

Many ENGAGEMENTS & WEDDINGS of Social Note

pell, have returned from their country home, at Far Hills, N. J., and are at No. 7 East 55th street. Mrs. Chappell will come to town later in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver De Lancey Coster will return to New York from Tenafly, N. J., on November 10 for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Tod have returned from a three weeks' stay at Lake-wood, N. J., and are at the Vanderbilt for a few days before going to Sound Beach, Conn.

GENERAL SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Frankie Ennis Connick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Connick, of No. 228 West 72d street, was married on Thursday in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Mamaroneck, to Walter Fitch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitch, of Eureka, Utah. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. Dr. Charles H. Colton, Bishop of Buffalo, assisted by the Rev. Joseph P. Donohue. The bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin, trimmed with duchess and point lace, with a cap of lace and tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Margaret Connick was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She was dressed in yellow chiffon, embroidered in silver and trimmed with fur. She wore a small dark brown hat, trimmed with fur and feathers to match. Her bouquet consisted of yellow and brown chrysanthemums.

Paul Mercy White served as best man, and the ushers were Andrew J. Connick, Jr., and Louis Connick, brothers of the bride; William V. Hudson, William Blair Baggaley, Louis Kenedy and Frank L. Cunningham. The ceremony was followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Camolin, Orienta Point, Mamaroneck. Mr. Fitch and his bride sailed for Europe yesterday to spend their honeymoon abroad.

Miss Helen Seely Moffett, daughter of the late James A. Moffett and Mrs. Moffett, will be married to Harold Oakley Barker, son of Mrs. Oakley Barker, on October 18, at the home of the bride's mother, No. 212 West 72d street. The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks will officiate. The engagement was announced last winter.

One of the fall weddings will be that of Miss Stella Sutphin, daughter of Deputy Public Works Commissioner and Mrs. Henry Sutphin, of Jamaica, Long Island, to Cecil Hurbut Rawson, son of Mrs. Clara A. Rawson, of Charlottesville, Va. The engagement was announced in June, at the same time as that of Miss Sutphin's sister, Miss Caroline M. Sutphin, to William Le Roy Wyckoff.

Announcement was recently made of the engagement of Miss Ada Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cunningham, of No. 53 West 89th street, to George Robinson Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gelston Roe, of Patchogue, Long Island.

Miss Grace Harrison, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Thomas Harrison, will be married on Wednesday, October 15, in St. Thomas's Chantry, to Edward Thomas Parker. Mrs. Jessamine Harrison-Irvine will be the matron of honor, and Miss Flora Parker, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Madeline Brewster, the bridesmaids. John Parker, of Springfield, Ohio, will act as his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Ralph and Philip Parker, younger brothers of the bridegroom; Edward W. de Wilton and Lucius Beardley. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harrison-Irvine, in Carnegie Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home after December 1 at the Dearborn, No. 250 West 55th street.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Dorothy Wheelock Spring, daughter of George W. Spring, to Frank S. Arguinbau.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Rhea Cowan, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Verec Dickinson Cowan, of No. 33 Mountain avenue, Summit, N. J., to Allan Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Sanders Davies, of No. 131 Riverside Drive, will take place on Tuesday evening, in the Central Presbyterian Church, Summit, N. J.

Joseph L. Hollander, of No. 804 West End avenue, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Beatrice Hollander, to George L. Kahn. An at home will be held on Sunday, October 26.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Jones, daughter of Thomas Cecil H. Jones, of No. 683 Palisade avenue, Yonkers, to Captain H. P. Hopkins Master, Queen's Regiment, British army, will take place on Thursday, at Christ Church, Poughkeepsie.

Miss Marion Ketcham, of Stamford, Conn., will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Ethel Marriott Jones, a cousin, of Philadelphia; Miss Helena Gosling, Miss Helen Schuyler Allen, of Bermuda, and Miss Vanessa Gluckman, of New York. Lieutenant J. A. Lang-Browne, who belongs to the same regiment as the bridegroom, will serve as best man.

Mrs. C. M. Wolstenholme, of Philadelphia, was married to William N. Gulick, of Washington, at the Hotel St. Regis last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Moore, of Lee, Mass. Miss Eveleine Hunt was the maid of honor, and little Adelaide Wolstenholme, a daughter of the bride by a former marriage, was the flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Gulick will spend their honeymoon abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wood have returned to their apartment, at the St. Remo, Central Park West, from their summer home, at Hector, on Seneca Lake, N. Y., where they have a large fruit farm.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fleming Handy, who spent the summer at Rye, N. Y., have returned to the city, and have opened their home, No. 12 West 88th street.

Colonel Thomas Wood, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Wood are at the Hotel Astor for a short stay before returning to their home in Washington. They spent the summer motoring through the Adirondacks, New Hampshire and Canada.

