WALSH AIDS THE WHITE SOX

Holds New York at Bay After Score Was Tied in the Ninth Frame.

Harry Lord's triple over Walter's head broke up a fourteen-inning game between the Yankees and the Chicago White Sox on the hilltop yesterday afternoon and put the visitors' lead on the road to victory.

But Caldwell had a tough opponent in "Big Boy" Walsh, who began the game for Chicago, pitched wonderful ball for eight innings and was practically invincible with men on the bases.

The closing innings of the game were filled with scintillating fielding, in marked contrast to the early frames. The Yankees played wretched ball at first, working along in a slow and listless fashion.

This splendid playing gave little indication of the match which was to come, and the four thousand odd spectators who braced the rain clouds defeat seemed thoroughly deserved for the New York nine.

The extra innings were fought with heroic pitching and fielding. In the twelfth, with one out, Chase and Cree both hit safely, but two marvellous stops and throws by Tannehill retired Hartzell and Knight.

The Sox secured their first run in the second inning, when Bodie led off with a single and advanced as far as second on a couple of outs, crossing the plate on Sullivan's single.

More Fun For the Pirates.

GIANTS AND MATTY LOSE

Five Errors Cost Three Runs, and the Cardinals Win.

SALLEE PITCHES GOOD BALL

Herzog's Three-Bagger, with Two Men on Bases, Prevents a Shut-Out.

St. Louis, July 28.—Christy Mathewson lost another game to the St. Louis Cardinals today when the defense of the Giants collapsed.

Although Matty allowed the Cardinals eleven hits, they were so well scattered that only two of their five runs were earned. The rest were pure gifts.

Matty pitched his usual brilliant game in spite of all, and only his brilliant work when his teammates put him in a hole prevented the Cardinals from piling up an avalanche of runs.

Sallee was in top form and had the Giants at his mercy. The eight hits he allowed were scattered, except in the ninth inning, when the visitors bunched two singles and a triple.

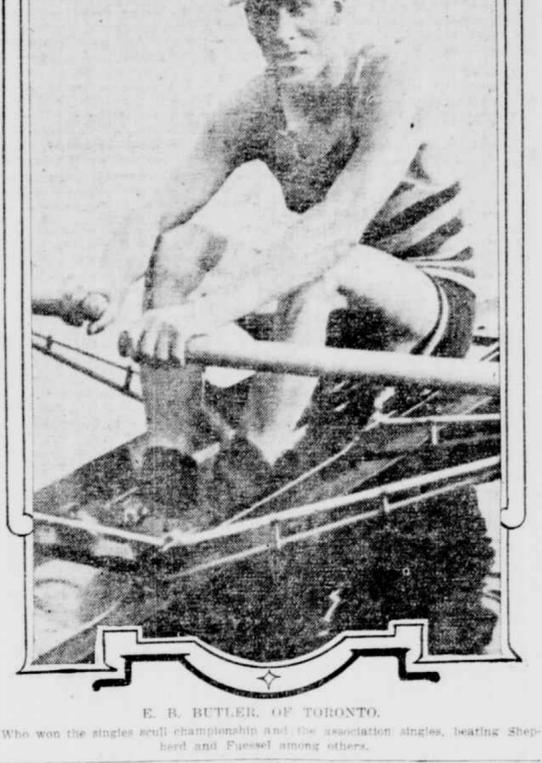

The Cardinals scored in the first inning. Huggins, the first man up, doubled, but on Hauser's first to Matty was run down between second and third.

Herzog's triple, with two men on base, prevented the Cardinals from piling up an avalanche of runs. Furthermore, he fielded his position in splendid fashion, accepting five chances without an error.
