

SOCIETY AT COUNTY HORSE SHOWS

Exhibitions in Connection with County Fairs at White Plains and Mineola Arouse Interest Among Members of New York's Fashionable Circles, Who Still Cling to Outdoor Recreations.

SINCE the close of the seasons at the summer resorts many members of society have returned to town for short stays and then scattered to Lenox, Tuxedo, Hot Springs and to country places on Long Island, along the Hudson, in Westchester County and New Jersey, where there is much social activity, especially over the week ends.

Throughout the week there were many attractions in the country for members of society in or near New York. The horse show at White Plains, which closed yesterday, was largely attended by members of the fashionable world, and it will be followed this week by the Mineola Horse Show, held in conjunction with the fair, and the Bryn Mawr Horse Show, which opens to-morrow and lasts throughout the week at the Bryn Mawr Golf Club, and beginning on Thursday, October 1, and lasting for three days, the twelfth annual horse show of the Piping Rock Association will be held.

Among the exhibitors at the Mineola show will be Willard D. Straight, Paul D. Cravath, Miss Vera Cravath, Payne Whitney, S. A. Warner Baltazzi, Philip Boyer, Mrs. Ralph Ellis, Mrs. Joseph E. Davis, W. R. Gray, Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Harry S. Ladew, W. Goadby Lowry, Henry C. Phipps, Mortimer L. Schiff and Mrs. A. Butler Duncan.

No date has been set for the marriage of Miss Gwendolin Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Condon, to Philip D. Armour, son of Mrs. Patrick A. Valentine. The engagement was announced during the summer.

Mrs. John Ellis Roosevelt will spend the autumn and early winter at Meadow-Croft, her country place at Sayville, Long Island.

Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Schuyler Schieffelin, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Amory S. Carhart and Mrs. J. Murray Mitchell are among the women who will have charge of tables at the bazaar to be given for the benefit of the Red Cross Relief Fund at the Tuxedo Clubhouse, on Friday and Saturday, October 9 to 10. A subscription list in connection with the bazaar has been opened by Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting and Mrs. Richard Mortimer.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, who are at the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the autumn, will open their town house, 3 East 64th st., early in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ludlow Fowler, jr., are the guests of Miss Lillian Cram at her country place in Stockbridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Naydal will return to town to-day from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they have spent the last four weeks.

Miss Mabel Ellis, of Newark, N. J., a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She was in cream lace and lavender chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of lavender asters. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Bryce, of this city, and Miss Lillian Hull, of Flatbush. They wore lace and chiffon gowns, with small net hats and carried pink roses.

Henry Wilkins, of this city, served as best man, and the ushers were Edward S. Billings and Winthrop Brown.

Miss Cynthia Eggleston Selyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elyse Selyle, of New York, will be married to Ernest Roy Strempel on Wednesday in the library of the Selyle home, at Lake George, which was built several years ago by Miss Selyle's grandfather, Edward Eggleston, the novelist and historian, who did some of his writings there.

Announcement recently was made of the engagement of Miss Aileen Elizabeth Lamprey, of 140 Claremont av., this city, to Dr. Webster Egan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Rogers, of 240 West 102d st., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Natalie Rogers, to Herbert B. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Wright, of 15 West 122d st.

MUCH ACTIVITY IN BROOKLYN SOCIETY

Procession of Brides and Debutants to Appear When Winter Arrives.

While the small fraction of society which has returned to town is still almost negligible, there are many indications that the coming season will be an active one. October and November will have a procession of brides, and at Thanksgiving will emerge the debutantes, who are more numerous this year than last, and who will constitute the first set of buds on this side of the river to have a ball of their own. Thursday, December 31, is the date set for the debutantes' ball, which will be given at the Heights Casino, under the patronage of Mrs. E. Dwight Church, Mrs. Edward Hinman and Mrs. James Guthrie Shaw. While only a few dates for receptions have been decided upon, a score or more of women have signified their intention of bringing out their daughters this winter. The first date announced is that for the debut of Miss Helen Hinman, daughter of Mrs. Edward Hinman, which will take place Wednesday, November 25, at her home, 110 Remsen st.

On Friday, November 27, Miss Edith Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Guthrie Shaw, of 29 Montgomery Place, will be presented. Mrs. Joel S. de Selding has chosen Monday, December 28, as the date for the introduction of her daughter.

