

HARVESTER LETTERS
STIR SENATE DEBATE

Williams Denounces Roosevelt and His Methods, Comparing the Colonel with Cæsar.

BRISTOW IN VAIN DEFENCE

Democrats Enjoy Liveliest Political Day in Upper House in Months—Third Term Dangers Described.

Washington, April 25.—As a result of attacking the administration, particularly the Attorney General, for transmitting to the Senate official correspondence disclosing President Roosevelt's part in blocking the prosecution of the Harvester trust, Senator Bristow experienced a "flareback" in the Senate to-day, and provided occasion for an afternoon of political discussion, in which Senator Williams took the lead in assailing the ex-President.

Senator Nelson, coming to the defence of President Taft, also described how President Roosevelt had sent for the reports relating to the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the United States Steel Corporation, and "sat down on papers" when the Senate Committee on Inquiry desired to investigate the transaction. What President Taft has done," said Senator Nelson, in connection with the refusal of the Attorney General to transmit the harvester trust suit, "is no worse than his predecessor has done. It is exactly the same. If either is guilty, President Taft has been guilty, because he followed the evil example."

Senator Bristow, who purposed to champion the Roosevelt cause, appeared to be led astray by the unexpected turn of affairs. He sought to smooth the troubled waters by saying that there was no disposition on the part of the Attorney General to criticize the President or the ex-President.

"In this observation Senator Williams simply took exception, and, taking a position in the middle of the centre aisle, proceeded to ridicule the ex-President and his chief defender, Mr. Bristow.

"This is a day of Democratic rejoicing," he said. "Perhaps we may see what the Republicans have really been doing. We have the spectacle of one of our chief supporters protesting against the President, and another side of the chamber to criticize the President and the ex-President."

"In this observation Senator Williams simply took exception, and, taking a position in the middle of the centre aisle, proceeded to ridicule the ex-President and his chief defender, Mr. Bristow.

"What do you mean," another Senator queried, "by the expression 'campaign discretion'?"

"That I can best illustrate by an example. Of all the Presidential candidates there is only one who has not said a word about the tariff. Even President Taft," he said, "there are excessives on a present tariff bill that ought to be repealed, but this candidate has been absolutely silent. If I were following this course I would go to Judge Gary and ask him for a campaign contribution, because in the natural course of things I might expect it from him."

Colorado Makes You Ten Years Younger

Would you be ten years younger in a few weeks' time? Some one has said—more graphically perhaps than all the others—"Colorado makes you feel like slipping out of bed in the morning."

That's what many have said after finding the superior value in Christmas Pianos.

disaster if they forget the advice of Washington. Retribution came to the Romans when they elected Marcus consul for the third time. Now we propose to bow to Cæsar."

FIRE AT CLUMBER HOUSE

Part of Duke of Newcastle's Country Seat Guttled.

London, April 25.—Fire broke out last evening at Clumber House, the Duke of Newcastle's seat near Worksop, which contains some priceless art treasures. Damage to the extent of several thousand pounds was caused in the upper story of one wing, which was gutted.

The fire originated in the nursery, and the Duke of Portland and Lady Cavendish-Bentinck were at the time in the house, which is one of the most palatial residences in England.

DISESTABLISHMENT VOTED

British Parliament Passes First Reading by Majority of 78.

London, April 25.—The Welsh disestablishment bill passed its first reading in the House of Commons to-night by a vote of 351 to 253, a majority of 78, or 16 less than the majority on the first reading of the Home Rule bill last week.

KILLED IN THE PHILIPPINES

One Scout and Thirteen Moros Lose Lives in South Lanao.

Manila, April 25.—A detachment of scouts came upon a band of hostile Moros in South Lanao yesterday and killed thirteen of them.

LONG FLIGHT FOR VEDRINES

French Aviator Leaves Paris in 140-Horsepower Monoplane.

Paris, April 25.—Julius Védérine, winner of the Paris-to-Madrid aviation race last year, started this evening in a 140-horsepower monoplane for a trip from Paris to Brussels and Madrid. He covered the first stage, from Villacoublay to Paris, in one hour and forty minutes.

HUNDREDS STARVING IN FEZ

Men Huddled into Cages Next to Wild Beasts.

Fez, Morocco, April 25 (Delayed).—The Jewish quarter of Fez presents a lamentable spectacle as a result of the recent pillaging and looting by the revolting populace and mutinous Moorish soldiers. On the occasion of the last ravaging of the quarter, however, the scenes enacted do not approach in horror and devastation those which had occurred a few days earlier.

Of the twelve thousand Jewish residents of the capital no fewer than seven thousand have been rendered homeless by fire, and these have now taken refuge, naked and hungry, in the gardens of the Sultan's palace.

The bodies of the French officers, a number of whom were killed in the recent fighting, have not yet all been found, but those recovered show that the soldiers suffered terrible tortures. One of the assassins of Colonel Lory confessed that the Moorish women were the ringleaders in his murder. They tied his arms and feet and then slowly stabbed him to death with poniards.

Many arrests of Moorish soldiers and citizens of Fez have been effected. The prisoners will all be tried by court martial and subjected to military law.

INCOME TAX FOR FRANCE

Twelve Per Cent of Dividends on Foreign Stocks Proposed.

Paris, April 25.—The income tax committee of the Senate has submitted the Minister of Finance's new scheme for an income tax as a substitution for the bill as voted by the Chamber of Deputies. The Senate's proposal fixes the minimum taxable income at from 750 to 2,000 francs ($150 to $400), according to the population of the commune. The rate is fixed at 5 per cent for any fraction of income in excess of 2,000 francs, decreasing proportionately to one-half of 1 per cent on any fraction of income between the minimum sum taxable and 5,000 francs.

