

Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Pablo Romanos.
AMERICAN.—2.—Vandeville.
ASTOR.—2.—The Girl.
BROADWAY.—2.—The Girl.

Index to Advertisements.

Table with columns: Page, Column, Page, Column. Lists various advertisements and their locations.

New York Tribune.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1910.

This newspaper is owned and published by The Tribune Association, a New York corporation; office and principal place of business, Tribune Building, No. 154 Nassau street, New York.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

FOREIGN.—Ambassador Wilson reported that attacks on Americans in Mexico had ceased; Mexican officials are investigating the lynching at Rosario, Yucatan.
CITY.—Stocks were dull, closing heavy. Jersey City expression declined to agree to the terms accepted by their fellow workers in New York.

TWO YEARS ENOUGH.

From the point of view of national interests it is unfortunate that President Taft is not to have the support and cooperation of both houses of Congress during the second half of his administration.

Mr. Clark has already demonstrated his unfitness for the place. He is a brilliant and entertaining orator, and as the lieutenant of John Sharp Williams, long the minority leader, won the admiration of friends and foes alike.

When the Democrats assume charge of the House, in December, 1911, they will be confronted by the necessity of electing to the speakership a man whom they know to be unsuited to the place, or else of choosing another and thereby dividing into bitter factions.

The very size of the Democratic majority, fifty-seven, will contribute to a division of the party into factions and impede effective work. The two years of Democratic control of the House will bring strikingly to the attention of the country the inability of the Democrats to reach a common agreement on almost every public question.

DEMOCRATS AND THE CURRENCY.

The Democratic majority in Congress postpones and materially diminishes the prospects of currency reform. The National Monetary Commission was expected to report to the next Congress its plan for improving the currency.

To leave the settlement of this matter to the Democratic party would be a genuine misfortune to the country. The Republican party was forced by the recent panic to address itself seriously to the question of currency reform. Its leaders have reached the point where they see the fundamental defects in the present bond-secured currency and are alive to the need of imparting elasticity to the nation's supply of banknotes.

FAILURE OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

There is uncertainty concerning the precise cause of the failure of the British interparty conference on constitutional reform, and it is likely to be maintained because of the obligation of secrecy which members of the conference recently as having been laid upon them.

THE LANGUAGE OF DIPLOMACY.

In the latter part of October the German Emperor paid a visit of state to the King of the Belgians, which was marked by two incidents that have given Europe something to talk about. The first of these was the coolness of the reception accorded to the august visitor on his arrival by the populace of Brussels.

THE PRESS AGENT.

Jack Reynolds dropped in for a visit. His grammar is something exquisite. His manner, I swear, is the blandest. That ever I've seen unfurled. Ah, what do you think of the tariff? Oh, what do you think of the tariff? And what are your views on T. R.? And what you the people would care if Joe Cannon continued as chief?

ful conveniences as the telegraph and telephone. But how large a proportion of those who call themselves inventors really deserve gratitude? The best way to answer the question would be, if it were possible, to tell how many patents, granted for what are nominally "new and useful" things, ever find a sale.

NOT HOSTILE TO AMERICANS.

Sentiment of Antagonism Isn't General in Mexico, a Dweller There Says. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: In behalf of the many thousands of Americans resident in Mexico I wish to say that it is to be hoped that the readers of The Tribune and Americans generally will suspend judgment with regard to the recent demonstrations in Mexico City and elsewhere against citizens of this country growing out of a Mexican in Texas. This demonstration should not be considered as an indication of any general sentiment of hostility toward Americans in Mexico.

A Yale man is walking to Princeton in the hope that this will help his college to victory in to-day's game. That is better than having to walk home if the team loses. Mr. Martine, the "Farmer Orator" of New Jersey, is very much in earnest in his pursuit of the United States Senatorship from that state, but if he fails to get it he may not decline some much less shining mark.

MISSOURI HAS TO BE "SHOWN" WHY IT SHOULD GIVE UP ITS LATELY ACQUIRED REPUBLICANISM.