One of the early autumn weddings of most general interest will be that of Miss Esther Whitney and Dr. Lefferts Hutton, on Wednesday, at Twilight Park, in the Catskills. Miss Whitney is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Carroll Whitney, of Clinton av., and ever since her debut, several years ago, has taken an active interest in the social and philanthropic work of Brooklyn. Mrs. Charles Connor, of Brookline, Mass., will be her only attendant. Dr. Hutton, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Hutton, of 237 West 80th st. and Twilight Park, will have his brother, Mancius Smedes Hutton, as best man. The ushers will be Charles Connor, Dr. John Garrett Underhill, of Brooklyn; Dr. Lester Hubby, Frank W. Hubby, jr., Arthur V. Lyall, of Manhattan, and Charles Whitney Dall, of Cedarhurst, Long Island.

The ceremony will take place at noon and will be followed by a breakfast at the Twilight Inn.

Miss Edith Platt Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gaylord Warner, whose engagement to Hamilton Patton was announced late last spring, is to be married on Thursday evening, October 15, in the South Congregational Church. She will have five attendants—her sister, Miss Marion Gray Warner, who is to be maid of honor, and Miss Emily Smith, Miss Helen Hodgman, Miss Irene Warner and Mrs. William Weston Patton (Elizabeth Boynton).

Miss Pauline Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mason, and Gomer Rees, whose engagement was announced in early summer, are to be married Saturday afternoon, November 7. The ceremony is to take place at 4:30 o'clock in the Church of the Pilgrims.

Of much interest on the Heights is the marriage of Miss Ruth Standish Baldwin and John Fulton Polinshe, which is to take place Saturday, September 26, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Henry Baldwin, in Washington, Conn. The Baldwins lived for many years in Willowdale, where the late Mr. Baldwin was president of the Long Island Railroad.

An out-of-town wedding will be that of Miss Florence Helen Bierwirth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julius Carl Bierwirth, of 253 Henry st., and Clarence Franklin Pritchard, which is to take place on Saturday, October 10, at Long Beach, Long Island, where the Bierwirths have their summer home.

The wedding of Miss Rowena Eloise Lawrence, daughter of L. W. Lawrence, of 254 Clinton av., and Robert Parker Staats, 2d, is set for Saturday, November 28. It will be a home ceremony, at 4 o'clock.

Miss Harriette Staples Wheeler will be married to Rowley W. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rowley Phillips, of 191 Gates av., Wednesday, September 30, at the home of her parents, Professor and Mrs. Arthur M. Wheeler, of Bracon Grove, Conn. It is to be a quiet wedding, to which only relatives and a few intimate friends have been bidden.

The bride's only attendant will be Miss Elizabeth Phillips, a young sister of the bridegroom. Francis T. Phillips is to act as best man for his brother, and the ushers will be Kenneth Wheeler, Kenneth Phillips, Thomas M. Salter and Andrew A. Smith, jr.

Miss Edith Lawrence Pinckney, when she marries George Francis Murnane on Wednesday, October 7, will be attended by her mother, Mrs. William Murnane, her sister, Mrs. Paul Webb; a maid of honor, Miss Julia Huff, and four bridesmaids, Miss Lois Burnham, Miss Irene Burtonshaw, Miss Alice Valentine, and Miss Rebecca Murnane.

The best man will be Richard Hamilton Street, and chosen for ushers are Albert U. Pinckney, Harold F. Blanche, George Innes Hartley, Edmund C. Schmitt, William De Lacy Goldsmith and William McFarlane Donaldson.

The ceremony is to be performed in St. Agnes's Church, at 4:30 o'clock, and half an hour later there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wall Pinckney, 27 Pierrepont st.

The last weeks of summer brought to light several engagements. To many that of Miss Elvia Zabrickie and Russell Troubridge Bailey is one of interest. She is the daughter of Mrs. Cornelius Zabrickie, for many years a prominent clubwoman, being formerly president of the state federation, and a staunch supporter of the Packer Institute, of which she and her daughters are graduates. Miss Zabrickie, whose sister is Mrs. Herbert Scoville, of Manhattan, was graduated in 1910, and takes leading part in all Packer affairs and in the social and philanthropic work of the borough. No date has been set for the wedding.
