

RAIN MARS HORSE SHOW

Fails to Dampen Ardor However, of Those Who Look On.

POLO PONIES IN THE RING

Foxhall P. Keene Tries Them Out, to the Delight of the Dismal Birds.

Rain, a dismal rain, damped the ardor of the women at the show of the Turf and Field Club, devoted exclusively to hunters and saddle horses, at Belmont Park yesterday.

The judges reeked not of the rain, and went about their duties in a rather slow and tedious way, but the crowd seemed to enjoy studying the horses and speculating on the probable winners.

If anything, the polo ponies attracted chief interest. Foxhall P. Keene did the judging in this class, and any of the candidates which he decided were eligible for ribbons he tried out in the ring.

The two old rivals, Kildare and Mrs. J. E. McKee's Lady Debonair, came together in the open saddle class. John R. Townsend was doing the judging, and it had not been forgotten that when the two horses met at Tuxedo he awarded the palm to Lady Debonair.

The exhibition of hunters, to be ridden by members of the club, brought out a splendid lot. It took a good one to beat Allan Pinkerton's Tallman, but George M. Sidenberg's Chester did the trick.

There were three classes for military ponies. The first was a jumping exhibition, and Leonard B. Smith got a fall which looked harmless but proved to be quite serious.

It remained for Philip Carter to bring the interscholastic golf title back to the metropolitan district when he defeated W. H. Gardner, of St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa., in the thirty-six-hole final round on the links of the Montclair Golf Club yesterday.

Earlier in the tournament W. Swops, last year's winner, was also removed by Carter. Both players in yesterday's contest drove long balls.

Thanks to ability to win quickly, Miss Louise P. Krug and her opponent, Miss Grace Farrelly, were the only contestants in the first round of the Englewood Country Club championship tournament yesterday.

Thirty-odd clubs in the metropolitan district have arranged for golf competitions to-day. This means that thousands of golfers will have an opportunity to play for prizes.

Boys DRENCHED AT MEET

Rain Puts an End to Games at Curtis Field.

The twenty-five hundred school children who attended the fourth annual games of the Columbus Athletic League, comprising District 1 and 2 of Manhattan, at Curtis Field, Staten Island, yesterday, were drenched by the heavy thunderstorm and the games were abruptly halted.

The officials, however, succeeded in completing nine of the sixteen events on the programme, and the left over contests will be held at Chelsea Park on next Wednesday afternoon.

When the rain came, the athletes of Public School 55 were leading, with 415 points and four first prizes. Public School 16 was second, with 275 points, and Public School 21 third, with 165 points.

James Paone, of Public School 21, put the eighth-round shot 41 feet 4 inches.

The summaries follow:

Fifty-yard dash (80-pound class)—Won by Bonanade, P. S. 95, 16 seconds; second, Kring, P. S. 10, 17 seconds; third, P. S. 114, 18 seconds.

Seventy-yard dash (115-pound class)—Won by Giamatti, P. S. 16, 21 seconds; second, Curiale, P. S. 114, 22 seconds; third, Campanese, P. S. 21, 23 seconds.

Three-hundred-yard dash (150-pound class)—Won by Paone, P. S. 21, with a jump of 4 feet 7 inches, second, Sobushitz, P. S. 114, with a jump of 4 feet 6 inches, third, Oule, P. WOMEN FAST ON COURTS

Five Forge to Fore in Hot Matches Under Gloomy Skies.

MRS. SCHMITZ IN FINE FORM

Defeats Miss Johnston and Mrs. Manvel in Lawn Tennis at Morristown.

Undimmed by threatening clouds, the women began their matches in the cup singles on the lawn tennis courts of the Morristown Field Club, at Morristown, N. J., yesterday, five of the original field of twenty-nine competitors arriving in the town before the semifinals.

While the courts were a trifle slow, due to the early morning showers, the leading women put plenty of dash and sparkle into their games. Both Miss Cassell and Mrs. Schmitz were in splendid stroke, and each carried off the matches successfully.

In the first round Miss Cassell disposed of Miss Randall at 6-1, 6-3. Her drives were well placed and she materially improved her pace as the match went along. Miss Randall made a good defence, but could not overcome Miss Cassell's passing shots.

Miss Ina Alton Kissel, the referee of the tournament, who had previously eliminated Miss Margaret Elson, at 5-1, 6-1. Miss Kissel proved a splendid adversary for Miss Cassell, and the latter, who has had experience in some of the European tournaments, had a lively time of it when the Morristown player settled into her game in the second set.

