

Law Tennis Cycling Motor Boating Over Sports

Sardanaple Captures the Grand Prix by a Neck

Rothschild Horse Sets a Mark for Longchamps in Turf Classic.

BIG CROWD THRILLED BY DRIVING FINISH

Durbar II Runs Third—President Poincare and Other Dignitaries Present.

Paris, June 28.—The Grand Prix de Paris, the turf classic of France for three-year-old colts and fillies, was won here today by Baron Maurice de Rothschild's Sardanaple, which recently won the Prix du Jockey Club, the French Derby.

La Farina was second and Herman R. Durbar II third. The latter horse ran third to Sardanaple in the French Derby.

The Grand Prix de Paris carried a purse of $60,000. The distance was one mile and seven furlongs.

Sardanaple was favorite in the betting at 10 to 1 and rewarded his backers for their confidence by winning in the record time of 1:11 3/4.

La Farina was second and Herman R. Durbar II third. The latter horse ran third to Sardanaple in the French Derby.

The popularity of the contest which has been in progress among the riders has closed and the counting of the race is under way.

Clark Leading in Popularity Contest at Velodrome.

Rain halts cycle races. The popularity contest which has been in progress among the riders has closed and the counting of the race is under way.

Eastern Star Sets Motor Boat Record. Winner in Class B of New York to Albany and Return.

The feature of the New York Motor Boat Club's 276-mile race to Albany and return, which finished yesterday afternoon, was the performance of the open boat Eastern Star, owned by E. L. Finch.

Everything contributed toward making the day one of the most brilliant in the history of the French turf.

Sardanaple won by a short neck, with Durbar II and La Farina behind him.

Everything contributed toward making the day one of the most brilliant in the history of the French turf.

A painful impression was caused by the news of the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

Most of the prominent Americans who were present last night at the Moran saw the race, and wagered large sums on Durbar II.

From a sporting point of view the race was of unusual interest.

Polo Admirers to Be Entertained. Islip and Rockaway Hunting Clubs Plan Programme of Three Games a Week.

The Islip Polo Club and the Rockaway Hunting Club will grant three days a week to the votaries of polo, until July 11.

Johnson Continues Griffith's Suspension. Chicago, June 28.—President Johnson of the American League yesterday continued the indefinite suspension of Clark Griffith and his brother, Joseph E. Griffith.

Nunziata Wins Three Mile Bicycle Race by Inches. Thrills Galore in Contest at Clare Men's Games—Deberry Captures Novice Run.

ANXIOUS TO SEE HALL AND INMAN CREATE SENSATION

Myriad of Golfers Looking Forward to Tourney at Sleepy Hollow.

FIRST APPEARANCE OF CHAMPION IN STATE

Evans, Travis, Herreshoff and Kirkby Also Will Be Among Those to Compete.

The news that Francis Quimet, Charles Evans, Jr., Walter J. Travis, Fred Herreshoff and Oswald Kirkby will be among those to start in the invitational tourney of the Sleepy Hollow Country Club next week is refreshing indeed to the myriad of golfers in this region.

Clark Leading in Popularity Contest at Velodrome.

Rain halts cycle races. The popularity contest which has been in progress among the riders has closed and the counting of the race is under way.

Eastern Star Sets Motor Boat Record. Winner in Class B of New York to Albany and Return.

The feature of the New York Motor Boat Club's 276-mile race to Albany and return, which finished yesterday afternoon, was the performance of the open boat Eastern Star, owned by E. L. Finch.

Everything contributed toward making the day one of the most brilliant in the history of the French turf.

Sardanaple won by a short neck, with Durbar II and La Farina behind him.

Everything contributed toward making the day one of the most brilliant in the history of the French turf.

A painful impression was caused by the news of the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

Most of the prominent Americans who were present last night at the Moran saw the race, and wagered large sums on Durbar II.

From a sporting point of view the race was of unusual interest.

Polo Admirers to Be Entertained. Islip and Rockaway Hunting Clubs Plan Programme of Three Games a Week.

