

Lady Dorothy Nevill

HER TRUE PLACE IN THE SOCIETY OF HER TIME—THE DECISIVE TRAITS OF HER CHARACTER.

London, May 10. It is seldom that within the space of seven successive days one has to lament the deaths of four persons, all of high distinction, all known and honored all over the world. The four were Lady Dorothy Nevill, who died on Easter Monday, at eighty-eight; Lord Wolsey, who followed her the next day; the Earl of Pembroke, who in one instant passed from life to death, on Sunday, March 30, and Mr. Pierpont Morgan, who died on the 31st, both these last two in Rome. Mr. Morgan I wrote last week, and then of Lord Pembroke.

MRS. JOHN A. MAHER AND HER FATHER, SENATOR O'GORMAN.

PHOTO BY ALICE DUBOIS

"WILSON GREEN" THE NEW TINT

Matches First Evening Gown Worn in Washington by President's Wife—"Nell Pink" Another Administration Hue.

Washington, May 24.—The White House family always exerts a powerful influence over the social world of Washington, and in fact, over the social world at large. As Alice blue swayed the dyeing art through two administrations and Helen pink had its innings, so will Wilson green and Nell pink come to stay apparently for at least four years.

BOWERY CARMEN SHINES

Miss Gentle Makes Fine Showing in Bizet's Masterpiece.

The advent of a new Carmen is ever an event of interest in the operatic world. Their exceeding rarity has kept Bizet's masterpiece off the stage of the Metropolitan for the last four years. Mr. Gatti-Casazza explaining that it has been impossible to find a singer equal to the part made glorious by Emma Calvé.

MISS O'GORMAN A BRIDE

Senator's Daughter Wedded to John Anthony Maher.

ONLY RELATIVES ATTEND

Sister Her Sole Attendant at Pretty Ceremony in the Chapel of Loyola School.

Miss Doloretta O'Gorman, daughter of Senator and Mrs. James A. O'Gorman, was married to John Anthony Maher, son of Edward A. Maher, ex-Mayor of Albany, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the chapel of Loyola School, Park avenue and 83rd street. Monsignor Charles S. McCready performed the ceremony in the presence of only the members of the two families.

HARVARD CLUBS ELECT

Dr. P. J. Eaton, of Pittsburgh, the New President.

CIRCUS ON RIVER BOAT

Voyage on Exclusive Ship to San Francisco Planned for 1915.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)

St. Louis, May 24.—Dr. P. J. Eaton, of Pittsburgh, of the class of '83, was unanimously elected president of the Associated Harvard Clubs at a business session on board a Mississippi River steamer this afternoon.

Chicago was selected as the next meeting place, and it was decided to meet early in June next year, the exact time to be decided by the officers.

San Francisco was unanimously determined on as the meeting place in 1915, when a ship, exclusively for Harvard men, will go from New York through the Panama Canal, and thence to San Francisco.

The collegians marched from their hotel this morning to the levee, where they encountered bands of Yale and Princeton rosters assembled to greet their ancient rivals. They went up the Mississippi River about thirty miles.

Entertainment on board was afforded by an impromptu circus, business show and musical comedy, all combined, under the direction of Kay Wood, of Chicago, as "ring master," and many well known men danced and sang.

The other officers elected were: Vice-presidents, S. E. Winslow, of Worcester, Mass.; H. J. Clark, of Philadelphia; T. R. Paxton, of Princeton, Ind.; Dr. C. E. Edson, of Denver; R. B. Montgomery, of New Orleans; A. T. Perkins, of St. Louis; Dr. Thomas Huntington, of San Francisco, and Herman Cade, of Christians, Norway; C. Bard, of Minneapolis, secretary, and Parmelee W. Herrick, treasurer.

T. KITTAFF OFF FOR ITALY

Six Months Ago Starving and Unknown, Now Amato's Pupil.

Theodore Kittaff sailed yesterday on the Princess Irene for Milan, where he will continue the development of his voice under the direction of Pasquale Amato, the great baritone, who has been teaching him for the last three months.