The benevolent gentleman who thought it so noble a thing to make two blades of grass grow where only one grew before would surely have all but unbounded admiration for the Down East farmer who has made more than 100 bushels (shelled and dry) of corn grow on a single acre of land where less than half that quantity would commonly be regarded as a good crop.

MAKING ITALIANS AMERICANS.

The formation of numerous classes of adult Italian immigrants in this city for their instruction in the English language and American civics is a well conceived and practical attempt to abate one of the great evils of our too generous system of immigration, and to ameliorate the condition of many of the immigrants. The successful execution of the plan will be advantageous to the immigrants themselves, and at least equally so to the community which they have entered.

A CHANCE IN THE NAVY.

The new republic of Portugal is receiving formal recognition from the powers of the world in a way which shows a republic to be no less secure than a monarchy in the community of nations.

HE WANTS TO KNOW FURTHER.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Answering the plaint of a "Discouraged Clerk" one of your correspondents advises young clerks to go back to Mother Earth and farm. It is certainly good advice, but can he further advise us how to get there? For instance, I work for a large manufacturing plant which is modernized up to date, which means, among other things, a clerical wage limit, and not a high one at that. I am the fourth highest salaried clerk out of a force of two hundred clerks, and still with the criminally high prices I am having to pay for my food, I can get neither a farm or the time to work it.

ONE MAN POWER.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Mr. Barnes says the Democratic victory was a vote against "one man power." It is certainly a vote against it, but accurately in his own mind. I voted in the Senate, one man Cannon in the House, and last but not least, one man Barnes in Albany.

PLEA FOR PARCELS POST.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I would respectfully suggest that you through your valued columns would impress upon the Postoffice Department the necessity of establishing a parcels post, as in vogue in most civilized countries. A parcels post would not alone add profit to the Postoffice Department but it would give the public a labor and much better service than now given by the express companies who have a monopoly on this business.

QUICKER MAIL COLLECTION.

Newspapers To Be Received Direct at Pennsylvania Station. Frank Hitchcock, Postmaster General, announced yesterday a radical change in the methods of handling second, third and fourth class mail matter sent out from newspaper and magazine offices, as well as circulars from large firms. Instead of sending the bulk of them to the general postoffice, they will be loaded directly into the postal cars, after being weighed by postoffice employees.

THE RAILROADS AND THE RATES.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: How can the treatment of the railroads in the matter of advancing the rates for freight, etc.—by the United States government during the last five months be reconciled with the doctrine of "a square deal for everybody"? I read in the newspapers nearly a year ago that the Interstate Commerce Commission had, or some of its members had, admitted that the railroads were entitled to some advance in rates, and the reports of earnings furnished by the roads month after month since last January, and earlier, gave ample evidence of greatly diminished earnings, because of constantly increasing expenses, up to the present time.

ALL ALIKE.

From The St. Louis Republic. "So many of our fishermen are out of fish. He is an advertising man when not a fisherman." So are all other fishermen.

NEW YORK FROM THE SUBURBS.

A man in New York stole a taxicab, and there could be no further originality in humor—Philadelphia Inquirer. It is alleged as proof of a New York man's insanity that he was no good at bridge. This is very "Gothamsque"—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

A PLEA FOR REFORM.

There is something seriously wrong in our system of government when the Democratic House of Representatives elected last November will not assemble until December, 1911, thirteen months after the election has occurred. Provision ought to be made for the next Congress to begin on the first Monday in December following the election. The present system, a relic of the feudal era, is inconvenient and hinders the progress of the nation.

GLUTTONY.

From The Kansas City Star. Republicans, as a rule, have nothing against the Democrats personally, but this they do not help disparagingly. Democracy's almost inordinate greed for office.

People and Social Incidents.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Taft occupied a box to-night at the Bolshoi Theatre to see "Madame X." With her were Miss Helen Taft, Captain Johnson and Lieutenant Long, White House aids.