The Islip Polo Club and the Rockaway Hunting Club will grant three days a week to the votaries of polo, until July 11.

Johnson Continues Griffith's Suspension. Chicago, June 28.—President Johnson of the American League yesterday continued the indefinite suspension of Clark Griffith and his brother, Joseph E. Griffith.

Nunziata Wins Three Mile Bicycle Race by Inches. Thrills Galore in Contest at Clare Men's Games—Deberry Captures Novice Run.

Myriad of Golfers Looking Forward to Tourney at Sleepy Hollow.

FIRST APPEARANCE OF CHAMPION IN STATE

Evans, Travis, Herreshoff and Kirkby Also Will Be Among Those to Compete.

The news that Francis Quimet, Charles Evans, Jr., Walter J. Travis, Fred Herreshoff and Oswald Kirkby will be among those to start in the invitational tourney of the Sleepy Hollow Country Club next week is refreshing indeed to the myriad of golfers in this region.

Clark Leading in Popularity Contest at Velodrome.

HAL AND INMAN CREATE SENSATION

Vanquish Touchard and Washburn in Knellwood Doubles Match.

WINNERS PROVE TO BE BETTER "MUD HORSES"

Mahan and Bull Also Reach Final—Behr and Pell Default to Beekman and Tobey.

Walter Merrill Hall, a former Middle States champion, and Frederick C. Inman, twice metropolitan champion, created a sensation yesterday when they defeated Gustave F. Touchard, national indoor champion, and Watson M. Washburn, holder of the metropolitan championship in 1913, at 9-7, 6-4, on the turf courts of the Knellwood Country Club, near White Plains, in an annual men's invitation doubles tournament.

The tournament was arranged by the U. S. N. L. T. A. for the purpose of developing a doubles team for the Davis cup matches.

Touchard and Washburn are the Eastern doubles champions, and ranked as the third best doubles team in the United States last year.

The second set was easier for the winners, who played every shot hard, and their opponents' court with rapid fire of smashes and corner-court shots, winning at 6-4.

Mahan and Bull met with unexpected success in their first match, but were defeated by Beekman and Tobey, who were the other two who came through to the final with Hall and Inman.

The final round match between these teams was started about 5 o'clock, but after the first set had been played, the rain, which had been continuing itself to a steady drizzle up to that time, began to come down in earnest, and the players were forced to postpone the struggle until some other day.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

Touchard and his partner were regarded as almost certain winners of the tournament, especially after it became known that Hall and Inman had defaulted, thus giving Leonard Beekman and Allen Tobey, against whom they were drawn in the first round, a draw.

ITALIANS LIKELY TO FIGHT ABOUT PEACE

Garibaldi Day May See Big Clash of Nationalists and Anti-Militants.

PATRIOT'S NEPHEW TO JOIN IN FRAY

Trial of Tarrytown I. W. Disturbers July 6—Sinclair Case Up To-day.

According to present indications, all kinds of trouble threaten to break loose next Saturday when the Italians of this city take advantage of the Fourth of July holiday to pay their annual observance to the great Garibaldi.

The Italian members of Alexander Berkman's Anti-Militarist League have refused firmly to take part in any celebration that calls for the lavishing of praise upon the Italian government, and are laying plans for a counter-celebration of their own.

In years past the Italians have been a unit in their observance of Garibaldi Day, but the recent anarchistic developments in Italy have split the Nationalists into two camps.

The celebration this year is to take place at Liberty Park, Staten Island, and will include the customary number of patriotic speeches.

The Anti-Militarists, however, maintain that Garibaldi certainly would not have been alive during the recent disturbances, and as evidence of this they have enlisted the services of a nephew of Garibaldi, who will attend the celebration as an ally of the Anti-Militarists and endeavor to explain his uncle's policies.

Liberty Park has been selected by the Anti-Militarists as their place of meeting, and by argument or otherwise, they will endeavor to convince the Nationalists that the Italian anarchists have suffered great wrongs.

