

A. G. VAN DERBILT WHIPPED WOUNDED... Sleuth Says C. H. Wilson Asked Him to Murder Florence Schenck.

HORSEMAN USES STEED AS SHIELD... Five Shots Fired at White Plains Show, with Big Crowd Near.

VICTIM HIT IN FOOT... Assault Says He Was Offered $1,000 to Slay Girl—Death Threat Made.

Charles H. Wilson, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's stable manager, whose love affairs have furnished gossip for two continents, was backed up against a wall in the Vanderbilt stables at the Westchester horse show at White Plains yesterday afternoon and shot at five times by Frederick Schultz, who said he was a house detective at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

Wilson escaped with a slight wound in the foot. According to Schultz, Wilson promised him $1,000 to take Florence Rosser Schenck, with whom the famous whip had his best known affair, to San Francisco.

Schenck died last January from a broken heart, his friends said. It was after a conversation of ten or fifteen minutes' duration on this subject yesterday afternoon that Schultz suddenly pulled a revolver and emptied it at Wilson.

Papers found on the prisoner hint that he is a Frederick Pickering, formerly a stock speculator and broker, and that the shooting was the result of a plot in which several persons figured. There also were letters in "Schultz's" pockets from Dr. E. M. Schenck, Wilson, Florence Schenck, and one letter contained a lock of auburn hair, probably that of Miss Schenck.

The horse show was in progress and the boxes were full when Wilson had just shown Grace and Queen, a famous pair of Vanderbilt horses, in the ring and had taken a second place with them. He drove the pair to the stables and as he sprang forward and Wilson stepped out of the ring Schultz confronted him.

Woman's Name Mentioned. The pair slowly retired, talking, to one side of the stable. Schultz seemed to be insisting upon something which Wilson as doggedly refused. This continued for some time, until a woman standing near heard a woman's name mentioned several times. Schultz, greatly excited, then sprang back, fagged at the revolver in his pocket and fired three times, hitting Wilson.

Stable men rushed forward and wrested the revolver from Schultz, while others ran to the aid of the wounded man. The sound of the shooting was clearly audible outside in the boxes about the show ring, but the explosions were there, however, as to the name of the woman, who was in the judges' enclosure, and told him what had taken place. He rushed to the stable and the name of the woman was taken to the White Plains Hospital.

By that time Sheriff Doyle had arrived and taken charge of Schultz, who began to talk to the excited crowd around him. He declared that he had shot the death of Miss Schenck, whom Wilson cast off. Before he could talk further he was hustled away to a cell.

Wilson slightly wounded. Wilson, though in considerable pain until he reached the hospital, was found to have received only a slight flesh wound. After this had been dressed the manager returned to the market and sought relief of the entire financial situation. Rates have latterly declined sharply, sterling getting down to 2.49 1/2 for demand and only a cent higher for cables today, but they are still abnormally high, and the bankers believe the Federal Reserve Board by establishing a gold pool would be needed in a fund to take care of pressing foreign indebtedness, and the proposal was made that an informal conference be held at the suggestion of William Brewster, head of the Federal Reserve Board.

New York bankers said yesterday that the relief of the foreign exchange market meant the relief of the entire financial situation. Rates have latterly declined sharply, sterling getting down to 2.49 1/2 for demand and only a cent higher for cables today, but they are still abnormally high, and the bankers believe the Federal Reserve Board by establishing a gold pool would be needed in a fund to take care of pressing foreign indebtedness, and the proposal was made that an informal conference be held at the suggestion of William Brewster, head of the Federal Reserve Board.

ALL PARTIES UNITE ON HONEST PRIMARY... State Leaders in Accord on Guarding Integrity of Elections.

Chairmen of the state committees of the leading political parties united themselves in accord yesterday over the proposition that everything should be done to obtain an honest primary election and a fair count. The conference, held at the suggestion of William Barnes, head of the Republican State Committee, was attended by William Church Osborn, Democratic chairman; Theodore Douglas Robinson, Progressive; and Henry A. Bohannon, official leader of the Socialist party.

