

HOUSE DEMOCRATIC BY WORKING MAJORITY Parsons, Fassett and Mann Among the Defeated Republicans. CANNON AND PAYNE WIN Gains Made by Democrats Throughout the Country Overcome Present Republican Majority.

The Democrats will have a majority of almost fifty in the next House, and returns from distant states may even increase that figure. Among the notable figures who go down to defeat are Herbert Parsons, J. Sloan Fassett and James R. Mann. Speaker Cannon, Representative Seroeno E. Payne and Walter I. Smith are re-elected, but by materially reduced majorities, as is John W. Dwight, the Republican whip of the House. Martin W. Littleton has defeated W. W. Cocks, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's "town Congressman."

Representative W. M. Howard, of the 8th Georgia District, has been defeated, his constituents resenting the vote he cast for Speaker Cannon in the insurgent fight on the rules. Returns from West Virginia are coming in slowly, but several normally Republican districts are in serious doubt. The Republicans have saved only one district in Maryland, and the same is probably true of Indiana, while losses have been suffered in Iowa, including the Des Moines district, in which ex-President Roosevelt spoke last week in support of Mr. Glick. W. J. Morley, the former member from Chicago, is also in the discard.

John Duzell, General Bingham, M. E. Olmsted, J. H. Moore and other Republican whod horses from Pennsylvania have been re-elected. The Representatives elected follow by states:

DEMOCRATIC CLAIMS See 35 Majority in House—McKinley Congratulates Lloyd.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—William B. McKinley, chairman of the Republican Congressional committee, to-night sent congratulations to James T. Lloyd, chairman of the Democratic committee, on the reported success of the Democrats in winning a majority in the next Congress.

Chairman Lloyd issued the following statement: "Present indications are that Congress will be Democratic by about thirty-five majority. Thus far the returns indicate that our pre-election estimates were about correct."

"The causes which have led to the results of to-day are well known. It is a serious rebuke to the Republican party for its failure to reduce the tariff, as the people believed the party had promised. The high cost of protected manufactured articles, which has resulted in greatly increased cost of living, has had very much to do with producing this result. There is general dissatisfaction with existing political conditions and with the present Republican administration. This has led to its repudiation as far as could be done at the polls.

"The Democratic party has won a victory because the only hope of the people is in its supremacy. The Republican party has shown by its course that it will not enact legislation in the interest of the masses where such legislation would be to the detriment of the classes.

CLASHES IN OKLAHOMA State and Federal Authorities in a Legal Mix-Up.

McAlester, Okla., Nov. 8.—Fifteen election officers in this city and some county precincts were arrested here today by federal officers for refusing to allow negroes to vote when they tendered affidavits that they could read and write. They all gave bond before the United States Commissioner, and returned to continue the election, when all the complaining witnesses were arrested by state authorities. Most of these gave bond. They were all negroes. Some fifteen prominent white Republicans were then arrested, charged with false swearing, in that they had instructed the negroes to make the affidavits. The bonds were $2,000 each.

NEGRO VOTE THE ISSUE Many Arrests on Both Sides in Contentions Over "Grandfather Clause" Disfranchisement.

[By-Telegram to the Tribune.] McAlester, Okla., Nov. 8.—Fifteen election officers in this city and some county precincts were arrested here today by federal officers for refusing to allow negroes to vote when they tendered affidavits that they could read and write. They all gave bond before the United States Commissioner, and returned to continue the election, when all the complaining witnesses were arrested by state authorities. Most of these gave bond. They were all negroes. Some fifteen prominent white Republicans were then arrested, charged with false swearing, in that they had instructed the negroes to make the affidavits. The bonds were $2,000 each.

