

ANGLO-SAXON WOMEN DOMINATE ALLIANCE Language, Organization, Discipline and Solidarity Make Them the Leaders.

MUST HAVE AMERICAN HEAD Suffragists Unable to Agree on President from Any Other Country—What Delegates Have Accomplished.

By Ida Husted Harper. Budapest, June 28.—When this is read the Congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance will be only a memory to American readers, and yet when it is written the most important business connected with this epoch-making event is still in progress.

MISS ROSIKA SCHWIMMER.

ter of the alliance. Here is the board until 1917: President, Mrs. Chapman Catt, U. S. A. (re-elected). First vice-president, Mrs. Fawcett, Great Britain (re-elected). Second vice-president, Miss Furrhjem, Finland (re-elected). Third vice-president, Mrs. Lindemann, Germany (re-elected). Fourth vice-president, Mrs. de Schlimmberger, France. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Stanley McCormick, U. S. A. Assistant Corresponding Secretary, Miss Rosika Schwimmer, Hungary. Recording Secretary, Miss Chrystal Millan, Great Britain. Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Marie Stritt, Germany. Treasurer, Mrs. Stanton Coit, Great Britain (re-elected). Assistant Treasurer, Miss Signe Bergmann, Sweden (re-elected).

Source of Finance.

The financial support of the alliance depends largely upon these two countries. Of the $25,000 subscribed for its work of the next two years, they gave two-thirds, and if the Duchess of Marlborough's contribution of $1,000 be divided between the two, each gave about the same. Five other subscriptions of $1,000 were made—one by Mrs. Chapman Catt, one by Mrs. Belmont, two by English women, one by Mrs. Stanton Coit, a German woman married to an American man and residing permanently in London. The remaining one-third was divided among the other countries.

Hurt by "Militant" Tactics.

One unmistakable fact of the United States has been obliged to admit—the great damage to the cause of women's suffrage throughout all countries by the "militant" tactics in Great Britain. We have felt it to be negligible in our own country because our movement is so well established, but wherever it is new and weak it seems that it can make small headway against the force of militancy.

Official Board Increased.

The official board was increased from seven to eleven members. No nominations are ever made, but a secret ballot is cast by the delegates, and the ten besides the president receiving the highest number of votes are declared elected. The board members then arrange among themselves the particular offices they shall hold. The election did not require over an hour, there was apparently no ill feeling and the results show the international character of the alliance.

BECAUSE "MILLER" Electric, Gas and Oil FIXTURES AND LAMPS Are Well Made from Beautiful Designs BUY THEM. COME AND SEE THEM.

BONDED CHINESE PANICKY AS WIND MAKES LINERS CRASH

128 Want to Jump Overboard, but Sailors Keep Order—Each Escape Would Cost $500.

A squall that blew yesterday as the Anchor liner Columbia was docking caused a panic among 128 Chinese, who had assembled aft on the vessel's main deck. When the wind and a sudden flood tide lashed the Columbia against the Anchor liner Sarnia, smashing the latter's stern, the Celestials became hysterical and many of them prepared to jump overboard.

Several months ago, when word was received in England that the United Fruit Line needed Chinese stokers and trimmers for its service out of New Orleans to Colon and other Caribbean ports, a general round up was made of all the deep water freighters, and 128 Mongolians were found who were anxious to get the jobs in wife, who entertained a house full of congress guests during the week.

ONLY FIVE IN PARK COURT

Mayor's Idea, Caused by Boys' Complaints, Tried in Brooklyn. Chief Magistrate Otto Kemper didn't have much of a chance yesterday to show the value of the Mayor's innovation of holding a boy ball throwers' court in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. The first session was held in the office of the park police station. Only five cases came up before the magistrate, who, with court clerk and assistants, went prepared for a big day.

