

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Enthusiastic over Racing

Activities in the Social Sets of Brooklyn and of the National Capital.

Notes of Society's Doings at Fashionable Resorts Here and There.

PHOTOS BY STEPHEN

Left to Right - Mrs. Everett, Misses Mrs. Arthur C. Blagden, Capt. Juan W. Lockhart of English Polo Team, Mrs. Henry Steele.

Left to Right - Mrs. W. Gordon Leary, Mrs. James B. Ruston, Miss Anna Sands.

and Mrs. Forbes will make their home in Boston.

Miss May Pauline Suro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Suro, of West End avenue, will become the bride of Hans S. Rothschild on Thursday at Edgecote, the summer home of her parents, at Port Chester, N. Y. Miss Edith Suro will be her sister's maid of honor, and the other attendants will be Miss Gretel Rothschild, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Edith Lucille Mayer, who will be the flower girl. Dr. Henry Sundheimer will serve as best man.

Among those who returned from Europe last week were Mrs. C. Ledyard Blair, Miss Marjorie Blair, Mrs. Eliza Dyer, Adrian Iselin, Miss Louisa Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. G. Parmelee Prentice and Count Johann von Bernstorff.

Mrs. Thomas M. Barber and Miss Justine Barber, who will return from Europe in July, will go to Claverack, their country place on Long Island, for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Philip M. Lydig has so far recovered as to be able to go to Atlantic City, where she is resting before going to Europe.

Among those who left last week for Europe were the Duchess de Chaulnes, Miss Marguerite Shonts, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gould Jennings, Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhineclander, Miss Anne Morgan, who will spend the summer with Miss Marbury near Paris; Mrs. Louis T. Hoyt and her brother, Shipley Jones; Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic R. Coudert, Mrs. Beverley C. Duer, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers, Mrs. Fellowes Davis, Jr., George W. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCullough, who will spend the summer in Switzerland; Mrs. Schuyler E. Eddy, Captain D. S. Vassiloff, attaché of the Russian Embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Leavcraft; Mrs. James L. Breeze, Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Gates and Bertram Winthrop.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Clews have returned from a visit to Mrs. J. Francis Sullivan, in Radnor, Penn. They will soon go to their country home, at Elberon, N. J.

John E. Roosevelt and his daughters, the Misses Glady and Jean Roosevelt, will soon return from Europe, where they spent the winter, and on their arrival will go to Meadow Croft, their country place, at Sayville, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. W. DeLancey Kountze are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, at Delbarton, their country home in Morristown, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Blagden will spend the summer in Tuxedo, where they have taken the cottage of Mrs. Arthur Mason Jones.

Mrs. Harry S. Lehr is expected to arrive from Paris next Tuesday, and will be at the St. Regis for a few days.

Howard Taylor and his daughter, Miss Eleanor Taylor, will spend the month of June at St. Clements, Portland, Conn. Early in July they will go to Europe.

Formal announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schweitzer, of No. 1823 Anthony avenue, The Bronx, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eugenie A. Schweitzer, to Thomas J. Buttikofer, also of The Bronx.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cyrus Straat, of No. 24 West 104th street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Winifred Straat, to Harold Watson Haldeman, son of the Rev. and Mrs. I. M. Haldeman, of No. 389 West End ave. Mr. Haldeman has just received his degree of electrical engineer from Columbia University.

Miss Caroline Shatzberg, of No. 541 West 185th street, will give a reception to-day at Sherry's for her daughter, Miss Dora Schatzberg, whose engagement to Louis Whitelaw was recently announced.

Miss Alice de Crevecoeur Pryer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pryer, of Larchmont, will be married to Adrian Duncan Waring, of this city, on Wednesday. On account of mourning only relatives will be present at the ceremony, which will take place at the Cedars, the home of the bride's parents, at Larchmont. Mrs. Harold Charidavoyne Pryer will be the bride's only attendant. John Longley, of Dobbs's Ferry, will act as best man.

The marriage of Miss Martha Street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement P. Street, of No. 45 Riverside Drive, to Henry de B. Hooper, took place in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur H. Judge, of St. Matthew's Church. Miss Louise Hooper was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Beatrice Colton and Miss Margaret Berry. Louis Graves acted as best man, and the ushers were Alfred W. Haywood, Jr., and John Manning Battle.