Mrs. Emil L. Boas is at the Hotel Gotham for a few days before taking possession of her apartment at the Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Clare have returned to their home, No. 317 West 105th street, from an automobile tour of the New England states.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry Hersey Andrew have closed their place at Roxmor, Woodland, N. Y., and have returned to their town home, No. 507 West End avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Orth, formerly of No. 323 West 78th street, have moved to their new home, in West 87th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Hill have returned to the city and have taken possession of their house, No. 131 West 86th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Duryea, who spent the summer at Manchester-by-the-Sea, have taken possession of their apartment in the Aphorh, Broadway and 78th street, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Briggs will return to their home, No. 248 West 99th street, to-morrow from Stamford, Conn., where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Vance Paroast have closed their country place at Tokeneke Park and are at their city home, No. 316 West 72d street.

Mrs. Frank G. Cochran has closed her cottage at Asbury Park and is at her home, No. 90 Morningside avenue.

Mrs. Henry Lewis Dyer has arrived in town from Atlantic City and is at No. 110 West 87th street.

Mrs. S. O. Howe and her daughters have taken apartments at the Hotel Belvedere, Broadway and 77th street.

Mrs. W. M. MacPherson, of Brunswick, Ga., is the guest of her brother, S. H. Brown, No. 250 West 94th street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kemper, of West 88th street, have returned from their summer home, at Larchmont, N. Y. They will go to White Sulphur Springs early next month.

BROOKLYN'S SOCIAL WEEK

Many Debuts Set for the Coming Season.

While it is a little too early to give any comprehensive list of the season's debutantes, still a few presentation dates have already been announced, and more mothers have signified their intention of introducing their daughters, although the plans for doing so are as yet indefinite. A debutante possessing more than ordinary interest to Brooklyn society will be Miss Eunice A. Beecher, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. William C. Beecher, and a granddaughter of the late Henry Ward Beecher, whose centenary is now being celebrated. Miss Beecher will be introduced at an afternoon reception at the home of her parents, No. 123 Columbia Heights, shortly before Christmas. She is a sister of Mrs. Charles F. Park, Jr. (Gertrude Roxanna Beecher) and Mrs. Paul Sprague May (Bertha Bigelow Beecher).

Miss Althea Gibb, who was to have been a debutante of last winter, but was thrown into mourning by the sudden death of her father, Walter Gibb, will make her debut Saturday afternoon, November 23. As her mother is still in deep mourning, she will be presented by her grandmother, Mrs. Alden S. Swan, at her home, No. 20 Columbia Heights.

Miss Monica Burrell, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunn Burrell, will be conspicuous among the winter debutantes, her presentation being set for Friday, November 28. Miss Burrell, whose father is pastor of the Clason Avenue Presbyterian Church, was graduated from Smith last June. She is a sister of Mrs. George H. Seward, of Smith, '11. The Rev. David James Burrell, of the Marble Collegiate Church, Manhattan, is her uncle.

Miss Della Sprague Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clement Bowen, of No. 26 Joralemon street, is to make her debut Wednesday afternoon, November 28. Miss Bowen is a member of this year's class of Packer, and among other members of that class who are to be introduced this winter are Miss Alene Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Block, of No. 61 South Portland avenue; Miss Beatrice Sherman Kaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Kaley, of No. 11 South Portland avenue, and Miss Dorothy Cragin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Moore Cragin, of Flatbush. The dates have not yet been announced.

Miss Marguerite Mallett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mallett, of No. 13 Monroe Place, is another prospective debutante of the Heights set.

To celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding Mr. and Mrs. Alden S. Swan will give a large reception on Monday at their home, No. 189 Columbia Heights. Mrs. Swan was formerly Miss Mary Althea Farwell.

In compliment to her niece, Miss Elsie Lillian Noonan, who is to marry Commander Cassius Bartlett Barnes, U. S. N. (retired), on Wednesday, October 23, Mrs. Quimby N. Evans gave a luncheon Tuesday afternoon. Yellow and white were used in the table appointments, and the favors were silver vanity cases.

The company included, besides the hostess and her guest of honor, Miss Elsie Stafford, Miss Pauline Casamajor, Miss Grace Schwannhauser, Miss Ellen King, Miss May Martin, Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Emma Reichman.

