

ALPHEUS THOMSON, PRESIDENT OF THE STATE

Mr. Roosevelt, at Cleveland, Ohio, Defends Republican Policies.

TAKES PROGRESSIVE VIEW

Indorses Tariff Commission Plan and Explains New Nationalism Again—Another Attack on Harmon.

Cleveland, Nov. 5.—Theodore Roosevelt came to the aid today of the Republican party in Ohio, where he has been on his hardest fight. He made a campaign trip over the state, defending the policies of the party.

"Ballinger Not Running for Office." He was interrupted by repeated calls from the audience of "How about Ballinger?" He stopped his speech abruptly and shouted: "He is not running for office in Ohio."

This answer did not satisfy his audience and the calls were repeated. Finally Roosevelt stopped again, and, waving his arm emphatically, said: "I am not running for office in Ohio."

"If I ever ask you to vote for him you can come and ask me questions." The full text of the ex-President's speech follows:

During the last few years it has become increasingly evident to all really far-sighted men that it is imperatively necessary to grapple with the problems of a present day in the spirit in which our fathers grappled with the problems of a present day.

"In other words, as I said in my Ossa-watomie speech, and as I repeated in my recent speech, we are not to be divided by the struggle of free men to gain and to hold the right of self-government against the greed of those who would use the machinery of the government to the purpose of destroying the popular will. At every stage of the struggle it is equally important to the citizen to be able to give to the highest possible value, both to himself and to the commonwealth."

Sure New Nationalism Will Prevail. Honest, timid men may momentarily be misled by leaders who are neither honest nor timid. As I said in my recent speech, but as certain as I stand here, the American people will in the end triumph over the greed of those who would use the machinery of the government to the purpose of destroying the popular will.

We are for the efficient exercise of popular rights, and we are for the efficiency shown alike by the executive, the judicial and the legislative branches of the government. We believe in the right of every citizen to be heard, and no one of them being permitted to dominate the others at the expense of the aggregate.

We are for the rights of the people, where those rights have been taken away, and we are for the rights of the people, where those rights have been taken away, and we are for the rights of the people, where those rights have been taken away.

Republican Party Progressive. In the Republican party, on the contrary, there is a steady growth toward a spirit of sane progress, it being a remarkable fact that most of the real leaders have in this matter in the plain people, who lead to follow the lead of the Republican party.

ROOSEVELT ATTACKS HARMON'S RECORD

Says He Was Unfaithful to State as Receiver of C., H. & D.

THE CASE OF PAUL MORTON

Harmon Attempted to Discredit an Innocent Man, the Ex-President Declares—Ohio Public Utilities Bill.

Toledo, Nov. 5.—A sharp personal attack on Governor Judson Harmon was made by ex-President Roosevelt here today in his first speech in the campaign in Ohio.

"With his usual recklessness," Governor Harmon said, "he talks about a matter of which he has not the slightest knowledge."

"The statements to the contrary are downright lies, concocted by a legal sleight of hand," he said, "and I have fully obeyed his master by retelling them on the stump, paying no notice to the facts stated by myself and the officers above named. He is quite willing to get votes by false pretences."

"As I was a court officer, with no interest whatever in the property, I had no right to deprive the state of any lawful taxes, and could not have done so if I had wished, as the case in which I was appointed is still kept open in court to see that all obligations are paid."

"Mr. Roosevelt's word is not good enough to add anything but wider circulation to the lies, and he ought to be ashamed to do that."

"The government had obtained an injunction against the practice of rebating, in which the Santa Fe Railroad Company was engaged. The Interstate Commerce Commission reported that the railroad company had continued the practice in favor of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, one of the most offensive trusts in the country."

"As Paul Morton, then a member of Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet, had been the head of the traffic department of the railroad during the period covered by the report, Mr. Roosevelt appointed two Democratic lawyers, F. E. Judson and Iron Company, one of the most offensive trusts in the country."

"We, therefore, recommended that a rule be taken requiring these officers to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of the injunction. We did not do this because we were afraid of the name Mr. Morton or any officer, but because we were afraid of the name Mr. Morton or any officer, but because we were afraid of the name Mr. Morton or any officer."

"The Colonel's trouble seems to be that Mr. Morgan was the chief stockholder in the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, and his relations in that quarter do not seem to be so happy as they were when he was the chief stockholder in the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company."

"The Colonel is concerned, too, about my salary as receiver during the short time he was in office. What does he think I should have done?"

"At any rate, I have not charged personal or state expenses, as he repeatedly did, which was one of the reasons he was the costliest, as he was the noisiest, man who ever held the office here held."

"Not a particle of evidence was taken, yet the judge went out of his way to whitewash Morton. As soon as he had dealt out justice in this fashion the judge went off to Florida in the private car of the attorney of the railroad company."

