

Boxing League and College Baseball Relay Games Golf Racing WANKERS CUMB A BIT TIMELY BITS OF SPORT

McFARLAND ALL THE WAY

Outboxes Matt Wells. England's Lightweight Champion.

GARDEN PACKED TO DOORS

Big Crowd Roars Its Approval as Chicago Boy Drives His Rival to Cover.

Matt Wells, the lightweight champion of Great Britain, went down to defeat before "Packsy" McFarland in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

MATT WELLS, Lightweight champion of Great Britain, who was beaten by "Packsy" McFarland in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

For the last two years the boxing promoters have tried to find this match on two continents, but in each case the bargain fell through on several occasions, and he went out last night to bury that rumor.

Wells slipped McFarland's left lead for the head and drove "Packsy" back across the ring with a right to the head at the start of the fifth round.

Wells came in for a terrible licking in the fifth round. The Wizard of the Middle West went at him, jabbing him with that whiplike left hand, made Wells look like an untamed wild.

He entered the ring a smiling, confident champion, ready to do his best with the weight's greatest boxer at the weight.

He left a badly battered and bleeding under lip, and McFarland weighed in under 135 pounds at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Before the men weighed in Frank S. O'Neil and Major John J. Dixon, the members of the State Athletic Commission, were introduced to the crowd.

There was a good big crowd in the arena, but by no means the milling, surging mass of humanity that stormed the historic Garden when Wells met "Packsy" in his last summer in their contest under the Frawley law.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and Johnny Kling, of the Boston Braves, and several members of both teams occupied ringside boxes.

Outside a great army of "deadheads" sought to force an entrance, but their best plans went sadly awry.

At a signal from Joe Humphries the band broke forth in the strains of "God Save the King" as Matt Wells forced his way down the aisle.

The men lunged into a clinch and then exchanged lefts and rights for a few minutes. McFarland missed a right hook and took a left in the body.

Lightweight champion of Great Britain, who was beaten by "Packsy" McFarland in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

both as fast as a streak and few effective punches were landed.

Wells slipped McFarland's left lead for the head and drove "Packsy" back across the ring with a right to the head at the start of the fifth round.

Wells came in for a terrible licking in the fifth round. The Wizard of the Middle West went at him, jabbing him with that whiplike left hand, made Wells look like an untamed wild.

He entered the ring a smiling, confident champion, ready to do his best with the weight's greatest boxer at the weight.

He left a badly battered and bleeding under lip, and McFarland weighed in under 135 pounds at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Before the men weighed in Frank S. O'Neil and Major John J. Dixon, the members of the State Athletic Commission, were introduced to the crowd.

There was a good big crowd in the arena, but by no means the milling, surging mass of humanity that stormed the historic Garden when Wells met "Packsy" in his last summer in their contest under the Frawley law.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and Johnny Kling, of the Boston Braves, and several members of both teams occupied ringside boxes.

Outside a great army of "deadheads" sought to force an entrance, but their best plans went sadly awry.

At a signal from Joe Humphries the band broke forth in the strains of "God Save the King" as Matt Wells forced his way down the aisle.

The men lunged into a clinch and then exchanged lefts and rights for a few minutes. McFarland missed a right hook and took a left in the body.

GIANTS OUT FOR RECORD

Boston Braves Their Victims in Seventh Straight Victory.

CRANDALL DOES THE TRICK

Hit Hard, but His Teammates Hit Harder and Win by a Generous Margin.

There is no use disguising the fact any longer. The Giants are getting set in their ways. They are rapidly becoming addicted to the habit of winning, and are now so deep in the rut that the best efforts of their opponents are of no avail in helping them out of the groove.

The champions were fully settled, if not a little peevish, in the early innings of the game at the Polo Grounds.

Wells slipped McFarland's left lead for the head and drove "Packsy" back across the ring with a right to the head at the start of the fifth round.

Wells came in for a terrible licking in the fifth round. The Wizard of the Middle West went at him, jabbing him with that whiplike left hand, made Wells look like an untamed wild.

He entered the ring a smiling, confident champion, ready to do his best with the weight's greatest boxer at the weight.

He left a badly battered and bleeding under lip, and McFarland weighed in under 135 pounds at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Before the men weighed in Frank S. O'Neil and Major John J. Dixon, the members of the State Athletic Commission, were introduced to the crowd.

