

The papers of the schooner show that Ham, Carlson and Archer each were to receive $30 a month. Carlson, Ham and Archer are now in prison at Acapulco pending investigation.

On account of a storm the men were forced to throw overboard the gasoline on hand and run into port for a new supply.

HEARST WILL SPEAK TO-NIGHT

Independence League Candidate to Make Tour of Kings County.

The Independence League campaign managers announced yesterday that William R. Hearst, candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the League ticket, would accompany John J. Hopper, the Governorship nominee, and the other candidates on the state ticket in their tour of Kings County to-night. Mr. Hearst has been kept out of the campaign to date, by a cold, but for the final week it was said he would be an almost nightly speaker.

To-night the League's state candidates, reinforced by local candidates in Kings County, will speak at the New Assembly Hall, Judges avenue and Eckford street; Liederkranz Hall, No. 113 Manhattan avenue, and Metropolitan Svaeger Hall, Pitkin and Watkins avenues, in the Brownsville section.

OFFICER HELD FOR SHOOTING

Police Say He Killed Member of Gang—Which Planned to "Do" Him.

Robert Adler, the special patrolman who, the police say, shot and killed Charles Hunt and dangerously wounded William Morris, both members of the "Copher gang," during a row in a dancing academy at No. 115 West 23d street on Saturday night, was held in $10,000 bail by Coroner Feinberg yesterday. If he succeeds in getting some one to go on his bond he will be rearrested and held without bail to await the injuries of Morris, who is in Bellevue Hospital.

Hunt and Morris, with four other men, in conflict with a sound dance hall and met Adler, against whom they are said to have had a long standing grudge. Guns were drawn. With his first shot Adler got Hunt and his second reached Morris. Cowed by the officer's skill as a marksman, the four other men fled as two patrolmen entered the building.

In a few moments several patrolmen arrived from the New West 20th street station. Michael F. Gunn, a United States deputy marshal, having informed Police Headquarters that he overheard the six men planning on a streetcar to "do" Adler.

PINCHOT APPROVES PLAN

Calls Water Storage Most Important Issue Before State.

Albany, Oct. 30.—In a letter to Clarence L. Parker, of Norwich, N. Y., Clifford Pinchot, president of the National Conservation Association, expresses the belief that water storage is the most important question of public policy now before the people of New York State. Mr. Pinchot also compliments very highly the work of the State Water Supply Commission and indorses the plan which the commission has worked out for the construction of storage reservoirs for the conservation of the waters of the state which are now running to waste.

Mr. Pinchot had criticized the plan of the Water Supply Commission, particularly with respect to the Black River, where he says the commission ought to plan for a large number of small, low dams along the river instead of a few very large storage reservoirs at the headwaters. Mr. Pinchot in his letter to Mr. Parker says:

The plans of the State Water Supply Commission are an admirable example of what the several states can and ought to do for conservation. They have been carefully worked out by competent experts and in my judgment they should be adopted without delay, including the construction and ownership of the works by the owners of private property benefited.

I have read your criticism of this plan with interest, but am unable to agree with your views. You propose a series of low power dams along each stream, to be constructed by the state, instead of a great reservoir at the headwaters. You urge that this would develop much power which is now wasted. But this waste is a waste of head or fall, not of water. The commission's plan is to prevent the loss of water in the dry season. It is entirely consistent with the full development of the head of each stream below the reservoirs which you say is now wasted.

The commission's plans do not at all conflict with a sound forest policy for the state. The preservation of the forests on the watersheds will still be essential to supplement the reservoirs and protect them from "silt" up.

TO MINISTER TO STRANGERS

The Rev. J. B. Wasson Begins Work Planned by Bishop Potter.

The Rev. Dr. James B. Wasson, of No. 10 West 61st street, has just begun the work of the Chaplain to Strangers, which he reorganized recently.

The chaplain was created in 1907 by the late Bishop Potter for the purpose of setting apart a clergyman whose sole duty it should be to minister to strangers arriving in the city when "in trouble, need, sickness or any other adversity." He appointed Dr. Wasson the first chaplain, and on the death of Bishop Potter the appointment was renewed by Bishop Greer.

AUTO RUNS DOWN PATROLMAN

Driver of Car Hurries Injured Man to Hospital—Leg and Arm Broken.

In plain sight of a number of fellow officers, who had just been turned out for duty at 8 o'clock, John J. Maloney, thirty-five years old, a patrolman attached to the Sheepshead Bay station, was run down by an automobile at Ocean avenue and Avenue U, near the station house, last night. The car was owned and driven, the police say, by Frank S. Anderson, a stock broker, living in Sheepshead Bay. He jumped from the machine after the accident and took Maloney to the Coney Island Hospital, where it was found that his right arm and leg were broken and that he was internally injured. He may die. Anderson was not arrested.

