KAISER'S NEW VENTURE

Aims to Supply German Womanhood with Ostrich Plumes.

Emperor William has just embarked in the business of raising ostriches on his 10,000-acre ranch in German Southwest Africa, with a view to furnishing plumes to the home trade.

New York's "Upton Grant" Recalled.

The appearance of Captain the Hon. Eric Upton, of the King's Royal Rifles, son and heir of Lord Templeton, in the divorce suit of Archdeacon Colley's gunner son serves to recall that his ancestor, Clotworth Upton, first Viscount Templeton, was the grantee of 20,000 acres in what is now the State of New York.

DIVORCE FOR MRS. MASSEY

Delaware Woman Secures Decree on Ground of Desertion. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Dover, Del., July 7.—As a sequel to marital troubles that followed the disappearance from Dover in 1907 of George Gordon Massey, son of George V. Massey, recently retired as general solicitor of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Kent County Court has granted a divorce to his wife, Clara Clark Massey, on the ground of desertion.

SEEKS TO MASTER AIR

Aviator Takes Up the Work of Dead Scientist. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Redwood, Cal., July 7.—Residents of Wellesley and Dinglee parks, west of this city, saw a birdlike contrivance soaring and swooping with the ease of a swallow far above their heads to-day, thus witnessing what may prove to be a successful continuation of the aeronautical researches which terminated suddenly with the accidental death of Professor John J. Montgomery, of Santa Clara College, on October 23 of last year.

Carnegie to Visit the Chief of His Clan.

Lord Southesk, who has invited Andrew Carnegie to stay with him at Kinnaird Castle on the occasion of the ironmaster's unveiling of the Burns statue at Montrose next week, is the chief of the great Scotch clan of Carnegie, to which the Laird of Skibo belongs. The relations between a Highland chief and his retainers were very intimate in ancient times, so much so that they all assumed the patronymic of their lord.

GIVES PARK NAGS FOR TOXIN

Stover Will Replace Veteran Horses with Younger, Minus Tails. Four carriage horses in the Park Department service will be turned over to the Health Department for antitoxin purposes as a reward for getting stiff-legged in their years of service.

NEW YORK FROM THE SUBURBS.

Blowing up automobiles with Fourth of July explosions is a new form of entertainment devised by a group of New York patriots.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN 76

Birthday To Be Celebrated by Raising of a Shilling Fund. (By Cable to the Tribune.) London, July 8.—Joseph Chamberlain is seventy-six years old to-day. A Chamberlain birthday shilling fund is being raised by the Tariff Reform League, of which Lord Ridley is president, and the amount subscribed will be presented to the statesman and devoted to securing the success of the cause of tariff reform and imperial preference.

MORE VACATION SCHOOLS

Fifty-two, with Attendance of 10,000, Will Open To-day. Fifty-two vacation schools will open to-day, to continue for six weeks. They will be attended by more than ten thousand children, almost all of whom are from families whose parents were born in foreign countries. Last week two training schools were open for four or five days each. At one were 110 young men and women, and at the other fifty. One school was held at the hall of St. Mark's, in the Bowery, the other at the Second Avenue Baptist Church, across the avenue from St. Mark's.

SHUBERTS ANNOUNCE SHOWS

New Productions To Be Put On at All Theatres, Except Collier's. The Shuberts announced yesterday a list of the productions which will open all of their local houses this fall, with the exception of the new Palace Theatre and that under construction in West 44th street. All will have new pieces, except at Collier's, where "Bunty Pulls the Strings" will enter its second season under the management of the Shuberts and William A. Brady.

SAVING CITY'S BABIES

Work of Welfare Association Lowers Infant Mortality. Heat and humidity began taking their infant toll last week, the first seven days of the three months dreaded most by baby welfare workers. Nevertheless, the records show a distinct gain in baby lives over last year and nearly a thousand more registered at the milk stations.

May Build New Mansion at Fern Cliffe. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Poughkeepsie, July 7.—It became known to-day that Vincent Astor, the young master of Fern Cliffe, had presented a park to the baseball club of Rhinebeck two days after he learned that the club needed a place to play.

MISS WILDE BANKER'S BRIDE

Wedded at Atlantic City to Avoid Notoriety of City Marriage. Philadelphia, July 7.—Miss Mary McKim Wilde, daughter of Mrs. George McKim Wilde, of No. 50 East 87th street, New York, and a granddaughter of Robert V. McKim, of New York, was married to-day to the following day her fiancé, Mr. Walter H. Wilde, of Baltimore, Md., at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, in Atlantic City, by the rector, the Rev. C. M. Niles. The bride and bridegroom were attended only by Samuel E. Swazey, of Washington, a lifelong friend of the bridegroom.

"MORY'S" CLOSES ITS DOORS

Yale Chopchop Makes Room for Business Block. New Haven, July 7.—"Mory's" the chopchop and student meeting place famous in Yale song and story, formally closed its doors Saturday night, and the little old frame building at Temple and Centre streets shortly will be torn down to make room for a business block.

PARK LAWNS WITHERING

Not Enough Laborers to Use the Hose. Central Park and most of the parks throughout the city presented large withered areas yesterday. The absence of rain for nearly a month has worked havoc with lawns and foliage that had become more luxuriant during the early part of the summer than for many years.

LURED FROM HER ART

"Bride of Gold" Recently Had a Studio in New York. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Chicago, July 7.—The "bride of gold," Mrs. Beryl Boughton Aitken, who caused a sensation at the Congress Hotel by her wealth of dress and jewelry, was the centre of an admiring throng yesterday when she went to-day, following the disclosure of her romance three months ago she was a hard working artist, with a little studio in a skyscraper in New York, and now she is the wife of Thomas P. Aitken, much mystery attached to the identification of the jewel thief when she first appeared in Peacock Alley in Chicago, spending money with a lavish hand. She wore a different gown and a new array of gems every time she appeared.

COLONEL J. E. BYRAM DEAD

Failed of Election. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Philadelphia, July 7.—Colonel James Emory Byram, Philadelphia's most interesting figure in the municipal legislature, died to-day in a hospital at the age of seventy-three years. Byram was a veteran of the Civil War, and never failed to use his patriotism as a political issue, and despite all the efforts of the leaders of the Republican party at their command, he withstood their united attempts to accomplish his defeat. Time and again he ran for Council. When they would prevent his obtaining the Republican or Democratic nomination he would run independently and never failed to win at the polls.

U. S. CRUISER STRIKES REEF

Manila, July 7.—The United States protected cruiser Cincinnati struck a reef to-day in Subig Bay. The cruiser was towed off and docked. Fog was responsible for the accident.