The Nationalists have warned the Anti-Militarists not to attempt to interfere with their meeting, and these are many rumors of potential trouble in the air.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Alexander Berkman and others will address a meeting at 85 East 4th st. to-night.

This will be a meeting of the Carlo Treves Defence Committee to protest against the trying of Treves for inciting to riot in the Paterson strike.

Treves comes up for trial to-morrow. The trials of the three newspaper prisoners who invaded Tarrytown have been postponed from July 1 to July 6, when the invaders will come up before the grand jury.

At the Ferrer School to-morrow night a meeting will be held to decide upon the course of action to be taken by the I. W. W. will follow John D. Rockefeller, jr., to Maine or confine their free-speech endeavors to Tarrytown.

4 HURT AS AUTO SPEEDS INTO TREE

Car Runs Wild Down Hill—Driver Brakes Wreck to Escape Cliff.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 28.—Four persons were severely injured in an accident on Sport Hill, the hill climbing course of Bridgeport, and a large touring car was wrecked to-night when a brake band broke as the party coming from Danbury to this city reached the summit.

The car travelled about 400 feet and had attained a speed of eighty miles an hour, when in rounding a left hand curve the driver saw that he must either run into a tree or shoot fifty feet below the precipice at this point.

As the car struck the tree it crumpled up like an envelope, hurling the occupants out.

Jacob H. Harter, of Sherrill, N. Y., the owner and driver of the car, was crushed between the front seat and the steering wheel and then tossed to the roadway. Three of his ribs on the left side were fractured.

William Murphy, 490 Logan st., Bridgeport, sustained shock and probable internal injury.

Patrick Broderick, 883 Stratford av., received a broken nose and lacerations about the body, resulting from being thrown through the glass windshield and Thomas F. Maher, 70 Jetland Place, a broken right shoulder blade and a fracture of the left wrist.

A passing auto conveyed the injured to St. Vincent's Hospital in this city.

DAVID S. SLADE. Fall River, Mass., June 28.—David S. Slade, a former member of the Governor's council, died to-night. He had served several terms in the Legislature.

How Ball Players Act When Birthdays Appear

Mullin Celebrated His in 1912 by Pitching a No-Hit Game Against St. Louis Browns.

Frank J. Navin, owner of the Detroit Tigers, is considering the suggestion made to him that whenever any of his players is to have a birthday the fact be announced in the papers in the city where they are performing.

It appears that on July 4, 1912, the Detroit papers called attention to the fact that George Mullin would that day celebrate his thirty-second birthday.

Portly George, now with the Indianapolis Reds, proved some celebrator, for he not only blanketed the Browns in runs, but denied them hits, too.

On the morning of April 18 last a Detroit paper carried a story that Sam Crawford was observing his thirty-fourth birthday, it being pointed out in the tale that "Wahoo Sam" on his birthday was not in the habit of batting heavily and that his average for the games he played on April 18 from 1902 on, had been just below .300.

Sam, noting this fact, proceeded to bat at a 500 hit average, and he was out of the game with four safeties, and on August 12, 1907, he conquered the Pirates and pitched the Giants into second place.

On August 12, 1911, it was fortunate for "Big Six" that he was not asked to work, as the Giants failed to get a run off "Dut" Chalmers of the Phillies.

Christ had an afternoon off on August 12, 1910, but on August 12, 1909, he shut the Cubs out with four safeties, and on August 12, 1907, he conquered the Pirates and pitched the Giants into second place.

On August 12, 1911, it was fortunate for "Big Six" that he was not asked to work, as the Giants failed to get a run off "Dut" Chalmers of the Phillies.

Christ had an afternoon off on August 12, 1910, but on August 12, 1909, he shut the Cubs out with four safeties, and on August 12, 1907, he conquered the Pirates and pitched the Giants into second place.

On August 12, 1911, it was fortunate for "Big Six" that he was not asked to work, as the Giants failed to get a run off "Dut" Chalmers of the Phillies.

Christ had an afternoon off on August 12, 1910, but on August 12, 1909, he shut the Cubs out with four safeties, and on August 12, 1907, he conquered the Pirates and pitched the Giants into second place.