The bride is a granddaughter of the Rev. David Street, Mr. Hooper is a member of an old North Carolina family and is a descendant of William Hooper, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The marriage of Miss Edith H. Grifenhagen to Julius C. Zeitz, of Brooklyn, took place at No. 729 Riverside Drive, the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Max S. Grifenhagen, on Wednesday. The Rev. Dr. Maurice H. Harris officiating.

On account of the illness of a member of the family the intended reception will be delayed until the return of the young couple from their honeymoon trip.

On Wednesday Miss Tessie Reisman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Reisman, was married to Julius Goldberg, of this city, at Delmonico's. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Rudolph H. Grossman. The guests were restricted to the immediate members of both families. Miss Hannah Reisman, sister of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Goldberg, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaids. Samuel Goldberg was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Samuel Kaufmann, Moses Zimmer and William Hirschhorn. The flower girl was the six-year-old Beatrice Zimmer, cousin of the bride.

Miss Estelle Stein, cousin of the bridegroom, sang Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," accompanied by an orchestra of stringed instruments.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with old lace. She carried a white silk bound prayer book, decorated with a streamer of orange blossoms.

The centre aisle was flanked with streamers of silk, caught up at intervals with large bouquets of peonies, orange blossoms and daisies. The ceremony was followed by a dinner, at which numerous favors were distributed.

The couple will spend their honeymoon in Canada and will return to Far Rockaway, where they will spend the summer.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Elmira College Club of New York City was held at the home of the president, Mrs. George M. Robinson, Graham Court and 16th street, yesterday. It was followed by a buffet luncheon. Mrs. Robinson was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Treagana.

Among those present were the first vice-president, Mrs. Albert R. Bogert, Oradell, N. J.; the second vice-president, Mrs. J. Ellis Stannard, Brooklyn; Mrs. Leon T. LeWald, New York, treasurer; Miss Edna Mulford, Princeton, N. J., corresponding secretary, and Mrs. William J. Norman, Brooklyn, recording secretary. Other guests and members of the committee present were Mrs. Youmans, daughter of Elmira's first president; Dr. Augusta Cowles, Mrs. John Evans Fox, Mrs. John Franklin Brown, Mrs. Henry S. Redfield, Mrs. Frederick Hamlin Mills, Mrs. William Rathbun, Mrs. Byron A. Kilbourne, Mrs. Charles D. Strady, Mrs. Samuel S. Campbell, Mrs. Francis Bellamy, Mrs. Madison C. Peters, Mrs. Francis W. Gridley, Mrs. Herman Dowd, Mrs. Samuel Keiper, Mrs. Emma Paddock Telford and the Misses Angela Davis, Julia Reeder, Anna L. Hardy, Marion C. May, Florence M. Sweet and Maria Cantrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus A. Rogers are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Thursday at their home, No. 800 Riverside Drive.

Mrs. James H. Dinwiddie, of No. 118 West 52d street, has returned to the city from Chicago, where she spent a week.

Dr. and Mrs. John Kurrus, of No. 230 West 107th street, have gone to Elberon, N. J., for the summer.

Miss Florence Guernsey gave a dinner on Friday night at her home, No. 2 West 86th street, for Mrs. Belle de Rivera. The other guests included Mrs. Thomas J. Vitan and Miss Mary Garret Hay.

Mrs. North McLean, of No. 38 Central avenue, New Brighton, Staten Island, gave a luncheon on Wednesday at her home. Among her guests were Mrs. John Francis Yawger, Miss Mary Garret Hay and Miss Florence Guernsey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jubring have closed their town house and have gone to their country place, at Ardsley, for the summer.

Justice and Mrs. Josiah T. Marean, of Green's Farms, Conn., have issued invitations for a motor meet at their country place, Daybreak, for June 14 from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Johnson, of Springfield, Ohio, are at the Hotel Belleclaire for a short stay.

Mrs. William Halsted Purdy, Miss Purdy and Cella B. Doelger, who were at the 1212-Carillon, in London, for several weeks, left there on Tuesday for Paris.