There was a good big crowd in the arena, but by no means the milling, surging mass of humanity that stormed the historic Garden when Wells met "Packsy" in his last summer in their contest under the Frawley law.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and Johnny Kling, of the Boston Braves, and several members of both teams occupied ringside boxes.

Outside a great army of "deadheads" sought to force an entrance, but their best plans went sadly awry.

At a signal from Joe Humphries the band broke forth in the strains of "God Save the King" as Matt Wells forced his way down the aisle.

The men lunged into a clinch and then exchanged lefts and rights for a few minutes. McFarland missed a right hook and took a left in the body.

Wells slipped McFarland's left lead for the head and drove "Packsy" back across the ring with a right to the head at the start of the fifth round.

EARLIER BASEBALL HOUR

Brooklyn Games to Begin at 3:30 o'Clock, Following Vote of 'Fans'

Baseball games at Washington Park Brooklyn, will begin at an earlier hour than heretofore on a vote of the "fans." The expression was strong enough to leave no doubt in the mind of Charles H. Ebbets, president and chief owner of the club, that the move was a wise one.

The "fans" were asked to vote on three starting times—3:30, 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock—and there was a preponderance of feeling in favor of the first named. The vote was as follows: 3:30 o'clock, 333; 4:30 o'clock, 258; 5:30 o'clock, 127.

Jersey City retained its lead in the International League by defeating Buffalo yesterday by a score of 10 to 1.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

Newark dropped into last place in the International League race when it was trounced by Montreal at Newark yesterday by a score of 12 to 3.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Baseball Fight in Three Leagues

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDING.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES TO-DAY.

RESULTS OF GAMES YESTERDAY.

WANKERS CUMB A BIT

Beat Senators and Move Up in the Percentage Table.

QUINN HAS HIS REVENGE

Reorganized New York Nine Hammers Three Washington Pitchers.

Washington, April 26.—The New York Yankees won their second victory of the season today when they routed the Senators here this afternoon and beat them by a score of 10 to 2.

The entire Yankee team played well behind the bat, and the defense which would not do a thing for Martin, the recruit from Rochester, was a little overzealous, and made the only two errors for the team.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Jack Quinn had something waiting for the Washington men, and he went in to avenge his defeat at the hands of Walter Johnson when the pair clashed in New York.

Automobile

Cream of College Athletes to Run in Relay Carnival.

PENNSYLVANIA TO BE HOST

First Amateur Race Meeting of the Season at Cedarhurst This Afternoon.

One of the most remarkable sets of athletic games in the history of the sport will command attention this afternoon at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, in the yearly relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania.

There are no fewer than forty-seven events on the programme, of which thirty-nine are relay races, as follows: Seven preparatory schools, eight for high schools, seven for preparatory schools and academies, seven for colleges and ten for school and college championships.

The carnival this year will have added importance because it will furnish a line on some of the college men for the Olympic games in Sweden next July.

Among the hurdlers who will compete today are Nicholson, of Missouri; Case, of Illinois; Thorpe, of Carlisle, and Edwards, of Pennsylvania.

One mile—1, Dartmouth College; 2, Syracuse University; 3, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; 4, McGill University; 5, Canada; 6, Pennsylvania University; 7, Illinois University; 8, Michigan; 9, Columbia University; 10, Ohio Wesleyan University; 11, Chicago University.

Four miles—1, Princeton University; 2, Pennsylvania University; 3, Minnesota University; and 4, Indiana University.

Michigan University; 3, Dartmouth University; and 4, Pennsylvania.

The first amateur race meeting of the season will be run off by the Rockaway Hunting Club at Cedarhurst this afternoon, and the programme is rich in promise.

Much interest is being expressed in the handicap for gallopers, for which seven horses have been entered, as follows: Culver, 153; The Thief, 143; Pettis Chevas, 145; Kinderhook, 143; Emily G, 142; Jimmie, 140, and Royal, 140.

Members of the New York Cotton Exchange yesterday forwarded to Julian W. Curtis, treasurer of the American Olympic Committee, a sum of $100,000 as contribution to the fund being raised to defray the expenses of a representative team to the Olympic games at Stockholm.

Richard F. Coombes, in a letter to James E. Sullivan, refers to the costumes worn by our athletes in America, and included a clipping showing a man in running trunks, and asks if that is the kind of costume that is allowed in this country.