On August 12, 1911, it was fortunate for "Big Six" that he was not asked to work, as the Giants failed to get a run off "Dut" Chalmers of the Phillies.

SENT TO CELL BY SCENT

Waiter's Bills Perfumed Same as Woman's Purse.

It's the perfume that Mrs. Hattie Murry uses that put Charles Schmidt behind the bars last night.

The reason Schmidt's story didn't sound as good to Lieutenant Tagowski, of the Conely Island station, as Mrs. Murry's did, she said the last $5 bills from her pocketbook while Schmidt was waiting on her table at the Brighton Beach Casino.

Schmidt said, "Huh! Anybody could have $5 bills, and the ones in his pocket didn't belong to Mrs. Murry, who promptly reported the matter to the police."

"Well, lieutenant, you smell 'em and then smell my pocketbook. If I'm wrong I'll give 'em and two others to this man."

Lieutenant Tagowski took a whiff and waved to two minions, who escorted Schmidt to the bastille. Mrs. Murry went to her home at No. 69 West 92d st., Manhattan.

"Tommy—Why do the ducks dive? Hark—Guess they must want to liquidate their bills."—Penn Free Press.

Larry Treppassing, is it? Just wait till we get him home. Every man'll do as he likes this—and this that won't 'll be made to.—Punch.

run. He was stepping right into 'em the time, too.

"But before a week was over, bang! he got another smash on the head, and away he went to the hospital. It wasn't such a fast shoot today as this time, but Kit took even longer to get well. He came back and played only three days before he got another smash on the head, and went down and out and back to his cot."

"The veteran that roomed with Kit tipped the manager off.

"Why, he stands a fine chance to get killed. What should he do for?" "You go down and see the nurse he's got at the hospital," said the old player.

"He'd been putting in pitchers for twelve years, and Kit's secret was a chink for him to figure out. The manager didn't take much stock in the story that he saw, but when he went to the hospital he saw that a few minutes later he had been deep in the 'sticks, but Harriet was a major leaguer.

FATHER REILLY HONORED

Church of Nativity Celebrates 25th Anniversary of Priesthood.

Yesterday marked the closing exercises of a week's celebrating in the Church of the Nativity, Second av. and 34th st., of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the priesthood of Rev. Dr. Bernard J. Reilly, the rector.

A solemn mass was said yesterday morning, with Rev. William J. Rafter as celebrant, and Rev. William S. Creeden as deacon, with the sermon by Monsignor J. McMahon.

Preceding the mass, a procession formed at the La Salle Academy, in 2d av., and marched to the church. In the procession were the Color Guard of the Knights of Columbus, with Captain Costigan in command.

More than 200 children in white and the numerous societies of the parish.

Father Reilly has spent twenty-three years of his priesthood in the Church of the Nativity, the other two years he was in charge of the first Catholic mission at Nassau, Bahamas Islands.

A gold purse of $100 was presented to him by his parishioners at a dinner in his honor at the Broadway Central last Wednesday night. More than 1,000 persons attended yesterday's mass.

FREE SHEET MUSIC

With Every Copy of The Sunday Tribune in Greater New York Only

Order YOUR COPY in Advance

EVERYBODY FOR BILLIARDS & BOWLING. Prices and terms... The Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co., 150 West 33d St., near E. 34th, New York.

SEEK MURDER IN BILLION. Tent "Preacher" Denounces Rockefeller for His Wealth. "Rockefeller must be a murderer," said Professor Charles T. Everson, of Chicago, in an address on "The Coming Social Revolution" at the opening night in "The Big Tent," 180th st. and Audubon av., under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventists.

Ten Fishermen Lost on Banks. Portland, Me., June 28.—Ten of the crew of the Gloucester fishing schooner "The Fish Hawk" were lost to-night, when the vessel was wrecked on the banks of the Penobscot river. The vessel was carrying a cargo of fish.

FREE SHEET MUSIC. With Every Copy of The Sunday Tribune in Greater New York Only. Order YOUR COPY in Advance.