The preliminary conference will not be followed by others until after the opening of the Canadian Parliament, on November 1. The final negotiations are not likely to be concluded until January and the question is likely to be a difficult one.

While in this city he will be the guest of Charles Frohman, who invited him to this country.

ALUMNI OPPOSE TRUSTEES

Would Restrict Columbia Degrees to Full Time Students.

The board of trustees of Columbia University is liable to come in for some pretty severe criticism when the Alumni Association of Columbia College gets together to-night in the Fifth Avenue Building, which is the occasion of its annual meeting.

The subject which seems to be the root of all the trouble is a resolution adopted by the trustees of the university at their meeting last April which reads as follows: "Resolved, That the president be requested, at his convenience and discretion, to open negotiations with universities of reputable standing with a view, in co-operation with them, to securing the adoption of a policy which will permit any student in any professional school of Columbia University which maintains a four-year course of study, who before entering such schools has satisfactorily completed a two-year course of study in a college equivalent to that of Columbia College, and who has satisfactorily completed a two-year course of study in such professional school, to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts (or of Science) either from the college in which he was first registered or from Columbia University, and that a similar rule be applied in the professional schools, maintaining a three-year course of study as regards students who have satisfactorily completed three years of college work and one year of professional work at Columbia University."

The graduates of the college who will meet to-night are almost unanimous in their opposition to this resolution. It will mean, they said, that a man who holds prior allegiance to another college and who has not the real traditions of Columbia may come to the Morningside Heights institution for a comparatively short time and become an alumnus of the latter place.

The association, it is understood, will work hard for the repeal of this resolution.

BATTALION FIRE CHIEF HURT

While Responding to an Alarm He Is Thrown from Buggy.

While responding to an alarm of fire at the corner of 4th street and Tenth avenue yesterday afternoon, Acting Battalion Chief George Fox, with headquarters in 50th street, was thrown over the dashboard of his buggy and his right ankle was badly sprained.

Fox was driving himself, going west in 4th street, and when near Fifth avenue forward axle broke and he turned a somersault, landing heavily on his right foot. His driver, Walter Hicks, held to the seat and was uninjured. Fox was removed to his home, at No. 222 East 44th street, in an ambulance from Flower Hospital after his injury had been dressed.

GIRL GONE, AND GOWNS, TOO

Picture Found in Rogues' Gallery Which Led to Arrest.

A woman who gave her name as Clara Boese, but who, the police said, was Margaret Mallard, whose picture adorns the Rogues' Gallery, was arrested after a search yesterday morning, charged with grand larceny. She had been arrested after a month's search by Detectives Noonan and Flood, of the West 57th street bureau.

The complainant was Mrs. Julia McCabe, of No. 291 Amsterdam avenue, who said she had hired the prisoner as a servant on September 25. Mrs. McCabe told her to report for work on September 26. On that day Mrs. McCabe left her apartments to look up the new servant's references, and when she returned that evening found that the girl had gone, carrying with her more than $185 worth of wearing apparel.

Mrs. McCabe identified a picture in the Rogues' Gallery, No. 11217, as Clara Boese, and this is the woman whom the police record as Margaret Mallard. Margaret Mallard was sentenced to the Bedford Reformatory on January 2, 1907, and after being released was sent back there for her participation in a scheme to rob a Bronx contractor of a sum of money.

MARKSWOMAN SHOT; ACCIDENT

Practising for Jersey Contest When Wounded by Her Brother.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.] Paterson, N. J., Oct. 30.—Miss Anna Banvard, twenty years old, and one of the best known markswomen in this part of the state, is lying in St. Joseph's Hospital in a serious condition, after having been accidentally shot to-day by her sixteen-year-old brother, Harold. The two were engaged all morning in target shooting with a .22 calibre pistol in the rear of their home, No. 48 Union avenue.

Miss Banvard prides herself on her ability to hit the bull's eye and was training with her brother in preparation for entering a contest, and also for the fall gunning season about to open. Miss Banvard had stepped toward the target, when her brother, believing the gun to be empty, playfully pointed it at her and pulled the trigger. There was a report and the girl fell unconscious. She was hurried to the hospital, where Dr. Frank Keller performed operations to save her life. The bullet struck her in the side below the shoulder.

It is of vital importance that every music lover and professional musician should know just what this new era means to them, just what of enlightenment and grateful surprise lies in store for them in the concerts now taking place in the Auditorium. We are crystallizing fancy into fact.