After winning three pennants in the old Eastern League without a southpaw on his twirling staff, John Ganzel, manager of the Rochester champions, decided that he would require a portlander this year, and has secured George Clark from the New York Yankees.

Members of the New York Cotton Exchange yesterday forwarded to Julian W. Curtis, treasurer of the American Olympic Committee, a sum of $100,000 as contribution to the fund being raised to defray the expenses of a representative team to the Olympic games at Stockholm.

SUPERBAS TAKE A TURN

Little Left of Phillies When Dahlen's Men Finish.

STACK A POWER IN THE BOX

Holds Dooinless Quakers Safe at All Stages, While Mates Pound Brennan.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

Philadelphia, April 26.—All that was left of the Phillies was well wallpapered when Bill Dahlen and his band of Brooklyn Superbas swooped down on the Quaker City this afternoon and marched off with the ensuing battle by a score of 6 to 2.

Brooklyn took kindly to the offerings of Brennan, and smashed his delivery for eight hits. They came at opportune moments, too, and runs were scored on good clean batting.

Montreal hits McGinnity hard and scores a dozen runs.

BASEBALL SQUABBLE OVER

Johnson and Herrmann Settle on National Agreement.

Cincinnati, April 26.—At a conference here today between President B. B. Johnson of the American League and August Herrmann, chairman of the national commission, Mr. Johnson, on behalf of the American League, approved of the revised national agreement after a few minor changes.

LEHIGH

Lehigh finds O'Neale for many safe hits.

South Bethlehem, Penn., April 26.—Heavy hitting characterized Lehigh's victory over Columbia this afternoon before a large crowd. The score was 8 to 6.

CARDINALS GOING AGAIN

Make Game Uphill Fight and Nose Out the Cubs.

Chicago, April 26.—With the score tied, 3 to 3, in the ninth inning, Knottley tripled and Smith and Wingo, each driving in two runs, gave the Cardinals a 5 to 3 victory over Chicago today.

St. Louis, April 26.—Ralph Craig, of the University of Michigan, who is the intercollegiate champion in the 100-yard and 200-yard dashes, has entered the Olympic games today, which will be held at the Stadium at Harvard on June 8.

CRAIG'S ENTRY IN

St. Louis, April 26.—Ralph Craig, of the University of Michigan, who is the intercollegiate champion in the 100-yard and 200-yard dashes, has entered the Olympic games today, which will be held at the Stadium at Harvard on June 8.

RED SOX BEAT ATHLETICS

Bradley's Bat a Mighty Factor in Humbling Champions.

Boston, April 26.—Bradley's big stick gave Boston a victory over the Athletics today by a score of 7 to 6.

Philadelphia, April 26.—Bradley's big stick gave Boston a victory over the Athletics today by a score of 7 to 6.

Boston, April 26.—Bradley's big stick gave Boston a victory over the Athletics today by a score of 7 to 6.

Boston, April 26.—Bradley's big stick gave Boston a victory over the Athletics today by a score of 7 to 6.

Boston, April 26.—Bradley's big stick gave Boston a victory over the Athletics today by a score of 7 to 6.

NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE RESULTS.

Lawrence, 3; New Bedford, 2 (10 innings). Haverhill, 5; Worcester, 0. Fall River, 3; Brockton, 6. Lowell, 15; Lynn, 14.

OTHER COLLEGE GAMES.

At Northfield, Vt.—Northwick University, 2; New Hampshire College, 0. At Worcester, Mass.—Holy Cross, 11; Colby, 2. At Medford, Mass.—Tufts, 12; University of Maine, 6. At Williamstown, Mass.—Williams, 3; Massachusetts Agricultural College, 0.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION RESULTS.

Tolono, 12; Milwaukee, 1. Kansas City, 2; Columbus, 1. Minneapolis, 1; Indianapolis (rain). St. Paul vs. Louisville (wet grounds).

CONNECTICUT LEAGUE RESULTS.

Springfield, 5; Hartford, 3 (12 innings). New Britain, 8; Holyoke, 1. New Haven, 2; Bridgeport, 9 (10 innings; darkness).

STATE LEAGUE RESULTS.

Troy, 9; Albany, 3. Syracuse, 4; Utica, 5 (6 innings; rain). Wilkes-Barre, 2; Binghamton, 1.