A letter was drafted to be sent to the Mayors of all the cities in the state asking them to have the police prepare lists by election districts of all enrolled voters who for any reason have become ineligible to vote Sept. 28. These lists, it is suggested, should be placed in the hands of the State Superintendent of Elections and the county committees interested.

elopement was revived when she and Wilson returned to this country on the same boat and Wilson dramatically cast her overboard. She was rescued by the crew. When customs officials demanded $100 duty the girl showed that she had but 50 cents to her name. Fellow passengers finally advanced enough money to get Miss Schenck ashore. She reportedly appealed to Wilson for help on that occasion, but he ignored her.

The girl talked freely of her escapade with Wilson, asserting that he married her, meaning that Wilson's wife who was living in East Orange, N. J., came on the scene. She began suit for divorce on the strength of the Schenck affair, and was given a decree with alimony.

Two years later Wilson was arrested in Madison Square Garden, where he was showing the Vanderbilt horses, and made to put up $5,000 bail to guarantee his payment of alimony. Rather than go to Ludlow street, where he was bound when help came, he furnished the money and was released.

Though Mrs. Wilson secured a financial recompense for her injuries, Miss Schenck was unable to gain any satisfaction from the suit. She sued Wilson for $100,000 for breach of promise, but the conflict between the conditions of this suit and her previous statements of marriage crippled the cause.

Repeated attempts were made to silence her. In 1908 Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, as the result of the Schenck affair, it is said, brought suit for divorce and secured it. This action is supposed to have been hastened by Miss Schenck's free discussion of the tragic death in Paris of a Mme. Ruiz, who is said to have killed herself after Alfred G. Vanderbilt left that city.

But the life of the café had its effect on the Schenck-Customs officials. Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

But the life of the café had its effect on the Schenck-Customs officials. Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Walter Kelly, manager of Felix Warburg's stable, was a witness of the shooting yesterday. He says that Wilson was drunk at the time and that the shooting was the result of a plot in which several persons figured. There also were letters in "Schultz's" pockets from Dr. E. M. Schenck, Wilson, Florence Schenck, and one letter contained a lock of auburn hair, probably that of Miss Schenck.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

Wilson was arrested at the Vanderbilts' horses at Brookton Fair in Massachusetts in the fall of 1910 when he met Miss Jane DeLahanty, daughter of an East Boston immigration inspector. They were married the following January, but the marriage was annulled. Schenck meanwhile had gone abroad and there was no outbreak from her on the occasion of the Wilson marriage.

MARCUS FILES SUIT TO DIVORCE WIFE... Montclair Man, Deserted by California Beauty, Now Seeks Decree.

Montclair Man, Deserted by California Beauty, Now Seeks Decree. Lawyer Hints Action Won't Be Defended.

After waiting two years, the time required by law since his young wife, Dorothy Cooksey Marcus, caused a sensation in Montclair by deserting her home, it became known yesterday that her husband, William Elder Marcus, jr., has filed a suit for divorce in the District Court of Chancery at Trenton, N. J., for a divorce.

The suit is brought on the grounds of desertion under the New Jersey laws. No answer to the complaint has been filed by Mrs. Marcus, and it is expected that she will defend the suit. In that case Mr. Marcus will obtain a temporary decree, which may be made permanent at the end of six months.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

Mr. Marcus is the son of the late Ralph Marcus, of Newark, counsel for the firm of Lunn, Tamplin, & Colyer, of Newark, counsel for the case or disclose the whereabouts of his wife. It is understood that Mrs. Marcus, who is in London with her mother, George B. Cooksey, of Pasadena, Cal., where she has spent most of the time since July, 1912, when she left her husband and two little daughters, Linda and Virginia, in New York.

spend with James R. Garfield, at Menasha, Wis. On September 20 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

WAR SAVES DEMOCRATS... Gives Them Hard Times Excuse, Wadsworth Says.

The war in Europe has been a lifesaver for the Democratic party, says James W. Wadsworth, Republican candidate for United States Senator. Mr. Wadsworth addressed an audience of three hundred at the 12th Assembly District headquarters, 167 West 57th st.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

On the afternoon of September 30 the Colonel will address a gathering of miners at Marion, Ill. The mines will be closed down and arrangements have been made for a man to accompany the Colonel on his trip to disperse the instructions of his physician not to speak in the open air.

BIG CLAFLIN STORE HERE TO LIQUIDATE... O'Neill-Adams Co. Said To Be Ready to Discontinue Business.

