ROOSEVELT OPINION OPPOSED IN LONDON

War Outcome, Says Editor, May Amend Estimate of Peace Treaties.

London, Sept. 29.—"The Daily News," commenting editorially on ex-President Roosevelt's article in "The New York Times," says: "Mr. Roosevelt has drawn a characteristic moral from war against war in Europe. The revolt against Prussian militarism inspired him with the conviction that what is really necessary is to get about copying it in America. He wants more battleships to save the United States from the fate of China and Luxemburg. The parallel does not seem calculated to impress American people, who are not supposed to be wanting in shrewdness. And, by an odd coincidence, Mr. Roosevelt's denunciation of pacifists synchronizes with the passing by the American Senate of Secretary Bryan's arbitration treaties with England, France and Spain."

"Mr. Roosevelt, presumably, sees in them nothing more than another example of treaties in which it is folly to trust unless they are backed by sufficient power to secure their enforcement. The answer is that they are backed by a power much more formidable than battleships or army corps. Many of the high hopes with which some ingenious idealists regard the war now going on in Europe are probably doomed to disappointment, but it is not extravagant to hope that one, at least, of them may be realized. It is slowly but surely Germany herself is learning by terrible experience the results of blunt defiance of civilized public opinion. We do not fancy that the end of the war will offer any representation to any other nation to imitate her insolent defiance of it, or the no less impudent contempt with which she presumes to defend her conduct when challenged."

Challenge for Steinbrink. When Meyer Steinbrink, Republican candidate for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, attempted to vote in Kings County, he was challenged by the board of primary inspectors on the ground that he had moved from one election district to another and was not enrolled.

Assistant Corporation Counsel McCook appeared for Steinbrink before Supreme Court Justice Benedict, and asked for an order directing the board of inspectors to show cause why his client should not be permitted to vote. It is shown that Steinbrink had been a registered voter at the last election and had moved from 163 Windsor Place, in the 29th Election District of the 12th Assembly District, to 1818 Fuller Place, which is in the 27th Election District of the same Assembly District.

Under Section 23 of the new election law, the board of inspectors may bring into court a review of the enrollment of any citizen whose vote is challenged, in order to show that he is not enrolled. This was not done, and Justice Benedict ruled that Steinbrink might vote in the 27th Election District, although his name did not appear on the rolls.

Commenting on the matter, Steinbrink said: "I am surprised at the result. It shows another loophole in the biggest fool primary law ever enacted. In my opinion, the decision would have been the same if I had moved from one Assembly district to another."

H. Lev, in the Harlem court, was charged until October 5. Lev, it was charged, attempted to vote in the Democratic primary, asserting that he had registered as a Democrat, while the inspectors charged that he had registered as a Progressive.

There was a row in the polling place of the 15th and 16th Election Districts of the 30th Assembly District, at 1807 W. 4th St., over the question whether white sample ballots given out instead of the official green Democratic ballots should be counted.

There is a fight in this district between Percy Nagle and Frank J. Hendrick for Democratic leadership. Morris Flores, at 105 East 125th St., in election district captain, made a protest on the ballots. He avers that one Levy, of 1702 Park av., the challenger, claimed that the sample ballots were all his.

Percy Nagle declared that the white ballots and the green ones were found. Flores contended that the white ballots should be counted, and Levy and the chairman said that they should not. An order from the Board of Election, advising that they should be counted, ended the dispute.

Nine men were arrested in an election district of the 3d Assembly District at the polling place at 68 Elizabeth St., charged with attempting to tamper with the ballots. They were later arraigned in the Tombs court before Magistrate Joseph Colombo, of 62 Bayard St., and 28 Bovey, of 28 Bovey, were discharged. The other seven were held in $500 bail each for examination.

Hennessy Won't Talk. Refuses to Make Comment on Vote in City. John A. Hennessy last night would make no comment on the result of the primaries. Franklin D. Roosevelt left here this morning at 1 o'clock for Boston to bring his family back to the city.

He and Mr. Hennessy evidently expected defeat in the City of New York and reserved their statements until the total count upstate was made known. The total count upstate to a certain extent.

GLYNN POINTS TO VOTE

"Figures Speak for Themselves," Says Governor.

Albany, Sept. 29.—Governor Glynn remained at the Executive Mansion to night and was kept informed of the results of the primary election through his newspaper, "The Times-Union." Asked by a reporter for "The Tribune" if he would make any statement on the election, he said: "The figures speak for themselves."

The early returns in this county, as well as in New York, showed a large majority for the Governor over Hennessy.

