REDMOND PLEADS FOR AID OF IRISH Wants Countrymen to Bear Share in War Against Common Foe. London, Sept. 16.—"The democracy of Great Britain has kept faith with Ireland and it is now the duty and honor of Ireland to keep faith with them," John Redmond, the Irish leader, says in a manifesto issued to-night in which he calls on Irishmen to bear their share in the war in which the Empire is engaged.

SAYS VANDERBILT CRITICISES ALLIES German Chamber Here Quotes Alleged Interview in the "Breslau Zeitung." The Chamber of German-American Commerce yesterday gave out an interview with Cornelius Vanderbilt taken from the "Breslau Zeitung." According to Heinrich Charles, secretary of the Chamber, the interview was given to a correspondent of the Breslau paper at Genoa, August 27. Mr. Vanderbilt is quoted as saying: "Even without considering all of Germany's achievements of culture and civilization, which are unequalled all over the world, and which will never be surpassed by England, no other country has so vital an interest in the welfare of the German nation as the United States. Under no circumstances can we allow our best citizens to be crushed. Our commercial relations with Germany are too strong and intimate a bond which would strike at the heart of Germany would also strike us and wound us fatally. I do not hesitate to call it the greatest disgrace of the twentieth century that England assisted France and Russia in the most monstrous crime which since the existence of civilized nations has been committed by the French and Russian nations, united through imbecile fanaticism and insane chauvinism. I am convinced that history will unanimously condemn the policy of England which more than those of France and Russia. I cannot believe that the English government will be supported very much longer by the English people. In fact, I much rather believe that this is the last day of the existence of the English empire, and that England will be the first power to withdraw from the European war; for, outside of America, it is England which is most interested in the existence of Germany. Degenerate France deserves to be destroyed. As regards France, America in losing her loses just as little as in losing Russia—the power representing the essence of everything detestable. Our wishes are with Germany, that through this ocean of blood and calamities she may keep the strength to evolve a new, magnificent, peaceful Europe under German leadership. The nation which has donated to the world so many gifts of culture and civilization, which, through discipline, organization, industry, creative and productive power, challenged the unlimited admiration of the present and the future, should not be allowed to disappear from Heaven and eternal justice which Germany should perish through a sacrilegious act of barbarism."

JOHN D. PROFITS AS VILLAGE QUILTS. John D. Rockefeller will be financially benefited by the dissolving of the Village of Hillside, the smallest village in the state, which last night closed the key in the safe and turned over its affairs to Supervisor John J. Sinnott with about $8,000 debts. It is the first time in the history of the state that a village has dissolved. Hillside has been a village for eight years. It obtained considerable notoriety when Fousen Stephens, chief of police, was locked up in his own jail, from which he let himself out with his own key. The village government was too expensive, and as a result of the dissolution, Mr. Rockefeller will save many millions of dollars, for his rate now will be reduced to that in force in the town. He was the largest real estate owner in the western end of the village.

CANADA SEEKING FUNDS Railroads Sound Bankers on Financing Deals. Powerful Canadian railroad and industrial corporations have been sounding New York bankers as to their attitude on new loans. Among those mentioned were the Canadian Pacific, which, according to one banker, would take any amount running from $500,000 to $40,000,000. This banker thought that the total of new financing which the Canadian corporations are seeking would total $100,000,000.