O'Neill-Adams Co. Said To Be Ready to Discontinue Business. Debt $5,000,000; $150,000 FOR MDSE.

Latter Creditors May Be Paid in Full—Firms Merged in 1906.

The O'Neill-Adams Company, which occupies two blocks in Sixth av. and employs several thousand persons, will soon be liquidated and the business discontinued, according to a trustworthy report in drygoods circles yesterday.

The liquidation is said to be the result of the embarrassment of the H. B. Clafin Company, and was agreed upon after a number of conferences between the company and its creditors. The Clafin company, the noteholders' committee and the general auditors' committee.

The O'Neill-Adams Company is controlled by the Associated Merchants Company, the directors of which held a meeting yesterday and, it is said, formally approved the plans for liquidating its affairs. The directors will meet again to-day.

It is understood that the attorneys for the receivers will formally apply to the United States Court to-day for permission for the receivers to complete the liquidation of the company. The liquidation, it is expected, will start next week, and run for a period of about six months.

Debt to Clafin $5,000,000. The O'Neill-Adams Company, it is said, owes the Clafin Company approximately $5,000,000, and until recently the prospect of a receivership was held to be imminent. Of the total indebtedness of the O'Neill-Adams Company approximately $150,000 represents merchandise which it is understood that assurances have been given that this will be paid in full.

The liabilities of the O'Neill-Adams Company have been a source of concern to the Associated Merchants Company ever since the failure. The creditors, it is understood, have insisted that the Associated Merchants Company, trading through its practical ownership of the drygoods store, was responsible for its liabilities in full.

An agreement has been reached, however, under which, it is said, the Associated Merchants Company will turn over $150,000 in notes to the Clafin receivers as a guarantee that the liquidation will bring not less than that sum. It is understood that $700,000 of these notes will mature on February 1, 1916, and the balance in 1916.

Aside from the $150,000 owing to merchandise creditors, the whole of the $5,000,000 indebtedness of the O'Neill-Adams Company, and it represents, so it is said, money and merchandise, with interest, which was not into the drygoods firm through Mr. Clafin.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

The liquidation of the O'Neill-Adams Company will be supervised by the receivers, who will be appointed by the United States Court. The receivers will be appointed by the United States Court.

WESTCHESTER FAIR TO GREET HIMMAN... Candidate Will Address Big Throng at White Plains To-day.

WESTCHESTER FAIR TO GREET HIMMAN. Candidate Will Address Big Throng at White Plains To-day.

Harvey D. Himman, who spoke in Cornwall last night, will reach this city this morning. He will spend several hours at headquarters in the Murray Hill Hotel, and in the afternoon will go to Westchester to speak at the fair.

Mr. Himman will devote next Friday and Saturday to this city, spending one night in Brooklyn and the other in Manhattan.

A delegation of East Side business men, headed by Arnold Kohn, vice-president of the State Bank, all of whom are members of the East Side Business and Professional Men's League, presented a set of resolutions to District Attorney Whitman yesterday, pledging him their support.

The committee was accompanied by Louis Jacobson, the Republican leader of the 8th Assembly District.

The Hedges Inevitable Legion, composed exclusively of veterans of the Civil and Spanish wars, has been organized to work for Job E. Hedges. It is announced that a primary brigade has been organized, with General George Moore Smith in command and Brigadier General Anson G. McKoon as chief of the war council. Colonel Henry L. Swords is adjutant general and Lieutenant Richard Curd Daniel assistant adjutant general.

Mr. Hedges spoke in Canaanogue last night. This morning he will speak in Buffalo, and in the evening at Niagara Falls, Lockport, and Niagara Falls.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

Mr. Whitman and Republican leaders who accompanied him, including Samuel S. Koenig and Charles Betts, State Commissioner from Wayne County, were pleased over the endorsement of the District Attorney's candidacy by the 16th Assembly District Republican organization, which was claimed by the Hedges forces.

SHANLEY'S Superior Six-Course Luncheon, 75c (Music) Cabaret Extraordinaire

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

Daily and Sunday Afternoon Dances... Contests Sept. 19th and 20th

AMUSEMENTS... THE DRAGON'S CLAW

AMUSEMENTS... THE DRAGON'S CLAW