THE WEATHER REPORT

Forecasts and Records of the Last Twenty-four Hours.

Official Record and Forecast.—Washington, March 13.—The pressure is high generally, except along the north border, from the great lakes westward and on the south Pacific Coast. This pressure distribution has resulted in generally fair weather over the United States, with temperatures decidedly above the normal west of the Mississippi River, and relatively low but rising temperature throughout the Eastern and Southern states. Abnormally warm weather is general over the plains states and the Rocky Mountains region. The indications are that the weather will be fair Saturday and Sunday over practically the entire country. Temperatures will rise Saturday, and probably Sunday, over much of the country east of the Mississippi River, while warm weather will continue over the plain states and the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions.

Winds for Saturday and Sunday: North Atlantic, light to moderate west; Middle Atlantic, light, variable; south Atlantic and East Gulf, light, variable; West Gulf, light, variable, becoming moderate south; Lake Michigan, moderate southwest, becoming west.

Forecast for Special Localities.—Eastern New York, fair to-day and probably to-morrow; rising temperature; light to moderate west winds.

Western New York, fair to-day and Sunday; rising temperature; moderate southwest winds.

New England, fair to-day and probably to-morrow; rising temperature; light to moderate west winds.

New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia and Virginia, fair to-day and to-morrow; rising temperature; light, variable winds.

Western Pennsylvania, fair to-day and to-morrow; rising temperature; moderate southwest winds.

West Virginia, fair to-day and to-morrow; rising temperature.

Local Official Record.—The following official record from the Weather Bureau shows the changes in the temperature for the last twenty-four hours, in comparison with the corresponding date of last year:

KELLEY'S ARMY FISHING

Yolo County Unable to Compel the Men to Move On.

Sacramento, Cal., March 13.—While the authorities of Sacramento and Yolo counties argued to-day over their disposition members of "General" Kelley's army of the unemployed, which started from San Francisco for Washington, basked in the sunshine, fished from the Yolo levee and enjoyed an abundance of food supplied by the labor unions of Sacramento.

The Sacramento citizens' committee withdrew its verbal offer to furnish transportation for fifty miles to members of the army, and the Sacramento District Attorney vetoed any move toward assisting in the internal affairs of another county. These actions left Yolo County without the money or men to enforce its ultimatum that the unemployed must be moved before nightfall.

BUSINESS REVERSES

MESSING & BECKERMAN, manufacturers of underwear, at No. 2842 Broadway, filed schedules showing liabilities of $22,262; assets, $18,222, the principal items of which are accounts, $15,022, and stock, $2,010.

Japan Pottery Show to Close.

The loan collection of selected rare examples of antique Oriental pottery now being held by the Japan Society at the galleries of M. Knoedler & Co., No. 556 Fifth avenue, will be open only one more week, March 21 being the closing day. It is said to be probably the most splendid exhibition of the sort ever held. Admission is free.

RESORTS. NEW JERSEY. ATLANTIC CITY.

Each Day Adds Increasing Numbers To the Gay Throng on the Boardwalk at

Atlantic City

America's Famous All-Year Resort.

It is at this time of the year that Atlantic City is seen at its best. The Lenten season brings added numbers each year and the famous Boardwalk, bathed in sunshine by day and brilliantly illuminated at night, is alive with gay and happy pleasure seekers to whom the resort is a never ending source of delight.

The climate is delightful—no harsh winds, but plenty of sunshine and invigorating salt sea air—and unlimited opportunities for recreation and pleasure.