"Mr. Roosevelt directed the Attorney General to proceed against the corporation alone, and a subordinate in the Department of Justice was sent to meet the Attorney General on behalf of the company always puts forward. He managed the case so well that the judge set aside the phrase 'always personal.'"

"If that is so," he continued, "what did he mean by accepting the position of receiver and drawing a salary of $25,000 a year? He drew a salary like that it was his business to make himself thoroughly acquainted with what the road under him was doing, and especially to see to it that it did nothing illegal, and that it paid its debts to the state."

"Governor Harmon had asserted, Mr. Roosevelt continued, that he did not want to remain as receiver of the road, but that the judge would not allow him to give up the job."

"Mr. Roosevelt then referred to the public utilities bill in the Ohio Legislature last winter, against which he said the Democrats stood almost solidly."

Sandusky, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Governor Harmon devoted nearly the whole of a speech here tonight replying to attacks made on him in Toledo and Cleveland by ex-President Roosevelt.

"With his usual recklessness," Governor Harmon said, "he talks about a matter of which he has not the slightest knowledge."

"The statements to the contrary are downright lies, concocted by a legal sleight of hand," he said, "and I have fully obeyed his master by retelling them on the stump, paying no notice to the facts stated by myself and the officers above named. He is quite willing to get votes by false pretences."

WOMEN HOLD MASS MEETING

Union Square Crowd Applauds Sallies of Fair Speakers.

Led by two buglers and a drummer of the 7th Regiment, and by Reed Lewis, Arthur Levy, Jr., and other Columbia College men, fifty-one women, each carrying a Chinese lantern and wearing a yellow sash bearing the words, "Votes for Women," marched in column of two last night from the headquarters of the Equality League of Self-Supporting Women, at No. 43 East 24 street, to Broadway and around Union Square to the plaza at 17th street.

From the balcony of the Park cottage, while others spoke from two horse trucks, the crowd on the east and west side of the square, still another group of speakers addressed a throng of respectful listeners. In fact, all those who were attracted by the unusual spectacle of women spellbinders speaking from horse-drawn trucks remained, became spectators, listened respectfully and without demonstration, excepting frequent applause at the words of the witty sallies in the speakers' efforts to fight for women's right to vote and against a vote for Artemus Ward.

The speakers besides those mentioned included Mr. Levy and Mr. Lewis, Miss Emily Pierson, Mrs. Olive Pearce, Mrs. Albert Hill, Mrs. Martha Green, Mrs. Dr. Glasgow, Mrs. Helen Hoy Greely, Miss Elizabeth Cook, Mrs. Fred C. Howe, Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Denny.

A wagon bearing these words on its sides, "Make No Mistake, the Vote Like Mr. Ward—No Suffragettes," was drawn by a horse which was so lame that officers from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals compelled the police to take him away. The women spoke for two hours, while thousands of yellow circulars denouncing Artemus Ward were distributed by women passing through the assembly throngs.

ENDS WORK TO-DAY

Chairman Huppuch Will Receive Returns with Dix in Thomson.

Chairman Huppuch of the Democratic State Committee will close his work at Democratic state headquarters, in this city, today and go to his home in Hudson Falls, N. Y., where he will motor over to Thomson, where he will receive the returns with John A. Dix, the candidate for Governor, at the latter's home.

William A. Rodie, chairman of the executive committee, will be in charge of headquarters here after the departure of Chairman Huppuch. He will receive the returns on election night there with Frank M. Patterson and other members of the state committee and executive committee.

Charles F. Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, will receive the returns in the 14th street wigwam, with his brethren about him. After the meeting of the executive committee yesterday afternoon he was about as laconic as the proverbial clam.

"When will you open these?" Mr. Murphy was asked. "I don't know," was the brief reply. "Last year you said you might not open the estimates until after election," Mr. Murphy was reminded.

That was last year," was the reply. Mr. Murphy said that since he had been leader of Tammany Hall he had not given out any figures, and he did not propose to break his rule this year.

FREIGHT ADVANCES UPHELD

Commerce Commission Decides in Favor of Southeastern Roads.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today upheld the advances made by Southeastern railroads in many classes of commodities from Ohio and Mississippi River crossings to Atlanta and Birmingham since August 1, 1916. The complaint filed by the Georgia and Alabama Railroad Commission and grain companies against the Atlantic Coast Line, Louisville & Nashville and other lines was dismissed.

The commission held that the rates were not shown to be unjust, unreasonable or excessive. To permit the roads in this section to be of ultimate lasting advantage to the Southern people, the commission said, the carriers should be permitted to charge rates fully compensating them for their services. Dissenting opinions were filed by Commissioners Lane and Clements.

LETTER-BALLS REVEALED

Day's Gaynor-Prentice Exchange Ends in Chairman's Favor.

MAYOR SILENT ON KENNEDY

Prentice Says "Forged Quotations" in Ridder Epistle Were Taken from Newspapers.