ESCAPES JAIL BY HAIR

It Was Black, Instead of Brown, and Prisoner Went Free. Frank Winter, charged with conducting a poker parlor in No. 121 West 21st street, was discharged in the Jefferson Market court yesterday morning when it was established that his hair was black instead of brown, as Detective Michael Erb, of the Central Office, had made affidavit.

TWICE SHE TRIES TO DIE

Revived, Starts Again for Pier, and Fights Police Captors. The reception hospital on the East 70th street pier was upset yesterday morning by a demented woman, who tried twice to drown herself by jumping overboard. Patrolmen Griffen and Spachet, of the East 67th street station, saw the woman peering over the edge of the pier. She was muttering to herself when they approached her. When Griffen started to take the woman by the arm she jumped into the water. She was nearly drowned when the policemen, with the assistance of two of the hospital internes, pulled her out.

TO MAKE JEWS RUMANIANS

Dr. Goldfogle Says It's Christian Duty to Compel Treaty Observance. A campaign to raise a fund to aid the Jews in Rumania in obtaining the right to citizenship in that country, as granted by the terms of the Berlin treaty, was started yesterday, following an address by Representative Henry M. Goldfogle before the Federation of Rumanian Jews of America assembled in the Floral Garden, No. 74 East 4th street, for the sixth annual convention. Several hundred delegates cheered wildly when the speaker declared it was the duty of the Christian nations to force Rumania to live up to the treaty.

BULLDOG BITES POLICEMAN

Then Captain Savage Beats Off Animal and Saves Bluecoat. Police Lieutenant Samuel Hammond, attached to the East 104th street station, was bitten on the right hip yesterday morning by a bulldog owned by James Smith, a baker, of No. 1974 Third avenue. Captain James J. Savage, of the same precinct, who was with Hammond, beat the animal with his nightstick. Hammond and the captain then went to the station house after turning the dog over to Smith, first ordering the owner to tie the animal. Dr. Herring, of the Harlem Hospital, cauterized the wound, which was slight, and Hammond remained on duty. The dog will be examined by the Health Department to-day.

"ANTIS" CALL SUFFRAGE COSTLY IN CALIFORNIA

Point to $3,000,000 Increase in State Expenses Since Women Got Vote.

Washington, July 13.—"Creating the millennium by the ballot, and regardless of the staggering cost, has been California's beautiful dream since woman suffrage carried the state, eighteen months ago. Children are not to be separated from their parents because of the parents' poverty. The state is to subsidize the home. School teachers are to be pensioned. Old people are to receive an annual income. Prisoners are to be paid for their work in the jails. A régime of ease and comfort is to dawn in the Golden State. And then everybody in the community will be happy—except the taxpayers, who must become paupers or criminals before they can draw dividends on their investments in California's Utopian scheme."

Company B Threatened with Disbandment if It Refuses to Elect Him Lieutenant.

Littman May Re-Enlist. Carrying out his statement that no discrimination must be shown in the national guard of the state on account of "race, religion or previous condition," Governor William Sulzer has ordered that Colonel Henry C. Barthman, of the 47th Regiment, be censured for racial discrimination in the election of officers in that regiment.

Verdict Pleases Littman.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Many Freak Bills Introduced.

"Four thousand bills were introduced at the last session of the California Legislature and eleven hundred were passed. It is probable that no state ever had so many freak bills introduced. One bill sought to regulate the size of chicken coops. Another was framed to delete the style of shoes school children should wear. Another sought to regulate the size of sheets used in hotels. Apparently the state went mad over the idea that everything under the sun can be regulated by law. The storm of protest against some of the measures passed by the Legislature finally reached the Governor's ears and he refused to sign some of the bills.

TREE DISRUPTS AUTO PARTY

Falls on Car, Upsets It and Badly Injures Woman Passenger. Hackensack, N. J., July 13.—An automobile party had a narrow escape during the heavy wind and rain storm this afternoon, when a large apple tree was blown down on the Saddle River Road at Arcola, near here, and struck the front of the automobile of Max Reimann, of Hackensack Heights. The tree was two feet in diameter, and the force of the blow knocked the automobile on its side, throwing the five occupants into the road. Mrs. Reimann, who was on the front seat with her husband, was pinned under the automobile and was seriously injured.