Judge Cole of the State District Court, issued an injunction restraining the United States Commissioner from issuing and the deputy marshals from serving warrants of arrest. Judge Campbell, of the United States Court, advised the federal officers to ignore the state injunction as he said Judge Cole had no right to issue it. Later several writs of habeas corpus were issued and served. It is now said they will cite Judge Cole for contempt, and if this is done trouble is feared, as the situation is strained to the limit. The election was lost sight of in the excitement. The vote here was exceedingly light.

After the trouble in Waggoner County Governor H. H. Haskell ordered out Company M, Oklahoma National Guard, at Oklahoma City, and Company B, of Tulsa. The troops were under arms throughout the day. Twenty Democratic state leaders were sworn in as deputy sheriffs at Oklahoma City, and worked in automobiles incognito from precinct to precinct. It is estimated that 75 per cent of the registered voters of the state voted.

Lee Cruise, Democratic candidate for Governor, is conceded to be elected. Partial elimination of the negro vote in the 2d District makes probable the defeat of Congressman "Dick" Morgan, Republican, by ex-Congressman Elmer Fulton, Other districts probably will remain unchanged. It is now appears that the woman suffrage amendment carried and the local option bill was defeated.

A telephone message from Coweta, Okla., says that negroes took possession of a voting booth in a school house in a negro settlement four miles from Coweta this morning. The white election officials were thrown out of the building place, the negroes declared that they would vote despite the "grandfather clause." A messenger was sent to Coweta asking for help, and two automobiles with fifteen white men armed with shotguns departed for the scene.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 8.—Warrants were issued this afternoon for the arrest of eight election officials in Muskogee and Waggoner counties. The warrants, which were issued by the federal authorities, charge violation of a section of the federal code which has reference to conspiracy to prevent legal voters from exercising the right of suffrage. The officials refused to allow negroes to vote.

Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 8.—Serious trouble was threatened here today when C. W. Nelson, a negro, and a Methodist minister, was not allowed to vote. A large crowd of negroes gathered around the voting booth and a clash seemed imminent when officers appeared on the scene. Nelson later caused the local election commission to issue out a warrant for the election officials who refused him the right to vote.

THE SENATE. The total strength of the United States Senate is ninety-two. The present division is, Republicans, fifty-nine; Democrats, thirty-three.

Thirty-three Senators are to be chosen to fill vacancies in the upper house, three of these as the result of deaths. The holdover Senators include thirty-four Republicans and twenty-five Democrats. The states which are to choose Senators to take office on March 4, 1911, are as follows:

Rhode Island, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Connecticut, Massachusetts, North Dakota (2), Michigan, Mississippi, Nevada, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Wyoming, Vermont, Washington, Texas, Virginia, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, Ohio, Delaware, Florida, California, Missouri, Iowa, Tennessee, Louisiana, Maine.

Vermont has already elected Carroll S. Page, Republican, to succeed himself. The terms of both Senators from North Dakota expire, Senator McCumber's in the regular order, and Senator Purcell's because he was appointed to fill a vacancy caused originally by death. Senator McCumber has been renominated by the Republicans. The Democrats have nominated Senator Purcell to succeed himself and John Brueger to succeed Senator McCumber.

A Democratic Senator from Maine, to succeed Eugene Hale, is assured by the election in September of a Legislature with a Democratic majority of 73 on joint ballot.

Senator Rayner, whose term expires on March 4 next, has already been elected by the Maryland Legislature to succeed himself.

Mississippi has already elected former Representative John Sharp Williams to succeed Senator Money.

Nebraska and Wisconsin voted in this election for their Senators. The candidates in Nebraska are Elmer J. Burkett, Republican, to succeed himself, and Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Democrat. In Wisconsin the candidates are Robert Marton LaFollette, Republican, to succeed himself, and C. H. Weiss, Democrat.

California has two Republican nominees for the Senate, A. C. Spalding having been nominated "by districts" and John D. Works by popular vote.

In Indiana the contest lies between Albert J. Beveridge, who is succeeded himself, and John W. Kern, who was nominated in the Democratic primaries.