The exchange of epistolary bouquets—or brickbats—between Mayor Gaynor and Secretary Prentice of the Republican State Committee continued yesterday. The day closed with the honors resting with the chairman. Mayor Gaynor had not stated his opinion of John J. Kennedy, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer.

The day opened with the receipt by the Mayor of a letter from the state chairman in reply to the one from the Mayor. It was said he "never favored the nomination of Justice Keogh" by the Democrats. It was as follows:

Your letter of November 3, given to the newspapers a day before its receipt by me, reached me this morning. I never understood that you were a candidate for Governor, but I am reliably informed that Justice Keogh said that you favored his nomination.

The point of my interview was the inquiry whether you were in the letter to the Mayor of a letter from the state chairman in reply to the one from the Mayor. It was said he "never favored the nomination of Justice Keogh" by the Democrats. It was as follows:

I am glad to perceive from your letter of November 3, that you are not a candidate for Governor, but I am reliably informed that Justice Keogh said that you favored his nomination.

But the Mayor failed to answer the vital point in Chairman Prentice's letter, and the latter quickly called his attention to this in a letter which was dispatched to the City Hall late in the day.

I beg to acknowledge your letter of November 5th, in which you are unable or unwilling to reply to my inquiry about John J. Kennedy.

My quotation from your letter to Mr. Ridder was taken from the newspapers.

PARKER TALKS TO FRIENDS

Defends John J. Delany as a Truthful Man.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 5.—As a neighbor talking among friends ex-Judge Alton B. Parker made the closing speech to-night of his campaign for John A. Dix. He aimed his keenest shafts at Theodore Roosevelt and his "New Nationalism," a doctrine which he charged the President with offering only to the best market.

In an interview given after his speech, Judge Parker took up the cudgels for John J. Delany, of New York City, who has been nominated for the State Supreme Court against Justice Whitney in the 1st Judicial District.

Colonel Roosevelt, who seems fond of assuming the attitude of a doctrinaire, has entered the lists against Mr. Delany. It is known to many that he has not only taken great interest, but also has devoted much time and effort toward the establishment of a committee of judges, the support of which he has been endeavoring to secure for the new term.

So far as I can at this moment recall, it has never before been referred to by necessity applies to one who has only served for a few months or a year under an appointive system. Had I the determination of these matters I should have been inclined toward Mr. Delany this year and next year, thus assuring to the bench two good men.

After referring to Mr. Roosevelt's charges against Delany Judge Parker says: "Really, all must agree that this is most unjust to Mr. Delany. For the gentleman who has been nominated for the State Supreme Court against Justice Whitney in the 1st Judicial District."

When will you open these?" Mr. Murphy was asked. "I don't know," was the brief reply. "Last year you said you might not open the estimates until after election," Mr. Murphy was reminded.

LARGER THAN HUGHES VOTE

Secretary of State Gives Out Figures from Republicans and Independents.

[By Telegram to the Tribune.] Albany, Nov. 5.—Samuel S. Koenig, Secretary of State, has received from 125 editors of Republican and Independent newspapers in each of the counties of the state estimates on what majorities their respective counties will give Stimson and Dix at next Tuesday's election. Each of the editors says that he is giving a conservative estimate and basing his figures entirely on the sentiment in the district. Some of the editors say that the chairman of the Republican County Committee is giving out figures which place the Stimson vote much larger than what they are figuring.

According to the editors' estimates Stimson will go to the Bronx with 141,274 majority. This is a little in excess of what he received in the upstate counties in 1906. The writers say they are basing their figures on the fact that almost a Presidential vote is going to be cast in Albany in the upstate counties this year, and that the farmers in a large majority are going to vote the straight Republican ticket. This class of citizens are opposed to the personal registration law, and they propose to emphasize their opinion of it by voting the Republican ticket.

A large number of the editors say that they are giving a conservative estimate of the vote in the upstate districts on the ticket for Stimson. There are also indications that Attorney General O'Malley and Thomas F. Fennell, of Elmira, candidate for State Treasurer, will also run ahead, especially in the southern tier. Onondaga County is going to give a banner Republican majority this year.

The Mayor of the City of Syracuse, Edward Schenck, being on the ticket for Lieutenant Governor. The table given below is compared with the majorities received by Governor Hughes in 1906 and 1908, and is exclusive of the vote he received in New York, Kings, Queens and Richmond. The table is as follows:

READY TO PROTECT BALLOT

Leary Thinks His Precautions Will Prevent Fraud on Tuesday.

William Leary, Superintendent of Elections, announced yesterday that the entire machinery of his department was ready for a determined effort to preserve the purity of the ballot. His deputies have been busy, a number of arrests having been made for falsifying returns. In most cases the complaint being that the person registering had been convicted of some crime and was not entitled to vote.

Many thousands of names have been investigated, it was announced, and a result some warrants have been issued and others will be issued. Mr. Leary says there will be little attempt at fraud on Election Day as a result of his efforts.