THE CABINET.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, Nov. 11.—The Secretary of Commerce and Labor will go to New York to-morrow to attend the dinner to be given by the Association of Foreign Language Newspapers in the evening.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, Nov. 11.—The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff will go to New York on Sunday to spend several days. They have cards out for tea on November 18 and 21. The Chilean Minister and Senora de Cruz, who have spent the summer in Europe, arrived in Washington from New York this evening, accompanied by Senor Don Alberto Yocham, Chilean Chargé d'Affaires, who went to New York to meet them. Senor Yocham has been granted a leave of absence of several months, which he will spend in Chile.

IN WASHINGTON SOCIETY.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Henry May and the Misses May have gone to the Virginia Springs for the winter. Thanksgiving, Colonel May will spend the time on a shooting trip at Sanjee. Mrs. William L. Strong, widow of former Mayor Strong of New York, has taken the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Tiffany, No. 1795 Connecticut avenue, for the winter season. Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany will spend the winter in Europe.

NEW YORK SOCIETY.

In the ring of Madison Square Garden this morning the familiar call of the bugle will proclaim the opening of the great National Horse Show and also the beginning of the New York season. They come. The horse show has the effect of bringing the society back into town for the winter, and any disposition which people might have to remain away will be counteracted by the opening of the opera for the winter on Monday evening. The programme at the show to-day will be very attractive. Its

AUTUMN BALL AT TUXEDO FRIVOLITY AND MURDER.

One of Largest Social Affairs of the Season at the Colony. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Tuxedo Park, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The annual autumn ball, one of the largest social affairs of the Tuxedo colony, took place at the Tuxedo Club to-night. For days the colony has been exceptionally lively, and every cottage has been entertaining house parties and dinners throughout the week.

ONE MAN POWER.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Mr. Barnes says the Democratic victory was a vote against "one man power." It is certainly a vote against it, but accurately in his own mind. I voted in the Senate, one man Cannon in the House, and last but not least, one man Barnes in Albany.

PLEA FOR PARCELS POST.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I would respectfully suggest that you through your valued columns would impress upon the Postoffice Department the necessity of establishing a parcels post, as in vogue in most civilized countries. A parcels post would not alone add profit to the Postoffice Department but it would give the public a labor and much better service than now given by the express companies who have a monopoly on this business.

QUICKER MAIL COLLECTION.

Newspapers To Be Received Direct at Pennsylvania Station. Frank Hitchcock, Postmaster General, announced yesterday a radical change in the methods of handling second, third and fourth class mail matter sent out from newspaper and magazine offices, as well as circulars from large firms. Instead of sending the bulk of them to the general postoffice, they will be loaded directly into the postal cars, after being weighed by postoffice employees.

THE RAILROADS AND THE RATES.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: How can the treatment of the railroads in the matter of advancing the rates for freight, etc.—by the United States government during the last five months be reconciled with the doctrine of "a square deal for everybody"? I read in the newspapers nearly a year ago that the Interstate Commerce Commission had, or some of its members had, admitted that the railroads were entitled to some advance in rates, and the reports of earnings furnished by the roads month after month since last January, and earlier, gave ample evidence of greatly diminished earnings, because of constantly increasing expenses, up to the present time.

ALL ALIKE.

From The St. Louis Republic. "So many of our fishermen are out of fish. He is an advertising man when not a fisherman." So are all other fishermen.

NEW YORK FROM THE SUBURBS.

A man in New York stole a taxicab, and there could be no further originality in humor—Philadelphia Inquirer. It is alleged as proof of a New York man's insanity that he was no good at bridge. This is very "Gothamsque"—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

A PLEA FOR REFORM.

There is something seriously wrong in our system of government when the Democratic House of Representatives elected last November will not assemble until December, 1911, thirteen months after the election has occurred. Provision ought to be made for the next Congress to begin on the first Monday in December following the election. The present system, a relic of the feudal era, is inconvenient and hinders the progress of the nation.

GLUTTONY.

From The Kansas City Star. Republicans, as a rule, have nothing against the Democrats personally, but this they do not help disparagingly. Democracy's almost inordinate greed for office.