Kittaff is twenty-three years old and is the protégé of Mrs. Edward N. Brittain. He will study in Italy until the fall.

The tenor came from Russia six months ago destitute. He sailed yesterday with an abundance of clothing and the assurance he would want for nothing for many months.

MORGAN GIFTS REVEALED

"American Museum Journal" Reports Benefactions of 44 Years.

The latest issue of "The American Museum Journal" is in the nature of a memorial to J. Pierpont Morgan. The contributors include Joseph H. Choate, Henry Fairfield Osborn, Dr. George Frederick Cooper and L. P. Grattacap.

President Osborn details for the first time the principal gifts of Mr. Morgan in the forty-four years since the institution was founded. They are:

Collection of gems and precious stones, Bement collection of minerals, Bennett collection of insects, John Collins Warren collection, including the Warren nation, Charles R. Knight's restoration of fossil vertebrates, Lender's collection of Indian costumes, contribution to the third African expedition, Garces archaeological collection from Lake Titicaca, contributions to the endowment, contributions to the capital and maintenance fund, mummy of the Chilian miner and great boulder of jade from New Zealand.

Judge Charles Smets, of the Belgian Congo, has been made a patron of the museum, and J. Maffett, Vice-Governor General of the Belgian Congo, has been made a life member.

JOSEPHUS SHANN.

Rahway, N. J., May 24.—Josephus Shann, dean of the New Jersey newspaper men, died last night in the home of his sister, Mrs. Appollis Potter, in Commerce street, this city. He was in his ninety-fourth year.

Mr. Shann was the last surviving member of the New Jersey Editorial Association, formed at the close of the Civil War Seventy years ago he founded "The Half War Republican." When the Whig party became prominent it was called "The Railway Whig." Twenty years ago he retired.

Mr. Shann served two terms in the Legislature and was enrolling clerk of the House. At one time he was mentioned as a Democratic candidate for Governor.

His wife and nine children survive him. His funeral probably will be held on Monday afternoon.

"BILLY" ARLINGTON.

Los Angeles, May 24.—"Billy" Arlington, the minstrel, died today in a hospital here from heart disease, aged seventy-eight. Arlington was with Christy's Minstrels in New York in 1858. For several years he had made his home in this city. Recently he entered the lecture field, and was returning from a tour when he was stricken, several days ago.

OBITUARY NOTES.

AMOS H. STRUBLE died Friday at the home of his uncle, former Freeholder Albert P. Klump, in Rahway. He was sixty-six years old and a son of the late Fineon Struble.

MRS. MARGUERITE V. HAGEN died Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Conrad Watter, No. 521 Union street, Hackensack, N. J. She was a granddaughter of the late Rev. Solomon Froelich, patriot in the Revolution. She leaves a son, Charles D. Hagen, of New York, and three daughters.

MRS. CAROLINE LOOMIS, eighty years old, widow of Frank Loomis and former resident of New York for many years, is dead at her home in North Plainfield. She was a communicant of St. James Episcopal Church, in New York. She leaves a son, daughter and granddaughter.

NEW TITANIC DISASTER SUIT

Woman Who Contested J. M. Smart Will Begin Action for Insurance.

Mrs. Constance H. Baldwin has brought suit against the United States Casualty Company to recover $3,000 on an accident policy on the life of J. Montgomery Smart, who went down on the Titanic.

Mr. Smart was president of the American Cold Storage and Shipping Company. Mrs. Baldwin, who was a partner in the concern, and Frederick Hewitt, of Montclair, and Joseph Turner, of New York City.

THE WILL OF MR. SMART.

The will of Mr. Smart filed in the Surrogate's Court mentioned his two children, but all efforts to reveal their whereabouts have failed. He left his estate to two friends, and Mrs. Baldwin contested the will of the great-grandson, who was a creditor of Mr. Smart. She had herself appointed administratrix of the estate.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

William Hammerstein was served yesterday with an order to show cause why he should not be restrained from reproducing in living form the Chabaz painting, "A September Morning," which was announced for the opening of the Hammerstein Theatre, June 2. The writ was obtained by the art dealers who own the copyright.