Both of the competitions which Mrs. Schmitz won were also scored in straight sets. The former national title holder first defeated Miss Margaret Johnstone, at 6-3, 6-2. It appeared almost impossible for Miss Johnstone to score on a passing shot, while the swift drives of Mrs. Schmitz needed down the lines like a scythe in an open field.

In the third round Mrs. Schmitz met Mrs. J. P. Manvel, who had defeated Miss Edith Adele Hagen, of Hamilton Grange, 6-4, 6-1, and the latter forced the playing through one fast deuce set. Mrs. Manvel was quick at seeing the openings, and her aim was so sure that for a time she completely had her opponent. One set was all that Mrs. Manvel could go at such a gallop, and when she began to waver Mrs. Schmitz soon ran out the match, winning at 7-5, 6-1.

The women's handicap singles, to be conducted after the English system, and the women's doubles will also be decided to-day in the progress of the tournament.

MARSHALL LOSES CHESS LEAD. Budapest, Hungary, May 29.—By winning against Steek, of this city, in the fifth round, while Marshall, the American champion, completely had her opponent. One set was all that Mrs. Manvel could go at such a gallop, and when she began to waver Mrs. Schmitz soon ran out the match, winning at 7-5, 6-1.

YALE MEN CHEER CREWS OFF

Garsmen Get Rousing Farewell as They Leave for Gales Ferry.

New Haven, May 29.—Several hundred students marched to the railroad station this afternoon to cheer the Yale crews leaving to-day to make their training quarters at Gales Ferry, on the Thames River, from now until the date of the Harvard race.

Much enthusiasm marked the farewell. The somewhat poor showing of the second varsity and freshmen crews in races this year has disheartened the students less than usual. They look for their crews to redeem themselves in the longer races of four miles, as the coaching of the crews has shown for endurance rather than sprinting qualities.

The departure for Gales Ferry this year is earlier than usual owing to the yearly date of the examinations. As each man boarded the train he was given a short cheer, with a long one for Captain Romney and Coaches Rodgers and Dob Cooke. A band also played Yale songs.

The work at the training quarters will consist principally of working of the date of the spring races, of smoothness and a higher stroke. Besides long runs, the men will be taken out in pair oars daily.

There has been much interest in rowing at Yale this year under the new graduate system than ever before. The following men were taken: Varsity—Spowden, Allen, Denham, O'Brien, Platten, Bugbee, Romney, Gore, Lipscomb, Ives, Freeman, Richards, Brice, Scully, Pease, Beck, Stephenson, York, Barman and Hader.

Freshmen—Bennett, Harrison, Cox, Stillman, Osborne, Denegre, Cano, Titus, Hebron, Crocker, Lane, Meyer, Jutte, Acheson, Whittraker and Matthews.

STATE LEAGUE RESULTS. Elmira 11, Binghamton 1; Saratoga 4, Wilkes-Barre 1; Utica vs. Syracuse (rain); Troy vs. Albany (rain).

Many Crews Entered in Big Regatta on Harlem River

Jack Nagel to Act as Referee in Absence of Jim Pilkington.

The forty-sixth annual renewal of the Harlem regatta will be held on the Harlem River to-day. Despite the fact that the Nassau and Wyanoke rowing clubs, which were destroyed by an entry, the regatta will be full of interest.

More than fifty-four entries have been received for the various events, which include many of the most prominent oarsmen in the East, including several men from Philadelphia. Columbia University will be represented in the junior, intermediate and senior eight.

The Metropolitan Rowing Club, the only one of the Harlem River clubs to rebuild after the fire, will be represented by four or five entries, including Bill Hart, who will start in the senior sculls and also in the quarter-mile dash. In the latter he will be opposed by George Allison, the speed marvel of the West Philadelphia Boat Club, who, with Frank Deering, also will row in the association senior sculls.

Columbia should win all three eight-oared shell races. The junior race is practically won before the gun goes off, by the Blue and White, who has only the Lone Star crew to beat. With the Malta eight, which rowed at Saratoga Lake last year in the National Regatta, pitted against Columbia in the intermediate class, a fine race is in prospect, while the New York Athletic Club may spring a surprise in the senior race.