WHITMAN COHORTS IN JOYFUL MOOD

District Attorney Refuses to Make Comment Until All Returns Are In. Frederick C. Tanner, chairman of the Whitman campaign committee, as soon as the returns assured Whitman's nomination, gave out the following statement at midnight: "The vote for Judge Whitman proves beyond any argument that he is the people's choice and not that of any party."

HINMAN PLEASED AT HOME SUPPORT

Candidate Expresses Gratification for Support in His Own County. (By Telegraph to the Tribune.) Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Harvey D. Hinman said at 12:30 o'clock this morning: "Owing to the lack of returns from the upstate districts it is impossible for me to make any definite statement at this time."

MURPHY BREAKS CUSTOM

Chief Visits Wigwam First Time on a Primary Night. For the first time in the history of primary returns, Charles F. Murphy appeared in the downtown office building for the occasion, he ruminated a moment and then said he didn't think so. "But this is the first time I recall your being here on primary night," one of the old timers insisted. Mr. Murphy again went into executive session with himself. He finally admitted that perhaps he was doing something unusual.

SON HAS SIPP ARRESTED

Alleges Police Witness Was Too Friendly with Actress. George Sipp, who came into the limelight during the trial of the four police inspectors who served sentences on Blackwell's Island for bribery, is in the toils of the law in West New York, N. J. Sipp was arrested on complaint of his son, J. Howard Sipp, who alleged that the elder Sipp had been too friendly with an actress.

ONLY TWO WHITMAN NEIGHBORS DESERT

In Whitman's own district only two voters out of fifty-seven deserted the banner of their neighbor. Hinman and Hedges received one vote each and Whitman the remaining fifty-five. The Whitman district is the 21st of the 25th Assembly District.

WHITMAN WINS BY 50,000

County gave Hinman 468, Whitman 173 and Hedges 107. This proportion would give the county to Hinman by 2,000. 1,140 election districts out of the 1,780 in the City of New York for Republican nomination for Governor give: Hedges, 10,840; Hinman, 4,270; Whitman, 34,277. At midnight the estimated vote in Westchester County for Hedges was 1,400; Hinman, 720; and Whitman, 4,200; Wadsworth, 3,200; Calder, 1,800, and Hill, 1,650.

The Republicans also claim to have carried their entire county ticket, and the organization Democrats also make the same claim.

Returns for Governor (Republican) from 1,041 election districts outside New York City give: Hedges, 8,856; Hinman, 18,218; Whitman, 26,109. John W. Hutchinson, Jr., campaign manager for Mr. Wadsworth, said this morning that Wadsworth's nomination by a majority of 15,000 to 20,000 was assured. He asserted that returns he had received from fifteen upstate counties indicated a majority of 32,000 for Wadsworth, and he was confident that other upstate counties would increase this figure.

Oneida, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Estimated returns, based on one-third of the election districts in Madison County, give Hill, 58; Wadsworth, 52; Calder, 1,087; Roosevelt, 369; McDonough, 32; Gerard, 1,073; Hedges, 244; Hinman, 973; Whitman, 725; Hennessy, 407; Glynn, 932; Davenport, 312, and Sulzer, 98.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Estimates of the total vote in Tompkins County: For Hinman, 900; Whitman, 1,200 to 1,500; and Glynn and Gerard by 1,000. Davenport has carried the Progressive primaries. Frederick Hicks has won out in the Republican primaries for Congress.

Canandaigua, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Ontario County probably gives Hinman a plurality of 100; Glynn, 400; Davenport, 50; Wadsworth, 600, and Roosevelt, 350.

Indications are that Whitman and Calder have carried Suffolk County by 1,200 to 1,500, and Glynn and Gerard by 1,000. Davenport has carried the Progressive primaries. Frederick Hicks has won out in the Republican primaries for Congress.

CHARGE TAMMANY ELECTION FRAUD

Wilson Men Say Sample White Ballots Were Counted in Westchester. Charges of fraud followed the count in Westchester County, which showed that Tammany's allies, led by Deputy Controller Michael J. Walsh, of Yonkers, had beaten the Wilson Democracy about two to one. Ex-Assemblyman Vernon M. Bovie, the Wilson leader, and Coroner James P. Dunn, candidate for Sheriff, will begin action to-day to have the entire primary election upset.

They charge that the regular green ballots were distributed outside the polls, and that sample white ballots were counted. Terence A. Brady, a Wilson watcher in the 9th Ward of Yonkers, has two green ballots in his possession. He says he can prove that several men voted the Wilson ticket in the ward, though the count shows only one ballot cast for the opposition candidate.

Mayor Edwin W. Flaks of Mount Vernon defeated Bovie for the state committee, polling all but 200 votes out of 1,200 cast in his home city. Senator John F. Tamm, of New Rochelle, defeated former City Judge Frank J. Lamb, of White Plains, who sought the nomination.