The election of a Democratic Legislature in New Jersey insures the retirement of Senator John Keam. James Martine, Democrat, received the largest number of votes in his party primaries, though the primary vote in New Jersey is not binding on the Legislature. A contest is likely to result, in which ex-Senator James Smith, Jr., Mr. Martine and Frank Katzenbach will participate, with the advantage probably in favor of the latter.

Washington has two nominees chosen at the primaries, Miles C. Poindexter, Republican, and G. F. Cottrill, Democrat.

Senator Nathan Bay Scott, Republican, of West Virginia, received an "advisory endorsement" at the primaries. Virginia is to be represented in the approaching short session by ex-Governor Claud Swanson, appointed to fill the term of the late Senator Daniel. As the Virginia Legislature does not meet during the coming winter, Mr. Swanson will probably be reappointed to serve until the Legislature shall elect.

The Louisiana Legislature elected Governor Saunders to succeed the late Senator McEnery. The Governor declined to serve, and appointed Judge J. R. Thornton. Because of certain complications, it remains for the Senate itself to decide if Judge Thornton has been legally appointed.

Michigan has nominated by primary Representative C. E. Townsend to succeed Senator Julius C. Burrows, both Republicans. The Democrats have nominated J. F. Winship.

Minnesota Republicans have nominated Senator Moses Clapp to succeed himself. In Nevada the Republicans have nominated Senator George S. Nixon to succeed himself, and the Democrats have nominated Key Patterson.

Other primary nominations for the Senate are: Senator Charles Dick, Republican, of Ohio, to succeed himself; "Regulator" McMillin, of Tennessee, "Regulator" Democrat, to succeed Senator Frazier; Senator Culberson, Democrat, of Texas, to succeed himself.

CLASHES IN OKLAHOMA TAFT RECEIVES RETURNS Read in Silence Battle of Ballots in Various States. PREPARED FOR THE WORST Election News Reached Him in Pittsburg, but Made No Comment on the Results.

Pittsburg, Nov. 8.—The first news of the completion of election returns from the various states was received by President Taft when he reached this city at 11 o'clock to-night, on his way from Cincinnati, where he had gone to vote, to Washington. A summary of the results was placed in the President's hands, but he would make no comment. He had cast his vote in Cincinnati shortly before noon, and left that city at 3:10 p. m. He received his first intimation of the Democratic trend in the various states at Columbus. The only information available at that time was the Massachusetts situation.

Mr. Taft was prepared for the worst in Ohio. Arthur L. Veevee rode with him as far as Cincinnati, and Wade H. Ellis is traveling all the way to Washington. They told the President early in the afternoon that there appeared to be little chance for Mr. Harding.

The President dined with Charles P. Taft as his guest. The latter is going to Panama with the President. They were still seated at the dinner table when the train reached Denison, Ohio. There a sheet of telegrams from the White House was put aboard. The news contained in these dispatches bore out the earlier intimations.

The President read that Stimson had conceded the election of Dix in New York; that in Harmon had carried Hamilton County, in Ohio, by a large plurality; that the Democrats apparently had carried Massachusetts by 50,000; that Baldwin was winning in Connecticut, and that heavy gains were being made by the Democrats in various Congressional districts.

The unfavorable news was read in silence. The Taft smile was gone. At last, however, the President had a good laugh, for the final dispatch read like this: "And at 5 o'clock this afternoon Gullins Wayne gave birth to a fine bull calf weighing 100 pounds."

Secretary Knox joined the President here and soon after he stepped aboard the train. Secretary Norton, who had been in Chicago to vote, arrived from the Western city and joined the Presidential party. Secretary McVeagh, who is traveling East, stopped long enough to call on the President, and traveling by another train will join the Presidential party at Harrisburg.

The dispatches received here were not commented upon by the President, although there were expressions of surprise from members of the party. Intense interest was manifested in the results from the West, but there was little to give definite information before the resident's train left.
