

New-York Tribune. THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1911. This newspaper is owned and published by The Tribune Association...

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—By Mail, Postage Paid, outside of Greater New York. Daily and Sunday, one month, $3.00...

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

CONGRESS.—Senate: The Bailey free trade amendment to the wool tariff bill was defeated, and Mr. Bailey offered the wool tariff revision bill as an amendment to be considered to-morrow. House: A heavy tax on the duties of American articles in international marriages was suggested by Mr. Kahn of California.

were trying to overthrow "Cannism" and modernize the House rules, these critics have assumed an hostility to progressive Republicanism on the part of the Tribune which does not exist, and have suggested that in ascribing motives to the insurgents we were pursuing a dangerous, and probably an unjust, course.

THE MAYOR AND THE SCHOOLS.

Mayor Gaynor in his correspondence with President Butler of Columbia University and with President Lowell of Harvard regarding the changes in the Board of Education which he favors either fails to understand their criticisms or deliberately shuts his eyes to them. He writes as if the sole objection to his plan were that the commissioners proposed under it are to receive salaries. But the real force of the objection is not to the paying of salaries, but to the different sort of board which a salary board will be.

divisions of the United Kingdom, England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. This request was refused, however, on the double ground, first, that there is no convincing proof that the red dragon is an heraldic or historical emblem of Wales—certainly Llewellyn, Glendower, Cadwalader and other Welsh princes did not use it—and second, that there is no proof that Wales ever had any legal and recognized coat of arms. Now, however, possibly for the first time, there is a Welsh escutcheon and it is borne by the Prince of Wales instead of that of his dynasty.

ROUNDED OUT.

The Legislature has fitly rounded out its record of sins of commission and omission by ratifying the income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution. In so doing it has not followed its own impulses and intentions, but merely repeated a decision made for it by the "boss" to whom the misguided voters of this state last year entrusted the power of legislation as well as administration.

from the direct course. As a part of call between Hamburg and the German colonies of West Africa, including Togoland, the Cameroons and Damaraland, and between Hamburg and the Congo, it would be still more valuable. It would be to German commerce what Hawaii is to our transpacific commerce, and Germany has a right to seek such adjuncts to her mercantile expansion, without belligerent menace to any other country.

STRASBURG STUDENTS' OFFENCE.

Scathing Characterization by the University Senate. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I greatly appreciate the evidence of fairness you show by the publication of my letter in your issue of yesterday. I repeat that I did not believe in the "source of information" of your correspondent "are no less copious and authoritative" than mine, but in this case he did not use what was at his disposal as well as everybody's. The one authoritative source in this case is the order of dissolution to which I referred in my letter.

which I only give on special occasions, is a midday shave in public! In the early morning a Chinese inn is terribly dark, and at night bed room claims one. I select a table at the street front (the whole front is formed of movable doors, which are entirely taken away during the day) and, provided with the necessities, commence operations. Fifty or sixty people stand round in chairs, the innermost circle consisting of children and the outer rings of men and mothers with their babies. Not a word is uttered; all eyes are fixed first on the shaving brush as the soap is lathered on the face, and then on the razor as the stubble falls. The Chinese never shave themselves, and possibly to see a man handling a razor on himself may suggest that he is about to commit harakiri in their village.

SUFFERING ZOO ANIMALS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: To-day I happened to go to the Zoological Park, where it was terrible to contemplate the sufferings endured by some of the caged animals and birds. No birds that I saw, except those in the big cage in the centre of which is a pond, had any water at all, and that pond gave appearance of filthy stagnation.

PEOPLE AND SOCIAL INCIDENTS.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, July 12.—The President, acting on the suggestion of Henry Watterston, has asked that the dedication of the Lincoln farm at Hodgenville, Ky., be postponed until after election. The date originally set was October 26, Mr. Taft has requested that it be fixed for some time between November 15 and 25, as he does not wish his visit to Kentucky to be regarded as political.

NEW YORK SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brooks, Jr. have returned from their wedding trip abroad, and are the guests of Mr. Brooks's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brooks, in Green Spring Valley. Mr. Brooks was Miss Louise Cromwell.

CHZAR SHOULDERS' COFFIN.

Aids in Last Rites to Grandaut—Obdurate to Her Son. St. Petersburg, July 12.—The body of the Grand Duchess Alexandra Josefovna, who died recently, was conveyed with stately ceremony to-day from the Marble Palace, on the banks of the Neva, to the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul.

DUDLEY FIELD CHIMES SILENT.

Bells at Stockbridge Annoyed Miss Emily Tuckerman, Who Protested. (By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Stockbridge, Mass., July 12.—Miss Emily Tuckerman, of Washington, has succeeded in silencing the beautiful Field chimes, the gift to the town of Stockbridge by David Dudley Field.

IN THE BERKSHIRES.

Lenox, July 12.—Harold McVeagh, Jr. and Francis McVeagh, of New York, are the guests of Mrs. Alexander Belp at Lenox. Mrs. Robert B. Minturn and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw Minturn are at the villa at Pointe a Pic, Quebec, for the summer.

SOCIAL NOTES FROM NEWPORT.

Newport, July 12.—Mrs. John R. Treadwell to-day set the hours of 3 to 7 for the afternoon tea which she will give on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of introducing her daughter, Miss Alice Gordon Dugan, to her as an outdoor affair.

KING LEAVES DUBLIN.

Issues Message of Appreciation for Welcome Accorded Him. Dublin, July 12.—King George and Queen Mary concluded their visit to Ireland to-day, and with the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary sailed on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert for Holyhead. The investiture of the Prince of Wales will take place in Carnarvon Castle to-morrow. Dublin gave their majesties a memorable send-off. As they passed through the streets the shouts of "God save the King" and "Come back soon" were heard.

CANADIAN PRELATE SEES POPE.

Rome, July 12.—Pope Pius XI. today received in private audience the Most Rev. Paul Bruchési, Archbishop of Montreal, Quebec, who presented His Holiness with the report of his diocese. The Pontiff conversed lengthily with the prelate, and renewed by word of mouth his congratulations with regard to the success of the Eucharistic Congress, held in Montreal last summer.

THE MAYOR AND THE SCHOOLS. (Continued from page 6.)

THE PRINCE OF WALES. (Continued from page 6.)

THE "COMPOSITE CITIZEN." (Continued from page 6.)

THE TALK OF THE DAY. (Continued from page 6.)

A REVERSION TO TYPE. (Continued from page 6.)

THE MAYOR AND THE PARKS. (Continued from page 6.)

MIDDIES BOUND FOR BERGEN. (Continued from page 6.)