Fritz Scheff will hold a full dress rehearsal of "Mile. Modiste" at the Globe Theatre this afternoon, under the direction of Fred G. Latham. The operetta is to open tomorrow evening.

Jack Gleason will present Frank McFlynn in a series of character impersonations at the New Brighton Theatre, Brighton Beach, this afternoon.

Frederick Stanhope, manager of the Century Theatre, has called for England, and later will join George C. Tyler in an automobile tour through Russia.

OFFICES.

MAIN OFFICE—No. 154 Broadway. CITY OFFICE—No. 154 Broadway. AMERICAN DISTRICT TELEGRAPH OFFICE—No. 154 Broadway. INTERNATIONAL TELEGRAPH OFFICE—No. 267 West 125th street. No. 219 West 125th street.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST GROWS

City Club Pleased by Support Given to Popular Opera.

The committee on popular opera of the City Club announced yesterday that subscriptions from music lovers were pouring in. Subscriptions were received in the last few days for the following amounts:

- $1,000. Ernest T. Carter, Mrs. Robert Schwarzenbach, Sam A. Lewinson, Isaac N. Seligman, William Ross Proctor.

- $500. E. H. Outerbridge, Florence D. Schmidt, Dr. S. Adelphi Knopf, John Frothingham.

- $200. Lucy A. Kutz, R. B. Witz, Mrs. E. P. Blaug, Mrs. Henry C. Flanagan.

- $100. L. von Kevrick, William G. Ver Planck, Ben. Green, Joseph G. Garwood, Henry M. Ward, Charles W. Mix, J. Clarence Davis, Emily C. Miner, Dr. Robert T. Morris, Anne H. Welzger, Benjamin Tusk, T. W. Voorhees, Henry A. Rupp, Joseph Dowd, Robert H. Ingersoll, Dr. F. G. Goodridge, S. Mallet-Prevost.

- Gerard Sandler, Bernard M. Sull, Charles Farnon, Joseph G. Garwood, Frederick Grace, Edward A. Grossmann, John H. Linger, Ferdinand Hanst, G. B. Lender, A. L. Wolf, S. E. Wolf, Arsenius Ward, Dr. Rowell Park, Frank N. Williams, Mrs. H. H. Larkins, Miss Julia Ott, George Felix Kilmann, Mrs. Emily M. Copt.

Many subscriptions have been received from Brooklyn, the Oranges, Westchester County and Connecticut. The preferences of veteran new stand in the following order: "Aida," first; "Tristan," second; "Madama Butterfly," third; "La Walkire," fourth; "Faust," fifth; "La Tosca," sixth; "Lohengrin" and "Tannhauser," seventh.

Those sending in return postal cards show great discrimination in making their selections. Many remark they like to have the opera sung in English and the language in which it is written.

GARDEN RENEWS CONTRACT

Will Sing with Chicago Company and May Be Heard Here in New Opera.

A cable message from Paris yesterday from Director Campanini to Manager Bernhard Ulrich of the Chicago Grand Opera Company states that Mary Garden has again affixed her signature to a Chicago contract for the season of 1913-14.

She will probably be heard in a new work at one of her New York appearances next winter at the Metropolitan Opera House.

MORE OPERA FOR NEW YORK

New Canadian Company Places City on Its Itinerary.

A new grand opera organization to be known as the National Grand Opera Company of Canada has been formed to take the place of the Montreal Grand Opera Company, whose fortunes during the last two years have been far from favorable.

Max Rabinoff, the New York concert and operatic manager, has been appointed general manager of the organization, which is backed financially by a number of rich Canadians.

The Canadian company will give an

EAKIN—ELLIOTT.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)

Elizabeth, N. J., May 24.—Miss Margaret B. Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Elliott, of No. 143 West Field avenue, and Constant Mathew Eakin, son of Mrs. William Eakin, of Trinity place, were married this afternoon at St. John's Episcopal Church by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Otis A. Glazebrook. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridesmaids were Miss Matilda B. Edwards, Miss Muriel R. Mercereau, Miss Beatrice L. Wilson and Miss Louise M. Haines. Miss Elliott was attended by Miss Susan Battell, of Rye, N. Y., as maid of honor. The flower girls were Miss Leslie Fisher, of South Orange, and Miss May Battell, of Rye, N. Y.