Mrs. S. Schecter and Miss Amy Schecter, of Concord Hall, Riverside Drive and 119th street, will sail on the Ryndam on June 24. They will remain in Europe four months.

BROOKLYN SOCIAL WEEK

Bishop of Kansas City to Officiate at Catlin Wedding.

Almost as many weddings are scheduled for this week as marked the one just past. Tuesday will bring the marriage of Miss Marjorie Lane Lauderdale, daughter of Major and Mrs. John Vance Lauderdale, of Bay Ridge, and Lieutenant Dean Hall, U. S. A., but it is to be a quiet home ceremony.

An important wedding on Wednesday will be that of Miss Bertha Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Chapman, and the Rev. Reginald Woodward Catlin. A cousin of the bridegroom, the Rev. Sydney A. Partridge, Bishop of Kansas City, will perform the ceremony in St. James's Church at 8 o'clock, and a small reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, No. 25 Lafayette avenue.

A sister of the bride, Miss Martha Chapman, is to be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Nellie Catlin, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Marguerite Welles, Miss Grace Broadhurst and Miss Helen Nostrand. The best man will be Harold H. Smith, of South Orange, and the ushers Cedric Woodward, a cousin of the bridegroom, who last April married Miss Ruth Ludlam; Thomas Andrews, James Robinson, Thomas Pratt, Gordon Schenck, of Brooklyn, and Starr Gardner Cooper, of Greenwich, Conn. Mr. Catlin is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Catlin, of No. 207 Greene avenue.

The home of Mrs. George Post Britton, No. 202 New York avenue, was decorated with peonies, roses and greenery last evening for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Isabelle Mathews Britton, and George Alston Jenkins, son of Mrs. Emma C. Jenkins, of Stamford, Conn. The Rev. Dr. Frank Maxwell Townley performed the ceremony, at 8 o'clock, and only relatives and intimate friends were present. It was followed by a small reception. The bride wore a gown of white moire and a tulle veil, falling from a cap of duchess lace. Her bouquet was lilies-of-the-valley and cornflowers.

Her attendants were her sister, Miss Priscilla Britton, maid of honor; Mrs. Alexander Jessup Smith (Helen Faulkner), matron of honor; Miss Natalie Britton, Miss Clotilda Sterling, Miss Louise Schreiber and Miss Gladys Bacon. They were gowned in pale pink moire, draped with shadow lace.

James S. Jenkins was the best man, and the ushers were Royal Lockwood, Roland Mapleson, of Stamford, Conn.; Raymond Craig, of Cleveland, and Edward Gibb, of Rye, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins are to make their home at Stamford, Conn.

Of particular interest to the older residents of Brooklyn was the wedding on Monday morning of Miss Heloise de Gay Braine, only daughter of the late Rear Admiral Daniel Lawrence Braine, U. S. N., and Horace Holley Dall, son of Mrs. Austin Dall, of No. 40 Garden Place. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Clinton street, by the Rev. Hannington Wilson, and was followed by a breakfast at Delmonico's. Lawrence Braine gave his sister in marriage. She wore a gown of white crepe moire and a large picture hat, and carried a prayer book. There were no bridesmaids. Charles Austin Dall was best man for his brother, and the ushers were William Garrett Bibb, Bancroft G. Braine, Daniel L. Braine, Elgin Braine and Clinton E. Braine, midshipman, U. S. A.

Mr. Dall, who is a brother of Mrs. Spencer Aldrich, of Manhattan, and Mrs. Francis Donaldson Wynn, is a life member of the New England Society, the Society of Colonial Wars and the 7th Regiment Veteran Association, the Montauk and the Crescent clubs, of Brooklyn, and the Sons of the Revolution.

Mr. and Mrs. Dall will sail on the Saxonia on June 12. They will remain abroad indefinitely.

Announcements were received Thursday of the wedding of Miss Marion Macdonald Brown and Allyn Larrabee Brown.

They were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macdonald Brown, No. 121 Lincoln Place, in the presence of the members of the two families.