In the absence of Jim Pilkington, Jack Nagel, for many years captain of the Harlem Rowing Club, will act as referee. Business affairs kept Mr. Pilkington from accepting the position, and the committee at once selected his old partner, with whom Pilkington once swept the American waters in double sculls. The races will begin at 9:30 o'clock this morning, and will be held at intervals of twenty minutes until noon, when luncheon will be served at the Union Boat Club. At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the races will be continued. The last race will be rowed at 5:30 o'clock. In the morning the races will be rowed northward, starting under Washington Bridge and finishing a short distance south of Fordham Bridge. In the afternoon the races will start south of Fordham Bridge and will finish under the Washington Bridge.

READY FOR BIG AUTO RACE

Seventy-five Thousand Persons May Watch the Stirring Battle.

Indianapolis, May 29.—Twenty-four giant motor cars, built by American, French, German and Italian makers for the highest pitch of speed and endurance, will line up at the Indianapolis speedway to-morrow for the second annual running of the 500-mile American sweepstakes, for which $50,000 in prizes is offered.

Thousands of motorists from all over the country assembled in this city to-day, many having come for hundreds of miles in their own touring cars. Seventy-five thousand persons, it is estimated, will be in the stands at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning when Fred Wagner casts into the air the bomb that will send away the throng of famous drivers and cars in their long and perilous contest.

The two mile and a half brick road was washed to-day of the oil that had collected through weeks of practice spins, and the high banks were sandied to reduce to as low a degree as possible the chances of sliding and the resultant injury or death of the pilots.

What Was This Woman?

If you are a judge of character, what part did this woman play in the Civil War? The last profession with which you would credit her is that of a spy—and yet this gentle-faced, determined, beautiful, high-born lady, reared in comfort, surrounded with every care from birth, risked her life constantly for the cause she loved. This picture of Mrs. Greenow, the confederate spy, with her daughter in the old Capitol Prison, is only one of hundreds of taken 50 years ago—now just discovered and brought to light, so that the world might learn the truth concerning the great conflict between the Blue and the Gray.

North and South, this man Brady, the greatest of all photographers and his daring assistants, was constantly at work portraying everything vital to the great struggle.

They were on the battlefields, in the cities, in the homes. They mingled in the street crowds, they were on the gunboats, in the forts. As a result, these priceless photographs, taken while the mighty struggle was on, show persons, events and conditions as no history has ever presented them. These remarkable pictures speak without bias, without prejudice—they speak the truth. In them you behold the humor, the tragedy and the stern reality of the four years' war, from the firing on Sumter to the surrender at Appomattox.

What We Have Done For Our Readers

This paper has entered a nation-wide alliance with leading publishers to place in the patriotic homes of America, these long-lost photographs of Brady's and Elson's New History—a lasting memorial of national valor known as the

DOUBLES GO TO AMHERST

Miller and Johnson Win Lawn Tennis Title at Boston.

Boston, May 29.—Charles L. Johnson, Jr., and S. Miller, Jr., won the doubles championship for Amherst to-day in defeating the Williams team, Conner and Thurston. In the final round of the New England Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association tournament here to-day, five sets were required to decide the match.

The play on both sides was somewhat slow and listless. Johnson, especially showing a falling off from his usual form.

The summary follows: Doubles (final round)—Johnson and Miller, Amherst, defeated Conner and Thurston, Williams, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. Singles (final round)—C. L. Johnson, Jr., Amherst, defeated C. Conner, Williams, 6-3, 6-2. S. Miller, Jr., Amherst, defeated P. Thurston, Williams, 6-4, 6-2.

TO RACE IN WATER AND AIR

In addition to the high speed motor boat and hydroplane racing at the Atlantic Yacht Club to-day, the regatta committee has arranged an unusual contest, Frank Coffey, the aviator, will fly to Sea Gate in his hydro-aeroplane, and this afternoon the craft will beat Easy Reliance, the new hydro-aeroplane of Commodore J. Stuart Blackton.

The hydro-aeroplane must start on the water, fly around the course and finish on the water. It will be the first time that such a race ever has been attempted.

DUNCAN MAY BETTER MARK

Irish-American Athletic Club to Hold Annual Games.

World's records are in danger at the annual games of the Irish-American Athletic Club, on its field at Celtic Park, Long Island City, this afternoon.

The programme is made up of ten events, ranging from a 100-meter dash to a 1000 metre run, and three field events. Both the Irish-American and New York Athletic clubs have entered full teams, while many athletes from the smaller clubs also will compete.

Interest centres in the battle between Martin J. Sheehan and Jim Duncan, the selected favorite to count, in three classes, while medal play will occupy the attention of the Forest Hill members. Over at Fox Hills three handicaps are carded, one at eighteen holes, medal play; another a four-ball affair, and the third against bogie.