Attendants of the Undergrove included his brother, William Eakin, as best man, and Shiras Campbell, Ira B. Wheeler, George C. Edwards, Otis A. Glazebrook, Chetwood Elliott and Edward P. Fisher, of South Orange, as ushers.

MACBETH—CRAIG.

Orange, N. J., May 24.—Miss Phoebe Katharine Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowry E. B. Craig, of South Orange, was married to Robert Walker Macbeth, of Brooklyn, in the Hillside

Presbyterian Church this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. Boyd Edwards, pastor of the church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The matron of honor was Mrs. Arthur M. Anderson, of Orange, and the bridesmaids were Miss Katharine Thomas, Miss Marguerite Stallknecht, Miss Natalie March, Miss Valida Johnson and Mrs. Charles O'Connor Sloane, of the Oranges, and Miss Theodora Van Wakenen, of Alstead Centre, N. H. The best man was Frank Fackenthal, of Brooklyn, and the ushers were Charles O'Connor Sloane, of South Orange; Robert McIntyre, John Tausch Orange; Robert Chester Van Tassel, of Brooklyn; James Gable, of Trenton, and Gustave Wurth, of Montclair.

William Murtree, one of the foremost chemists in the country, died at his home, No. 264 Riverside Drive, yesterday after a prolonged illness from paralysis.

He was born in Belvidere, N. J., March 10, 1851, and was graduated from Lafayette College in 1871. He received the degrees of E. M., M. S. and Ph. D., and was appointed assistant chemist with the Department of Agriculture in Washington. He remained for two years, and in 1873 became chief chemist. In 1882 he left the department and was succeeded by Harvey W. Wiley.

He represented the United States at the Paris Exposition in 1878, and while there was decorated by the French government with the order of Chevalier du Mérite Agricole. He returned to this country to be appointed a special agent in agricultural technology in the Department of Agriculture, and while in that capacity utilized the results of his studies abroad in helping found the beet sugar industry here.

He was professor of chemistry at the University of Illinois from 1882 to 1888. He was chemist of the Illinois agricultural experimental stations and later chemist to the Illinois State Board of Agriculture. In 1900 he came to New York and became consulting engineer of the New York Traction Company, and later accepted a second vice-presidency in the Royal Baking Powder Company.

Dr. Murtree was a delegate of the Department of Agriculture to the Fifth International Congress of Applied Chemistry in Berlin in 1902. In 1905 he became professor of technical chemistry at the Richmond Polytechnic Institute. He was former president of the Chemical Club and of the American Chemical Society, and was also a member of the American Association for the Advancement of the Sciences and the Washington Academy of Sciences.

He leaves a wife and one son.

LEONARD BABBIDGE MARSHALL.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)

Boston, May 24.—Leonard Babbidge Marshall, prominent in musical and educational circles of Boston, is dead from pneumonia at the home of his sister, Mrs. P. Pierce, Mr. Marshall was born in Boston in 1837, and studied music here with Stephen A. Emery, Lyman A. Wheeler and John W. Tufts. He later went abroad and studied in Milan, Paris and London. Returning to Boston, Mr. Marshall took up his musical career as a teacher and writer, and with Henry Holt, he was author of a normal music course. He leaves a wife and one son.

JOSEPHUS SHANN.

Rahway, N. J., May 24.—Josephus Shann, dean of the New Jersey newspaper men, died last night in the home of his sister, Mrs. Appollis Potter, in Commerce street, this city. He was in his ninety-fourth year.

Mr. Shann was the last surviving member of the New Jersey Editorial Association, formed at the close of the Civil War Seventy years ago he founded "The Half War Republican." When the Whig party became prominent it was called "The Railway Whig." Twenty years ago he retired.