DOG GOLDFOGLE SAYS IT'S CHRISTIAN DUTY TO COMPEL TREATY OBSERVANCE.

A campaign to raise a fund to aid the Jews in Rumania in obtaining the right to citizenship in that country, as granted by the terms of the Berlin treaty, was started yesterday, following an address by Representative Henry M. Goldfogle before the Federation of Rumanian Jews of America assembled in the Floral Garden, No. 74 East 4th street, for the sixth annual convention. Several hundred delegates cheered wildly when the speaker declared it was the duty of the Christian nations to force Rumania to live up to the treaty.

BULLDOG BITES POLICEMAN

Then Captain Savage Beats Off Animal and Saves Bluecoat. Police Lieutenant Samuel Hammond, attached to the East 104th street station, was bitten on the right hip yesterday morning by a bulldog owned by James Smith, a baker, of No. 1974 Third avenue. Captain James J. Savage, of the same precinct, who was with Hammond, beat the animal with his nightstick. Hammond and the captain then went to the station house after turning the dog over to Smith, first ordering the owner to tie the animal. Dr. Herring, of the Harlem Hospital, cauterized the wound, which was slight, and Hammond remained on duty. The dog will be examined by the Health Department to-day.

CENSURE FOR BARTHMAN FROM GOVERNOR SULZER

Official Rebuke for Colonel of 47th Found Guilty of Racial Prejudice.

Littman May Re-Enlist. Carrying out his statement that no discrimination must be shown in the national guard of the state on account of "race, religion or previous condition," Governor William Sulzer has ordered that Colonel Henry C. Barthman, of the 47th Regiment, be censured for racial discrimination in the election of officers in that regiment.

Verdict Pleases Littman.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Many Freak Bills Introduced.

"Four thousand bills were introduced at the last session of the California Legislature and eleven hundred were passed. It is probable that no state ever had so many freak bills introduced. One bill sought to regulate the size of chicken coops. Another was framed to delete the style of shoes school children should wear. Another sought to regulate the size of sheets used in hotels. Apparently the state went mad over the idea that everything under the sun can be regulated by law. The storm of protest against some of the measures passed by the Legislature finally reached the Governor's ears and he refused to sign some of the bills.

TREE DISRUPTS AUTO PARTY

Falls on Car, Upsets It and Badly Injures Woman Passenger. Hackensack, N. J., July 13.—An automobile party had a narrow escape during the heavy wind and rain storm this afternoon, when a large apple tree was blown down on the Saddle River Road at Arcola, near here, and struck the front of the automobile of Max Reimann, of Hackensack Heights. The tree was two feet in diameter, and the force of the blow knocked the automobile on its side, throwing the five occupants into the road. Mrs. Reimann, who was on the front seat with her husband, was pinned under the automobile and was seriously injured.

DOG GOLDFOGLE SAYS IT'S CHRISTIAN DUTY TO COMPEL TREATY OBSERVANCE.

A campaign to raise a fund to aid the Jews in Rumania in obtaining the right to citizenship in that country, as granted by the terms of the Berlin treaty, was started yesterday, following an address by Representative Henry M. Goldfogle before the Federation of Rumanian Jews of America assembled in the Floral Garden, No. 74 East 4th street, for the sixth annual convention. Several hundred delegates cheered wildly when the speaker declared it was the duty of the Christian nations to force Rumania to live up to the treaty.

BULLDOG BITES POLICEMAN

Then Captain Savage Beats Off Animal and Saves Bluecoat. Police Lieutenant Samuel Hammond, attached to the East 104th street station, was bitten on the right hip yesterday morning by a bulldog owned by James Smith, a baker, of No. 1974 Third avenue. Captain James J. Savage, of the same precinct, who was with Hammond, beat the animal with his nightstick. Hammond and the captain then went to the station house after turning the dog over to Smith, first ordering the owner to tie the animal. Dr. Herring, of the Harlem Hospital, cauterized the wound, which was slight, and Hammond remained on duty. The dog will be examined by the Health Department to-day.

