

Wheat, Corn, Oats and Coffee All Show Gains.

War news from the Balkans started buying by shorts and through commission houses, which wiped out an early decline in wheat caused by a drop in Europe on heavy offerings from Argentina. Domestic conditions were somewhat less bullish on weather conditions over the west and a slackening up of the flour trade. The close showed a firmer feeling, with prices near the top at a net gain of 1/2c for the day. An advance in the Buenos Ayres market affected corn prices here, and with shorts covering freely and commission houses and elevators in Chicago good buyers prices gained 1/2c and closed at the top. Moderate buying and some covering also helped the oats market, and there was a net gain for the day of 1/4c.