The tax is to be levied on the net income after the deduction of interest on debt, special proportional rebates will be allowed heads of families whose income does not exceed 12,000 francs. The taxpayer must either make a declaration of his income or accept the assessment of a fiscal official.

French government and colonial loans made prior to the passage of this law are exempt from all special taxation. Foreign government stock will be taxed 6 per cent on the dividend, plus three-quarters of 1 per cent on transfer or conversion to bearer stock, on condition that they open transfer bureaux in France.

CALLS HARVESTER CHARGE NONSENSE

Simply have done the best we could with the material at our disposal. Mr. Smith in a subsequent letter says: 'No report of any sort of the International Harvester Company was prepared by this bureau during my administration. At the time you went out of office the bureau had done less than ten per cent of the work necessary to issue even a partial report on this subject. Consequently, of course, no report of any part thereof on Harvester had been written or drafted at that time by the Bureau of Corporations. I never received from you any instructions in regard to any such report except orders intended to facilitate its preparation and publication.'

As in Every Case of the Kind.

Mr. Perkins and Commissioner Smith called upon me in reference to the Harvester trust matter at about the same time. Mr. Perkins called on me first and asked Commissioner Smith to see me. Mr. Perkins called on me next and asked Commissioner Smith to see me. Mr. Perkins called on me next and asked Commissioner Smith to see me.

STATEMENT BY MR. PERKINS

Regrets That Much of Harvester Trust Correspondence Was Withheld.

George W. Perkins made the following statement yesterday when asked to comment on the correspondence made public on the Harvester trust.

Turns Charge on Mr. Taft.

Over three years have elapsed since Mr. Taft became President. During that time the Harvester trust case has been in the office of the Attorney General, and Mr. Taft cannot have forgotten the debate about it in the Cabinet, and when he was a member of the Cabinet, and in which he took part. During these three years Mr. Taft could at any time have ordered the Attorney General to proceed to the report, or have requested the Commissioner of Corporations to hurry up the report, or to give him the reasons why it was impossible to hurry it up.

MAY POSTPONE THAW CASE

State Needs Time to Go Over the Voluminous Records.

When Harry Thaw's case comes into the courts again to-morrow it is not probable that Thaw will have more than a few hours out of Matteawan, if any time at all. The hearing on the application for a writ of habeas corpus has been set before Justice Keogh, in New Rochelle, to-morrow morning. It is believed, however, that the state will ask for an adjournment to give time to prepare its case.

FRENCH BANDITS ARRESTED

Five Men Held, but Bonnot, "the Demon Chauffeur," Is Still Free.

Paris, April 25.—Large bodies of police to-day secured the anarchist refugees in the outskirts of Paris and arrested five minor members of the bandit gang which has recently terrorized Paris. Bonnot, the "demon chauffeur," who yesterday killed Assistant Superintendent Jouin and severely wounded Chief Inspector Colmar, when the detective officers attempted to capture him, has completely disappeared. No traces of him have been found but he is believed by the police to be hidden somewhere in Paris.

RECALL COMPROMISE FOR OHIO

Columbus, Ohio, April 25.—The Ohio constitutional convention compromised on the recall to-day, when by an almost unanimous vote the members passed a proposal authorizing the Legislature to enact a law providing for an impeachment commission with power to remove any offending official. The law will not interfere with the present plan of impeachment by legislative procedure.

BONAPARTE ADMITS DELAY

But Says Smith's Inquiry Halted Harvester Action.

Baltimore, April 25.—Respecting President Roosevelt's letter to Attorney General Bonaparte directing the latter to withhold the anti-trust suit against the International Harvester Company, contained in the correspondence sent to the Department of Justice, Mr. Bonaparte said the action was withheld pending the result of an investigation of the Harvester company by the Bureau of Corporations made at the instance of the Senate. Ex-Attorney General Bonaparte said:

The letter in question was written while I was absent from Washington and while an investigation by the Department of Justice was in progress in regard to the affairs of the Harvester trust, but before any report had been made to the department of my decision reached by it.

Several months later, after the department had received all the information represented by Mr. Townsend, I announced to the Senate that I was ready to institute a suit for the dissolution of the Harvester trust. It was then ascertained that the Bureau of Corporations had not yet completed its investigation of the same Harvester trust which it was conducting by direction of a resolution of the Senate, and the matter being submitted to the Cabinet, it was decided that the suit should await the conclusion of Herbert Knox Smith's inquiry.

Gives More Power to Investigators—Victory for Bryanites in House of Representatives.

Washington, April 25.—Two months and a day after the House authorized an investigation of the "money trust," the Committee on Banking and Currency requested and received to-day "additional authority" to conduct the long delayed probe. In consequence, victory perches to-night on the shoulders of the House Bryanites, for the resolution adopted by the House to-day is substantially the original Henry resolution, which was so harshly treated by the Democratic caucus.

More Used Piano Opportunities
Echoes from Clear-up Sale
Some people, merely because of sentimental reasons, object to buying a used piano.
If they would view the matter in the light of actual value received, they would find that a used piano, if of a reputable make, is a far better investment than many of the cheap new pianos offered as bargains.
On account of the small cost a used piano is particularly an economical purchase, if you have young people who are beginning to study music. If you want a piano for a summer home, a used piano will give you less anxiety about its care. For the seaside hotel, for the boarding house, for the school or the lodge room there are used pianos in this sale that will give the most excellent service as well as the sweetest music and yet cost you but a fraction of actual value.
We have pianos in this sale as low as $65 Each
If we had plenty of room to show these pianos without interfering with the proper display of our own instruments, we could dispose of them in the regular course of business and get from 25% to 50% more for them, because they are worth it.
We have taken them in exchange as part payment for
