

MRS. BEACH WON'T BE PROSECUTION WITNESS

Solicitor Informs Husband's Lawyers That He Won't Employ Her as Such.

GOVERNOR PROMISES HELP

Assures Gunter That He Will Aid Him to Continue Investigations and Hire More Counsel.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.] ALBANY, N. Y., April 13.—Before leaving Albany this afternoon to return to New York...

While we do not regard Mrs. Beach as a witness necessary to a conviction of her husband...

Another Albany attorney, W. Q. Davis, has been retained by Mr. Beach...

There would be no necessity of his coming back to Albany now...

THE "VOTES FOR WOMEN" FOUR-IN-HAND. Decorated with purple, green and white banners, it carried the appeal of the suffragettes up Fifth Avenue yesterday.

TURKEY TROT IS DOOMED

Washington Hostesses to Banish Dance Unless Modified.

CIGARETTE LENDS ITS AID

American Women Determined Not to Allow Smoking to Become a Custom.

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, April 13.—There is a feeling of resentment in social circles here over the publicity given to some of the extreme dances executed at the ball given by Mrs. Robert W. Patterson on Wednesday night...

Mr. Patterson was, of course, unaware that the new fads were to be introduced, and the music for them was not on the programme...

WOMAN TOO MUCH FOR HIM

She Holds Alleged Thief Until Patrolman Arrives.

Richard Coffey, who, according to the police, has a criminal record as a "strong arm" man and general bad character...

Schneider was patrolling his post about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when he heard a woman's feeble screams coming from the second floor of No. 28...

Mrs. Murphy, who is a widow, told the magistrate she was awakened by the breaking of glass. Then she made out the form of Coffey rummaging about a table...

Wife Couldn't Endure Scent, and Husband Appeals to Court.

Chicago, April 13.—I've heard a great many reasons for the separation of couples, but a Spanish onion is a new cause...

Louis Riedle, twenty-six years old, complained because his wife did not have an onion for him when he came home to dinner...

SUFFRAGETTES WIN FAVOR

Tally-Ho Drive on Fifth Avenue Delights the Spectators.

EAGER FOR LITERATURE

Marked Improvement in the Attitude of the Public, One Leader Asserts.

A suffragette tally-ho, with four horses and a bugle, swathed in purple, green and white banners and gay with fluttering suffragette flags, made a triumphant progress up Fifth Avenue yesterday afternoon...

Upon you rests the responsibility of securing political freedom for this generation...

Automobiles drove up close to the gay coach, grinning chauffeurs grabbed for the papers and handed them over to their mistresses in the back seats...

The patrolman on the corner felt his reputation tottering, however, so he commanded the women to give out no more dodgers.

They Get Out of Trouble.

"You're going to get into trouble," he shouted, loftily ignoring the papers that fluttered in his face...

The women sang the refrain. A messenger boy on a bicycle dashed up and snatched a dodger.

Eagerness of the Small Boy.

Small boys on one roller skate apiece dashed recklessly into the thick of the traffic, begging: "Gimme one, please, miss."

"All right. You can't vote, though. Take it home to your father."

A very few "ants" surveyed the performance through their longnetts with scorn, while their coachmen grinned unobserved and dared not take the dodgers held out to them.

A man in an automobile took one, but his wife snatched it from his hand and threw it away.

"She doesn't need a vote," the suffragists laughed.

1,000 KISSES BY MAIL

Woman Recipient Tires of Them and Sues for $10,000.

SALESMAN THE DEFENDANT

Plaintiff Says His Love Grew Cold Despite Financial Aid She Gave Him.

Seven years have elapsed since Leo Grelshelmer first promised to marry Miss Frieda Urstein, of Mannheim, Germany. But the woman considers a promise a promise for all that, and therefore she had him arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Gilmore in a $10,000 breach of promise suit...

The courtship, largely by correspondence, had been kept up for four years when Grelshelmer quit writing, and following a seven months' sentence in prison Miss Urstein lost sight of him...

Last September she came to New York from her home in Germany and found where Grelshelmer was living in this city. And, as the plaintiff said in her petition to the court for the order of arrest...

Miss Urstein brought her suit in White Plains, where Justice Miller issued the order of arrest. Grelshelmer gave a bond of $2,500 and was released.

Miss Urstein said she became acquainted with her errand lover in May or June, 1905, and he made his first proposal two months after the first meeting.

From Hamburg he wrote: "My dear and very good Frieda: Your postal received and was very glad. Thanks very much for the violets. They arrived here very nice. My loving good child, I am longing for you very much. You are with me in all my dreams. I will take you in my arms and kiss you. Oh, may those hours soon come again! I will close this letter with 1,000 kisses. Your only true, Leo."

In another letter Grelshelmer said he needed 500 marks and wished his fiancée to forward it, sending in return 1,000 more kisses. He got the money. Then he wrote again, saying that he had an offer of a job paying 10,000 marks a year, but that he needed 5,000 marks as security.

Miss Urstein set the money from her father's estate, as he was in "a very difficult situation."

In the latter part of 1907 Grelshelmer became involved in some financial difficulties and several times asked for more money. Miss Urstein said she had confidence in him and loved him, and she readily came to his assistance. Then the defendant was arrested and sentenced to seven months in prison.

"I never lost faith," she said. From his cell in Hamburg he wrote about the sunshine that would follow the rain. A week later he wrote of his intention to carry out his promise.

When Grelshelmer came out of prison Miss Urstein insisted that the marriage must take place as soon as he got a job, as she had already suffered enough. Then it was the defendant quit sending letters and the plaintiff learned that he had gone to the United States.

ATTACK DR. DENTON'S WILL

His Daughters Allege Morphine Doses Worked in Nurse's Favor. The daughters and son of the late Dr. John Henry Baker Denton, of Freeport, Long Island, appeared before Surrogate Graham yesterday in their effort to have the will left by their father set aside. With the exception of a few bequests to friends, Dr. Denton left his estate, valued at about $40,000, to Miss Elsie Vedder, a trained nurse, who had cared for him during a long illness.

It was the contention of his children that Dr. Denton had been under the influence of morphine during the last year of his life and was not capable of making a will. After listening to the testimony offered, Surrogate Graham adjourned the case until April 24.

Dr. Denton was prominent in the Democratic party of Nassau County for many years. At the time of his death he was fifty-five years old. He left three children, Mrs. Valentine W. Smith, of Freeport, Mrs. Archer B. Wallace and John S. Denton, of Freeport.

THINKS WOMEN CAN'T HIT Judge Frees Defendant Said to Have Thrown Stones Straight 35 Feet. Kansas City, Kan., April 13.—A general belief that women cannot throw straight was the best defence of Mrs. Rose McKinney, charged in the police court here with having struck her neighbor, Mrs. S. J. Russell, with stones in a quarrel when Mrs. McKinney threw at you? the judge asked Mrs. Russell. "About thirty-five feet, and she hit me on both sides of the head," was the answer. "Defendant is discharged," said the court. "If Mrs. McKinney hit you at a distance of thirty-five feet she is a genius. I never knew a woman who could throw ten feet and hit what she was throwing at."