The bride wore a gown of cream brocade, the bodice and overskirt being of duchess and point lace. She carried lilies-of-the-valley and Bride roses. Mrs. Douglas Kilmear Brown, a member of her class-Vassar, '10, was her matron of honor and only attendant. Her gown was of pale pink brocade with a drooping of white chiffon, and she carried yellow roses. Daniel Brown was his brother's best man. The bride was graduated from the Emma Willard School, in Troy, in 1906, and at Vassar was the college song leader. She was an active member of the dramatic society and was on the hockey team. Mr. Brown was graduated from Brown University and subsequently from the Harvard Law School. He is a member of India Phi.

He and Mrs. Brown will be at home from August until November at No. 15 Warren street, Norwich, and after that they will live at No. 262 Broadway, Norwich, Conn.

The wedding of Miss Agnes Marguerite Hinde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Hinde, of No. 132 Pacific street, and Lieutenant Edward Peter Lamb, U. S. A., is scheduled to take place Monday evening, June 16. The invitations have been limited to relatives and intimate friends, but there will be a large attendance at the reception following.

Miss Loretta Lamb, a sister of the bridegroom, is to be the bride's only attendant, and Lieutenant Hiram Ratskaff, U. S. A., a classmate of the bridegroom, will be best man. Lieutenant Lamb is in this year's class at West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Harder, who sailed early last month, are motoring on the Continent with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Whelan (Horstene Marguerite Harder), who have lived abroad since their wedding over a year ago.

Miss Irma Wigman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wigman, will be married to Gustav O. Zeller, Jr., on Monday evening, June 23, at the home of her parents, No. 1506 Caton avenue. Mrs. George A. Wigman (Victoria Dessart) is to be the matron of honor, and Miss Elsie Zeller and Miss Marjorie Ferguson the bridesmaids. Richard Zeller is to be his brother's best man. Mr. Zeller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav O. Zeller, of No. 595 West End avenue, Manhattan. He is a graduate from Cornell.

The wedding of Miss Ellen Sampson Olena and Dr. Albert Henry Stevensen, set for Wednesday evening, will take place at the Chateau du Parc. The Rev.

Dr. N. McGee Waters will perform the ceremony, with only relatives and intimate friends present, but the attendance at the reception will be larger.

The bride will be attended by a maid of honor, Miss Meriliah West Allaire, and a flower girl, Miss Margaret Agnes Clark. Charles Montague Clarke is to be the best man and Harold Griffith Olena, Alfred Douglas Olena, Francis Wells and Edwin Wells the ushers. Miss Olena is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus Olena.

Christ Church, Clinton street, was the scene Wednesday evening of the wedding of Miss Julia Hamlin Hotchkiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hotchkiss, and John Edgar Thompson, of Manhattan. The Rev. Dr. Walter de Forest Johnson officiated.

The bride was gowned in white crepe moire and duchess lace and wore the lace veil worn by her great-grandmother when a bride. She carried lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Adele Marckwald, as her only attendant, was frocked in pink and white flowered net and carried Killarney roses. The best man was Ralph Thompson and the ushers were Raymond Hotchkiss, Dana Burnett, Rolla Blanchard and Karl Pettit.

Miss Beatrice Eddy, daughter of General John G. Eddy, of No. 276 Clinton place, was married to Loring M. Black, Jr., in the Church of the Nativity on Wednesday morning. Father Louis Sloane, of Sea Cliff, performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass, which was followed by a breakfast for relatives. Miss Eddy wore a gown of crepe charmeuse embroidered with sea pearls and trimmed with duchess lace. Her tulle veil was edged with duchess and she carried white sweetpeas and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Helen Eddy, who was her sister's only attendant, appeared in a soft rose brocade and cream shadow lace, and a pink hat topped by violet plumes. She carried pink sweetpeas.

Mr. Black, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loring M. Black, of No. 276 Montough street, was formerly a State Senator. His best man was his brother, Leonard Black.

A home wedding on Wednesday evening was that of Miss Gladys Bow Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David G. Decker, of No. 50 Lefferts Place, and Calvin F. Gates. The Rev. Charles Carroll Albertson officiated. Old lace from her mother's wedding gown adorned Miss Decker's gown of white satin, which was also embellished by pearl embroidery. Also worn by her mother when a bride was the wreath of orange blossoms which fastened her tulle veil. She carried lilies-of-the-valley. Miss