A noteworthy wedding of the coming week will be that of Miss Gertrude Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman, of No. 114 Hicks street,

MISS ADA CUNNINGHAM
CAMPBELL STUDIO PHOTO

MRS. ALAN D. McLEAN
DAVIS & SANFORD PHOTO

MRS. IRWIN WILLIAMS DAY & HER ATTENDANTS
OBY MARCEAU

MISS DOLORES ALVAREZ
MARCEAU PHOTO

MISS STELLA SUTPHIN
DAVIS & SANFORD PHOTO

and Albert Thayer Salsbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Romeyn A. Salsbury, of No. 25 Washington avenue. It is to be a home ceremony at 8 o'clock, witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends, but the attendance at the reception which will follow half an hour later will be slightly larger.

Miss Edith Walbridge will be the bride's only attendant, and Duncan Struthers, of Manhattan, is to be the best man. Robert Ellwell Moffett, of Brooklyn, and John Feeny, of Manhattan, will serve as ushers.

The bride made her debut two years ago, and has since been one of the most active young women in the social life of the Heights. Previous to her debut she spent much of her time abroad.

Of particular interest to the older generation is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Wheelock Spring, daughter of George W. Spring, of Manhattan, to Francis Schroeder Arguinbau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Arguinbau and a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Schroeder.

Although only relatives witnessed the marriage of Miss Marion Gellen and David A. Sullivan, which took place on Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry J. Gellen, No. 503 1st street, the wedding was of widespread interest. The bride and all her sisters are graduates of Packer, and before the death of Mr. Gellen, last spring, they were frequent entertainers.

Miss Viola Gellen was her sister's only attendant, and Waldemar Oimstead acted as best man. The Rev. J. T. Woods and the Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar officiated. Miss Gellen's gown was of white chiffon and lace, and she carried a shower of lilies-of-the-valley and bride roses.

Miss Mabel Appelgate Handy, who is to marry the Rev. Harry Jevins Fenwick, of San Antonio, Wednesday evening, in the Church of the Redeemer, will be attended by a maid of honor, Miss Etta Doherty, and four bridesmaids—Miss Gladys Handy, Miss Gertrude Sackman, Miss Mabel Birbeck and Miss Jessie Lohenhaupt.

The best man is to be Harry Erlacher.

and chosen for ushers are George H. Daltzell, Fred B. Daltzell, A. Presby Collum and George W. Hall.

The Rev. J. S. Johnson, Bishop of Western Texas, will perform the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. T. J. Lacey, pastor of the church. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Brierley Daltzell, No. 111 Bainbridge street. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jane Handy, of No. 102 St. John's Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Hyatt's home, at No. 121 Buckingham Road, known in Flatbush as the Japanese house and built in that fashion for Dean Alford, was decorated with white chrysanthemums and greenery Wednesday evening for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Natalie Hyatt, and Elliott Jaffray Creighton. The Rev. E. V. Collins officiated.

The bride's gown was of embroidered crepe, embellished with pearls, and she wore a veil of Brussels lace. Her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Ruth Davidson, was gowned in blue brocade, studded with rhinestones. Mr. Creighton, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Creighton, of Clinton avenue, had as best man his brother, Harold Creighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Creighton sailed yesterday to spend their honeymoon abroad. They will return about the end of November.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Helen Fischer and Eugene Bird Coler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bird S. Coler, of No. 170 New York avenue.

Miss Fischer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Fischer, of Huntington, Long Island. She was educated at the Adelphi Academy and Briarcliff.

Mrs. Richard Frazer Rae, of No. 65 Gates avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mabel Rae, to John T. Matchett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Matchett, of No. 274 Hancock street.

Miss Rae was graduated from Smith in 1907. She is a sister of Stephen Rae, who is to marry Dorothy Sexton Newcomb on October 15, and of Robert Edmund Rae, the fiancé of Miss Bernice Wolgamot, of Manhattan.

The Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church was the scene Wednesday evening of the wedding of Miss Louise Lefferts Millard, daughter of Mrs. Lefferts Millard, and Frank Jay Roth. The Rev. Dr. John Elwy Lloyd performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, No. 1001 Dorchester Road. The decorations consisted of pink roses and chrysanthemums and greenery.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Millard, was gowned in white charmeuse and Irish point and wore a tulle and lace veil. She carried lilies of the valley and bride roses. A cousin of the bride, Miss Edna W. Terhune, acted as maid of honor. There were two little flower girls, the Misses Marion Haig and Lola Lonsworth.

Charles Roth was his brother's best man, and the ushers were William Moorehead, Herbert Morgan, Leeds Miller and Benson Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth sailed yesterday on the Olympic to spend two months abroad. On their return they will make their home in Manhattan.

Miss Helen Jourdan will be the only attendant of her cousin, Miss Mildred Hampton Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Ross, when she marries John Clinton Robbins, Jr., Wednesday afternoon, October 18. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents, No. 71 Gates avenue, at 4 o'clock, with only relatives and intimate friends present.

Mr. Robbins, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clinton Robbins, of Babylon, Long Island, will have his brother, James