

RACING A MAGNET FOR SOCIETY

Meet at Hewlett Park Acts as Curtain Raiser for the Season.

SOCIETY was well represented yesterday afternoon at Hewlett Bay Park, where the first of the series of spring race meets scheduled for Long Island took place. Many went out from the city by special train, but the majority motored to the track from country places on Long Island, taking guests who are spending the week end with them. In the evening there were informal dances at the big estates for their guests. This form of entertainment will keep up from Friday until Monday till the summer season begins, for meets have been arranged for every Saturday until the international polo games are played on the Meadow Brook field, in June.

Next Saturday the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association will hold its spring meeting on Harry Payne Whitney's estate, in the Wheatley Hills. They will follow the racing under the auspices of the United Hunts Racing Association at Belmont Park, and the meeting at Fingert Rock, in June.