OLD MISHAP SAVES ROWDY

Father's Plea and Woman's Sympathy Avert Workhouse.

The plea of an aged father and a woman's sympathy saved Harold Hill, of No. 163 East 123rd street, from a sentence of six months in the workhouse when he was arraigned yesterday in the Yorkville court on a charge of insulting a woman.

CROWDS IN BRIDGE TIE-UP

Car Hits Stanchion and Block of 35 Minutes Follows. Hundreds of men, women and children on their way to the beaches and other points were congested at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn Bridge yesterday morning, following an accident on the south roadway of the bridge, when a Myrtle avenue car ran into a stanchion near the Manhattan tower, causing one of the temporary poles to topple over, breaking the trolley wire. All surface cars on the south roadway were stalled, and passengers from Brooklyn were transferred to the elevated lines. Those who were unfortunate enough to be on cars coming from Brooklyn at the time of the accident left the cars and walked to Manhattan on the roadway. The block lasted thirty-five minutes.

"BIG SIX" LIKES SULZER'S CHOICE

At a meeting of Typographical Union No. 6 yesterday afternoon at Murray Hill Lyceum resolutions commending the selection by Governor Sulzer of James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical Union, for State Commissioner of Labor, were adopted unanimously. Marsden G. Scott, president of "Big Six," presided.

THE TITLE OF THIS PICTURE IS "TRUE HAPPINESS COMES THROUGH SAVING MONEY."

It entitles us to speak of the many dollars now to be saved on men's Summer suits. Specially among the hundreds and hundreds of them which slipped from higher prices down to $20 and $25.

ARE YOU A "VESTLESS" MAN?

Do you know the comfort of our featherweight two-piece business suits? Batistes; Scotch, domestic, and Canadian crashes; home-spuns, flannels, and cassimeres. In Summer browns, tans, blues and grays. All sizes up to 54 chest. $16 to $35.

STRAWS, $1.85 NOW.

ROGERS PEST COMPANY,

Three Broadway Stores at Warren St. 13th St. 34th St.

AMUSEMENTS.

Even the Sad Sea Waves Are Roaring Down at LUNA CONY IS LAURETTE TAYLOR "Top of My Head."

ELTINGE WITHIN THE LAW

NEW AMSTERDAM Theatre in World. Eves. 8:15. Mats. Wednesday & Sat. 2:15.

ZIEGFELD FOLLIES

UNION SQ. Marie McFarland & Madame T. Wares & Curran. Eves. 8:30. Mats. Wednesday & Sat. 2:15.

HARLEM OPERA HOUSE "ARIZONA"

5TH AVE. B'way, Joe. Herbert & Julia. Eves. 8:15. Mats. Wednesday & Sat. 2:15.

ASTOR "QUO VADIS?"

By 4:48. Photo

and would not discuss the matter. He said he had not authorized the report of his resignation.

Magistrate House then called the complaining witness, Mrs. Ethel Crooke, of No. 45 East 37th street, and asked her if she would be willing to forgive the man said to have accosted her and made insulting remarks. Mrs. Crooke, who was in court with her husband, replied that she sympathized with the man's family and would leave the matter of penalty to the magistrate.

"I generally send men like you to the workhouse for three or six months," said the magistrate, "but for the sake of your family and because of the accident which befell you I will only fine you $10. If you are ever before me again on a similar charge you will be sent to the workhouse for six months."

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he would re-enlist. He has thirty days in which to decide.

Littman was seen at his home, No. 1150 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, by a reporter for The Tribune last night. He was told of the Governor's order and was highly pleased with the outcome of the case. He said, however, that he would not say now whether he